That the report of the Foreign Mission Committee be received and its recommendations considered at a subsequent Sederunt, and that the following resolutions be adopted:

1. That the Assembly record gratitude to God for the many evidences of blessing resting upon the work of our foreign missionaries, during the past year, and for the ever enlarging opportunities and brightening prospects of work in the Foreign Field.

2. That the General Assembly express deep and prayerful sympathy with the missionaries in India who through famine and plague have been made to witness such appalling suffering and death, and that they, and especially those missionaries whose friends have fallen, be commended to the tender compassion and sustaining grace of Him in whose service these precious lives have been surrendered.

3. That the General Assembly express a sympathy with the native Church in Korea and other lands, that are suffering the scourge of war, and pray that their faith may not fail,—that through this affliction they may be sanctified, and that, even whilst in the furnace, many may be added to the Church of such as are being saved.

4. That the General Assembly express gratification with the response to the appeal of Dr. K. J. Grant for the extinction of the debt which rested upon the Foreign Mission Fund administered by the Eastern Section of the Committee; and also with the response to the special appeal on behalf of the deficit, in connection with the Foreign Mission Fund of the Western Section; that at the same time the Assembly express their solicitude on account of the inadequacy of the normal revenue of the Church to meet the growing requirements of the foreign work to which the Church is committed, and appeal to pastors and sessions and congregations for a more earnest sympathy, more systematic and proportionate methods of giving with a view to larger liberality toward this work, of such far-reaching and blessed influence, and a work that lies so near to our Saviour's heart.

Further, that the Assembly would emphasize the fact that the increasing urgency of work, for which the Church is responsible, calls for concentration of effort and carefulness lest the gifts of our people be dissipated upon objects of less consequence and thus to that extent our own work be hindered.

The motion was seconded by Dr. J. Fraser Smith, and adopted.

AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND.

The Assembly called for the report of the special Committee on the Amalgamation of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Funds, East and West.

The report was presented and read by Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Convener, who moved that it be received and its recommendations considered.

The motion was seconded and agreed to.

The following is the report, the recommendations of which were severally adopted:

The joint Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, composed of those members of the Assembly's Standing Committees, East and West, present at this Assembly, beg to report that two meetings have been held at which the following matters referred to it by the Assembly have had careful consideration, namely :—

First.—The question of the amalgamation of the two funds, East and West.

Second.—The question of extending the age, during which connection with the Fund for benefit may be made, from 55 to 60.

Third.—The proposed amendment to the second clause of Rule 9, by which ministers failing to connect with the Fund within four years following the date of ordination or induction shall forfeit right to connect or receive benefit.

In regard to the first, which deals with the question of the amalgamation of the Funds, the Committee gave careful consideration to it. It had before it data, based on special returns obtained through the Presbyteries of both sections of the Church. From these the following had been deduced :—

(a) The number of ministers in active service in each section, namely: In the Western Section, 929 ; in the Eastern Section, 241.

(b) The average age of ministers in each section : In the West, 46 ; in the East, 46.5.

(c) The average length of service : In the West, 20 years ; in the East, 15 years.

(d) The probability of attaining the age of 70 : In the West, 4,953 ; in the East, 4,986.

(e) The question of the Capital Fund, which should be brought in to the Amalgamated Capital Fund by the Eastern Section. The present capital of the Western Section is $223,000. The relative amount which should be brought in by the Eastern Section is $57,861.

In regard to the slight difference in the average age, it was decided to ignore it and deal with the matter as of equal average age, and also to accept the capital of the Eastern Section as it now stands, namely, $55,000.

After mature consideration, on motion, unanimously adopted, it was agreed to recommend to the General Assembly that the two Committees and Funds be amalgamated, and that the funds, Capital and Ordinary be transferred to Dr. Warden, Agent of the Church.

It was further agreed that in the Eastern Section annuities be paid up to the 30th of June, instant, and that the transfer of the funds be as of July 1st of the present year.

In regard to the extension of the age for connection up to 60, this also had the most careful consideration from the Committee. On motion, duly seconded, the following decision was unanimously affirmed :—That in the opinion of this joint meeting it is inadvisable to extend the age limit beyond fifty-five years.

In regard to the matter of amending Rule 9, second clause, brought before the Assembly in the report from the Western Section, it was agreed to recommend an addition to the second clause, limiting the time within which ministers hereafter ordained or inducted, may connect with the Fund or forfeit right to connection.

The joint Committee, therefore, beg to recommend to the Assembly as follows:—

First.—That the two Funds, East and West, be amalgamated under one Committee to be chosen from both sections ; that annuities to those drawing benefit from the Fund in the Eastern Section be paid up to June 30th, 1904, after which date the funds belonging to the Eastern Section to be transferred to Rev. R. H. Warden, D.D., Agent of the Western Section of the Church.

Second.—That the age for connection with the Fund be not extended beyond fifty-five, at present fixed under Rule No. 3.

Third.—That Rule 9 be amended by the addition of the following to the second clause :—Four years following ordination or induction shall be allowed, within which connection may be made, and failure to do so will bar right to connection.

Fourth.—It is further recommended that the number of members on the standing Committee be limited to twenty-one.

On motion of Mr. Macdonald, seconded by Judge Forbes, the report was adopted as a whole.

OVERTURE RE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND.

There was presented and read an Overture from the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, craving that annuities be apportioned among the beneficiaries according to years of service, irrespective of their being rate-paying ministers or not, due consideration to be given to cases of individual need.

He moved, seconded by Dr. Bryce, that the Assembly receive the Overture and grant its prayer.

Mr. W. A. J. Martin was heard further regarding matters affecting the work carried on by the Committee in Central India.

He reported that a change had been made in the basis of Union between the Presbyteries in India wanting to form the Presbyterian Church of Christ in India. At the Vancouver Assembly sanction was given to the Presbytery of Indore to enter that union. The Foreign Mission Committee, however, reports the change in basis which had to do with the relationship of the missionaries to the native Presbyteries and to the Home Church, and asks that that sanction be re-affirmed, and that the Foreign Mission Committee determine upon what the relation of our missionaries to the native Presbyteries should be.

The request was granted.

Dr. Baird moved, seconded by Mr. W. Adamson, as follows :—

The Assembly expresses its satisfaction with the diligence and faithfulness with which the Foreign Mission Committee has discharged the duties entrusted to it.

The Assembly approves the judgment of the Foreign Mission Committee, that a new mission established by our Church in India, having no communication with our present mission because of alienations, would be wrong in principle and not in the interest of the cause of Christ in India or in Canada, and declares accordingly.

The Assembly deprecates any movement looking towards an organization bearing the name "Canadian Presbyterian Mission," whose aim is the prosecution of mission work in Central India, as contrary to the principles of Presbyterianism, calculated to mislead as to the relation of such organization to the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and as detrimental to our Foreign Mission interests.

To this motion Principal Scrimger offered the following amendment, seconded by Dr. Bryce :—

That while recognizing the conscientious diligence of the Foreign Mission Committee in dealing with the long continued difficulties of the Indore Mission, and its sincere desire to arrive at a permanent solution of them by accepting Dr. Wilkie's resignation, and its refusal to send him back to that or any other field in India, yet in view of the wide difference of opinion in the Church as to the wisdom of that course and the anxiety of many members of the Church to have him return to India, and their expressed willingness to support him there, the Assembly instruct the Committee to open a new field in the Gwalior or some other district of Central India, and appoint him thereto as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

During the progress of the discussion of the motion and amendment, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the further consideration of the question was postponed for the present.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again at this place, this evening, at a quarter to eight o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

The Minutes of the last Sederunt were read and sustained.

REPORT OF BUSINESS COMMITTEE.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Business, which was given in and read by Dr. Warden, Convener, on whose motion, duly seconded, it was received and adopted, and the business was ordered accordingly.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS CONTINUED.

Before proceeding to the further discussion of the Foreign Mission report, it was agreed to limit the speakers to five minutes each, except the Convener, to whom more time should be allowed if he desired it.

Mr. J. A. Ross moved in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Mr. A. E. Smith, as follows :—

The Assembly having carefully deliberated on and considered the difficulties in connection with our Central India Mission, reaffirms its belief that the Foreign Mission Committee has acted with much wisdom and patience in its conduct of the whole trying situation, and being aware of the action of a number of brethren, honoured members of the Presbyterian Church, in their expressed intention of founding an independent mission, hereby express its deep regret at said action.

The Assembly also, after hearing the clear and masterly statement of the Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee re the action of said Committee with regard to the mission in the Central India Mission, and in view of the careful and prayerful investigation of the Commission appointed at last Assembly, and with the strong desire of maintaining peace and furthering the Lord's work at home and abroad, this Assembly hereby asks the Foreign Mission Committee to open a new mission field in India and appoint Rev. Dr. Wilkie to said field.

In the progress of discussion, Mr. Ross was, with the consent of his seconder, allowed by the Assembly to substitute the word instructs for "asks" in the last clause of his amendment.

This change being made, Principal Scrimger, with the consent of his seconder, asked leave of the Assembly to withdraw his amendment. The leave was granted.

Thereupon, Mr. R. E. Knowles moved, seconded by Mr. S. Acheson :—

That whereas, Dr. Wilkie is possessed of gifts and experience which may be of effective service in the mission field ;

And whereas, there seems to exist a widespread misgiving as to Dr. Wilkie's future attitude toward and loyalty to the Foreign Mission Committee ;

The Assembly, in view of all the past difficulties between Dr. Wilkie and the Foreign Mission Committee, and still affirming its complete confidence in the Foreign Mission Committee, resolves that ten assessors be appointed by the Assembly, to act with the Foreign Mission Committee, and that the Foreign Mission Committee be instructed to employ Dr. Wilkie in Foreign Mission work, if persuaded of the fulness of Dr. Wilkie's purpose to work with exclusive loyalty to the regularly constituted authorities of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

A vote being taken, the second amendment prevailed over the first amendment.

It was then put against the main motion and was lost.

Dr. Warden thereupon moved, and it was agreed, to divide the main motion into two parts the first ending with the words, "declares accordingly."

A vote being taken, the first part of the motion was carried, and became the finding of the house.

A vote was then taken on the second part of the motion, and it also was carried, and became the finding of the house.

MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to nominate a Committee on Union, which was given in and read by Dr. Somerville, Convener. No action was taken on the report, the desire being that members of Assembly should have time to consider it.

The Assembly adjourned to meet again at this place, this afternoon, at half-past two o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

SIXTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the same day, at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon :

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. W. J. Knox leading in prayer at the request of the Moderator.

The Minutes of the forenoon Sederunt were read and sustained.

MEMORIAL re INDIAN WORK IN THE NORTH-WEST.

There was presented and read a resolution, adopted by the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, recommending that the management of the Foreign Mission work should, like the Home Mission work within their bounds, be in the hands of a Committee of the Synod.

On motion of Dr. Warden, duly seconded, this communication was referred to the Foreign Mission Committee, with a request that they report on the subject to the next General Assembly.

The subject of the Industrial School at Regina, as set forth in the Foreign Mission report, was next taken up.

Mr. D. G. McQueen moved, seconded by Mr. W. L. Clay :—

That inasmuch as the Foreign Mission Committee has decided not to enter into any arrangement with the Indian Department that will involve financial responsibility for the maintenance of the Regina Industrial School ;

And whereas, certain events have transpired since that decision was arrived at that make it appear that an attitude, on the part of the Committee, makes it impossible to enter into any arrangement with the Department that will retain the school for our Church ;

And whereas, the surrender of the school and its possible occupation by our strongest rivals in Indian mission work would be a serious blow to both the efficiency and the prestige of our work in the West ;

Be it resolved, that this Assembly instruct the Foreign Mission Committee to enter into such arrangements with the Department as will retain the school, even if it will necessarily involve a reasonable measure of financial responsibility, and that all possible pressure be brought to bear upon the Department to provide a fair measure of financial support for the School.

On motion of Dr. Warden, duly seconded, this resolution was received and referred to a Committee to recommend suitable action on the part of the Assembly on the matter, said Committee to be as follows : Principal Patrick, Convener ; Principal Scrimger, Dr. R. Murray, Mr. Andrew Elliott, Judge Forbes, with the mover and seconder of the resolution.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INCREASE OF STIPENDS, ETC.

The Assembly called for the report of the Special Committee, appointed to consider the question of an increase of stipends, and the matter of the Hospital at Dawson, which was given in and read by Dr. E. D. McLaren, in the absence of the Convener, Dr. W. G. Wallace. Dr. McLaren moved that the report be received and its recommendations considered seriatim.

The motion was seconded and carried.

The following are the recommendations which were severally adopted :—

The Committee appointed "to consider the whole question of an increase in ministerial stipends," and to whom was also referred the application for an annual grant from the Home Mission Fund in support of the Good Samaritan Hospital at Dawson, begs to submit the following report :—

In the matter of the application for financial aid to the Dawson Hospital, the Committee agrees to recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolution :

"The General Assembly places upon record its thorough appreciation of the valuable services rendered by the Rev. A. S. Grant, in connection with the work of the Church in the Yukon, and its sympathy with him in the financial sacrifices he has made in connection with the Good Samaritan Hospital in Dawson ; and while it does not see its way to comply with the request for a grant of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum for the maintenance of the Hospital, it cordially commends Dr. Pringle to the Church, in his efforts to raise a sum sufficient to relieve the hospital from its present financial difficulties, and expresses the hope that at least eight thousand dollars ($8,000) will be contributed for this purpose. The Assembly deems it inadvisable that the Church should assume either the ownership or responsibility for the management of the hospital, but requests the Home Mission Committee, Western Section, to consider the whole question of hospital work in relation to Home Missions, and report its judgment thereon to the next General Assembly."

In the matter of increase of salaries, the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution :—

"The Assembly expresses its conviction, in view of the much greater cost of living, that there should be a general increase in ministerial stipend throughout the Church, and especially that the minimum stipend should be increased by at least fifty dollars ($50.00) per annum.

In order to accomplish this, the Assembly instructs Presbyteries to visit all self-sustaining congregations, giving less than the proposed minimum, to urge them to increase the salaries paid to their ministers to this larger figure at least, and to secure, wherever possible, increased contributions to stipend from augmented charges and the fields of ordained missionaries.

The Assembly hereby appoints the Executive Committees of the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees, East and West, (with power to add to their numbers), to take oversight of this movement in their respective sections of the Church, to suggest plans of action for Presbyterian guidance, and to lend help wherever possible to stimulate interest and to guide effort. The members of these Committees present at the Assembly are instructed to meet before the Assembly rises, with a view to taking immediate action; and Presbyteries are instructed to report to these Committees the result of their efforts, in the directions above mentioned, not later than November thirtieth (30th) of this year.

The Assembly lays this matter upon the heart and conscience of the Church, asks for the loyal and sympathetic cooperation of every minister and congregation, and appeals earnestly for increased liberality and larger gifts, that this scheme may go into effect as early as possible.

If the reports from Presbyteries, and the contributions of the Church, warrant action, the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees, East and West, are hereby empowered, after conference, to make their grants on the basis of the increased minimum for the year beginning March first, nineteen hundred and five, in the East, and April first, nineteen hundred and five, in the West.

On motion of Dr. McLaren, duly seconded, the report as a whole was adopted.

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee on Sabbath School Publications, which was presented, on behalf of the Convener, by Mr. R. Douglas Fraser, and to the salient points of which he directed the attention of the members of the Court in speaking to the Assembly.

Dr. Robert Campbell moved, seconded by Dr. R. Murray :—

That the General Assembly—1. Receive the report. 2. Express gratification that a complete series of Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers has now been established, and that there has been a steady increase in circulation and in the volume of general business. 3. Commend the publications for use in our Sabbath Schools in preference to those from outside sources. 4. And reaffirm the approval, expressed by former Assemblies, of the policy of applying profits to the improvement of the publications.

The resolution was carried.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY REPORT, ETC.

The Assembly called for the report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the report of Queen's University, and the reference of the Commission on the subject, which was given in and read by Professor Murray, Convener, who moved the reception of the report and the consideration of its recommendations.

This was seconded and agreed to.

The several recommendations being considered, on motion of Professor Murray, seconded by Dr. Warden, the report as a whole was adopted unanimously, by a standing vote. The following is the report :—

Your Committee has considered the report of the Trustees of Queen's University, the minutes of the Commission appointed to confer with the Trustees concerning the relation of the University to the Church, and the returns of the Presbyteries of the three Central Synods, to which the resolutions of the Commission were referred, and finds that these Presbyteries have expressed with practical unanimity a desire for the maintenance of the connection between the Church and the University.

It therefore recommends to the Assembly.—1. That the connection between the Church and Queen's University be maintained. 2. That in view of the helpful influence exercised by the graduates of the University, the Assembly would approve of arrangements being made whereby they (the graduates) may be given, through the Council, a larger representation on the Board of Trustees. 3. The Assembly, recognizing the extent and character of the work done by the University, approves of the deliverance of the Commission,—that the University requires an additional annual revenue of $20,000, exclusive of the contributions at present made in favor of the Theological Department, and heartily commends it to the liberality of the members of the Church, and to the cordial sympathy and support of the Presbyteries and congregations of the Central Synods. 4. The Assembly recommends the trustees to initiate at an early date a movement to procure this additional revenue. 5. The Assembly appoints a Committee to cooperate with the Trustees for this purpose as follows :—

In terms of this finding, Dr. Carmichael, Mr. D. G. McQueen and Mr. J. A. Sinclair were appointed such deputation.

The motion was seconded and agreed to.

Being considered and amended, they were adopted as a whole, on motion of Dr. Bryce, as follows :—

1. The case of Mr. C. A. Mitchell (Presbytery of Edmonton).—Mr. Mitchell was ordained by the Missionary Alliance and gave devoted service in the Foreign Mission field in the Soudan. On account of illness he left the Soudan and came to British Columbia. He has rendered about two years of highly appreciated service in Edmonton and Kamloops Presbyteries. The application on Mr. Mitchell's behalf is supported by the Synod of British Columbia. Mr. Mitchell's papers were unfortunately lost, but had been seen by Rev. Mr. Lang, our missionary at Olds, Alberta.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly that Mr. Mitchell's case be referred to the Executive of the Assembly's Home Mission Committee (Western Section) at its meeting in September next ; that his papers, as far as such may be procurable, be submitted to that body ; that Dr. Herdman and the Presbytery of Kamloops be instructed to confer in the meantime with Mr. Mitchell in regard to his doctrinal position, to report to the same committee ; and, provided the Home Mission Executive be satisfied, the Presbytery of Kamloops be authorized to ordain Mr. Mitchell, but that before he shall be eligible for a call (1) he shall serve for four years in evangelistic work, and (2) thereafter application shall be made on his behalf to the General Assembly by the Presbytery within whose bounds he may be labouring.

2. The case of Mr. T. A. Rodger (Presbytery of Edmonton).—Mr. Rodger is a graduate of Montreal High School,—was long engaged in evangelistic and Y.M.C.A. work,—was sent out by the Assembly's Home Mission Committee (Western Section) to do evangelistic work in the bounds of the Synod of British Columbia,—has laboured several months in the Presbytery of Edmonton. The application is supported by the Synod of British Columbia.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly that the Presbytery of Edmonton be authorized to ordain Mr. Rodger, but that before he shall be eligible, for a call, (1) he shall serve for four years in evangelistic work, and (2) thereafter application shall be made on his behalf to the General Assembly by the Presbytery within whose bounds he may be labouring.

3. The case of Mr. John Wood (Presbytery of Edmonton).—Mr. Wood studied in Dunoon College of the Evangelical Union Church of Scotland, has rendered one year and a half of service to the Presbytery. The application is supported by the Synod of British Columbia.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly that the case of Mr. Wood be referred to the Senate of Manitoba College, to assign to Mr. Wood his proper standing in the minister-evangelist course, due regard being had to his former course of study, and to the service he has already given to the Church.

4. The application of the Presbytery of Rock Lake in the case of Mr. A. C. Forsythe was withdrawn, and referred back to the Presbytery for fuller information.

5. The case of Mr. Andrew Hood (Presbytery of Rock Lake).—Mr. Hood was ordained a minister-evangelist by the Presbytery of Winnipeg in nineteen hundred and three, after he had completed his course in Manitoba College. The Presbytery of Rock Lake applies to have him transferred from the minister-evangelist class to the status of the regular ministry.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly that the prayer of the application be not granted, but that on account of the peculiar circumstances of the case, the Presbytery be allowed to fix the appointment and salary of Mr. Hood.

6. The application of the Senate of Halifax College for leave to institute a course for the training of minister-evanglists in that College. Principal Falconer was heard in support of the application.

The committee recommend to the Assembly that leave be granted the Halifax College, as requested, for the remainder of the time (five years) for which the minister-evangelist course was instituted.

Principal Patrick asked leave to have his dissent recorded from the finding of the Assembly in the case of Mr. Mitchell. The leave was granted.

REPORT ON THE APPLICATIONS re STUDENTS.

The Assembly called for the report of the Committee appointed to consider the applications of Presbyteries on behalf of students, which was given in and read by Mr. J. A. Turnbull, Convener, who moved its reception and the consideration of its recommendations seriatim. The motion was seconded and carried.

The several items being considered, the report as a whole was adopted, on motion of Mr. Turnbull, duly seconded. It is as follows :—

1. That the application of the Presbytery of Montreal to be permitted to ordain Mr. Henry James Keith, M.A., B.D., Secretary of Bible Study among students in India, as a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, be granted, and that his name be appended to the roll of the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew.

2. That the application of the Presbytery of London, on behalf of Mr. R. J. Campbell be granted, and that the Presbytery be allowed to take him on trials for license.

3. With regard to the application of the Presbytery of Toronto on behalf of Mr. J. L. McCulloch, the Committee would recommend that he be required to take a full three years' course at Knox College.

4. With regard to the application of the Presbytery of Toronto on behalf of Mr. William E. Cosford, local preacher of the Methodist Church, the Committee recommends that he be required to take one years' literary course, to be prescribed by the Senate of Knox College, and that after completing this to the satisfaction of the Senate, he be admitted to the study of divinity.

5. In regard to the petition of the Presbytery of Kootenay, on behalf of Mr. Geo. H. Findlay, B.A., the Committee would recommend that he be required to take an extra-mural course of three years, to be prescribed by the Senate of Manitoba College, and that after successfully passing these examinations, the Presbytery be authorized to ordain Mr. Findlay, but before he shall be eligible for a call he shall (1) serve four years in the mission field, and that (2) thereafter application shall be made in his behalf to the General Assembly by the Presbytery within whose bounds he may be labouring.

6. It was agreed that the application of the Presbytery of Minnedosa on behalf of Mr. J. M. McAllister, M.A., be granted.

7. In regard to the application of the Presbytery of Qu'Appelle, on behalf of Mr. R. B. Heron, the Committee find that there is no evidence of Mr. Heron's having any due training for the ministry, or of the Presbytery's having examined him, and that consequently the application be declined.

8. In the case of Mr. J. J. Ferguson, it is recommended that he be given the standing of a graduate in theology of Manitoba College.

These reports were received and adopted.

With regard to the Records of the Synod of Hamilton and London, of British Columbia, and of the Presbytery of Honan, which were not forthcoming, the Clerk was instructed to correspond with the Clerks of those several Courts, enquiring as to the cause of the absence of the Records in question, and instructing them to produce said Records at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

It was thereupon moved by Mr. W. T. Wilkins, seconded by Dr. MacGillivray:—

That proof be given by the Presbytery of Kamloops and the Synod of British Columbia, through its Committee on Higher Education, that the College has secured a good footing, is doing good educational work for the young of both sexes in the interior territory of British Columbia, and has a promising future before it. This proof to be presented to and to be duly considered by the executive of the Home Mission Committee at its regular meeting in the autumn, and the semi-annual payments to date from the said meeting, if the situation is found satisfactory by the Home Mission Committee executive, and on further assurance presented that the institution will, on the receipt of the first grant paid, be formally given over to the Presbyterian Church in Canada by the Board of Trustees, on the lines of their own offer as already communicated to this Assembly, it being left also to the executive to decide in what way, namely, by appointment of Governors or otherwise, proper supervision and control of the College shall be maintained on the part of the Church, and on what conditions of approved results, in the line of the educational work carried on, the grant itself shall be continued.

On motion of Mr. E. MacQueen, duly seconded, it was resolved to receive the Memorial and heartily commend its object to the sympathy and liberality of our people, and Dr. Warden was empowered to receive any contributions that might be made toward it and transmit them to the proper quarter.

OVERTURE re QUARTERLY PAYMENTS OF MISSIONARIES, ETC.

There were presented Overtures from the Presbyteries of Calgary and Kootenay, which had been adopted and transmitted with approval by the Synod of British Columbia, praying that the grants to ministers and missionaries be hereafter paid quarterly by the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees, instead of half yearly as in the past. Dr. Herdman and Mr. D. G. McQueen were heard in support of the Overture.

Dr. Herdman moved, seconded by Mr. McQueen :

That the Overtures of the Synod of British Columbia be received, and that it be an instruction to the Home Mission Committee at the meeting of its executive in the autumn to devise a system of quarterly payments of Home Mission grants to the missionaries of the Synod.

It was moved in amendment by Dr. Warden, duly seconded, that the Overtures be received and referred to the Home Mission Committee.

A vote being taken, the amendment prevailed over the motion, and became the judgment of the house.

REPORT OF PRESBYTERIAN ALLIANCE.

There was submitted and read a copy of the report of the Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system addressed to the General Assembly, giving a succinct account of the doings of the Section for the past year, appointing Judge Forbes a delegate to carry to the Assembly the fraternal greetings of the Alliance, and signifying that three hundred dollars ($300) was the proportion of the expenses of the Section allotted to the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Judge Forbes was heard as a delegate of the Alliance, and concluded with moving the reception of the report, and the recording by the Assembly of the satisfaction with which it has heard of the activities of the Alliance and its readiness to aid in furthering the objects brought by the report just received under the notice of the Assembly up to the measure of its power. Smith, Dr. Robert Campbell (Montreal), Messrs. Ephraim Scott, Robert Laird, Malcolm MacGillivray, Alfred Gandier, John Neil, G. L. Johnston, R. W. Ross, G. C. Patterson, W. H. Milne, P. M. Dr. Robert Campbell was appointed Clerk of Commission.

An extract Minute from the Records of the General Assembly of the appointment of the Commission was read, as well as the circular addressed by the Moderator to the members of the Commission, calling the meeting for this date at this place.

Letters of regret for inability to be present were read from Principal Caven, D.D., Dr. Somerville, and Messrs. Anderson Rogers, Colin Fletcher, A. Graham, E. D. Millar, Ministers ; and from Messrs. David Morrice, Hamilton Cassels and George Orme, Elders.

At half-past four o'clock in the afternoon the Commission resolved to adjourn for the conference with the Trustees of Queen's University, for which the Commission was appointed, to resume at the call of the Moderator, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

SECOND SEDERUNT.

At Kingston, and within Queen's University, there, the sixteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and three, at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon :

The Commission of the General Assembly for conference with the Trustees of Queen's University again met, having held conference with the said Trustees, and was constituted with prayer.

Sederunt the same as yesterday, with the addition of Dr. Bryce, Dr. E. F. Torrance and Mr. John Hay, Ministers.

The Minutes of the Sederunt of yesterday afternoon were read and sustained.

The Clerk submitted the resolution passed at the conference between the Commission of Assembly and the Board of Trustees of Queen's University, held in the forenoon, and, on motion of Dr. Lyle, seconded by Dr. G. H. Smith, it was resolved to receive the same and consider it at a later stage of this Sederunt.

After mature deliberation the following conclusions were arrived at on the matters referred to the Commission by the General Assembly :—

1. The Commission of the General Assembly recognizes the remarkable and gratifying growth of the University since the union of the churches in 1875, the great service it has rendered to the higher education of the country, the unsectarian character of its influence, and its increasing fulfilment of the ideal of a Christian University.

2. The Commission recognizes the desirability of continuing the connection between Queen's University and the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and of preserving the broad, Christian, liberal spirit of the institution unimpaired.

3. The Commission regards the University as a most important part of the educational system of the Province, deserving a liberal measure of public support. It is of opinion that if the present relations of the University towards the Church be maintained, the members of the Church will, with general unanimity, be prepared to assist in the adequate support of the University, and it recommends that this assistance take the form of additional endowment.

At this stage the Commission adjourned for further conference with the Board of Trustees, to meet again on the call of the Moderator, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

THIRD SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the some day, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening :

The Commission of the General Assembly on conference with the Board of Trustees of Queen's University met on the call of the Moderator, and was constituted with prayer.

Sederunt the same as in the afternoon.

The Minutes of the afternoon Sederunt were read and confirmed.

The following further resolutions agreed upon at the conference between the Commission and the Board of Trustees were submitted and unanimously adopted :—

4. The Commission draws attention to the following facts affecting the relations of the University to the Church, and asks Presbyteries to consider the same. According to the present constitution, the Principal of the University must be a minister of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The Board of Trustees of the University consists of 32 members, 27 of whom must be members of the Presbyterian Church; 12 of these being ministers, and 15 non-ministerial members—five members of the Board, who are not necessarily Presbyterians, are chosen by the University Council, which embraces the Trustees and the Senate (including the theological professors), and as many graduates as shall be equal in number to the Trustees and Senate, taken together.

The Commission recognizes the helpful influence exercised by the Council, and the propriety of giving it larger representation upon the Board of Trustees. The Commission also finds that, while the Trustees are satisfied with the present method of electing those members of the Board who must be members of the Presbyterian Church, yet they are willing that a number of these should be appointed by the General Assembly. By the Act of Union, it is provided that "the United Church shall not be required to elect trustees for any Arts' department in Queen's College," Presbyteries are asked to consider whether the relation of the University to the Church should be continued in its present form or should be modified by the appointment of a number of Trustees by the General Assembly.

5. The Commission finds that in the opinion of the Trustees an amount sufficient to yield an annual sum of $20,000 would be required for the adequate equipment of the University, exclusive of contributions at present made in favor of the Theological Department. It appoints a Committee consisting of (not yet appointed) to act with the Trustees in securing this additional endowment, and cordially commends this and all other interests of the University to the generous aid of the members of the Church.

The Commission instructs its Clerk to submit these resolutions to the Presbyteries of the three Central Synods of the Church, and requests those Presbyteries to report their judgment thereon to the Clerk of the Commission, not later than 1st February next, and when the Commission adjourns, it resolves to adjourn to meet again in this place, for the purpose of receiving said reports and dealing with the same, on the second Wednesday of February, 1904, at four p.m.

The following were appointed a sub-committee of the Commission to name a Committee to act with the Trustees of the College, in terms of resolution No. 5, Principal Gordon, Convener; Dr. D. H. Fletcher, Dr. R. H. Warden and Dr. Robert Campbell.

The Commission adjourned to meet at this place on Wednesday, February tenth, one thousand nine hundred and four, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with prayer and the benediction by the Moderator.

ADJOURNED MEETING.

FOURTH SEDERUNT.

At Kingston, and within the Convocation Hall of Queen's University, there, the tenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and four, at four o'clock in the afternoon :

The Commission of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, for conference with the Board of Trustees of Queen's University, met by adjournment from the sixteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and three, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Dr. John Campbell leading in prayer, at the request of the Moderator.

Sederunt.—Dr. D. H. Fletcher, Moderator; Principal Gordon, Dr. John Campbell, Dr. Robert Campbell, Dr. MacGillivray, and Messrs. Alfred Gandier, J. Neil, J. Young, J. W. H. Milne, Ministers; and Mr. J. McIntyre, K.C., Elder.

The Minutes of the Third Sederunt, on the sixteenth day of September last, were read and sustained.

Communications were read from the following members of the Commission, expressing regret at inability to attend, viz. : Principal Caven, Dr. Bryce, Dr. Warden, Dr. James Ross, Dr. Lyle, Dr. Armstrong, Messrs. Colin Fletcher, D. Tait, M. L. Leitch, Ministers; and from Messrs. David Morrice, J. K. Macdonald, Hamlton Cassels and Walter Paul, Elders.

The Clerk read the returns received from the Presbyteries of the three central Synods in reply to the series of questions and propositions sent down to them, in terms of the instructions of the General Assembly to the Commission.

On motion, duly seconded, the Commission resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, Dr. John Campbell in the Chair. The returns to the remit were carefully gone over and their contents noted, the members of the Commission giving their views as to the bearing of the Presbyteries' answers to the propositions sent down to them, and the Moderator, Principal Gordon and the Clerk, were appointed a sub-committee to draw up a finding in agreement with the sense of the Committee of the Whole.

The Committee then rose and reported progress.

The Commission adjourned to meet again in this place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

FIFTH SEDERUNT.

At Kingston, and within Queen's University, there, the eleventh day of February one thousand nine hundred and four, at ten o'clock in the forenoon :

The Commission of the General Assembly, for conference with the Board of Trustees of Queen's University, met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. J. Neil leading in prayer at the request of the Moderator.

The sub-committee appointed to draw up a finding with regard to the returns of Presbyteries to the remit, reported, and on motion, duly seconded, it was resolved to receive the report and consider its recommendations seriatim. They were discussed, amended and finally adopted as a whole unanimously, as follows :—

The Commission of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in conference with the Trustees of Queen's University, having sent down to the Presbyteries of the three Central Synods of the Church the conclusions at which it had arrived at its former meeting, in terms of the instructions received from the General Assembly, twenty-five out of the twenty-seven Presbyteries have been heard from, and the Commission having carefully examined and duly weighed said returns, finds :

1. That they generally express a warm appreciation of the great service which Queen's University has rendered to the higher education of the country.

2. That twenty-four out of twenty-five Presbyteries express a desire for the continuance of Queen's University in connection with the Church; and the Commission respectfully requests, in view of this unanimity, the Board of Trustees still further to desist from seeking legislation looking to a severance of the relations which have subsisted between the University and the Church.

3. That it does not seem clear how far many of the Presbyteries have had under consideration the present composition and method of appointing the Board of Trustees of the University; but out of the ten that have specially dealt with the matter, seven have signified a desire for a modification of the method of appointing Trustees, while three have voted that the present method is satisfactory. In view of these facts, it would seem as if this question needed further consideration.

4. That a few of the Presbyteries hold that it would be more fitting that the Arts Department of the University should be supported by the general public, since the country at large so greatly benefits by the higher education which it provides, that several Presbyteries feel that the University has by the work it has done for the promotion of the intellectual development of the Dominion made good its claim for support from both the Church and the country, and that a large majority of the Presbyteries heartily commend the University to the liberal support of the people within their bounds.

The Commission, however, is of opinion that the returns of the Presbyteries on the financial propositions submitted to them in the remit are scarcely definite enough to meet the case as provided for in the Assembly's instructions to the Commission, yet consider them so far encouraging as to lead the Commission to recommend the General Assembly to take such steps as will secure an adequate endownment of the University or such an annual income as will provide for its proper equipment and maintenance.

That the Assembly may be fully seized of all the facts which were before the Commission, the returns of Presbyteries and other documents bearing on the matter, which led to the Commission's finding, are hereby transmitted for the information and use of the General Assembly.

The Minutes of this Sederunt were held as read and sustained.

The business of the Commission being concluded, this Sederunt was closed with prayer and the benediction by the Moderator.

D. H. FLETCHER, Moderator.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk.

On motion, duly seconded, it was resolved to proceed by dealing with specific points brought out in the statements received by and before the Commission.

Questions were put to the missionaries home on furlough and to retired missionaries bearing on this point.

The Moderator, being called away on urgent duty, asked that some one else preside during the period of his necessary absence.

The Commission adjourned to meet in this place this evening at eight o'clock, of which public intimation was given. This Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

NINTH SEDERUNT.

Reeves, Ministers; and Messrs. D. J. McKinnon, R. Kilgour, A. Neilson, Wm. Wilson, R. Rae, R. Harrison, Walter Paul and George Grant, Elders.

The Minutes of the afternoon Sederunt were read and confirmed. The conferences with missionaries and others bearing on the subject before the Commission being concluded, the Commission proceeded to deliberate upon the whole matter.

After due consideration, the following deliverance was arrived at unanimously :

This Commission, having carefully weighed all the evidence produced before it in regard to the Central India Mission, is of opinion that, while elements of disturbance have existed there for many years, their importance and effect upon the general work of the Mission have been, in some cases, exaggerated. At the same time, recognizing the hindrance which all manifestations of an unworthy spirit must have upon Christian labor, the Commission would deprecate the presence of any jealousies or suspicions tending to perpetuate difficulties, and would humbly and affectionately counsel the members of the Mission Staff in Central India unitedly to seek the things that make for peace.

With regard to Dr. Wilkie, the Commission decides that, under existing conditions, he cannot, with advantage to the Mission, resume his former work in Central India. Without attempting to apportion the exact measure of blame for the present condition of affairs, the Commission desires to state :

First,—That charges against senior missionaries of prejudicing younger missionaries against Dr. Wilkie are shown by the evidence to be without foundation.

Secondly,—That there is no evidence affecting the character of Dr. Wilkie as addicted to the use of noxious drugs, and that the Commission accepts without reserve his declaration to the contrary, and strongly condemns the circulation of such rumors.

Thirdly,—That the Commission direct the attention of the Foreign Mission Committee to the instruction of last General Assembly that strenuous efforts be made by the Foreign Mission Committee to secure for Dr. Wilkie some suitable field in connection with the Foreign Mission Work.

Fourthly,—That the Commission expresses its confident hope for a bright future for our Central India Mission, earnestly commends our missionaries to the sympathy of the Church, and prays that heaven's richest blessing may rest upon the work and workers there.

Mr. Bengough, the stenographer, read over the notes of the proceedings which he had taken during the conferences of the Commission with the missionaries and others, and he was instructed to extend his notes in writing, that they may be filed with the other documents in the hands of the Clerk of the Commission.

The Commission adjourned to meet again at the call of the Moderator, Convener of the Assembly's Commission, for the consideration of other matters affecting the interests of the Mission in Central India, and the Sederunt was closed with prayer and the benediction by the Moderator.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE COMMISSION.

TENTH SEDERUNT.

At Toronto, and within Knox Church there, the sixteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four years, at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon :

The Commission of the General Assembly for investigating the affairs of the Mission in Central India met, on the call of the Moderator, in terms of the adjournment on the eleventh day of September last, and was constituted with devotional exercises, Dr. W. A. McKay leading in prayer, at the request of the Moderator.

Sederunt.—Dr. D. H. Fletcher, Moderator; Dr. Warden, Dr. Lyle, Dr. W. A. McKay, Dr. George H. Smith, Dr. Robert Campbell, Messrs. E. Scott, A. Gandier, J. H. MacVicar, H. McQuarrie and R. W. Ross, Ministers; and Robert Kilgour, D. J. MacKinnon, A. Neilson and Walter Paul, Elders.

The Minutes of the Sederunt of the Commission, held at eight o'clock in the evening of the eleventh day of September last, were read and confirmed.

The circular issued by the Moderator calling this adjourned meeting of the Commission was read. There were read letters from Dr. Herridge, President Forrest, Dr. A. McLean, Mr. J. R. MacLeod and Mr. A. A. Scott, Ministers; Dr. Robert Murray, Mr. George Hay and Mr. R. Harrison, Elders, regretting their inability to attend this adjourned meeting of the Commission, some of them giving their views as to matters remaining to be dealt with regarding the Mission in Central India.

The Clerk laid before the Commission correspondence held with Mr. J. K. Macdonald, who requested a copy of the stenographer's report of the conference with missionaries and others at the September meeting of the Commission, showing the action taken in the premises, with the concurrence of the Moderator, allowing Mr. Macdonald a reading of the report for his own private use. The action of the Clerk was approved.

The Clerk further read a letter he had received from Dr. Wilkie, also requesting a copy of the stenographer's report, to which he had replied, saying that he did not feel justified in furnishing such copy without instruction from the Commission, and promising to lay the request before the Commission at its adjourned meeting.

It was resolved to permit Dr. Wilkie to have communication of the report for his private perusal.

The Moderator laid before the Commission a communication he had received from the Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee, setting forth the steps which the Committee had taken to carry out the insructions of the Assembly as to the employment of Dr. Wilkie, which the Commission had called the attention of the Committee to in its resolution of eleventh September last.

The Moderator submitted a copy of a circular which he had caused to be addressed to the members of the Commission, which reads as follows :—

Hamilton, March 3rd, 1904.

My Dear Sir : I think it proper that I should inform the members of the Commission of Assembly re Central India, which has been called to meet in Knox Church, Toronto, on Wednesday, 16th inst., that I have received the following communication from Dr. John Stenhouse, Toronto :—

"You may have noticed from the public prints that last Thursday the friends of Rev. Dr. Wilkie formally organized for the purpose of enabling him to carry on missionary work in Central India. It was felt, however, by all, that before making final arrangements one last effort at an amicable solution of the difficulty should be made—and such efforts have not been few—to prevent a division in the Church at home, and maintain an unbroken front in India. It was, therefore, unanimously agreed to ask you, in virtue of the powers conferred upon you at last Assembly, to call the Commission together, at the earliest possible date, to consider the opening of a new field for Dr. Wilkie in Central India. The Foreign Mission Committee has offered the salary of Dr. Wilkie to another church to take him over; it would therefore be available while he works for the church to which he has always belonged. Fields are abundant and ready, and the friends of Dr. Wilkie are prepared, in the interests of loyalty and unity, to meet the first cost of opening the new Mission. As much time has already been lost, it is earnestly hoped that you may be able to give us the reply of the Commission within a month. In the event of your calling it together, the following gentlemen have been appointed to lay our case before it :—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Judge Winchester, Rev. Dr. Parsons, Rev. Logan Geggie, Dr. James Bain and Mr. John Penman, of Paris. Trusting soon to hear favorably from you."

If, from any cause, you should be unable to attend the meeting of the Commission, will you kindly favor me with any opinion you may desire to express.

Yours sincerely,

D. H. FLETCHER.

To. Dr. Stenhouse the following reply was sent :—

"Dear Doctor : On my arrival home from Kingston, where I have been attending a meeting of the Assembly's Commission re Queen's University, I received your communication on behalf of Dr. Wilkie's friends.

"I beg to say in reply that the adjourned meeting of the Assembly's Commission re Central India Mission will be held in the Sabbath School room of Knox Church, Toronto, on Wednesday, March 16th, 1904, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. I will present your communication to the Commission, which, I am confident, will give every facility to Dr. Wilkie's friends to lay their case before it.

"I remain, dear doctor, yours faithfully,

"D. H. FLETCHER."

The Clerk was instructed to inform the deputation of the friends of Dr. Wilkie that the Commission would be pleased to receive them at three o'clock this afternoon.

He was further instructed to inform the Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee of the fact that the above named deputation was to appear before the Commission, intimating that it might be well that the Committee be represented by some of its members before the Commission while the deputation was being heard.

The Commission then took up consideration of the question whether, in all the circumstances, it would not be advisable to open a new station in Central India at a considerable distance from any of the presently occupied stations.

The Commission adjourned at one o'clock in the afternoon to meet again at a quarter to three in the afternoon, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

ELEVENTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the same day, at a quarter to three o'clock in the afternoon:

The Commission of the General Assembly for investigating the affairs of the Mission in Central India met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. Ephraim Scott leading in prayer, at the request of the Moderator.

The Sederunt was the same as in the forenoon.

The Minutes of the forenoon Sederunt were read and sustained.

The following appeared before the Commission representing the views and wishes of certain friends of Dr. Wilkie, who had organized for the purpose of sending him to establish a new Mission in Central India :—Dr. Parsons, Mr. A. L. Geggie, Mr. R. Leask, Mr. J. Argo, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Dr. J. Bain and Mr. J. Penman.

Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Dr. Parsons, Mr. Penman and Mr. Geggie were heard on behalf of the deputation, setting forth the reasons which had prompted them to organize as they had done, and giving the results of their inquiries as to the possibility of planting a mission at Gwalior or somewhere in its vicinity, which was remote from any station at present occupied; but before taking further steps they thought it right to lay the matter before the Assembly's Commission, in the hope that, with the powers with which it is clothed, it might yet be able to avert an undesirable cleavage among those in the Church at home who take an interest in Foreign Missions, intimating their willingness to hand over to the Church, should satisfactory arrangements be made for appointing Dr. Wilkie to some station in Central India, under the direction of the Foreign Mission Committee, the sum of four thousand dollars ($4,000), which had been collected by their organization, with more yet probably to come in, to defray the first cost of establishing the Mission.

Mr. W. A. J. Martin, Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee; Dr. R. P. McKay, Secretary, and Mr. Hamilton Cassels, among other members of the Foreign Mission Committee who were invited to be present, were heard in explanation of the decision to which the Foreign Mission Committee had come regarding the employment of Dr. Wilkie in India.

Dr. Wilkie, being also present, was heard regarding certain matters into which his name had been introduced.

Attention being called to the decease of Mr. William Wilson, it was resolved to place on record an expression of the loss the Commission has sustained in the death of so valued an office-bearer of the Church, who as a member of the Commission was present and took an earnest part in its deliberations at the September sittings, and the Moderator and Clerk are requested to convey to Mrs. Wilson and family the deepest sympathy of the Commission with them in their sore bereavement.

Principal Gordon entered and took his seat as a member of Commission.

The Commission adjourned to meet again in this place this evening at eight o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

TWELFTH SEDERUNT.

At the same place, on the same day, at eight o'clock in the evening:

The Commission of the General Assembly for investigating the affairs of the Mission in Central India met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. Walter Paul leading in prayer at the request of the Moderator.

The Sederunt was the same as in the afternoon.

The Minutes of the afternoon Sederunt were read and confirmed.

Resuming consideration of the proposals brought before the Commission by certain friends of Dr. Wilkie, after full discussion, it was moved by Dr. Lyle and seconded by Mr. Hector McQuarrie :

That the Commission of Assembly recommend the Foreign Mission Committee to reconsider their decision of January 21st last with a view to securing for Dr. Wilkie a suitable field of labor in India in connection with the Foreign Mission work of our Church.

The motion was put and carried.

The Moderator and Dr. Lyle were appointed a Committee to lay this resolution before the Foreign Mission Committee.

The Commission adjourned to meet again in this place to-morrow forenoon at ten o'clock, of which public intimation was given, and this Sederunt was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

THIRTEENTH SEDERUNT.

At Toronto, and within Knox Church there, the seventeenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four years:

The Commission of the General Assembly for investigating the affairs of the Mission in Central India met, as per adjournment, and was constituted, Mr. J. H. MacVicar leading in prayer, at the request of the Moderator.

The Sederunt was the same as last night.

The Minutes of the last Sederunt were read and confirmed.

The Commission took up consideration of the question of the desirableness of appointing a deputy to visit the Foreign Mission fields. After deliberation it was agreed to record it as the judgment of the Commission that such an appointment is desirable.

The Commission next proceeded to discuss the matter of the furlough allowed to missionaries. It was resolved that, in the judgment of the Commission, the Foreign Mission Committee should at an early date reconsider the regulations bearing on the whole question of the furlough and salaries of missionaries in all the fields under the care of the Committee.

In concluding its labors the Commission places on record its appreciation of the zeal, fidelity and wisdom displayed by the Foreign Mission Committee in conducting the business entrusted to it by the General Assembly, and the Commission commends the Committee and its undertakings to the fullest confidence of the Church, and expresses the hope that the deficit under which the Foreign Mission Fund labors, amounting to about twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), will at once be furnished by the Church, so that there will be no curtailment of the work in foreign lands.

The Minutes of this Sederunt were held as read and confirmed, and the Commission was closed with the benediction by the Moderator.

D. H. FLETCHER, D.D., Moderator of Commission.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, D.D., Clerk of Commission.

APPENDICES.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION COMMITTEE, WESTERN SECTION, 1903–4.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

In submitting their Annual Report on Home Missions, your Committee feel that the Church has the strongest possible reason to thank God and take courage; and at the very outset of that report they desire to record their deep gratitude to the Father of mercies for the means of prosecuting their work that have been placed at their disposal, and for the abundant measure of success that has attended the labours of the various workers in our vast Home Mission field.

The report presented to the last Assembly showed the largest increase in the department of Home Missions that had ever taken place in a single year. The development of the country during the year just closed has been even greater than that which marked the preceding year, and the responsibilities of the Church have been correspondingly increased. Your Committee are profoundly thankful to be able to say that the people of the Church have risen to the occasion, and have shown in the most unmistakable way how desirous they are that the foundations of civic life in all the new settlements of Canada shall be laid in righteousness and the fear of God.

The amount asked for at the beginning of the year was $110,000. The Church's answer to this appeal was a contribution of $114,346. Evidently the case presented to the people has commended itself to intellect, and heart and conscience. The appalling magnitude of the task to be performed is calling forth the latent energy of the Church, and her religious zeal is being fired by the grandeur of the opportunities that God is placing before her. With what abounding joy would this rising tide of interest in Home Missions have been watched by our departed leader, whose indefatigable efforts on behalf of Western Canada are bearing richer fruit as the years go by.

REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENT.

The progress made during the past year should awaken the deepest thankfulness, and prove an incentive to still greater effort. During the year 1902-3 the rapidity with which the country was being settled necessitated the opening of fifty-nine new mission fields, and the liberality of the Church made it possible for this enormous expansion of the work to be undertaken. Even this high-water mark has been surpassed during the year whose operations are now under review. SIXTY-THREE new fields have been opened since the last report was presented, five of them being within the bounds of the eastern Synods, forty in the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, and eighteen in the Synod of British Columbia. Twenty-seven fields have been raised to the status of augmented charges, and five (all of them in the Manitoba Synod) have become self-sustaining congregations without going through the usual process of receiving assistance for a time from the Augmentation Committee.

The total number of fields reported a year ago was 457. The additions were 63, and the removals 32; making the number at present under the care of your Committee 488. For the past few years we have been accustomed to such a rapid expansion of the Home Mission field that these remarkable figures may not, at first sight, appeal to us as they should. Their remarkableness will, perhaps, be more fully recognized if we remember that in 1875 there were only twelve mission fields west of Lake Superior. The number of new fields opened in the two western Synods during the past year is almost five times as great as the total number of the fields that were in existence in the western half of the Dominion at the time of the union of the churches.

In these 488 fields there are 1,314 preaching stations, containing 14,487 Presbyterian families, and 15,625 members of the Church in full communion. The number of communicants added during the year was 1,559.

The contributions of the people for the support of ordinances among themselves exceeded the contributions of the previous year by nearly $9,000—amounting, for the year just ended, to $99,437. That sum represents an average contribution of $6.36 per communicant, while the average contribution throughout the whole Church for the past year was only $4.65. That the rate of giving toward stipend in the weak, struggling mission fields is 37 per cent. higher than the rate throughout the whole Church—including all the large, wealthy congregations in towns and cities—is vastly to the credit of the people in these fields, and must surely be regarded as greatly strengthening their claim to sympathetic, liberal treatment by the Church at large. In one of the stations of the South Brandon field there are three families that are contributing $50 each per annum toward the missionary's salary.

In the matter of church and manse building, the past year has been marked by the most gratifying progress; the figures being forty-eight churches and twenty-four manses, of which ten churches and three manses are to be credited to the Synods in Ontario and Quebec, and thirty-eight churches and twenty-one manses to the two Western Synods.

GENERAL SURVEY OF THE FIELD.

The Eastern Synods. In the older districts of the country little or no expansion can be expected. The more vigorously Home Mission work is prosecuted in the fully settled parts of Ontario and Quebec, the fewer the mission fields become. One point of difference between the East and the West, in regard to Home Mission effort, is, that whereas in the West national and ecclesiastical progress spells enlargement of the sphere of operations, in the East it necessarily spells diminution. But even that form of success—which is the only kind that can be looked for in the older provinces—must, by the very nature of the case, be achieved slowly. There is no rapid material development in the rural districts of the East, and therefore rapid ecclesiastical progress cannot reasonably be expected. It must also be borne in mind that, to a considerable extent, the astonishing increase in the West is going on at the expense of the East. In view of this fact it is all the more gratifying to find indications of progress and words of hopefulness in the reports from all the Presbyteries in the Eastern Synods.

Even in the Province of Quebec, where, in some respects, the difficulties are greater than in any other part of the country, some progress is being made. In no case—least of all in such a case as this—is the duty of the Church to be measured by the amount of encouragement it meets with in the prosecution of its work. To leave the little handfuls of Presbyterians that are found at various points in that most unprogressive Province of the Dominion to fight their own battles, under the overshadowing influence of the Roman Catholic Church, would be a piece of criminal selfishness that we could not possibly be guilty of, and yet hope to retain a single spark of genuine Church life. There is, however, another consideration that should not be lost sight of; no one can tell the indirect results of the work that is being done in the Province of Quebec by the Home Mission and Augmentation Committees. The H. M. Convener of the Quebec Presbytery makes the significant statement "that wherever there is a Protestant settlement supplied with Gospel ordinances, there the Catholics are more enlightened and advanced than in districts where the priest holds undisputed sway."

In New Ontario the advance is marked, and the situation full of encouragement. Fields are being consolidated and strengthened; many fields hitherto supplied by students or catechists are now enjoying the services of ordained missionaries, and five fields have been raised to the status of augmented charges. Six churches were built in this district during the past year.

The religious interests of the visitors at the various summer resorts in Ontario and Quebec have received a considerable share of attention, and many of the tourists have expressed their grateful appreciation of the efforts of the Church on their behalf. The best evidence of that appreciation is furnished by the fact that in the Muskoka district, the wise and energetic work carried on by the Home Mission Committee of the Barrie Presbytery has been "more than self-sustaining."

The Synods of the West. The Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories extends westward from Schreiber on the north shore of Lake Superior, 1,150 miles to Maple Creek, in the Territory of Assiniboia. The Synod of British Columbia includes not only the province from which the Synod takes its name, but also the Yukon, Alberta, and part of Assiniboia. Each of these Synods would make a magnificent kingdom! Out of the Province of British Columbia alone, it has been computed, two Englands, three Irelands, and four Scotlands might be carved, and still leave 5,000 square miles of territory from which to form a "petty principality" like some of the principalities of Central Europe. To supply this vast extent of country with the ordinances of religion is a task of appalling magnitude.

To the Presbyterian Church belongs the honour of standing far in the forefront in this colossal undertaking. The only Church that begins to compare with ours in its efforts for the religious welfare of Western Canada has less than half the number of mission fields under the oversight of your Committee.

The development of the North-West is going on with amazing rapidity. In 1881 the population of Manitoba was 62,260, and of the North-West Territories 25,515. In 1891 these figures had increased respectively to 152,506 and 66,799, and in 1901 to 255,211 and 158,940. The total immigration to Canada since 1901 is 322,968, the figures for last year alone being 139,115. Without taking into account the natural increase that has occurred during the past three years, or the number of settlers who have gone in from the other provinces of the Dominion, the present population of the North-West must be more than eight times as great as it was in 1881.

But even these astonishing figures do not adequately set forth the full measure of the Church's increased responsibilities. In estimating the magnitude of the task that confronts us because of this vast increase of population, account must be taken of the character of the immigration. The population of the North-West is becoming alarmingly heterogeneous. Scores of thousands of the new settlers are aliens—far removed from us in their ideals and aspirations, as well as in their speech and modes of living. According to the annual report of the Commissioner of the North-West Mounted Police, "the foreign-born population of the North-West Territories equals that of British birth!" There is probably not a single nationality of Europe that is not represented on our Western plains; and there are, besides, some twenty thousand Mennonites, who, though of diverse national origin, are thoroughly united by the profession of a common faith, and by their staunch adherence to certain principles of conduct. In addition to the more desirable immigrants from Iceland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Germany, we have Doukhobors from Russia, Galicians and Hungarians, Bohemians, Poles and Roumanians. To take this vast conglommeration of foreigners—many of them accustomed only to the lowest planes of social and intellectual life—and weld them into a strong united people, leading them to sympathize with our national ideals, and to appreciate our national institutions, imbuing them with high principles and teaching even the best of them "the way of God more perfectly," is a herculean task; but it is a task that must be performed if our expectations in regard to our country's future are ever to be realized.

The efforts put forth by your Committee, during the past three years, to break down the prejudices and secure the confidence of these strangers, especially of the Galicians and Doukhobors, have already borne rich fruit. Since the report submitted to the last Assembly was prepared, an important movement has taken place amongst the Galicians. In order to prevent the exercise of any ecclesiastical influence by the Greek Church in Russia, the Galician priests in the North-West decided to establish an independent Greek Church in Canada; and the wisdom of the expenditure on educational and medical work amongst the Galicians was clearly seen when these priests appealed to the leaders of our Church in Winnipeg for counsel and assistance in this important step.

Several of these priests have been employed by your Committee in the capacity of colporteurs, and have done good work. Four of our ministers have been appointed to labour amongst these people, learning their language and giving their whole time to mission work on their behalf. Rev. George Arthur's field of labour is in the neighbourhood of Rosthern, Rev. C. H. Monro is stationed at Ethelbert, Rev. R. G. Scott at Sifton, and Rev. Dr. Hunter at Teulon. The hospital at Teulon, which the Winnipeg Presbytery undertook to erect, has been completed during the past winter and was opened in March. Dr. Hunter speaks hopefully of the prospects of the work in the Galician colony in the Teulon district, and expects valuable results to flow from the opening of the hospital.

The work amongst the English-speaking people of the Synod has made wonderful progress. Forty new fields have been opened during the year, twenty-five churches and fifteen manses have been built, eight mission fields have become augmented charges, and five others have advanced at once to the status of self-sustaining congregations.

In the Synod of British Columbia the progress has been only less striking than in the Synod of Manitoba. Eighteen new fields have been organized; thirteen churches and six manses have been erected, and seven fields have been transferred to the care of the Augmentation Committee. It is in the eastern part of the Synod that the chief development is taking place—the whole of the eighteen new fields that have been opened being in the Presbyteries and Edmonton to Calgary. As a result of this increase, each of these Presbyteries finds it necessary to ask the Assembly to consent to the erection of a new Presbytery within its present bounds; the southern portion of the Edmonton Presbytery to be formed into the Presbytery of Red Deer, and the southern portion of the Calgary Presbytery to become the Presbytery of MacLeod.

During the year an addition has been made to the staff of missionaries in the Yukon. For some time the Rev. Dr. Pringle had been urging your Committee to release him from his work at Bonanza, and leave him free to labour amongst the miners on distant creeks, for whose spiritual welfare no one was caring. Last fall it was decided to make the proposed change. The Rev. W. E. Knowles, of Chatham, was appointed to the Bonanza field, and Dr. Pringle was authorized to prosecute his much-loved work "on the trail." Dr. Pringle appeared before your Committee on the 9th of March in the interests of the Good Samaritan hospital at Dawson. The following extract from the printed minutes of the Committee explains the purpose of his visit and gives the Committee's decision thereanent:

"The convener read a communication from Dr. Grant, of Dawson, regarding the Good Samaritan hospital. The memorandum submitted traced the history of the hospital from its inception in the winter of 1897-8 to the present. For three years the hospital had been under the direct management of Dr. Grant, who advanced money to meet the liabilities of some $16,000 which had been previously incurred by the Board, and the following plan submitted by Dr. Grant for its future was adopted by members of the old hospital board, members of St. Andrew's Session and Board of Managers, at a meeting held in St. Andrew's manse on February 5th, 1904:

"1. That a Board to be named by me take over the institution as the propery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

"2. That the Presbyterian Church in Canada be asked through its Home Mission committee to vote a sum of money amounting to $3,000 per year for the support of a staff of nurses.

"3. That the City Council be asked to vote a like sum yearly, for which we agree to treat indigents (city).

"4. That the Government be asked for a grant of $12,000 per annum, for which we agree to treat all indigents from outlying districts.

"That the Rev. J. Pringle be appointed to wait on the Home Mission Committee, asking for a yearly grant of $3,000, and on the Dominion Government, asking for a yearly grant of $12,000; also to raise a lump sum of $5,000 outside, we to raise $5,000 in the Territory, and to ask the Yukon Council to vote $5,000. When this is done there is an offer of $5,000 from one person.

"Mr. Pringle was heard in behalf of the proposal. The whole matter was remitted to a committee, which reported the following recommendation, which was adopted by the Committee—

"Your Committee, having considered the communication received from Dawson re the Good Samaritan hospital of that city, also the statement of Mr. Pringle in explanation of it and supporting the appeal which it contains, would express its warm appreciation of the work done by the Presbyterians of Dawson by means of the hospital, its sense of the importance of that work, and its sympathy with them in the present situation in connection with the hospital; but this Committee does not deem it expedient to assume any permanent responsibility in the support of the institution, and would, therefore, refer the whole matter to the General Assembly for its consideration and judgment."

LUMBER AND RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION CAMPS.

Your Committee desire to call attention to a department of work in which more vigorous efforts should be put forth. In the Presbyteries of North Bay, Algoma, and Superior, as well as on the Pacific coast, a great many men are employed in lumber camps. Last winter there were said to be at least 25,000 within the bounds of the North Bay Presbytery. The missionaries whose fields of labour are contiguous to the camps, have done a little toward the religious improvement of the men; but it was only a little that they could possibly do. In the Westminister Presbytery a Loggers' Mission—supported by the Mt. Pleasant Church—was opened last summer, and the missionary, Mr. W. J. Kidd, visited, from time to time, some thirty different camps, and brought the message of the Gospel to more than a thousand men. A similar work was carried on for a time amongst some of the lumbermen in the North Bay Presbytery by the Rev. W. G. Brown; but in East and West alike only the borders of a vast field of labour have been touched.

A somewhat similar field is found in railway construction camps. Most valuable work was done last summer by the Rev. J. H. Lavarie among the men engaged in the construction of the Temiscamingue Railway. An immense amount of this kind of work is called for by the railway development that is taking place in the newer parts of the country. Hundreds of miles of railway are being built in the North-West by the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian Northern Railway Companies; and the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific will mean the employment of thousands of men for several years. It will not be to the advantage either of the country at large or of the men themselves that these men should be left for months at a time without the restraining and uplifting influence of religious services. For the vigorous prosecution of work in lumber and railway camps two things are necessary:—

1. A larger revenue. The Church cannot deal with these men as she deals with her own people in the ordinary mission fields where assistance is given in the maintenance of religious ordinances. The financial aspect of the work must be kept in the background if the work is to have a reasonable chance of succeeding. The Home Mission Committee must therefore be responsible for the larger part of the salaries of the missionaries who may be asked to undertake this work.

2. The right kind of workers. Not every missionary is capable of engaging successfully in this form of service. Men of special gifts are needed for it—tactful, genial, manly, sympathetic, full of "zeal for the glory of God, love to the Lord Jesus Christ and a desire of saving souls." Surely the Church can supply both the men and the means.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

The past year has witnessed an entirely new departure in Home Mission work. After consultation with the Superintendent and Presbyterial Conveners, your Committee decided to engage Mr. T. A. Roger to do special evangelistic work within the bounds of the Synod of British Columbia. Mr. Roger had already made a reputation for himself as an unusually energetic and successful Y. M. C. A. Secretary, and had, for several months, occupied the pulpits of some city churches with great acceptance. The experiment has proved even more successful than it was hoped it would be, and the wisdom of the step taken is recognized by all who have seen the kind of work that has been done. Mr. Roger's services have already proved spiritually stimulating and rich results are anticipated from their continuance. Hitherto his labours have been confined to the northern portion of Alberta, but during the coming year they will be extended to other parts of the Synod.

THE WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The success of this new organization is exceedingly gratifying. Thirty-two auxiliaries have already been formed, and vigorous efforts are being made to secure the revenue that will be needed to enable the Society to meet its financial obligations. Besides continuing the hospital work previously carried on by the Atlin Nurse Committee, the new Society has become responsible for the maintenance of the hospital at Teulon, for the salary of the medical missionary in that district, and—to the extent of $250 in each case—for the support of the missionaries in five mission fields. Attention is called to the admirable monthly publication of the W.H.M.S., The Home Mission Pioneer, whose circulation already amounts to 1,745 copies, and whose subscribers are found all the way from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The new society is very earnestly commended to the sympathy of the women of the Church, and the hope is cherished that before many years an Auxiliary of the Women's Home Missionary Society will be established in every congregation in the Western Section.

PROPOSAL REGARDING WINTER SUPPLY.

At the annual meeting of the Committee, "the General Secretary read a letter from the Rev. W. J. Knox of Strathroy, suggesting that ministers in settled charges in the East volunteer to give service during the winter in mission fields in the West, it being understood that satisfactory supply be provided for their congregations during their absence. The letter stated that the congregation of Strathroy had agreed to give leave of absence to Mr. Knox for this work during the coming winter. The Committee expressed its grateful appreciation of the offer of Mr. Knox and of the willingness of his congregation to allow him leave of absence that he may give his services to the Committee next winter, commended this line of action to other ministers in settled charges, and authorized the Executive to arrange details for any ministers offering themselves for this kind of service. Only one other offer has yet been received. The Executive will be very glad to hear from any ministers who may feel inclined to give the Church this unique but valuable form of assistance.

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE MARITIME PROVINCES.

During the annual meeting "the Convener made a statement regarding the generous financial help given by individuals and congregations in the Eastern Section to aid the Committee in carrying on its work in the West. The Committee resolved to record its thanks to the brethren in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces for the liberal assistance given to the Committee during the past year for its work in the West."

SPECIAL CONTRIBUTORS.

A considerable number of those who had been making a special contribution of $250 per annum to the Home Mission Fund, completed, a year ago, the number of payments they had promised to make, and during the past year their assistance was withdrawn. Your Committee are very thankful to be able to report that so many others were induced to take an interest in this scheme that the places of those who dropped out have been more than filled. The appended list contains the names of 191 contributors—seven more than were reported last year.

HOME MISSION BUILDING FUND.

The following grants have been made to assist in the erection of churches in New Ontario. Blind River $50, Ophir $32, Burpee $30, White Lake $25, Hilly Grove $25, Port Lock $50, Milberta $30, and Emsdale $50. Some six or seven additional applications for grants are awaiting action by the Executive.

PRESBYTERIAL CONVENERS.

Each year adds to the obligation under which the Church is placed to the Home Mission Conveners of the various Presbyteries for their invaluable, gratuitous services. Amidst the multifarious duties devolving upon them in connection with their own congregations, they give time and thought and effort to the prosecution of the Church's work in the Home Mission field.

ESTIMATES FOR THE CURRENT YEAR.

Ontario and Quebec	$29,000
Synod of Manitoba and North-West Territories	24,000
Synod of British Columbia	27,500
Work among foreigners in Synod of Manitoba and North-West Territories	10,000
Work among foreigners in Synod of British Columbia	2,500
Yukon Territory	4,000
Travelling expenses of missionaries	7,000
Salaries and expenses of Superintendents and Secretary	10,000
Salary of Mr. T. A. Rodger, and sundries	2,500
Expenses of Committee and Executive	2,000
Proportion of general expenses	1,500
Total	$120,000

In connection with these estimates it ought to be stated that the lump sums voted to the Western Synods were based upon the expenditure of the previous year. If, however, it should be found possible to secure missionaries for all the fields during the coming winter, these amounts would be quite inadequate. In the case of the Yukon, also, it is more than likely that the estimated expenditure will be exceeded. Your Committee are very anxious to see the Home Mission receipts largely increased, so that at the earliest possible date an addition of $50 per annum may be made to the salaries of ordained missionaries. To enable this increased remuneration to be given, the Committee would need to have $10,000 additional revenue.

STUDENTS' MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Each of the four theological colleges has its Missionary Society, and the work done by these societies in supplying mission fields is of the highest value. The thanks of the Committee and of the Church are due to the students, who contribute themselves as well as secure contributions from others for the prosecution of their work. Special mention deserves to be made of the Knox College Missionary Society, which is undertaking this year to supply forty fields.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. D. McLAREN,
General Secretary.

ROBT. H. WARDEN,
Convener.

REPORTS OF SUPERINTENDENTS.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF HOME MISSIONS IN NORTHERN ONTARIO.

In looking back over the year just closed and comparing it with the years that have preceded it, we have great reason for encouragement in looking forward to the future.

Taking the three Presbyteries, within whose bounds my labors are confined, we find in each of them signs of prosperity—tokens for good, surely, from the presence of the Master. There has been steady growth in many of our fields, resulting in the lessening of the grants in some cases, and in others in their passing over to the status of Augmented charges. For this we are thankful, and encouraged to look forward to the future for still greater blessing than has been enjoyed in the past.

Barrie

Last year we placed one of our fields (Uffington) that had never enjoyed the services of an ordained missionary, under the care of the Rev. H. Brown, by whom excellent work has been done. This year we place one of our mission fields that never had an ordained missionary on the list of Augmented charges. The increasing importance of the tourist traffic on the Muskoka lakes rendered it desirable that we should have some one on the field who could take more immediate oversight of this important branch of the work. In May last, Rev. Donald McKay, a recent graduate of Knox College, was called by the congregation at Bala, and inducted under Augmentation, to have oversight of the work on lakes Muskoka and Joseph. This new departure has proved very successful. Everything is moving forward harmoniously under Mr. McKay. They hope soon to become a self-supporting charge. An additional missionary will be employed during the tourist season on this field, that the new points opening up on these lakes may not be overlooked.

In other respects, the work within the bounds of this Presbytery is moving along very much on the old lines. A new church was erected and opened at The Portage, a station on the Dwight field, due very much to the energy displayed by Mr. J. C. Bain, our representative at this point—a work in which he was very ably encouraged and assisted by brethren from Toronto and elsewhere, who spent the summer in that neighborhood.

North Bay

This Presbytery, covering a very much larger section of the country than the mission field within the bounds of the Presbytery of Barrie, necessarily presents a greater diversity of interest. We have here the same experience as in the other Presbytery, only on a wider scale. Our mission fields are moving forward. Three of our fields passed over to the care of the committee on Augmentation at the beginning of the year; and at the last meeting of the committee on Augmentation, two more were taken under their care. The former are Sturgeon Falls, Mattawa and New Liskeard. Those taking the step recently are Callander and Rosseau. Other fields will no doubt follow in due time, their places to be taken by the new fields opening up in the newer parts in the north. One new field was opened up in Temiscaming, to be known as Charlton, covering a very important section in that new country.

Three of our fields formerly served by student missionaries have had ordained men appointed to them this year, viz.: French River, Whitney and Milberta, in Temiscaming. Church and manse building has not been neglected where necessary. At New Liskeard a very handsome and commodious church has been erected, in keeping with the growth and progress of that thriving town. Manses have also been erected by the Augmented congregations of Powassan and Sturgeon Falls. These are among the first fruits of the building fund of the Century Fund. To speak of the lack of supply during the winter season would sound, perhaps, like ancient history; yet it is as true to-day as in the past that our work suffers severely during the winter portion of the year from the fact that supply is not available in proportion to the needs of the work. The last winter was no exception to the rule, if we may so speak of it. After making use of all available material, no less than seven fields were forced to do without the means of grace from their own Church. This may not be so serious a matter during a winter such as the last, as it was found that in many of the fields in which supply was given, it was impossible for the missionary on many occasions to reach his appointments; yet it is far from a healthy condition.

Two missionaries gave their time to the mission among the lumbermen. This may not seem very much when the number of men employed in the woods is considered, but when the number of men available for this work is taken into account, it will be seen that this important branch of the work has not been neglected.

Algoma

We have to note changes in this Presbytery. First, the retirement of our venerable Convener, the Rev. John Rennie, who had occupied this position from the organization of the Presbytery. In the early days, the struggle to get things into proper shape, that the work might be accomplished in the best possible way, was no easy task; but by faithful attention to the varied needs of this important field, Mr. Rennie did much to secure the success which our work in its various phases has attained. The Presbytery will long miss his fatherly counsels in dealing with difficult questions. The best wishes of the brethren of the Presbytery go with him, with the hope that he may long be spared to enjoy a well-earned rest.

During the year we have had changes here, too—indicating progress. Manitowaning, long the scene of Mr. Rennie's labors, passed off the Home Mission list to the list of Augmented congregations, and extended a hearty and unanimous call to the Rev. D. H. Currie, of Knox College. More recently the Bruce Mines field and the Richards' Landing field followed the example of Manitowaning, and made a similar request. By a little re-arrangement, it was made possible for Bruce Mines to take this step. A neighboring field, formerly known as Little Rapids, was dissolved; one of the stations, Knox Church, Lefroy (formerly known as Milltown), was added to Bruce Mines field, and the other station, Little Rapids, was added to the charge of Thessalon. By so doing, the Presbytery not only strengthened the congregations of Thessalon and Bruce Mines, but also relieved the Home Mission committee of a considerable grant. The same thing was also accomplished on the Tarbutt field, where a division took place a few years ago by which our cause was weakened somewhat. Those who differed on some minor points, seeing the folly of their conduct, doubtless, agreed to come together again and work harmoniously for the common welfare. We shall be disappointed if this congregation is not soon asking for the helping hand of Augmentation to help them on to self-support.

The suspension of operations among the industries at the "Soo" was felt more or less in our work, especially in those parts of the country adjoining the "Soo"; but the re-organization of these industries on a better basis will restore things to their former condition.

During the past year three of our student fields have had ordained missionaries appointed to them, viz.: Silver Water, Bar River and Iron Bridge. Churches have been erected at Hilly Grove, in connection with the Manitowaning congregation, White Lake, Cockburn Island and Sowerby. The assistance derived from the building fund of the Century Fund assigned to these two Presbyteries, has been a source of great encouragement to many of our stations to provide for themselves much needed church accommodation.

The contributions to the schemes of the Church will be found this year very much in advance of any previous year. Owing to ill-health, I was forced to forego work for a season. Through the kindness of the Conveners of the Presbyteries of North Bay and Algoma, who undertook, in a great measure, the most pressing portions of the work, my absence was but little felt. For the kindness of these brethren, Messrs. Childerhose and McEachren, I shall ever feel deeply grateful; and no less to the Executive of the Home Mission committee, for leave granted for a brief season of rest.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. FINDLAY.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF HOME MISSIONS IN THE SYNOD OF MANITOBA AND THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES.

The Home Mission work of the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories has been considerably extended during the year. Immigration has poured into the districts where railroads are being constructed, and along the lines of proposed extensions. This is particularly true of the Arcola branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and of Regina, Qu'Appelle, Battleford, Prince Albert and Yorkton districts. The older settlements have had, in many cases, large accessions to their population by immigration. Sometimes our older fields have been weakened numerically by our people selling out to settlers not of our Church, and having sometimes no ecclesiastical preferences. In other places, our hands are strengthened by new settlers who are interested in our cause, and who take an active part in the work of our Church. To meet the requirements of these new settlers, and to give better supply to settlements that are older, we are under the necessity of opening forty new fields, to which four or five will have to be added before the end of summer.

We are employing about eighty-five students and catechists this summer. When these students return to college, we will have seventy fields for which to provide winter supply. Thirty of these we hope to raise to the rank of ordained supply by increasing grants where necessary, and by building manses. Last year the scarcity of material prevented us building as many manses as we should otherwise have done, and, therefore, we are not able to employ all the ordained men who offer us their services for work in the Synod.

The New Fields opened since last year are:

Winnipeg Presbytery — Mill Creek, Starbuck, Clandeboye, Norwood, Elmwood. The last three are in Winnipeg.

Brandon Presbytery—Springvale, Rutledge and Marlboro. Springvale and Marlboro are in good districts where there are large numbers of families without service near them, and where railways are expected very soon. Rutledge is an old but neglected district.

Minnedosa Presbytery — Wishart, Quill Plains, Crescent Ridge, Goose Lake, Langenberg and Cote, represent new territories into which settlers have gone and are going. Dunleith and Pettapiece are in older districts which have received large additions of immigrants.

Dauphin Presbytery—Clearview.

Melita Presbytery—Coteau.

Regina Presbytery—Arlington Beach, Bladworth, Disley, Keelerville, Walsh and West Weyburn. These fields are in farming and ranching districts, and near railways expected. The stations in Arlington Beach and Keelerville missions are far apart, and will necessitate long drives for the missionaries.

Qu'Appelle Presbytery—Fillmore, Fletwode, Chickney, Neudorf, Hillsden. These are important fields, where rapid growth should be expected.

Portage la Prairie—Rosehill.

Prince Albert Presbytery—Crystal Plains, Evanvale, Muskeg Lake, Jackfish Lake, Bergman, Prongerville, Buffer's Lake, Smithville, Birch Hills, Star City, Barr Colony and Osler. These are all new fields except Osler and Smithville. New settlers are pouring into the Saskatchewan Valley. Missionaries in these fields will have long drives to reach their appointments, and samples of nearly every class of people to minister to. The work in these fields will be difficult this year, and will fully tax the resources of the missionaries appointed to them.

The fields that have been raised to the rank of Ordained Supply during the year are:
Winnipeg Presbytery—Little Britain, Rosser, Oakville, Dufferin Avenue.
Superior Presbytery—Schreiber.
Brandon Presbytery—Elkhorn, South Brandon.
Minnedosa Presbytery—Shell River, Sheho.
Regina Presbytery—Drinkwater, Longlaketon, Milestone, Craik, Balgonie.
Qu'Appelle Presbytery—Welwyn, Sintaluta.
Prince Albert Presbytery—Jack Fish, Elbow.
Dauphin Presbytery—Valley River, Minitonas, Grand View.
Portage la Prairie Presbytery—Mekiwin, Sidney.
Melita Presbytery—Gainsboro, Carievale, Napinka, New Hope. In all, twenty-seven.

Fields raised to Augmented Charges are:
Egremont, Pettapiece, Saltcoats, Miniota, Rosthern, Austin, Gainsboro and Waskada.

The following fields have increased their givings toward Self-support:
Ignace, Schreiber, West Fort William, Dufferin Avenue, Niverville, Rosser, Selkirk East, Stony Mountain, Sunnyside, Snowflake, Elm Creek, Mekiwin, Gilbert Plains, Valley River, Argyle, Beulah, Beaverdale, Millwood, Shell River, Sheho, Wallace, South Brandon, Hargrave, Tarbolton, Carievale, Napinka, Redvers, Earlswood, Fairlight, Highview, Sintaluta, Valley View, Ashley, Battleford, Kinistino, Melfort, Willoughby, Battle Creek, Graburn, Pilot Butte, Swift Current, Yellowgrass.

Superior Presbytery—Big Fork, Boucherville, Camp Bay, Ignace, Lumber camps.
Rock Lake Presbytery—Huntley, Wakopa. Glenora and Holmfield received partial supply.
Minnedosa Presbytery—Upper Assiniboine, Sheho, Wallace, Millwood. Tetlock received partial supply.
Dauphin Presbytery—Lake Dauphin, Minitonas. Valley River and Winnipegosis received partial supply.
Melita Presbytery—Halbrite.
Regina Presbytery—Battle Creek, Parkbeg, South Saskatchewan, Wascana. Craik and Davidson received partial supply.
Qu'Appelle Presbytery—Esterhax, Fletwode. Loon Creek, Fairmede, Antler and Fairlight received partial supply.

These fields represent about 950 families, and 500 people not connected with families, who received, in a few cases, partial supply; but who were mostly without supply of any kind from our Church during the winter.

Grants have been reduced in the following fields:
Rainy River, Snowflake, Graburn, Pilot Butte, Swift Current, Wascana, Weyburn, Yellowgrass, Fletwode, Antler, Sintaluta, Valley View, Welwyn, Kinistino, Ochre River, Swan River, Napinka, Emo, Ignace, Schreiber, Niverville, Stony Mountain, Sunnyside, Whitehaven, Prairie Grove, Huntley, Lake Dauphin, Halbrite, Highview, Battle Creek.

The fields that have become Self-supporting during the year are:
Westbourne, Newdale, Estevan, Pierson, Carnduff, Tarbolton, Gilbert Plains, St. Paul's (Winnipeg), Wapella, Selkirk, Cartwright, Macdonald, Oxbow.

Churches have been built during the year at:
Miniota, Beulah, Orrwold, Culross, Drinkwater, Rose Plains, Rouleau, Binscarth, Milestone, Yellowgrass, Wawota, Smithville, Saskatoon, Alameda, Carlyle, Lyleton, Gainsboro, Starbuck, Rosser, Oakbank, Macdonald, Union Point, Gilbert Plains, Carnduff, Waskada.

Manses have been built at:
Kenton, Sifton, Ethelbert, Geneva—west of Rosthern, Teulon (hospital and manse), Cottonwood, Davidson, Dundurn, Sintaluta, Earlswood, New Hope, Carievale, Gainsboro, McCreary and South Qu'Appelle.

Work Among Foreigners.—The work among the foreigners has received a great deal of attention during the year. One conference was held in Winnipeg with the workers among the Galicians, and every aspect of the work was considered, and the best judgment of the committee given to the workers with regard to methods to be pursued. Four missionaries among the Galicians are making considerable progress in learning the language, in the hope of soon being able to use it in services for the people. Seven Galician colporteurs have been employed. They report monthly, and are doing good work. Copies of the New Testament in Ruthen an have been secured, and are being distributed. Mr. Sherbinin has, since February, been teaching a class of about sixteen young Galicians in Winnipeg. The majority of these will likely be permitted by the Government to teach Galician schools during the winter. They maintain themselves by doing such work as offers. There was great difficulty experienced in finding them work for the winter. Those who get schools in the winter will be easily able to support themselves next summer if the class is continued. . . The work among the Doukhobors west of Rosthern has been interrupted by Mr. Sherbinin's removal. . . Mr. Kovacsi labored successfully among the Hungarians south of Whitewood, where there were about forty families last summer. A large settlement of Hungarians west of Rosthern (Crooked Lakes) asked for a visit from him, which was granted; and they then extended a very unanimous invitation for him to go and labor among them. As a result, Mr. Kovacsi has been appointed to Crooked Lakes settlement for the summer, where there are two hundred families, over half of them being Roman Catholic. . . No work was undertaken in the Scandinavian settlements because of lack of funds. The settlements at Hanley, Kinistino and Durban are poorly supplied with the means of grace.

After looking into the work very thoroughly with regard to its present needs and probable extension, it was estimated that $30,000 would be required from the Home Mission fund for work among the English-speaking people, and $10,000 at least for work among the foreign element. The Home Mission committee granted the $10,000 for foreign work as the maximum, but felt justified in granting only $24,000 for the English department of the work. We hope that the west may give more to self-support; and east and west more to the Home Mission fund than was expected, so that we may be able to carry on and extend our work as circumstances require.

In the progress of the work in the Synod nearly all the mission fields have shared. Some of the pleasing features are: (1) The large additions this year to the communion roll, in some fields by profession of faith. This is not as universal as should be expected. (2) A more adequate equipment for worship and work by building churches and manses, often at very great sacrifice to the people. (3) A deeper sense of financial responsibility, shown by more prompt payment of church debts and of missionaries' salaries, and a more general and generous support of the schemes of the Church. (4) The strong hold that our missions are taking on the communities where they are established, and the aggressive policy almost universally adopted. (5) The strenuous efforts of the people to bear as lightly as possible on the Home Mission fund, and to become independent of support from it at the earliest date, wherever the mission realizes the work is theirs and not the committee's.

These features of our fields promise well for the future of our work.

J. A. CARMICHAEL.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF HOME MISSIONS IN THE SYNOD OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Brethren,—In presenting to you my second annual report for the Synod of British Columbia, I wish to acknowledge the help that has been kindly accorded me from Presbyteries, and Presbytery Conveners of Home Missions within the bounds. An application is likely to come before next General Assembly to have the name of the Synod extended so as to read "The Synod of British Columbia and Alberta."

The year has been a busy one in our Home Mission work. The general statistics are as follows:

New fields added	18
Gone up from student status to ordained missions	18
Ordained missions put on the Augmentation stage	8
Missions which have increased their givings by the sum of $200 or upwards.	10
Missions which have increased by $100 or upwards.	11
Became self-sustaining	1

Here follows a brief review of the Presbyteries and Synod :

Calgary The list of fields in this Presbytery—including all congregations—having gone up from twenty-six to thirty-six in number, and these fields, covering a vast extent of country, the Presbytery has decided to ask division into two Presbyteries, to be named respectively Calgary and MacLeod.

During the year, three student fields have gone up to the ordained list, one ordained field to the augmentation list, and two or three congregations are now very near to self-support. Some Scandinavian work has been carried on at different centres in the Presbytery, under the charge of Mr. H. E. Hegh. Three mission fields are maintained within the Mormon belt in Southern Alberta ; one at Cardston, under Rev. G. Hamilton ; one at Raymond, including the neighboring towns of Stirling and Magrath, to which the Rev. C. McKillop has just been appointed ; and one at Mountain View, supported last summer by Queen's College Missionary Society. The Presbytery is very anxious that a fourth mission, at Kimball, Taylorville and Spring Coulee, should be opened at once.

An interesting and important development in the mission work our Church is doing in the Mormon territory has recently taken place. I refer to the lectures on Mormon history, church life and theology, delivered in Manitoba College, by Professor Kilpatrick. Besides the regular students in theology in the college, our two ordained missionaries working among the Mormons, as well as a number of the members of the Home Mission committees of the two western Synods of our Church, made a point of being present. I venture to express the hope that these lectures will be published in full and given to the whole Church. At the present time the Mormon problem is very much to the front, and an abler analysis of the psychological conditions and existing facts in the midst of which Joseph Smith arose and the Mormon church went on its way to the position which it came to hold, has, I am satisfied, never been presented. That Mormonism as a system should be taken up in one of our theological colleges, and treated seriously, lucidly and impartially, as has been done in these Manitoba College lectures, surely marks an advance in the methods in which our Church seeks to pursue its work under the conditions which it has to meet in Southern Alberta.

The following new fields were added this spring to the lists of the Presbytery : Bassano—a ranching district on the lower reaches of the Red Deer River ; Cypress Hills—east of Medicine Hat ; Fishburn—in the Pincher Creek district ; Knee Hill—east of Didsbury ; South Saskatchewan—ranching district between Medicine Hat and Lethbridge ; Springbank—west of Calgary ; Stand Off—ranching district south and east of MacLeod ; Stavely—south of Claresholm ; West High River—ranching district ; Willow Creek—north-west from MacLeod. During the year a manse was built at High River. Our beautiful little church at Frank has been made practically useless for the holding of service on account of its proximity to the track of the disastrous slide of last spring.

Edmonton The number of fields in this Presbytery went up from thirty-one to thirty-eight ; the whole list including two self-supporting congregations, seven augmented charges, and twenty-nine missions—two of which are carried on amongst Scandinavian populations. During the year, nine student fields went up to the ordained list, and three ordained missions to the augmentation list. The Presbytery is asking from the Assembly the creation of a new Presbytery out of its southern portions, to be called Red Deer. No work has as yet been started among the Galicians of the Star and Edna districts ; but the members of the Consistory of the Independent Greek Church, which has lately been organized in Manitoba and the Territories, are in full touch with their fellow-countrymen in Northern Alberta.

The work that has been carried on by the Rev. T. A. Rodger, in the towns and villages of this Presbytery, has been very helpful. The fact that the Home Mission Committee have not confined their interest to routine lines, and material statistics, but have thought of the spiritual side of the work and provided for it by arranging for missionary evangelistic services, is in itself a helpful note. Mr. Rodger's work, up to the present date, has been confined mainly to Northern Alberta ; with the beginning of the ensuing home mission year, his purpose is to inaugurate meetings also within the Presbytery of Calgary. I take the liberty of recommending that arrangements be made for his continuing within the Synod, to visit and stimulate congregations in the other Presbyteries as well. A very great part of his work is helpful not only to congregations, but equally to ministers and missionaries, and inner circles of church workers.

Immigration into this Presbytery has been very large throughout the year. The settlers who have come in from the United States are mostly of the good, sturdy type, and are assimilating well with their Canadian fellow-subjects. One characteristic which may be remarked in connection with many of these new comers from the south, is the interest they take in Sunday-school work. It may be remarked that many of our missionaries have such a large number of preaching points to attend to, that they are as good as unable to even meet their Sunday-schools, on which account the Presbytery has lately passed a resolution giving permission to its mission laborers to lay aside an occasional Sabbath day—after due notice given—for the purpose of visiting, and addressing, and encouraging the Sunday-schools that exist within the limits of their mission fields.

The new fields which were added this spring to the lists of the Presbytery are these : Birch Lake—in the Vermillion district ; Duhamel—east of Wetaskiwin ; Edison—north-west of Edmonton ; Phillips—south-west of Leduc ; Red Willow—east of Lacombe ; Three Hill Creek—east of Innisfail ; Medicine River (Scandinavian)—west of Red Deer.

During the year, churches were built at Blackfalds, Bowden, Partridge Hills, Red Deer, Ponoka and Tofield ; and a manse at Wetaskiwin.

Kootenay The chief features here are the uncertainty of the financial situation, fluctuation of population, difficulty of holding congregations, lack of continuity in Church work and interest. If times do not revive we may have to reduce the status of some of the congregations, or to combine separate towns into one mission. Work has been opened up in the Lardeau country, After long vacancies, the self-supporting congregations of Greenwood, Nelson, Phœnix and Rossland have all been supplied with settled pastors. There is some desire manifested to have halls erected, near the mouths of some of the larger mines, to serve the purpose of reading-rooms during the week, and of meeting-places for Church work on the Lord's Day. During the year, a church was bought from the Methodist denomination at Ainsworth, and churches were erected at Wilmer, in the Upper Columbia district, and in Fire Valley, on Arrow Lake. A manse was also purchased at Nelson, at a cost of $3,750.

Kamloops The augmented congregation of Spallumcheen has become self-sustaining. Work in the Cariboo district has been re-arranged, and the Church is under much obligation to men like Cameron of Barkerville, and Mitchell of Quesnel—men who have been traversing vast distances for our Church, under considerable privation and exposure, through the scattered villages and the mining camps. The Presbytery also has work in some other far away districts, such as the Osoyoos and Similkameen valleys. In some districts in this Presbytery, and in the Kootenay Presbytery, our Church has the whole field to itself. The removal of Mr. Stewart from Kamloops, who has been convener of the Home Mission work of the Presbytery for years, is a heavy loss to our home mission interests. During the year, churches were built in Fairview, Penticton, West Bank (Okanagan Lake) ; and halls at Roger's Pass and Palliser ; and manses at Kelowna and Revelstoke.

Westminster In this Presbytery, so many fields went up from the student status to that of the ordained mission list, that only two remain as requiring student supply. A church was built during the year at Tynehead (Surrey field) ; also an undenominational one at Pine Grove. A logger's mission was inaugurated last summer away up the coast, and will be continued during the incoming year. There has been a good deal of re-arrangement of the missions in this Presbytery, with the result that the field is well covered as a whole, and three mission fields have been put on the Augmentation list, having now their own called and settled pastors. The Atlin and Yukon districts belong to this Presbytery, and have been ably attended to by our devoted band of ministers and missionaries—Dr. Grant of Dawson City, Mr. Knowles of Bonanza, the Pringle Brothers of Hunker and the Creeks, Mr. Wright of White Horse, and Mr. Turkington of Atlin.

Victoria This Presbytery, like that of Kootenay, suffered much during the last winter on account of the number of students who left for college and the difficulty of getting supplies. The fields, however, are now manned effectively. A manse was built at Ladysmith during the home mission year.

Survey of the Home Mission Work as a Whole.

Givings.—It must be conceded that the amount given from this Synod to the help of the Home Mission work in general, is not nearly so large as it ought to be. The givings last year were about $3,000—hardly more than enough to pay the travelling expenses of students and ordained missionaries coming to the Synod. Attention has been called, and is being called, emphatically, to the smallness of the givings of even most of the larger congregations within the Synod; and at the meeting of Synod to be held shortly in Edmonton, it is expected that a forward movement will be inaugurated in this connection.

Self-Support.—There is also need that our assisted congregations in this Synod should realize more fully that the Home Mission fund from which they receive help is not a large chest replenished automatically, and always open to their demands. I am glad to report that increased givings are the order of the day; yet, in view of the addition of so many fields to our list from time to time, and of the pressure that is put upon the general fund; and of the fact that many donors to this fund in the East are no more able financially, than are many of the families in the assisted congregations of the West, it is evident that strong effort must be made to have the congregations which for years have drawn from this fund become self-supporting in the immediate future. A campaign of education, having this purpose in view, is being prosecuted with considerable vigor.

Taking up Missions.—Several mission fields are being supported by individual congregations, donors, or congregational societies within the Synod, as follows:

Edmonton; Calgary; Medicine Hat and Lethbridge (combined); the Sunday schools of Cranbrook, Fernie and Nelson (combined); Sunday schools of the Presbytery of Kamloops; Mount Pleasant Church, Vancouver; a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Vancouver; St. Andrew's Church, Vancouver; St. John's Sunday school, Vancouver; besides other help coming from Richmond Sunday school, and some Bible classes and Christian Endeavor societies.

The W. H. M. S.—Several auxiliaries in connection with the Women's Home Mission Society movement have been established: for example, in Calgary, Vancouver, Kamloops, Port Haney, etc. There is a growing interest in this work and we look for good results from it. The taking up of four mission fields as part of the work of the General Women's Home Mission Society, in addition to the maintenance of certain hospitals, has been a popular move so far as the West is concerned.

Colleges.—The Colleges started last year on undenominational lines, in the city of Calgary and the town of Kamloops, and which made their start largely through the interest taken in them by our ministers and laymen, have filled a felt need; and although they have had to face difficulties, especially in connection with the long illness of Principal Macrae of Calgary, the prospect seems bright for excellent work on general educational lines.

Home Missionaries.—It is pleasant to record that several of our missionaries have been called from their Home Mission fields to take charge of self-supporting congregations within the Synod. By far the greater number of our pulpits are filled by Home Mission men.

Presbytery Meetings.—The Presbyteries of the Synod are taking more interest in intellectual and devotional work during their stated meetings than formerly, spending time and thought frequently in consideration of difficult subjects and important practical topics. The holding of conferences of this kind and the interest taken in the proposed Summer School to be held at the close of the Synod meeting in Edmonton, mark a growing appreciation of the importance of the spiritual side of the work.

Conversions.—I feel, for myself, that this side should be emphasized, that we should look earnestly, in our mission work, for conversions to Christ, and consider that it is for this purpose after all that administration proceeds, and money is collected, and the work as a whole taken up.

While it is very proper and worthy to emphasize the notional side of the work, and the importance of welding all classes together into one loyal Canadian national life, yet we dare not forget first principles, that the Church herself exists for the bringing of men to the Saviour.

S. Schools.—The importance of Sunday school work seems to be growing in the minds of the people of the West. Home Mission work has to depend largely upon the Sabbath school and upon the home. Institutes and conventions are being arranged for within the Synod. If we wish to affect favorably this growing time of the West, we must live and move in the atmosphere of large ideals; and our Church should work for the highest aims, and under the best and most unselfish methods.

Co-operation.—And at this point, I am glad to say a word in connection with the subject of co-operation. This subject has been for the last year or two, much in the minds of many of Christ's people. In whatever parts of the Church it has been tried or not tried, this may be said for the Synod of British Columbia: that we are already working, at least in the western half of the Synod, on lines of practical and guarded and judicious co-operation. Conferences between the Home Mission authorities of both the Methodist and Presbyterian denominations have been held in the course of the year, at Kamloops, Cranbrook, Nelson and Vancouver. Nothing has been attempted in the way of legislation. No effort has been made to push individual views beyond the lines of common agreement, but friction has been removed in several cases; and the churches are acting together in the line of mutual helpfulness and brotherhood, and funds have been saved to the Mission Committees of both churches.

Suggestions.—With the view to possible improvement on some lines of our Home Mission work, I may suggest that our student missionaries might have presented to them a book suitable for entries, not only of mission statistics, but of a kind that might be handed down from one student to his successor; giving information about the settlement, roads, distance, families, methods of finance, etc. I am issuing circulars to students and to the managers of our mission fields, dealing with the subject of finance. It is astonishing to find that some of our missionaries seem to be quite ignorant of how to go about the work of organizing, or what salary they are to receive; of what is the relationship of the giving of the people, to the grant from the Home Mission fund; and of the duties and responsibilities of the people to whom they minister, toward the fund and toward the church schemes in general.

One missionary has recently pointed out that the part of the country he is in is flooded with publications coming from sects of all kinds, and he thinks that he could make good use of literature of a worthy and helpful character. If books dealing with Mormonism could be sent to the library of the Presbytery at Calgary, or to our missionaries who are laboring in the Mormon territory, these would be a great help; and if some of the best publications and some devotional works as well, could be sent to our far away missionaries, such as to Mr. Simpson, in Peace River; to Mr. Gold of Beaver Lake; to our missionaries in the Cariboo district and among the mining camps, and in the scattered ranching valleys; or to Mr. W. J. Kidd, of the Loggers' Mission, on the Pacific coast; or to the students in the islands between the main-land and Vancouver Island, much use might be made of such timely gifts.

There is opening also for more work to be done among the lumbermen and lumber camps of British Columbia; nor have we by any means fully taken up every district that is open to us, especially in the northern parts of British Columbia, and in the districts of Alberta, which are some distance east of the C. & E. line of railway, and in the Yukon.

The thanks of the Synod are due to all helpers, perhaps especially to the American Presbyterian Church of Montreal, and the student missionary societies of Manitoba College, Knox, and Queen's; and I am under much personal obligation to the conveners of the Home Mission Committees of the Presbyteries of this Synod, and to the Presbytery clerks, for much kindness given.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. HERDMAN.

REPORTS FROM PRESBYTERIES.

Quebec

Nearly all the mission fields in this Presbytery consist of Protestant settlements which are intermined with, and surrounded on every side by, Roman Catholics. Some of these missions are in lumbering centres, and others in farming districts. But everywhere they are holding up the true light in the midst of much spiritual darkness. It is a significant fact that wherever there is a Protestant settlement supplied with gospel ordinances, there the Catholics are more enlightened and advanced than in districts where the priest holds undisputed sway.

In two fields, Chicoutimi and Riviere du Loup, the missionaries preach in both English and French. From the latter field the Methodists have now withdrawn, leaving a hopeful outlook for the Presbyterians. There are now ten mission fields in the Presbytery, supplied by eight ordained missionaries and two students. The missionaries are hopeful, and are doing a work which is of vital moment to this province.

H. C. SUTHERLAND, Convener.

Montreal

Avoca and Harrington, some eight miles apart, contain some fifty families of Highland Scotch. These people are some distance from railway communication—have but one meeting place, the church, and but one purpose in meeting—the worship of the God of their fathers. The pastor, Rev. Murray Watson, is a faithful and forceful preacher, and watches over his flock with a shepherd's care.

Arundel, De Salaberry and Harrington (East) constitute a scattered field of English and French families. For nine months the field has been without a settled missionary, but Rev. J. E. Menancon has recently been appointed—a man of experience and adaptation—and prospects are bright for the future.

Farnham and Farnham Centre are fields that could be worked much more advantageously under union; in the one case with the Methodists, and in the other with Congregationalists. The cause in Farnham is gaining somewhat from the increase of railway works.

Grenville, the Mountain Church and St. Fillans is an ideal French and English field. The pastor, Rev. F. M. Boudreau, speaks both languages equally well, and is greatly esteemed by all his people. The congregation is splendidly organized, gives liberally toward missions as well as in maintaining ordinances among themselves.

In Joilette our mission is the only Protestant cause—a light in a dark place. All denominations unite to form our little congregation there, and the utmost harmony prevails. Mr. Paradis, the pastor, has access to a large number of Roman Catholic families, and he is much respected by them for his work's sake.

Kensington and Mount Royal Vale—in the vicinity of Montreal—are under the care of the Students' Missionary Society. Both sections have a future, but growth will be necessarily slow. Centres however small are important just because they are centres.

Laprairie is supplied in winter by students with a fortnightly service; in summer the mission is connected with Petite Cote and receives the full services of a student. Summer visitors greatly appreciate the services, as the town is intensely Roman Catholic.

The Rev. Colin McKercher has for many years ministered to Lost River and Lakeview, a district of mountains, valleys and streams at the foot of the Laurentians. A decreasing population continues to support the mission with increasing liberality, and look upon their pastor as a veritable father among his flock.

Maisonneuve has passed through a sore trial in the sudden and tragic death of its young pastor. The past year has been one of great progress, both in attendance at regular services and Sabbath-school, and also in organization and activity.

Mille Isles and Cote St. Gabriel, under the Rev. James Beatt, has also made encouraging progress. A new manse is in course of erection and sufficiently advanced to be occupied by the missionary. The people, while increasing their subscriptions for maintenance of ordinances, have also contributed largely to the manse by subscriptions extending over three years. Shawbridge, a small station of this mission, has been detached and connected with New Glasgow.

Nazareth Street Mission is still carried on under the Session of Crescent Street Church, and is supplied with excellent workers and all needful financial help by that Church. The development of these workers is not the least good resulting from such a mission.

St. Anne and Pointe Claire are two watering places on the river side, having fairly good congregations during the summer months. Sabbath-schools have been opened and continued throughout the winter. Students supply in winter without expense to the Home Mission Fund.

Charles Street Mission—English and French—is under the care of our veteran missionary, Rev. C. A. Doudiet. The mission is jointly supported by St. Paul's Church and the Board of French Evangelization. The English element is of the emigration class, and makes large demands on the time and sacrifice of the missionary.

Trout River and Burke is a field on the American border; and, like all border fields, has its peculiar difficulties. Mr. Joseph Mowatt, who is about to go forth to the foreign field, has done excellent service here for two successive summers. Mr. Tucker, a bright young student, is in charge this term.

Verdun has been, and is still, worked by the Students' Missionary Society. The growth in numbers and interest is encouraging. The village has recently been deluged by the overflowing St. Lawrence, and the feelings of the people will be for a time dampened.

St. Mark's Church, city, has made wonderful progress under the energetic ministry of Mr. Morrow, and contemplates an early settlement.

W. R. CRUIKSHANK, Convener.

Ottawa

Aylwin.—The Rev. James Taylor, who for seven years has done excellent work in this field, was, in October, transferred to Chelsea and Cantley. The Rev. R. Taggart has taken up the work with zeal and effectiveness.

Bearbrook and Navan has prospered under the ministrations of the Rev. A. G. Cameron, and is now transferred to the Augmented list.

Desert.—Growth is expected in this field as soon as traffic is opened by Gatineau railroad, which will be this summer. Rev. N. McLaren visited eighteen shanties and ten depots during the winter.

The fields of Bell's Corners, Casselman, Onslow, East Templeton all report good work done, and communicants added to the rolls.

Plantagenet, etc.—A new church has been built at Smith's, and the church at Pendleton repaired.

Portland.—So many families have left this field for the west that an ordained missionary could not be maintained, and student supply was given.

Lochaber, Thurso and The Gore has been placed on the Augmented list, and called Rev. J. L. Gourley.

W. D. ARMSTRONG, Convener.

Lanark and Renfrew

Alice.—Rev. M. D. M. Blakely, missionary. Doing good work. Mission compact. The people contribute very liberally for maintenance and to the schemes of the Church. Removals to the West prevent much hope of growth.

Bathurst.—Rev. J. G. Greig, missionary. The people are gradually coming to realize their duty as regards giving. A new brick manse was built during the year and mostly paid for, and it is now occupied by the missionary. We expect this mission to be advanced to the Augmented list in the near future. The Presbytery contributed to the manse fund.

Braeside.—A new mission yet to be tested. It is, however, hoped that in a very short time we may have a Self-sustaining charge here.

Calabogie.—J. M. McDonald (student). The winding up of the lumber business to some extent has told against this mission, and yet the few people keep up their contributions and work well.

Chalk River.—Rev. G. D. Campbell, missionary. Divisional point on C.P.R.; largely a Roman Catholic district; a wide stretch of poor country. We are the only Protestant representatives in the district. The people are hearty, and give liberally both to maintenance and schemes.

Killaloe.—A station on the C.S.R.; mostly worked by the Students' Missionary Society of Montreal. A field where denominational co-operation might well be put in practice, as it is much divided—Presbyterians in first, and strongest. Very hopeful field at present.

Lanark.—A Self-sustaining mission in the village of Lanark. It is hoped in the near future this mission will be united with the congregation of St. Andrew's. Good work has been done.

Rockliffe.—A very wide field with a few scattered families; operated by Mr. Campbell of Chalk River.

Scotland.—Rev. M. H. Wilson, missionary. A rural district on C.P.R., west of Cobden; not many families, but they are hearty and active. This mission passes to the Augmented list, and intends to call Mr. Wilson as their pastor.

A. A. Scott, Convener.

Brockville

This Presbytery bids fair to have no Mission fields within its bounds soon. Morton was raised to the status of an Ordained mission field two years ago. This spring it was placed on the Augmented list.

Stone's Corners is practically Self-sustaining as a student mission field, and will very likely attain the status of an Augmented charge in another year.

C. H. Daly, Convener.

Kingston

There are eighteen mission fields with fifty-one preaching stations in this Presbytery. The average attendance at Sabbath services was 2,045. There were 111 communicants added during the year.

Beginning with the most northerly group of mission fields in North Hastings, in the foot hills of the Laurentian mountains, we have Maynooth situated in a poor farming district, although the dairying industry is now helping the farmers. This field has struggled against difficulties; and the people, according to their means, have done well in supporting ordinances. The prospects are brightening.

Carlow and Mayo needs consolidation and building up. A good section of country in the midst of the hills. Corrundum mines are opening up near by, and small mining villages are springing up. This promises to be a valuable industry. There are good prospects for mission work.

L'Amable and Bancroft.—There are signs of growth, and with careful attention this should become an Augmented charge.

The Ridge is another section of good farming land. Ormsby, a new station, has been organized, and preparation is being made for building a church. A suitable lot of land was donated for the site. This station will strengthen the field.

Marmora and Beaver Creek have been joined with Cordova, in the Peterborough Presbytery. The union is proving satisfactory, and an ordained missionary has charge. This union saves $300 per year to the Home Mission Fund.

Foxboro and Sydney are in a very promising condition. Foxboro built a new church costing $4,500. The greater part of this amount is paid or covered by subscriptions.

Deseronto West is a struggling town mission. Along with it is worked a mission church in the Tyendenaga Reserve. Hay Bay is now being added and will strengthen the field.

Ernestown, Bath and Sandhurst.—An old field, but not growing owing to removals. The people have shown great loyalty in the past, and are still hopeful.

In the early-settled county of Prince Edward there are two fields—Consecon and Hillier, and Demorestville. In connection with the latter a new and promising station has been opened at Crofton. This makes a self-supporting field for a student.

Wolfe Island, near Kingston, is weakening in some of its stations owing to removals and deaths. The station at Garden Island, however, strengthens it.

St. John's, Pittsburgh, a field with one station has been doing well. The prospects are good for union with Sand Hill. This will make a good congregation.

Portsmouth and Collinsby becomes this year self-supporting for a student.

Knox Church (Depot) and Livingston Avenue, two city missions in Kingston, are being supplied by a student. The former has a new church recently built.

The Sharbot Lake field, along the line of the K. & P. railway, is in a more promising condition than for some time in the past. It is having the services of an ordained missionary. The incubus of an old debt has been lifted. A horse and rig are being secured for the missionary.

Running into Lanark County, on the eastern boundary of the Presbytery, is the large field of Poland, embracing six stations scattered over a rough district. The work is hard and is too much scattered. With earnest work, however, it should show some progress.

Wilbur—Also a scattered field in a rugged, broken country. Little prospect of growth; yet the people are loyal and appreciative.

Matawatchan—Crosses the northern boundary of Frontenac County, and is situated in the southern portion of Renfrew County. An isolated field, forty-five miles from the railway. There is satisfactory progress being made; the manse recently built for their missionary is free from debt.

J. Binnie, Convener.

Peterborough

Cardiff.—Much good was accomplished by Mr. Binney S. Black in this charge last year. The field is the heaviest in the Presbytery owing to the character of the country. Its northern part lies along the Irondale and Bancroft railway, and its southern part extends along the southern shore of Pandash Lake. In consequence of this it is most difficult to do very successful work; and there being five stations and no church buildings, our students are much handicapped. This condition will be relieved this summer by attaching the Pandash section to a station near by—in Kingston Presbytery.

Chandos.—This mission comprises two stations—Apsley and Clydesdale. Apsley has no church building, and has suffered much in past years on this account. A commodious church was built by the Methodists last year, and is the centre of good work. The families connected with our Church are, however, very anxious for service; and while Clydesdale is such a strong Presbyterian community, without any other denomination, we feel it our duty to continue service at Apsley for the present time.

Cordova.—The work at Cordova during the past year has been very encouraging. The Rev. Mr. Goodwill did faithful and energetic work. The people were so much encouraged that they had begun to build a manse for their pastor, and were busy seeking to wipe off some debt on church equipment, when notice was received that the mines were to be closed. This took place toward the close of the year and crushed the aspirations of the people. Arrangements were at once made to join Cordova to Marmora and Beaver Creek, with the Rev. Mr. Goodwill as pastor. Reports from minister and people confirm the wisdom of this course.

Harvey comprises two stations—Lakehurst and Rockcroft. These centres are fourteen miles apart. One section is a fairly good farming community, but the other is poor soil with much rock. There is little hope for much increase financially. Excellent service has been done by our students, which is shown in the Christian lives of a large number of young persons who have come to town and identified themselves with the Church's work.

Oak Hill.—This field comprises two stations—Knoxville and Oak Hill. The people are increasing in hope and activity. It is confidently hoped that after the necessary debt incurred for renovating the churches has been wiped out, they will bear a larger share in the support of their missionary. It is most encouraging to find two such earnest and devoted congregations, where three years ago there could only be found dilapidated buildings.

J. G. Potter, Convener.

Lindsay

There is nothing new in mission work. There are three mission fields with nine preaching stations. We are contemplating giving fortnightly service, during summer months, at a tourist resort in connection with the Coboconk field.

W. G. Smith, Convener.

Whitby

We have no mission fields, but our Presbytery has contributed more to the Fund this year than in former years. This is partly due to the fact that the claims of the work have been pressed home upon the hearts of the ministers within the bounds.

J. Hodges, Convener.

Toronto

In the mission year, 1903-1904, the Presbytery of Toronto has had under its oversight five mission fields—three of which are in the suburbs of the city of Toronto, and two in the country. The work on these fields has, with one exception, been conducted by students, and in every case satisfactory reports have been received. The following brief statement about the several fields may be of service:

Brown Hill.—Two stations—Brown Hill and Jackson's Point. Regular services were conducted at Brown Hill throughout the year. D. A. McKeracher, B.A., of Queen's University, was the missionary during the first six months, and the Knox College Missionary Society had charge during the last six months. At Jackson's Point, work was carried on during July and August. Sooner or later these two stations must be worked separately. The combination is not convenient, and will tend to breed discontent at Brown Hill. Under the circumstances, excellent work was done, and a cause must be maintained in these stations.

Chester.—This cause is growing, and, I trust, will soon be placed on the list of Augmented charges. The outlook is bright. Great credit is due to our ordained missionary, Rev. A. D. McFadyen, for the excellent organization he is effecting.

Malton.—This field was worked without drawing upon the Home Mission Funds. For six months it was under the care of W. W. McLaren, B.A., of Knox College, and for the remaining half-year under Knox College Missionary Society. There is no good reason why the field should not be placed in charge of an ordained missionary for, say, two years, after which it should be put on the Augmented list.

Swansea.—Good work done by student for first half-year, and the interest maintained by students of the Knox College Missionary Society for the second half-year. This field contributed $40 toward our Home Mission scheme in 1903-1904. It is likely that there will be a reduction in the grant asked for next year. Situation quite hopeful.

Wychwood.—The mission is vigorous. Erected a $4,000 church building during the year, and opened it with more than half the cost paid. To R. B. Cochrane, B.A., is due the honor of carrying out this work.

The total grant to these five fields for the year was $572. The Presbytery has established a new mission on Royce Avenue, Toronto, to meet the needs of the north-west part of the city, which is very rapidly building up. G. R. Fasken, Convener.

Orangeville

Knox Church, Caledon, has been united with Alton, and placed on the Augmented list. These churches will yet make a strong charge.

A new field—Bates' Corners—has been opened and united with Waldemar and The Maples. This is now a promising field.

J. R. Bell, Convener.

Barrie

The home mission fields in the Barrie Presbytery are gradually being reduced in number, there being now only seven; these are in districts in which the Presbyterian families are few in number, and the population sparse, hence we cannot report anything of special interest in connection with these fields. Our missionaries are doing much needed work in rather discouraging circumstances. On the whole there is a slight advance taking place in the stations; though they have to be nursed still, at some expense to the Church, we hope that in the near future they may become less burdensome to the Home Mission Fund, and be centres of increasing spiritual influence. It can be readily understood that in old settlements in which the population is not increasing the conditions of mission life do not present such features of interest as appear in new and rapidly growing districts. Yet the claims and necessities of these older fields are none the less deserving of our sympathy and support. Our hope is, that before long, two, if not three, of these fields may be able to secure pastors, and become regular charges for a time on the Augmentation fund.

The difficulty in our fields as in the west is in obtaining suitable men for them. It requires men of a more apostolic and self-denying spirit to go into these fields than to the more progressive districts in newer parts of the country; but we hope with such good men as have been laboring in these fields in the past, and as are now at work in them, our cause and the cause of Christ will continue to go forward. Very useful work is being done by the committee appointed for the purpose under

Mr. Dow, of Gravenhurst, in supplying the summer resorts of Muskoko with ordinances during the season. Mr. Dow's report is as follows:

"Presbyterian services are held at nearly all the important tourist centres on the Muskoka lakes, the only exception being those where adequate supply is given by other denominations. The tourists are most appreciative of the efforts of the Presbytery, and contribute very generously. Their universal testimony is that great good results from the regular supply of ordinances, they being the one great force making for righteousness and spirituality. In the early summer of 1903 a number of the stronger stations were grouped together, and formed into a regular pastoral charge with the Rev. Donald McKay as minister. This is giving new impetus, and will add permanence to the work. Already a new church has been built at one point, and the work of construction completed at another. Last year this work of supplying tourist points was more than self-supporting. Special mention should be made of Beaumaris, where the collections ran from $10 to $50 per Sabbath during July and August. The prospects are bright for the summer of 1904."

The mission work in our Presbytery is, like all missions, accompanied with difficulty, and is preparatory work—the results of it not yet being fully realized. But it is such as to warrant the Church in prosecuting it with unabated vigor.

D. D. McLeod, Convener.

North Bay

The mission fields which received continuous supply have, in most cases, made splendid progress during the past year. It is not reasonable to expect much growth in fields which for months past had to go without supply, as was the case last winter with several fields. The progress of the following fields is worthy of note:

Rosseau and Callander have been raised to the status of Augmented charges, making five mission fields that have become Augmented charges in less than two years.

French River, Madawaska and Milberta, in the Temiscamingue district, have become mission fields supplied by ordained missionaries. They are to be supplied respectively by Rev. S. G. Steele, Rev. Gustavus Munro, M.A., and Rev. Jacob Steele, B.D. Rev. Robert Hughes, who has been appointed to the Loring field, will also be an addition to the working force of the Presbytery.

Depot Harbor, Sprucedale and Berriedale have each made substantial reductions in the grant needed for next year.

Churches were built at Milberta, and Tomstown in the district north of New Liskeard. Byng Inlet, Dunchurch, Sprucedale, Sand Lake, Madawaska, and other places have made repairs and improvements on their churches. Emsdale and Novar have reduced the debt on their churches considerably. Loring is taking steps to build a manse this summer, and Depot Harbor expects to have a fine new church opened before the close of the year.

Never before were the needs of the men employed in the great industries of this district better provided for than at present. The railway employees and dock laborers at Depot Harbor find the Rev. J. A. Miller the right man in the right place.

Ordained missionaries are stationed at all the great lumbering centres or distributing points in the district, such as French River, Byng Inlet, Rainy Lake, Whitney, Loring, Callander, Warren, Mattawa and Milberta. The work of the missionary at these places is almost entirely among men engaged in the lumbering industry. In the autumn and winter months other missionaries, if they can be procured, will be sent in to the camps where the men are employed cutting logs.

This summer a missionary, under the auspices of Queen's College Missionary Society, is working among the men employed in the construction of the Temiscamingue railway.

S. Childerhose, Convener.

Algoma

New Churches.—New churches have been built and opened during the year at Sylvan Valley, McDowell's, Sowerby, and on Cockburn Island.

Fields Raised to the Status of Congregations.—Manitowaning, where labored with so much fidelity and perseverance the late convener of our Home Mission committee, Rev. John Rennie, leaving this tangible evidence of the golden results of perseverence in labor, wise organization and zealous life. Bruce Mines—Here a little explanation may be advisable. Three fields in this section were rearranged; what was known as the Little Rapids field was dissolved, the Little Rapids station being united to Thessalon (an old attachment), for some time a settled pastorate; Milltown, the other station in this connection, being united with Bruce Mines and Rydal Bank, which makes a very hopeful charge. We shall be disappointed if they are not soon reckoned amongst our self-supporting congregations. Richard's Landing—This field has also sought the status of an Augmented charge, and when worked by a judicious pastor will become an active and zealous congregation. It is at present moving forward with vigor. Blind River—This congregation is also on the eve of stepping forward to the status, not of an augmented, but a self-supporting, congregation. They have a beautiful church, and beside it the site for a manse, which we hope to see occupied soon. Desbarats—Owing to the union of two stations recently effected, this field bids fair to be self-sustaining very soon. The grant given is very small, and in the near future no assistance whatever will be required.

NEW STATIONS.—Owing to the lack of activity in mining circles, and also the closing down of the industries at the Soo, the work of opening up new stations has been somewhat interfered with, and the hopeful outlook to some extent removed; still a few stations have been added and already organized, viz.: East Korah, Laird, etc. A review of the work gives great encouragement, in that so many of the fields have passed on a stage; and that, in very many cases, the grants from the Home Mission fund have been lessened. A few years of united and hearty work will make Algoma a strong centre of Church life.

D. MCEACHERN, Convener.

Owen Sound

The Presbytery of Owen Sound and the Methodist Church of the Wiarton District entered into arrangements, ten years ago, each giving over several stations to avoid over-lapping, and to facilitate the mission work of these Churches. Money has been saved, and the plan works well. We would not go back.

Desboro and Williamsford—Two churches. Student.

The Peninsula—Four stations, three churches. Agreed to advance $100; will be self-sustaining for 1904. Student.

Lion's Head, Spry and Barrow Bay—Field divided. Ordained missionary at Lion's Head; manse repaired.

Lindsay and Stokes' Bay—Two churches; growing. Student.

S. ACHESON, Convener.

Saugeen

In the present condition of the mission field in this Presbytery nothing startling in the way of progress is to be expected; yet there is evidence that faithful, persevering labor is winning its due reward. In the face of an immigration of German-speaking people that threatens to displace all others, the congregations of Mildmay and Ayton have so increased their contributions as to allow a yearly reduction of $104 of the Home Mission grant. It is satisfactory to see that this is accompanied by largely increased giving to the schemes of the Church.

Cedarville, Esplin and Kingscote are aspiring to outgrow the mission stage, and are hoping to be settled as an augmented charge.

W. FARQUHARSON, Convener.

Guelph

The Presbytery of Guelph has but one mission station—Baden. We have nothing marked to say about it. It seems to be in a healthier state than for some time past, as the missionary is now resident on the ground. They are putting forth an effort to clear up all past debts. The past winter has been hard upon it, and this has hindered it.

J. R. GILCHRIST, Convener.

Hamilton

The home mission field of this Presbytery is exceedingly limited. Crystal Beach and Point Abino, summer resorts, are supplied during part of the summer by a student.

Port Robinson continues to be supplied with Merritton, and enjoys the services of an ordained missionary. Blackheath and Seneca is also under the care of an ordained missionary.

Locke Street, Hamilton, and Barton has been erected into an augmented charge, and has now a settled pastor.

A new station has been opened in the east end of Hamilton, and a student has been sent in for the summer.

J. H. RATCLIFFE, Convener.

Chatham

In Bentpath a good deal of debt has been paid off one church, and plans for the building of another are progressing. In spiritual matters, according to reports, much good has been done. The field was supplied nearly the whole year.

In Buxton, the people have been paying off church debts and building sheds. Rev. J. B. Scott supplied for the past year. There were no additions reported.

In Honan, Rev. M. Linton ministered for three years as ordained missionary. During that time over $400 was paid on church repairs and sheds. He did fairly good work, and a number were added to the roll during his ministry. The field has prospered; and at the request of the people, they were placed on the list of vacancies and under the care of the Augmentation committee.

Puce was supplied for the past year by a Catechist who did good work, and some were added to the membership of the Church. Rev. A. R. Linton was appointed for one year, and is now on the field.

South Bush is not so hopeful, as Mormons and Seventh-day Adventists are there. It was supplied nearly the whole year, first by a student and then by a catechist. We hope for better things to come.

J. R. BATTISBY, Convener.

Superior

This has been one of the most prosperous years in the history of our mission fields—leading features of encouragement being additions to membership and marked increase in contributions to the schemes. Owing to depression in mining, two of our fields have been unoccupied during the year save for the occasional services rendered by Mr. McKitrick, our missionary to the Indians at Shoal Lake. He has on his regular missionary trips visited the small companies of miners scattered over the Lake of the Woods, and within the bounds of the fields Camp Bay and Mikado.

Our mission to the Finlanders at Port Arthur and Fort William, under the care of Rev. J. H. Heimononen, has become self-sustaining. At Rainy River we have had the greatest advance in population and general development. There are now two large lumber mills ready for work, the town has complete organization, and the population has reached almost the 1,200 mark. Home Mission grant was reduced $1.50 during the past year. A good Sabbath school with an attendance of thirty organized, and the debt substantially reduced.

Boucherville, next in order up the Rainy River, was occupied during the summer only. One new station was opened. Both in attendance upon services and in contributions the people have responded better than ever before. This is a farming community, and much virgin forest land has yet to be conquered.

Emo, next on the river—completed church building; special services held during the winter; encouraging additions to membership, and one young man received by Presbytery as a student for the ministry. Rev. John Brown, a graduate of Princton, is the missionary. Big Fork, formed from the Emo field, had a student for the summer. Mr. Brown, of Emo, gave partial supply in winter.

Fort Frances, the last place on Rainy River, though not growing, yet was showing a good record in reduction of debt, contribution to schemes, and additions to membership, when it was overtaken by the loss (through fire) of its church edifice. Though this was a great blow, the people have rallied, and, with the aid of sympathetic friends, hope to have a new building in the early summer, and to meet the demands of a promised increase of population. The congregations in the Presbytery have generously come to their aid, as well as outsiders.

Mine Centre has suffered in the loss of its mining population. Atikokan, in this field, is a divisional point on the C. N. railway. Here the missionary makes his headquarters. Things are in their beginnings. Service was held regularly in the jail—the only place available; a Sabbath-school organized; a few small mining camps reached, and in the winter season the missionary gave much of his time to the lumbermen.

Whitefish, at the eastern end of the C. N. railway, had summer supply, and in the winter was united to West Fort William. This is a farming district, and in time will develop.

On the line of the C. P. railway, east of Rat Portage, lie—Dryden, a farming community, having unusual interest in the Sabbath services, and large accessions to the membership; Mr. W. G. Blake, formerly of St. Catherines, is still in charge. Ignace—The public school teacher at this point has rendered good service in Sabbath-school and Christian Endeavor during the winter; field had student supply during summer; railroad men, navvies, lumbermen and miners, constitute in a large measure the population. West Fort William presents nothing special; there has been no increase here.

Schreiber has had a year of prosperity; good attendance on the Sabbath; increase of membership; generous contributions.

Manitou, thirty-two miles south-east of Wabigoon, a point on the C. P. railway between Rat Portage and Port Arthur, is under the care of Mr. R. H. Lowry, who assiduously discharges the functions of public school teacher and missionary. This is in the heart of a mining region. Brave and true must be the workers in places such as this. There is no organization, yet the field is self-supporting. Drink is the parent evil in this community. Missionary's work much appreciated.

LUMBER CAMPS.—For the upwards of 3,000 men within the limits of the Presbytery, comparatively little has been done. Missionaries adjacent have done their best. The Convener, in company with Mr. Fitzpatrick of the Lumber Camp Reading Association, made one trip when the thermometer was in the low thirties'.

W. M. ROCHESTER, Convener.

Rock Lake

Work in this Presbytery has, notwithstanding discouragements, been progressing favorably.

Plum Coulee and Winkler, villages on the Pembina branch of the C. P. railway, are situated in the midst of a Mennonite settlement, and are consequently surrounded by a German-speaking population. Our missionary ministers to all the English-speaking people of the neighborhood, and has not a few of the younger Germans among his Sabbath hearers. Rapid progress cannot be expected in such a field; and yet there has been progress.

Mountain City field bears the name, and has within its bounds, part of the first-settled congregation in the Presbytery; but the field stretches southward into townships that were without inhabitant when Mountain City was a congregation. As these newer regions are settled by Icelanders and people from northern Europe, and the missionary spends a large proportion of his time amongst them, this might take rank among our other missions to settlers of foreign origin. Growth is necessarily slow.

Glenora has been passing through a season of disappointment; but with a vigorous missionary in charge for the summer, it will soon regain its former hopefulness and prosperity.

Huntly has three stations—Wigton, Huntly and Tisdale. The latter is at too great a distance from the other two; but, no doubt, there will be changes when the Greenway-Wakopa branch of the C. P. railway—which was graded last summer—is completed, and villages begin to spring up on it. The field was vacant during the winter.

Holmfield is the central station of a group of three. Its progress can scarcely be said to have been steady. Just now it is laboring under financial and other difficulties; but with a new missionary in charge, and the expectation of a good crop, the field enters hopefully on another season's work.

Wakopa, a station, old as the time when Dr. William Paterson of Philadelphia began his ministerial work in the Turtle Mountain region, with headquarters at Wakopa, has seen Killarney, Boissevain and Deloraine—all at one time associated with it—grow into self-sustaining congregations; but in it there has been little or no progress. Broken up by Seventh-day Adventists and Plymouth Brethren, some of its stronger men drawn from it by the promising business openings in the neighboring villages, left with but one associated station weaker than itself and without supply for the past two winters—how could it grow!

Cartwright, now a self-sustaining congregation, is happily settled; the Rev. R. J. McPherson having been recently ordained and inducted into the pastorate.

Ninette—By a re-arrangement of stations, Ninette, Dunrea and Bellsfield have been formed into the Ninette Mission Field. The manifest advantage of this arrangement is that we have one strong field instead of two wide ones; and, consequently, a considerable saving in the grants—the disadvantage is that Lily Hill, a station worked last year with Dunrea, has no supply. The outlook is hopeful.

Ninga is making steady progress under its able missionary, Mr. A. C. Forsythe.

Snowflake has, under the leadership of its missionaries (Mr. McCuaig during the summer and Mr. Lockhart during the winter) made rapid progress, and will soon be in a position to receive an ordained missionary. At its own request, Mr. McCuaig has been appointed missionary for the summer.

J. FARQUHARSON, Convener.

Glenboro

We have at present only two mission fields in this Presbytery, both being supplied by ordained men.

Elm Creek is a very promising field, made up of four stations, with about thirty-five families. They are, for the most part, new settlers, and do not possess much material wealth. We are in hopes, however, that the field will soon be in a position to go on the Augmentation fund.

Hilton has associated with it the stations of Stockton and Treesbank. This is a rather discouraging field, made up of English-speaking people and Crofters, and these two elements do not work very harmoniously together.

D. ROBERTSON, Convener.

Dauphin

This past year we opened one new field—on the Grandview extension of the C. N. railway. Having discovered afterwards that this field is almost entirely in the territory of the Presbytery of Minnedosa, it has this year been handed over to them. The name of this field is Goose Lake.

This year we have opened a new field—Clearview, lying north of the Gilbert Plains mission. Indeed, one-half of this field is taken from the Gilbert Plains field, and represents the intension of the work as well as the extension.

I am glad to report three missions which have advanced from student to ordained supply, viz.: Grand View, Minitonas and Valley River. The grants to these fields are generous, as is necessary, but there is a good prospect that Grandview at least will be able to pay expenses with a smaller grant, and probably before very long will be self-supporting. The other two missions are not in so good a condition, but I feel confident that regular and efficient supply will soon make a great change for the better.

The mission of Gilbert Plains gives us great cause for gladness. Eighteen months ago Rev. E. W. Johnson was appointed missionary to Gilbert Plains. He found the field in a discouraged condition. Pessimism was in the very air. The grant of five dollars was deemed quite insufficient. Since then, however, a great change has taken place. This past six months the grant was one dollar per week, and for the present year the field has gone off the list. Since the meeting of the Synod's Home Mission committee, the congregation has obtained permission from the Presbytery to moderate in a call. In a short while they will have called their minister, and that without being placed on the augmentation list. In addition to this, during the past year the congregation has built a fine brick church. Here surely is an argument favorable to the cause of home missions.

A manse has been built at Swan River, but it will be necessary to build a manse on each mission supplied by ordained men, in order to insure steadiness and efficiency of supply. The work among the foreigners has advanced a stage. All of our three schools have been given up by us, and at each of these places regular school districts have been organized. It is encouraging to note the number of school districts which have been organized. It manifests an interest in, and desire for, education, which was not evident three years ago. This advance is partly due, at least, to the foresight of our late superintendent, at whose suggestion and urgency these schools were built and put in operation.

At present, there are two missionaries working amongst the Galicians—Rev. C. H. Munro, of Ethelbert, and Rev. R. G. Scott, of Sifton. At each of these places there has been a manse built. The work now is in its initial and formative stage. The study of the language is a work of considerable difficulty, owing to the entire lack of helps for an English student of Ruthenian. However, the missionaries are becoming acquainted with the people. A good many of the younger people speak English fairly well, and some of them can even read a little English. Sunday-schools have been started, and with encouraging results. So far there has not been a large attendance, but a very real interest is shewn. The children are very fond of singing, and learn hymns quite eagerly. Mr. Munro, with his knowledge of medicine, has been able to do a good deal for the sick, and his services have been found very acceptable. To enable Mr. Munro to make a larger use of his medical knowledge, he should be supplied with a fairly good stock of drugs.

The people have never shewn themselves otherwise than friendly. In their homes, while they are poor, they are very sociable and hospitable. They are a very religious people in their own way, and yet in many ways ignorant. They have not much knowledge of the Bible. An intelligent young man, who reads Galician fluently, and English commendably well—considering he has never studied English in school but only at home—on being shown the twenty-third and one hundred and twenty-first psalm in Ruthinian, and reading them, admitted he had never seen or heard them before. Surely Christian people who have not known these psalms, have suffered a great lack. This is only one specific instance of an ignorance which seems very common, perhaps almost universal. It will be the aim of the missionaries to help these people to a knowledge of the words and the spirit of the gospel. Such a work will not be spectacular; it will need to be carried on with quietness and discretion, with the object of fulfilling and not destroying their religious conceptions, with the supreme aim of bringing them to the knowledge and love of a personal Saviour.

R. G. Scott, Convener.

Brandon

Elkhorn has been advanced from a student's field to that of an ordained missionary's. Rev. Mr. McGuire hopes to see it, in the near future, self-supporting.

Hargrave is a heavy field, with a drive of forty-three miles each Sunday in order to preach at the three stations, and return.

Tarbolton is self-supporting for an ordained missionary, and should call soon. They built a manse at Kenton last fall.

South Brandon has been raised to the rank of an ordained mission field. One station has three families who contribute $50 each to the minister's salary.

Zion is a promising field, and two of the stations on it expect to unite and build a church this summer.

Petrel, we hope to see raised to an ordained field next fall.

Three new mission fields are being opened in Brandon Presbytery this spring, each with three stations, viz.: Maralboro, Routledge and Springvale. The Knox College Missionary Society is taking charge of two of them, the third will be in charge of a student for the summer. Lines of railway are expected into both Maralboro and Springvale districts this year.

P. Strang, Convener.

Minnedosa

The mission stations of this Presbytery have had a prosperous year.

Miniota opened a new church last fall. This has been promoted to an Augmented congregation, and they are at present hearing candidates.

Beulah, bordering Miniota on the north, has also opened a new church. An Indian reserve and three white stations comprise the field. They have been given leave to call a minister.

Orrwold is a student's field at present, but at the end of the current term an ordained missionary will be sent in. There are three stations.

Pettapiece was a field made by a re-arrangement of congregations. A missionary was sent to them in February; they were placed on the Augmented list, and have now called him.

Clan William—four preaching stations—is an ordained mission field. They are asking for leave to call a minister.

Argyle—two stations—built a new church last summer, which was opened free of debt. There is more progress there than ever before.

Rossburn—two stations of white people and an Indian reserve. They are proposing to build a church at one of the appointments.

Shell River—re-arranged to comprise three stations. Raised in April to status of an ordained mission field. Have commenced work on a new church.

Goose Lake—a new field on the new C. N. railway. An ordained missionary sent to them. At the first service at the station there were sixty-eight present.

Cote—a new field on the same line further west.

Langenberg—a new field on the C. P. railway, comprising part of the old Shell River field. One good town in it.

Saltcoats has passed to an Augmented congregation. Have called a minister who is settled there, and they are building a manse for him.

Crescent Ridge and Wishart—two new fields—worked this summer by Knox College Students' Missionary Society.

Shebo—a new town at the end of C. P. railway branch. Last fall, a few tents; to-day, a good station, four boarding-houses, three stores, two implement agencies, two lumber yards, a barber shop, and several dwelling houses. An ordained missionary sent in April. A manse is being built.

Mill Plains—a new field—worked by Knox College Students' Missionary Society. The land office received 241 applications in one day for homesteads in this district.

Wallace—a student's field of four stations. A new church is under way.

Tetlock and Upper Assiniboine are two fields covering a very large territory. Many ranchers scattered over Eastern Assiniboine.

J. A. Cormie, Convener.

Melita

Splendid progress has been made in home mission work in Melita Presbytery during the past year—the best year in our history—not so much in opening new fields, rather in advance in the fields already occupied.

Dalesboro, Halbute and Napinka (Medora) were worked for the first time last year. We made a great record in church and manse building. Splendid churches ranging in cost from, say, $3,000 to $10,000 were built at Arcola, Carlyle, Alameda, Carnduff, Gainsboro, Lyleton and Waskada; manses were built at Lyleton, Gainsboro and Portal.

Special mention should be made of Carnduff—noble service has been rendered there by Rev. Alexander Mactavish and Mrs. Mactavish. When Mr. Mactavish came to Carnduff about five years ago, the field was wide, the stations scattered far, and, worse, there was dissension. The grant was then six dollars per Sabbath; now the field is cut down to three stations, self-sustaining; a $7,000 church in Carnduff, another church at Calvin, a splendid manse at Carnduff—all paid for except the church at Carnduff. Congregation has called; stipend $1,000 and a manse. Mr. and Mrs. Mactavish have moved on to do pioneer work again.

Estevan and Portal were drawing grant of three dollars till January. Field called and was settled; stipend $1,000 and manse, and a month's holiday annually. Rev. Alexander MacIntosh was settled in Gainsboro on first December. That station was so weak that Presbyterian services were given up for two or three years previous to Mr. MacIntosh's coming. Now we have a neat little church and manse there, and good work is being done.

Lyleton—Up until first July last year, Lyleton and North and South Antler stations were three out-stations belonging to Elva field—with no church property. On the above date they were cut off from Elva and formed into a separate field. When united to Elva they raised $450 for stipend. Now they pay their minister $900 per annum; a new church costing $3,500, and a manse costing about $1,900 are built at Lyleton, and steps are being taken to build a church at Cameron station for South Antler congregation, costing $2,000.

Carievale, New Hope and Napinka were raised from student fields to ordained.

Waskada and Gainsbaro were transferred to the Augmented list, and Oxbow (Augmented) became self-sustaining.

A good deal has been done to centralize the work by re-adjusting fields. I can't go into this, but fields have been reduced in area, and new fields formed by stations cut off from one or more fields, etc. Melita now stands alone; Napinka was cut off last July and now forms the centre of Medora field.

W. M. Omand, Convener.

Qu'Appelle

During the last year new fields have been opened at Fillmore, Fletwode and Hillesden. Hillesden consists of one small station from the Broadview field and a large tract of newly settled country to the south, toward the Arcola branch. Fillmore is a promising field, in an excellent district along the Arcola branch. Two years ago the county was a wilderness; to-day there are good prospects of the field becoming self-sustaining shortly.

The grant has been reduced in four Augmented charges; and, in addition, one has become self-sustaining (Wapella). Manses, which were much needed, have been built at South Qu'Appelle, Sintaluta and Earlswood—the latter serving also as a place of worship, the church having unfortunately been burned.

J. G. McKechnie, Convener.

Edmonton

During the year (April 1, 1903, to March 31, 1904) work was carried on in twenty-six mission fields. Two of these missions were among the Scandinavians and one among the Germans. There were ten fields in all supplied by ordained missionaries, and sixteen by students or catechists.

Churches were built and opened at Blackfalds, Ponoka, Long Valley and Partridge Hills; and the church at Red Deer was enlarged to accommodate the growing congregation. Churches are in process of erection at Bowden, Penhold, Tofield and Independence. A suitable manse was built during the year at Wetaskiwin.

With April 1, 1904, arrangements were made for carrying on work in thirty mission fields—twenty-eight of these among English-speaking people, and two among Scandinavians. There are ten ordained mission fields—four student fields being supplied by ordained men—and sixteen student fields. Nine new fields were added to the list. Five student fields were raised to ordained mission status.

Three mission fields (Lacombe, Fort Saskatchewan and Belmont) were raised to Augmented charges, and two of these (Lacombe and Fort Saskatchewan) have had their missionaries settled over them. At least five other mission fields might have been taken up within the bounds of the Presbytery, had the state of the Home Mission fund warranted the extension. The Presbytery is asking the General Assembly for division by a line running east and west, the southern portion to be called the Presbytery of Red Deer.

D. G. McQUEEN, Convener.

Kootenay

Michel and Morrissey were vacant for seven months owing to a dearth of men. We trust that under Rev. R. J. Douglas, Michel may give a good account of itself before April, 1905.

Fort Steele and Wardner will likely be placed under the charge of an ordained man this fall.

Upper Columbia has forged ahead under Rev. James Frazer. They have let the contract for a new church, and have $1,008 subscribed. They expect the building and grounds will cost $1,500, and will all be paid for when completed.

Moyie was vacant most of the winter. Rev. C. McDiarmid is now in charge, and great things are looked for as the St. Eugene mine—closed for three years—is about to re-open. Creston, part of the Moyie field, had the sacrament of the Lord's Supper dispensed last summer for the first time, when three united on profession of faith.

Ymir made sufficient progress to do without a special grant on account of expensive living.

Slocan has steadily lost in population. Winslow is now to be supplied on Sabbath, and Mr. McCord, who has just taken hold of the work, is in hopes that the full grant will not be needed.

Kaslo has been without supply almost all winter. Rev. T. G. MacLeod is now in charge, and is to be called. Trail has no supply as yet. (These last two fields are under the Augmentation Committee.)

New Denver and Sandon have made steady progress under Rev. W. G. Brown. A Presbyterian Sunday-school has been organized at each place, with most gratifying results.

Arrowhead and Nakusp are to be separated—Nakusp being sufficiently strong, with the assistance of Fire Valley, to support a missionary with the present grant. Arrowhead is transferred to Kamloops Presbytery.

Midway and Camp McKinney have been joined, and are supplied by Rev. A. S. Thompson. Both fields are at a very low ebb from every standpoint, and are difficult to work as they are over twenty-five miles apart.

W. G. W. FORTUNE, Convener.

Westminster

Few changes were made in the arrangements for working the fields in the Presbytery during the year. Substantial progress was made in almost all the missions. Abbotsford and Haney were advanced to the status of ordained missionaries' fields, and, as a consequence, greater progress will be made.

Langley went off the list, and became an Augmented charge, calling Mr. Calder who had been appointed missionary.

Cedar Cove and North Vancouver are both building churches and entering into the work with commendable earnestness. These stations were opened last year and give promise of becoming strong congregations in a very short time. Both being close to Vancouver, their growth is assured.

Barnet is taking steps in the direction of becoming an Augmented charge. Surrey under Mr. Madill, and Steveston under Mr. Burton, are gaining in strength and numbers. It is expected that these stations will, within a very short time, become Augmented charges. The opening of a mission among the "loggers" was abundantly justified. The work of the missionary, Mr. W. J. Kidd, was much appreciated by the men. The ground now having been broken, more and better work will be accomplished this summer. Mr. Kidd has been re-appointed to this important mission.

Texada was vacant during the winter. Agassiz was irregularly supplied, and Whonnock enjoyed the services of Mr. Dunn, one of the pioneer missionaries in the west.

G. A. WILSON, Convener.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION COMMITTEE, EASTERN SECTION, 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The report of your Home Mission Committee, Eastern Section, for the past year may well be brief. The changes from year to year in the Maritime Provinces are few. In most places the increase in population is small, while in some districts it is diminishing. Even in Sydney and its neighborhood, where for some years the progress was rapid, there has during the past year been a check. Industrial enterprises have not been multiplying so rapidly as in former years. Even those which were undertaken at an earlier date have not in some cases realized the expectations which had been raised in connection with them. Not many new settlements have been formed, so that, with few exceptions, the task of the committee has been simply to carry on the work of previous years.

Your committee has had under its oversight 34 congregations, which have been served by ordained missionaries. Of these six have called their missionaries, who have been inducted as their pastors,and are receiving their aid from the Augmentation Fund. These congregations are :—Fort Kent, Greenfield, Fairville and St. Matthews, St. John, in the Presbytery of St. John ; Middleton in the Presbytery of Halifax, and Harmony and North River in the Presbytery of Truro. Two others have had ministers appointed to them for two years, and got their grants also from the Augmentation Fund.

Our ordained missionaries have supplied congregations which have 92 preaching stations, with an average Sabbath attendance of 4,640, having families numbering 1,535; single persons 215, and communicants 2,270, of whom 103 were added during the year. These congregations paid for their services no less than $8,337.66, and contributed $2,116.94 towards the Schemes of the Church, of which $424.88 was for the H. M. Fund. Though in most cases the number of fields, families, etc., served by the missionaries was smaller than during the preceding year, owing to the difficulty of getting the requisite number of ordained men, yet the contributions for Schemes was larger by $476.67, being an increase of upwards of 25 per cent., while those for the H. M. Fund increased from $269.65 to $424.88, or about 57 per cent.

On the other hand, these congregations received grants from the H. M. Fund amounting to $6,082.20, a sum $1,131.25 less than that paid for the same service last year.

Fifty-one students were employed as catechists, of whom four were assistants to settled pastors. The other 47 served H. M. Fields, which had 139 preaching stations, 1,877 families, 269 single persons not connected with families, 1,442 communicants, of whom 84 were added during the year, with an average Sabbath attendance of 6,388. These fields paid for their supply $8,361,86 and contributed $486.92 towards the Schemes were added during the year, with an average Sabbath attendance of 6,388. These fields paid for their supply $8,361.86 and contributed $486.92 towards the Schemes of the Church, of which $265.45 was for the H. M. Fund, nearly the same amount as the previous year. To aid these fields the committee made grants amounting to $2,575.33.

The Superintendent of Missions in the Presbytery of St. John has carried on his work during the past year with his customary diligence, wisdom and zeal. Mr. Ross' report, which is fraught with important information, is as follows :

"In the Presbytery of St. John there were 34 laborers employed—12 ordained missionaries, 20 students and 2 colporteurs. Four ordained missionary fields have become settled congregations, viz., St. Matthew's (St. John), Greenfield, Fairville and Fort Kent. The growth has been very gradual, one or two families each year, except in the case of Fort Kent,which doubled the number of families in two years. Hitherto this section of country was without railway facilities, but as soon as the question of transportation was satisfactorily solved there was a considerable influx of population. Our Church had pre-empted the ground, as there is no other Protestant denomination holding service in this section of country.

"For a period of ten years throughout the Province there was a decrease of Presbyterians, according to the last census, and the census, upon the whole, appears to be substantially correct. For the past two years there is an increase all along the line. Every town and village in the Province manifest improvement, progress and growth, e.g., St. John has an increase in trade, and, as a winter port, there is work throughout the year ; indeed, what previously were the idle months are now the busy months. Several large business blocks have been built during the year, as well as many cottages. There is growth in Moncton, Fredericton, Woodstock and Sussex, and it is very marked in many of our villages, such as Grand Falls, St. Leonard's, etc. Crops have been abundant and prices good, consequently the farmers are prosperous.

"The lumber trade is lighter in volume this year on account of high prices of supplies and the scarcity of laborers. The fisheries were less productive than usual. Oil and coal are receiving large attention at present. Two new companies are operating in the coal fields with good prospects of success. Iron mines have been located, and the operation will be watched with keen interest.

"The question which we ask is, Will our population continue to increase ? If trade and prices hold, and crops continue to be abundant, the population will continue to increase, but there will never be a great increase of people in the Maritime Provinces until we become more self-contained; that is, import less and manufacture more of what we need and what we must have and cannot do without.

"Two new stations have been opened during the summer, one on the American border, another at Humphreys, where a new church has been erected and an ordained missionary placed. In the spring two other stations will be opened and catechists placed. Plans are being laid to build several new churches in mission fields. A new manse is building at Fairville and another at St. George, which was a mission charge a few years ago. Andover and Norton are putting forth good efforts to pay off the debt resting on their church buildings.

"The catechsits, with one or two exceptions, did splendid work during the summer, and the large majority were almost, or altogether, self-sustaining, but it is a lamentable fact that fifteen fields are without any supply during the winter. There is an insufficient supply of ministers to fill regular congregations, and consequently the weak mission stations are the first to suffer. Our need at the present time is a goodly number of young men, just fresh from college, full of missionary zeal and spirit, ready and willing to go anywhere and do anything for the souls of men and the glory of God. Let us pray the Lord of the Harvest that He will send more laborers into His harvest."

The receipts for Home Missions in the East during the year have been $13,671.17, and for the North-West, $5,530.33, making a total of $19,201.50 for the work both East and West, thus exceeding those for the preceding year by $742.39. Of this amount, however, $676.12 are repayments, making the real increase only $66.27. It may be noted that this amount is the largest sum raised for Home Missions within the bounds of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces in the history of this work, being $3,177.35 more than in 1901-2 and $4,378.15 more than in 1900-01.

The receipts for the year have exceeded the expenditure by $850,38, so that the debt of $1,609.38 on March 1st, 1903, has been reduced to $759.06. This reduction would be much more gratifying were it not for the fact that it is the result of the expenditure for 1903-4 being $1,175.26 less than during the preceding year.

The following summary will show at a glance the sources of your committee's receipts and the way in which the money has been expended, as well as how in the same respects this year compares with the two which preceded it.

In their last report your committee referred to a bequest for Home Missions made by the late Charles Hamilton, of Shediac, and intimated that the will was being contested. They have now to inform the Assembly that the matter has been settled, and that the executors of Mr. Hamilton's estate paid to the treasurer the sum of $10,000, of which $9,552.50 have been placed to the credit of the Home Mission Fund in the Consolidated Fund, and the balance used to pay the necessary expences, which were incurred in connection with the business, as well as to recoup the committee for the advances which had been made on that account.

At a meeting of the committee, held a few weeks ago, the Presbytery of Miramichi requested that steps be taken to secure, for the superintendence of the missions within the bounds of that Presbytery, the services of the Rev. James Ross, and the proposal was so cordially entertained by your committee that it was unanimously agreed to ask the Assembly to include, under the supervision of Mr. Ross, missions in the Presbytery of Miramichi as well as those in that of St. John, thus making him hereafter Superintendent of Missions for the Province of New Brunswick. Your committee therefore recommends that this be done without delay, and that his salary hereafter be $1,700 per annum. They think that the history of Mr. Ross' work in the past, as Superintendent of Missions in the Presbytery of St. John, furnishes the most ample grounds for anticipating that this extension of the sphere of his operations will be vindicated.

In reviewing the year which has closed your committee is sure that the General Assembly will unite with it in giving thanks to the Source of all blessing for His favor extended to the Church and her missionaries in their efforts to extend the knowledge of His name throughout the land which He has given to Canadians for their heritage.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

T. STEWART, Convener.
E. A. McCURDY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE AUGMENTATION COMMITTEE—WESTERN SECTION, 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

In submitting the annual report of the Augmentation Fund, your Committee would heartily thank God for His continued goodness to the Presbyterian Church in the Dominion, thus securing peace and prosperity in our beloved Zion. Through the growth in numbers and in wealth of her members, through the quickening and deepening of her spiritual life, and through the enlargement of her ideals of duty, not to speak of the increased liberality of her pastors and her people, the Church has placed the Committee in a position to meet all just claims on the Augmentation Fund.

During the year the following Augmented Charges have become self-sustaining congregations : in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, Apple Hill, Dunbar; in the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, Sunderland, Mount Albert; in the Synod of Hamilton and London, Hagersville, Windham and Delhi, Blytheswood ; in the Synod of Manitoba and North-West Territories, Selkirk, St. Paul's, Winnipeg, Estevan, Oxbow, Pierson, Wapella; and in the Synod of British Columbia, Spallumcheen.

The following mission stations have been raised to the position of Augmented Charges; in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, Lochaber, Morton, Vars and Scotland; in the Synod of Toronto and and Kingston, Rosseau, Roslin, Alton, Callander, Bruce Mines, Copper Cliff, Manitowaning, Richard's Landing, Cedarville; in the Synod of Hamilton and London, Locke St., Hamilton; in the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, Egremont, Rosthern, Minota, Pettapiece, Gainsboro, Waskada ; and in the Synod of British Columbia, Foothills, Belmont, Fort Saskatchewan, Lacombe, Central Park, Mission Langley.

In the Presbytery of Ottawa the augmented congregation of Chelsea was transferred to the care of the Home Mission Committee.

From this it will be seen that fourteen Augmented Charges have become self-sustaining, that twenty-seven mission stations have been placed on the Augmented List, and that one Augmented Charge was put on the Home Mission roll. Thus the growth of the Home Mission work has thrown an additional burden of $2,000 a year on the Augmented Fund. To provide for this congregations must increase their contributions to the Augmentation Fund to at least $30,000. If they fail to do this your Fund will next year be in debt, or your Committee will be forced—most reluctantly forced—to reduce its present minimum.

During the year grants have been made from the Century Augmentation Building Fund to the following congregations : Sturgeon Falls, $100; Powassan, $100 ; Leeds and Sylvester, $100.

Your Committee has adopted the following regulations governing the distribution of said Fund :—

1. That in the meantime the Fund be for the purpose of erecting manses in Augmented Charges in Ontario and in Quebec.

2. That meanwhile interest alone be used, and in free grants according to the judgment of the Assembly's Augmentation Committee.

3. That application for a grant must come through the Presbytery of the bounds, which, if it recommend the making of the grant, shall report as to the title of the property, the total cost of the proposed manse and the proportion of said cost that the congregation may be expected to subscribe.

At the meeting of your Committee on March 15th, 1904, Dr. Warden, Dr. Somerville and the Convener of the Augmentation Fund were appointed a sub-committee to manage the Building Fund. It was further arranged that all applications for aid from said Fund and all documents required before aid can be granted, be sent to Dr. Somerville, Owen Sound, Ontario.

Regarding vacant congregations paying $600 or more towards salary, it was agreed that no grant shall in future be made nor claims paid by the Augmentation Fund unless the Presbyteries furnish the Committee with detailed statements of the ministerial expenses incurred in supplying said congregations.

Your Committee, aware of the advance of the cost of living, and of the almost unanimous desire of the Presbyteries of the western section of our Church to have our Augmented ministers better paid, and, believing that the minimum should be increased by at least $50, appointed Dr. Lyle, Dr. Wallace and Mr. Crombie, a sub-committee to confer with the Acting Executive of the Home Mission Committee, with the view to formulate a recommendation to the General Assembly at its next meeting, to increase by $50 the minimum salary of ordained home missionaries and of ministers of Augmented Charges, and of congregations paying less than the proposed minimum of $800.

Your Committee desires to ask the special attention of all parties concerned to the following regulation for the administering of the Augmentation Fund :—

Owing to the large number of mission stations, Augmented Charges and self-sustaining congregations that give little or nothing to this Fund, the earnest attention of the Presbyteries is called to this crying evil, and to the fact that your Committee has concluded not to aid any congregation whose contribution to augmentation is unreasonably small.

Your Committee requests that clerks of Presbyteries send the names of Presbyterial Conveners of Augmentation to Dr. Somerville, so that mistakes and delays in transmitting documents and money may be avoided.

Most respectfully would your Committee recommend the Assembly to appoint the following as the Executive for the year : the Convener, the Secretary, the Conveners of the Synodical Committees, the Mission Superintendents, with Dr. Warden, Dr. W. G. Wallace, Dr. E. D. McLaren, Messrs. John Penman and A. T. Crombie.

In order to keep the claims of the Augmentation Fund before the Church, your Committee recommends the General Assembly to enjoin the Presbyteries to give this important scheme a more prominent place in their deliberations, and to arrange to visit all congregations under their care, either through deputations or through exchange of pulpits, to secure the sympathy of the people, and their intelligent and loyal support.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Hamilton, April 29, 1904.

SAMUEL LYLE,
Convener.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer, for the time being, of the Committee on the Augmentation of Stipends of the Presbyterian Church in Canada (Western Section), in trust for the said Committee, the sum of..... ..... to be paid out of my personal estate without any deduction whatever; and I direct that the receipt for the said sum of the Treasurer of the above named Committee shall constitute and be sufficient discharge therefor.

REPORT OF THE AUGMENTATION COMMITTEE (EASTERN SECTION), 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

Your Committee on Augmentation is very grateful to be able to report that, so far as the work intrusted to its care is concerned, the work has been even more prosperous than usual. The receipts for the year have been somewhat smaller than during the previous year, but more congregations have been aided at a less cost than before, the credit balance is larger and the working balance stands at $5,500.00. Fifty-four congregations have received grants, as against 52 for the previous year, and nearly the whole of them have had continuous service of pastors through the year.

As usual, deferred applications were dealt with in October, and the following grants additional to those which were sanctioned by last Assembly were made :—

Presbytery of Halifax.

Middleton	$300 00
Coburg Road	225 00

Presbytery of St. John.

Fort Kent	$250 00
Fairville	150 00
St. Matthews, St. John	275 00
Greenfield	250 00
St. James' and Union	100 00

Presbytery of Miramichi.

Millerton	$200 00
Blackville	38 00

Presbytery of Prince Edward Island.

West and Clyde Rivers	$175 00
Cavendish	80 00
Total	$2,043 00

The receipts for the year were $10,300.33, of which $9,210.79 was from congregations, $240.92 from donations, $50.00 from bequests and $189.43 from interest.

The payments on account of grants for the twelve months ended February 29th were $8,252.65, and $75.00 on account of the previous year, making a total of $8,327.65. Office expenses amounted to $283.37, and all other outlay to $218.14, making a total expenditure of $8,829.16, which, in addition to the working balance of $5,500.00, leaves a credit balance of $1,180.53.

The increase in local support has not been great, but it is a little larger than it was the previous year, viz., $520.00, as against $457.00. The grants sanctioned for the current year are upwards of $2,000.00 greater than they were at the same date last year, but the deferred applications are much fewer, and it will be seen that the amount voted for such applications in October last year very nearly equals the difference.

Your Committee is deeply grateful, not only for the generous support which this scheme is receiving from the Church generally, (only some 20 congregations in all failing to contribute within the year covered by this report), but also for the continuous supply of ordinances which a large number of congregations have enjoyed, of which, apart from the aid thus received, they would in many cases have been deprived, and for the evidence which this work affords of the unity of the Church and of the willingness of the strong to help the weak, as well as of the readiness of the weak to bear a fair share of their own burdens and to aid generously in the support of the schemes. Of this willingness a substantial proof is to be found in the facts that these congregations have contributed on an average $5.04 per communicant in the way of self-support, and no less than $1,343.95 towards the Augmentation Fund, as well as $5,896.17 to the other schemes, or a total of $7,240.12, an amount only $1,970.67 less than the whole sum contributed by congregations to aid them.

Since the closing of the accounts a bequest of $3,175.55 has been received from the estate of the late Philip Thompson, Halifax, which the Committee has directed to be put into the Consolidated Fund, so that the interest of the same may be available from year to year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

EDWIN SMITH,
Convener.

E. A. McCURDY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION, 1903.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

During the past year the operations of the Board were carried on by thirty pastors and ordained missionaries, sixteen students and missionary-colporteurs and eighteen teachers.

The average Sabbath attendance of persons over ten years of age at eighty-three preaching stations in forty-one mission fields was one thousand eight hundred and sixty, representing eight hundred and sixty-three families and four hundred and fourteen single persons not connected with these families.

There are one thousand one hundred and sixty-nine communicants, of whom one hundred and forty-seven were added during the year ; eight hundred and twenty-nine scholars in the Sunday schools, and six hundred and thirty six in the mission schools, of whom three hundred and seven come from Roman Catholic homes. Two thousand seven hundred and ninety-five copies of the Scriptures and twenty-four thousand nine hundred and forty-three religious tracts and papers were distributed. The fields contributed $5,981 and the schools $2,465, a total of $8,406.

The receipts for the year were $2,565.94 less than the expenditure. The Reserve Fund had to be drawn upon to make up the deficiency. This is a matter for regret but not discouragement, for the deficiency would not have occurred if the attention of all our congregations had been called to the needs and importance of these Funds.

The estimates for the current year amount to $36,000 for the Ordinary French Evangelization and Pointe-aux-Trembles Funds.

Our colporteurs, teachers and missionaries have aimed primarily and steadfastly at giving the Gospel according to Jesus to their fellow-countrymen. Notwithstanding the statement made by ecclesiastics of high rank, and often repeated, that the Bible "may be found in almost every French Canadian family," the encouragement held out by granting indulgences to the faithful for the daily reading of a portion of the Gospels of an approved version and the exhortation to study the Scriptures sometimes heard from eloquent preachers on special occasions, the sad fact has to be recorded that the number of French Canadian Roman Catholic families in which a copy of the Bible is to be found is so incredibly small that they may be regarded as exceptional, while many of those that have one owe it to Protestant missionaries. There is certainly no evidence of any effort on the part of the Hierarchy of Quebec to provide the present generation with the Holy Scriptures.

It need scarcely be added that in the Province of Quebec the policy of the Church of Rome, that "masterpiece of the human mind," is the chief, if not only hindrance to the "free course" of the Word of God. A fraction of the energy expended by her clergy in preventing its acceptance by the people at the hands of "heretics," in organizing numerous associations for the defence of their "religion" and the segregation of the people socially and otherwise, and in fostering fanaticism, superstition and prejudice by unworthy appeal and denunciation, as if a man could not be a true French Canadian and a believer in Jesus as the only Saviour and Mediator between God and man, would, if devoted to the circulation and exposition of the Gospel among the people, cause the Province to "rejoice and blossom as the rose." The explanation of such a policy may be given in the words of an intelligent but illiterate Roman Catholic: "My church is not afraid so much of the Bible because of what is in it as of what is not in it."

The extension of the principles of evangelical Christianity, as represented by French Protestantism, into almost every parish in the province, and the increasing number of Roman Catholic scholars in our mission schools, are evidence that the Gospel is still the power of God and a guarantee of its final triumph. But in the meantime the struggle is on and the servants of the Lord must be faithful to their trust. The present need is a deeper consecration to the work, patience as to the outcome of current movements among the people so pregnant of fruitful results which the missionary observes but which he cannot illustrate by figures, and earnest prayer to Almighty God for an outpouring of his Holy Spirit upon the people and all concerned with the Mission.

THE POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES MISSION SCHOOLS.

The Schools are situated on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River nine miles east of Montreal. They were founded in 1846 by the French Canadian Missionary Society, and were purchased by the General Assembly of our Church in 1880, and since enlarged. On the mission property there are two buildings, one for boys, which can accommodate about 100, and the other for girls, with accommodation for about seventy. Upwards of 5,000 French Canadians have been educated here. Many of these now occupy positions of trust and influence as ministers, teachers, physicians, lawyers, farmers, mechanics, etc. Pupils are admitted between the ages of thirteen and twenty-five, the average age last year being about fifteen. A preference is given to the sons and daughters of French Roman Catholic parents, and to the children of recent converts from Rome, living in parishes where there is no Protestant school. The session begins in October each year and continues for seven months. The pupils reside in the buildings and thus enjoy the advantages of a Christian home, under the supervision of earnest, devoted Christian teachers. They all take their share of housework. The day's duties are thus laid out:—Rise at 5.30 a.m.; all are in the class-room studying privately from six to seven; breakfast at seven; house and out-door work from 7.30 to 8.30; family worship, when all assemble together, boys and girls. School begins at nine, the first hour being given to Bible study, and continues till twelve. Then dinner, followed by recreation to 1.30. Classes resume till four; recreation from four to five; classes from five to six; tea at six; recreation to seven; family worship (boys and girls in their separate buildings); studying privately in the class-room till nine, and all in bed and lights out at 9.30 p.m. Eight teachers reside in the buildings.

Special prominence is given to the religious instruction of the pupils, and to the teaching of God's word on the points of difference between Protestants and Roman Catholics. It is no exaggeration to state that comparatively few, if any, of our English-speaking young men and women are better acquainted with their Bibles, or are better able to give a reason for the hope that is in them, than are the pupils of Point-aux-Trembles' Mission Schools.

Great care is exercised in the selection of pupils from the increasingly large number of French Canadians applying for admission. The schools are visited and examined monthly by a committee of the Board. In January and at the end of the session written examinations are held in all subjects taught. The work of the past session on the part of both pupils and teachers was very satisfactory.

When the Board acquired the property in 1880, it was resolved to admit no pupils gratuitously, except Roman Catholics whose parents were unable or unwilling to contribute; all others are required to pay something, in proportion to their ability, towards board and tuition. The amount received in this way during the past session was $2,026. A considerable portion of this amount was money earned by the pupils themselves during the preceding summer. After deducting these fees, the average cost to the church of each pupil is $50 per session. The Board desires that the institution should be supported by means of scholarships of $50 each, guaranteed by private individuals, Sabbath Schools and Young People's Associations. A particular pupil is assigned to the donor of a scholarship, to whom reports as to the progress made are forwarded from time to time. In this way a Sabbath School contributing a scholarship is put directly in correspondence with the Mission Schools, and the letters, if read publicly to the Sabbath School, tend to keep up their interest in the work. It is hoped, therefore, that many more Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies will assume the support of pupils. From those unable to do so a contribution is earnestly asked. The Board has no hesitation in warmly commending the schools as worthy of public confidence, assured that no means are likely, by the blessing of God, to be more efficacious in the work of French Canadian evangelization, and in advancing the cause of Christ in the Province of Quebec.

The teaching staff is composed of trained and experienced teachers whose Christian character and missionary zeal give them special fitness for the work.

TEACHERS AT POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES:—Rev. E. H. Brandt, Principal, Rev. L. Abram, Miss E. Vessot, Mr. E. Melieres, Miss V. Giroulx, Assistant Principal in charge of the girls' school, Miss M. G. Stewart, B.A., Miss E. Duclos, Miss McLean, Music Teacher.

THE PRINCIPAL'S REPORT.

Long, hard and trying has been this session through months of stormy weather. Pupils could hardly go out, and had, therefore, to spend their recreation time inside. This has told badly on the walls, the floors and the stairs, already worn and so old. But we are very thankful, both to our Heavenly Father and to our numerous friends who watched over us with such great care. A few facts and figures will show the main features of the session. One hundred and eighty pupils have been in attendance, 114 boys and 66 girls. More than half come from Roman Catholic homes, the rest are children of converts. One hundred others applied for admission, but in vain—the schools were full.

A good and steady work has been done in the class room. About thirty last fall began with the ABC and now they can write fairly well. The advanced class pushed the work with energy towards the preparation for the A. A. examination. $80 have been subscribed by the pupils for different purposes. A good missionary spirit has existed among our scholars; even Roman Catholic boys presided at prayer meetings. Eight pupils have applied for missionary work during the vacations. Twenty sat at the communion table for the first time and confessed before their schoolmates Jesus as their only Saviour, and those who had been brought up Roman Catholic asked to receive "le baptême évangélique." But what are those few figures beside all other moral and Christian results which will be numbered on the last day? These schools are like an oasis in the desert of our Province, and they are called to render inestimable services to our country. During 60 years they have held aloft the light of the Gospel and thousands have been brought to rejoice in it. There is scarcely a corner in our Province where a soldier of Pointe-aux-Trembles has not fought and suffered for the sake of Christ and the truth. Greater than ever is our country's need of the pure Gospel. Quebec is becoming more and more French. Many of our English Protestant families are leaving the banks of the St. Lawrence for the great plains of the West. France having suppressed the religious orders, hundreds of friars, monks and nuns have already landed on our shores, thus strengthening the hands of Rome at our very door.

Is not our motto: "Liberty for Canada and Canada for Christ?" Our great aim is to provide the rising generation with a Christian education. Schools where the pure Gospel is taught, where the liberty of the children of God and of the free citizens is enjoyed are the hope of Quebec. Our needs are great and pressing. Though the expenses of the current year have not been higher than those of the past years, notwithstanding ing the increased cost of living, we are sorry that they are about $500 greater than the receipts. Pointe-aux-Trembles schools, like an old warship, are unable to continue their good work much longer in their present condition. The last General Assembly authorized the Board to expend $60,000 to enlarge and suitably equip our schools. This sum may seem large, but we believe that the faith and liberality of our friends are still larger.

Our prayer is: "O, God, open the hearts of thy people so that we may see very soon the new walls of our schools which will stand for another century as a beacon light in Quebec.

E. H. BRANDT, Principal.

THE POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES ENLARGEMENT FUND.

The canvass for this Fund was begun late last October. By request of the Executive the congregation of St. John's Church, Montreal, released Dr. Amaron from the duties of his pastorate for six months to give himself to this work within the bounds of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa. Mr. C. H. Vessot, who was at this time visiting congregations in Western Ontario on behalf of the general work of the Board was also guthorized to canvass for the Fund.

Both Dr. Amaron and Mr. Vessot have met with sympathetic responses and have been well received by pastors and people wherever they have gone. They report subscriptions secured amounting to about $12,500.

Dr. Amaron's time having expired, he has returned to the work of his church. Mr. Vessot will prosecute the canvass in Western Ontario. Principal Brandt, whose work must be straitened until this crying need for equipment and accommodation has been met, will spend the summer months in the Eastern Provinces in the interest of this Fund.

The Board has decided not to begin building operations until the bulk of the money required is on hand. In order to secure it with the least possible outlay of time and money as well as delay, it has instructed the Executive to seek the co-operation of Presbyteries in bringing the needs of these schools before individual congregations not otherwise reached and in organizing in each a committee to undertake the canvass. The response from congregations already visited has been such as to assure the Board that with the hearty co-operation of Presbyteries the total sum of $60,000 asked for will be forthcoming in good time.

WORKERS' CONVENTION.

The second convention of the French Presbyterian Workers was held at Smith's Falls last May in connection with the meeting of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa and lasted two days. Excellent papers and addresses bearing directly on the work were given and followed by earnest discussion. These conventions are helpful and inspiring to the missionaries, most of whom carry on their work in isolated and unsympathetic conditions, and are productive of good in the community where held. The next convention will be in Montreal in the Fall.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

LE RAYON DE SOLEIL.

1. The Board being unable to see its way to grant financial assistance towards meeting the cost of publishing Le Rayon de Soleil, as requested by the Assembly's S. S. Committee, expressed its satisfaction that the Rayon de Soleil was meeting so well a long-felt want in French Protestant Sunday Schools and homes, and resolved to recommend the General Assembly to authorize the publication of Le Rayon de Soleil along with the S. S. Helps of the Church.

NON-CONTRIBUTING CONGREGATIONS.

2. With a view to the better observation of the Assembly's instructions regarding contributions to the Schemes on the part of congregations the Board recommends that the General Assembly direct Presbyteries to appoint one of their number to deal with congregations failing to contribute to any of the Schemes of the Church, including that of French Evangelization, as reported in the minutes of the preceding year, by calling their attention to the fact and seeking to secure contributions each current year.

THANKS.

The thanks of the Board are cordially given to congregations, Sunday Schools and Y. P. Societies and friends for their continued co-operation and support; to the Women's Missionary Society (Presbyterian) for their generous grant of $600 for colportage work and twelve scholarships for Pointe-aux-Trembles, and to the Students' Missionary Society, Presbyterian College, Montreal, for their continued practical interest in assuming all responsibility for the Valleyfield Mission during the summer half year.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE FOREIGN MISSION COMMITTEE

EASTERN DIVISION.

As the reports of the individual missionaries in all the fields, so far as these have come to hand are given almost in full in the appendix to this report, the Foreign Mission Committee, Eastern Section, does not think it necessary to preface them by any lengthy summary of their contents. Reports have not been received from Dr. Robertson and Rev. J. B. Cropner. Generally, it may be said that peace, progress and prosperity prevailed in all our fields throughout the whole of the year 1903. Several members of the mission staff in more than one field suffered more or less severely from illness, but the Committee are grateful to be able to report that there was no fatality, though some of the sufferers were brought very low. Dr. Morton was the only missionary who was compelled to leave his field, and the Assembly will share the Committee's thankfulness that his ten months' furlough in Britain and the skilful treatment which he has received from his physicans there have resulted in his restoration to health, at least, to such an extent that he feels himself justified in returning to his work, which, it is expected, he will resume about the end of April.

But the year had little more than ended when troubles swept over several of our missions. So far as is known the prosperous condition of matters continues in the New Hebrides. But in Trinidad Mr. McRae has been ordered to Britain for medical treatment, which he is undergoing at the time of the writing of this report, with encouragement from his physician as to the prospects of his recovery. In Demerara Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, who had suffered severely from repeated attacks of fever, but who had hoped to continue for a while longer at their work, were compelled to leave on furlough early in January, and they are now at home seeking a renewal of their strength and with good hopes of obtaining it. Happily, a suitable substitute has been obtained for him in the person of Mr. Wm. Forbes, who has consented to go down to Demerara to carry on his work so far as he may be able without a knowledge of the language during the months of Mr. Sutherland's absence.

In Korea war broke out between Russia and Japan early in February, and, in view of the fact that Korea was likely enough to be the field of strife, an appeal was early made to the British authorities for protection for our missionaries and for the mission property. This appeal was very cordially and promptly responded to, and the British Minister at Seoul requested all the missionaries in the outlying fields to come to the central field at Wonsan, and took steps to provide safe transportation for those who were at the greatest distance. This has been accomplished safely, and they are waiting to see if the way will open up for them to resume and carry on their work in their own fields, meantime doing what they can to promote its objects in and about Wonsan.

The only accession to the mission staff in Korea during the year was Miss Jennie Robb, whose support was generously undertaken by the congregation of St. David's Church, St. John, with which congregation she had been connected from childhood. The Korean Mission Council, under a deep sense of the great need and of the rich promise of their field, had indeed requested much more of the Committee. It had asked for two additional ordained missionaries, two lady missionaries and one physician. It will be remembered that a year ago the Committee reported that it had an offer from Mr. G. E. Forbes, as well as promises for a large part of his support, but that, in view of the state of the Fund, his appointment had been deferred till the debt should be in whole or good part removed. This was accomplished before the end of February, by which time the war had broken out and so the matter has been still further indefinitely delayed.

Fuller details of the work in the various fields will be found in the reports of the individual missionaries in the appendix.

FINANCES.

Last year your Committee had to report a very heavy debt on the Foreign Mission Fund, an apparent debt of $14,461.87, which, according to the statement then made, really amounted to only $12,597.90. This debt was the aggregate of the deficits for several years, beginning in 1900 and increasing year by year. The steps to be taken to remove the debt, referred to in last report, were taken at once and with success. Your Committee, desirous not only of sweeping away the debt, but also, if possible, of deepening the interest of the Church in the work so as to secure an increase of the regular contributions from year to year, agreed to invite Dr. Grant to take his furlough a year earlier than the regular time, and to undertake the task of visiting as large a part of the Church as possible with this two-fold object in view. He readily complied with its request, came home in July and threw himself so vigorously into his work that when the accounts closed it was found on the 1st of March that $13,012.69 had been sent in to the treasury for the removal of the debt. Between that date and April 25th there has been received $535.27, making a total at the same date of $13,535.27 received for that purpose. In this way the old debt has been completely removed.

But, unhappily the receipts for the year just closed have not equalled the expenditure. These receipts, including all that that has been contributed towards the removal of the debt to the Robb Fund and in the way of bequests have been $48,033.57, or deducting the special gifts for debt $35,020.88, compared with $36,875.58 for the preceding year, making the ordinary contributions for 1903-4 $1,854.70 less than those of 1902-3. The contributions for the Foreign Mission Fund for the past year came from the following sources:—

Legacies	1,763 53
Interest	918 86
Repayments	375 00
Congregations, Church of Scotland, N.S.	568 75
W. F. M. S.	16,176 01
Students' Association	456 50
Total		$48,033 57

The expenditure on the operations of the year has been $36,798.50, of which $4,685.30 was for the New Hebrides, including $52.18 which passed through the fund for Dr. Annand's organ for the Church at Santo; $19,403.45 for Trinidad; $1,147.07 for Dr. Grant's salary for the time which he spent in Canada prior to the 1st of March; $4,022.11 for British Guiana; $5,340.24 for Korea, and for all other purposes $2,200.33, leaving a debt on the operations of the year of $3,226.80, which has been removed by the appropriation of a sufficient amount from legacies received since closing the account.

From the Woman's Foreign Mission Society the Committee has received an increased amount of support and aid. Towards the Ordinary Fund the society contributed within $343.00 of as much as it did during the preceding year, while it gave no less than $2,176.01 towards the removal of the debt, thus exceeding its contributions of the year before by $1,833.01.

For the generous gifts which have resulted in this happy position of affairs at the present time your Committee feels deeply grateful to the donors and to the Author of the grace which prompted their liberality. At the same time your Committee wish to emphasize the undesirability of having to make special appeals for debt, and it feels that some steps ought to be taken to prevent, if possible, their recurrence. It is persuaded that the real explanation of all our deficits is not the inability of the Church as a whole to meet the claims which are made upon it, nor yet that few or none of her members do generously, but rather because there are so many who are willing to leave the whole work in the hands of the few who may be most ready to bear the burden. It is believed that few things more clamantly demand the attention of the Church than the taking of some steps which would tend powerfully to secure the hearty co-operation of all, young and old, in the efforts which require to be made to obtain the means necessary to give the Gospel to the world. This matter also has received the attention of the Committee, and steps have been taken with a view to the co-operation of all the Commitees so far as they have to do with the work in the Eastern Section.

WESTERN SECTION.

FORMOSA.

The Canadian Presbyterian Church cannot, without serious risk, postpone sending reinforcements to the Formosa Mission. The advent of the Japanese has so far raised the educational standard as to make it necessary to place more emphasis upon the higher education of the Native Ministry. To that end it is urged by our Missionaries that a Preparatory Department be added to Oxford College. The lack of Common School advantages under Chinese rule, makes the need of this manifest, and the fact that a more highly educated ministry has now appeared, in connection with the Japanese Church, makes it indispensable, if our native preachers are to maintain the respect of the community.

The Girls' School, so important a factor in the work, also needs to be reconstructed so as to meet changed conditions. The Japanese have happily come to regard the education of women as of great importance, and they make suitable provision for that purpose. The Chinese are quick to notice this advantage and opportunity for their own daughters, and will send them where educational advantages are greatest, but where they will also be indoctrinated in Japanese agnosticism. It is, therefore, necessary, in order to maintain our grip upon the community, and further the evangelical purposes of the Mission, to appoint one or two ladies who will conserve and develop the Girls' School.

The question of closer relations and co-operation between our Mission, and the English Presbyterian Mission in Southern Formosa, has engaged the attention of the Missionaries and of the Committee. It is known that another section of the Church, of different sympathies and methods, has been contemplating work in Northern Formosa. This invasion of territory already occupied would be extremely unfortunate. In order to make such action utterly inexcusable, it is deemed desirable as fully as possible to possess the land, and to that end to join hands with the sister and older Mission of the English Presbyterian Church in the southern half of the Island.

To that end the Committee have adopted the following resolution :

"That, in order to secure more systematic administration in the Northern Formosa Mission, and to encourage self-government in the Native Church, and more practical co-operation with the English Presbyterian Mission in Southern Formosa, with a view to the effective occupation of the whole Island, this Committee respectfully recommend :

"1. That the General Assembly authorize the ordained Missionaries in North Formosa to form a Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery of North Formosa.

"2. That the Presbytery consist of ordained Missionaries and ordained Native Pastors and Elders, each congregation represented by a Native Pastor being entitled to representation by one Elder.

"3. That the names of the Missionaries shall be retained on the rolls of the Home Presbyteries to which they at present belong, and, although having a vote and vote in the Presbytery of Northern Formosa, shall not be subject to its jurisdiction."

CENTRAL INDIA.

Even more distressing than the previous famine was the plague of the last year. The utter helplessness of the natives before such an appalling scourge can scarcely be appreciated by those of us who in happier conditions have never witnessed such visitations. In Mhow the death rate rose to 140 per day, and in Indore to 200 per day. In the latter city alone, which has a population of 80,000, it is reported that about 12,000 deaths were recorded. The panic, the flight, not knowing whither, the unintelligent resistance to all sanitary measures, the sacrifices and vain appeals to the gods, as helpless as themselves, are pitiful illustrations of the need of a purer religion and a Christian civilization.

Two of the younger members of our staff, Dr. G. Menzies and Mrs Harcourt, were amongst the victims in the City of Mhow, where they fell at the post of duty. The deepest sympathy of the Church has gone forth to the bereaved husband and wife. Mrs. Menzies, instead of returning home, enlisted as a missionary. Both, we doubt not, through this baptism of sorrow, are fitted for better service in days to come. Miss Dr. McKellar was also seriously ill through pressure of work, but is now happily on the way to health again.

Besides the loss of members of the staff, many valuable native workers were called away. Miss Leach, who had charge of a school of 85 children, reports that in a few weeks half her school children, two of her calling women and three of her teachers were taken away. Whilst mourning the loss of the departed, the prayerful sympathy of the Church is due to all our missionaries who have had to pass through so terrible an ordeal. It was truly a baptism of fire, and shall be found unto praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ.

The famine children continue to claim a large share of the attention of the missionaries, and it has already proved to be a fruitful service.

There have been, as might be expected, great fluctuations in numbers, but there are still 390 boys, 518 girls and 115 widows; in all 1,023 in the orphanages. No less than 277 have already become self-supporting. Of these 19 are teachers, 7 Bible readers, 56 tradesmen, 74 domestics, 57 housewives. Thus into many different walks of life have entered men and women of Christian training, whose leavening influence will be felt in days to come.

The Famine Fund has been well maintained through the generosity of many Young People's Societies, and individual friends who have become responsible for the support of one or more children. Many beautiful instances of Christian love and sacrifice could be recorded in this connection that cannot find place here. In this connection should not be forgotten the fact that the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society generously contributed $4,500 in order to maintain this fund.

The Indore College still continues to grow in numbers and importance. At the end of July last the numbers in all departments were 395, of these 44 being in the College, 150 in the High School and 201 in the Vernacular Schools. On the 10th August the institution was closed on account of plague. When work was resumed in November only 50 pupils appeared, but numbers rapidly increased until normal conditions were restored. In March 29 students took the examinations of the Calcutta University, and four passed with distinction. This was the largest number of any one year, and yet a larger number will, it is expected, go up in 1904.

Famine and plague have interrupted other departments of the work, yet in time the mission will recover itself, and produce a richer harvest because of the fiery trials of recent years. There is now a Christian constituency of 450 communicants, 500 baptized members, not yet received as communicants, and 500 more adherents, who are under Christian influence and instruction. About 100 were baptized during the year on profession of faith, besides 50 infants.

It seems as if the harvest were at hand. The spirit of harmony that prevails in the Mission, the sanctifying influence of suffering upon the missionaries themselves, and the breaking up of the soil through famine and plague, give promise of large spiritual returns in the near future.

The last General Assembly gave instructions "that strenuous efforts be made by the Foreign Mission Committee to secure for Dr. Wilkie some suitable field in connection with the Foreign Mssion work." The Assembly also appointed a Commission to investigate the affairs of the Central India Mission and take such action as might be deemed best in view of all the interests involved. The Commission met and adopted the following finding: "This Commission having carefully weighed all the evidence produced before it in regard to the Central India Mission, is of opinion that, while elements of disturbance have existed there for many years, their importance and effect upon the general work of the Mission have been, in some cases, exaggerated. At the same time, recognizing the hindrance which all manifestations of an unworthy spirit must have upon Christian labor, the Commission would deprecate the presence of any jealousies or suspicions tending to perpetuate difficulties, and would humbly and affectionately counsel the members of the Mission Staff in Central India unitedly to seek things that make for peace.

With regard to Dr. Wilkie, the Commission decides that, under existing conditions, he cannot with advantage to the Mission resume his former work in Central India.

Without attempting to apportion the exact measure of blame for the present condition of affairs, the Commission decides to state:

1. That charges against senior Missionaries, of prejudicing younger Missionaries against Dr. Wilkie, are shown by the evidence to be without foundation.

2. That there is no evidence affecting the character of Dr. Wilkie, as addicted to the use of noxious drugs, and that the Commission accepts without reserve his declaration to the contrary, and strongly condemns the circulation of such rumors.

3. The Commission directs the attention of the Forengn Mission Committee to the instruction of last General Assembly, that strenuous efforts be made by the Foreign Mission Committee to secure for Dr. Wilkie some suitable field in connection with Foreign Mission work.

4. The Committee expresses its confident hope for a bright future for our Central India Mission, earnestly commends our Missionaries to the sympathy of the Church, and prays that Heaven's richest blessings may rest upon the work and the workers there."

In accordance with the instructions of both the Assembly and the Commission of Assembly, the Committee prosecuted correspondence, which had been begun even before the last meeting of Assembly. Negotiations were entered into with four of the leading Mission Boards of the United States, with the Eastern Section of our own Church, and with the North India Bible Society, with a view of securing a suitable place for Dr. Wilkie in connection with their staff, his salary to be provided by this Committee. These proposals were cordially and sympathetically received by other Boards, and negotiations were proceeding, with encouraging prospects, when Dr. Wilkie intimated to the Committee that he would not accept any appointment not in direct connection with the Western Section of our own Church. The Committee accordingly brought correspondence with other Boards to a close, and on the 20th January adopted the following resolution: "Whereas, the Committee, having, in obedience to the instructions of the General Assembly and the Commission of Assembly, made strenuous efforts to secure for Dr. Wilkie some suitable field in connection with Foreign Mission work, has not been able to find for him a suitable field among the existing Misison fields of the Church.

"And whereas Dr. Wilkie has informed the Committee that an appointment to a Mission field under control of a sister Church, even though he should be supported in it by this Church, would not be accepted by him.

"The Committee is constrained to reconsider the question of opening a new field in Central India, where Dr. Wilkie might be allowed to work independently of his brethren now in the Central India Misison.

"And the Committee, having fully reconsidered the whole position of our Mission in India, as well as the other interests intrusted to the care of the Committee, again resolves that it is not in the best interests of the Church that a new Mission should be established in India, and reports to the Assembly that the Committee is unable to secure for Dr. Wilkie any suitable field in connection with the Foreign Mission work of the Church."

The Commission again met and adopted the following: "That the Commission of Assembly recommend the Foreign Mission Committee to reconsider their decision of January 20th last, with a view to securing for Dr. Wilkie a suitable field of labor in India, in connection with the Foreign Mission work of our Church."

The Committee met on the 3rd May, and adopted the following resolution: "The Committee, in accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly's Commission, has reconsidered its resolution of the 20th January ult., and finds:

"1. That Dr. Wilkie early in 1902, shortly after his return to the field, from furlough in Canada, declared his inability to work with his fellow-Missionaries, asked them to take over his work, left India and came home to Canada.

"2. That the Foreign Mission Committee, after a full examination of the whole case, was constrained with regret to terminate Dr. Wilkie's connection with the Central India Mission.

"3. That the General Assembly confirmed the above decision.

"4. That the Commission of Assembly appointed to investigate the affairs of the India Mission, decided that Dr. Wilkie cannot, with advantage to the Mission, resume his former work in Central India.

"5. That the Committee, in accordance with the instruction of last Assembly, made efforts to secure for Dr. Wilkie some suitable field, among others, one in the Mission of our own Church to the East Indian immigrants in British Guina.

"6. That, after correspondence and personal conference, Dr. Wilkie intimated to the Committee that the only proposal to which he would give favorable consideration would be the opening of a new field for him in India.

"7. In the judgment of the Committee, a new Mission established by our Church in India, having no connection with our present Mission, not on account of distance, but because of alienation, would be wrong in principle, and would not be in the interest of the cause of Christ in India or in Canada, and the Committee cannot, therefore, recommend to the Assembly the opening of such a Mission.

"8. In view, however, of the fact that final action in the opening of new fields does not lie with the Committee, but is, by the regulations, reserved to itself by the General Assembly, and in view of the whole history of the case, the Committee asks the Assembly to give an explicit and authoritative pronouncement in the matter."

HONAN.

Hopefulness characterizes the report from Honan. Never before was the work more encouraging in that Mission than it is at the present time. The experiences of 1900 created a measure of alarm lest China should become involved in the present war between Russia and Japan, and thereby the Mission work be injuriously affected by disorganization and the unrestrained passions of men. So far this has not occurred.

The Mission has recovered from the shock of the Boxer uprising and all present indications are favorable. Relations between the missionaries and officials are cordial, and the number of persons taking a personal interest in the Gospel is steadily increasing. The fact that as many as seventy-six men attended one station class at a considerable expense to themselves of both time and money is evidence of the sincerity of their interest. These station classes are conducted at different points for the benefit of both men and women in order that as many as possible may be able to avail themselves of continuous instruction.

The better education of native helpers is receiving the attention of the Presbytery. The station class is not sufficient for the equipment of teachers and preachers, and it is not possible to secure a supply from other missions. In order to avoid multiplication of educational institutions arrangements are being considered by which men of suitable gifts can be sent to institutions already existing in other missions and thus secure necessary training at the least possible expense. This is but one expression of the spirit of the Union that is developing in all Foreign Mission fields.

Railway development is one of the best indications of the opening up of China to western civilization. Eighty miles of track have been laid by the Pekin syndicate, and our missionaries in Wei Hwei have already found the advantage in travelling to remote parts of their field. When it is remembered that one province of our Mission is eighty miles long and forty miles wide, this will be appreciated.

The company is British and have kindly granted to our missionaries passes along their line. Another Belgian company has also surveyed a line, and is engaged in construction work. That Mission hitherto only reached after six weeks travel by house-boat or cart, will soon have railway communication with both Peking and Hankow.

The extent of the field, the density of the population and the increasing facilities for travel and access to the people make our missionaries urgent in their appeals for an increased staff. In twenty four counties, with a population in each of from three to four hundred thousand souls, they do not seem to be extravagant in asking that at least each county be supplied with one missionary.

The Honan Mission has lost heavily in the past.

It has been a cause of regret this year that, on account of family affliction, Dr. W. Malcolm has been compelled to hand in his resignation, which has been accepted by the Committee.

The Rev. M. MacKenzie is also detained in this country because of affliction in his family. It is hoped that the door will yet open for Mr. MacKenzie's return, and, if so, the Committee has assured him of their sympathy and readiness to restore him to his place on the staff. In the meantime, however, Mr. MacKenzie has been requested to accept employment in the home field.

Rev. W. A. Lochead, B.A., and Rev. J. A. Mowatt, B.A., both graduates of Montreal College, are under appointment, and will, it is expected join the Honan staff this year. This will be a substantial addition, although not adequate to the requirements of the field.

The Rev. J. H. Bruce has prepared a map of North Honan that is of great value. By personal observation, and the use of charts already existing, this is accounted the best that has ever been produced. The Committee congratulate Mr. Bruce on the success of his effort, and express their appreciation of its great value. It is noted with special satisfaction that there are marked on the map over sixty points where Christians are located, and where there is the Church in the home, if not ecclesiastical building. The foundations are being widely and securely laid. The missionaries themselves feel their need of spiritual power, and earnestly ask the intercessions of the Church that they may be equal to the great opportunity.

SHANGHAI.

The Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, to whom the Rev. D. MacGillivray is lent, is doing a great work in providing literature for awakening China. Mr. MacGillivray has himself translated sixty volumes, theological, biographical and historical. The work, great as it is, is yet in its infancy. Suitable accommodation is needed, and will be more and more needed as the years pass. They at present are making an effort to secure funds to erect a martyr Memorial Building in memory of the missionaries who suffered Martyrdom in the Boxer uprising. Mr. MacGillivray has been chosen to prosecute this effort, to which he is devoting his furlough year, which has arrived. The endorsation of all Missions in China has been heartily given, and all churches in all lands represented by these missions are asked to contribute. It is a work of common interest, one of the many co-operative efforts, happily multiplying in these latter days.

MACAO.

This Mission already gives promise of fruitage, although yet in its infancy. Mr. McKay, the missionary, naturally feels the responsibility of laying the foundations alone, and longs for an associate with whom to confer upon perplexing problems that arise. It is desirable that an associate should be appointed at an early date, yet it is felt that prudence has characterized the Mission so far, and that the prospects are bright.

As reported last year in Ping Lam, a village of from eight to ten thousand, situated about 18 miles from Macao, a native preacher has been planted, and an ancestral temple used as chapel and school.

Two young men have accepted Christ, and a number of others are interested. The school has an attendance of about twenty boys and girls, and, together with the ordinary studies of a Chinese school, Scripture truth and Christian hymns are taught.

Both Mr. and Mrs. MacKay have wisely devoted themselves to the acquisition of the language, and have made good progress. Mrs. MacKay, when only four months in the field, took charge of a Sunday School class teaching in Chinese. She takes oversight of a school for boys and girls, and also of a Bible-woman, and, in addition, she has, in company with two other ladies, opened an English school for girls. They evidently appreciate the importance of cultivating the children.

In nearly every village in the neighborhood of Ping Lam some Chinese are met who have been abroad in Australia or America, and their presence does much to prepare the way for the missionary and his message.

The proximity of a Christian College is an important advantage, and it is hoped that this Mission will be unique in the relatively large proportion of native agents employed.

Interest during the year centred about Heung Shan, the capital of the district of that city, a city of from one to two hundred thousand. There are many Chinese there and in the surrounding villages, who were in Australia, and there became members of the Presbyterian Church. These people contributed $3,000 (Mexican) toward the purchase and erection of church property. Knox Church, Toronto, contributed $800 (2,000 Mexican) toward this object, and it is to be called Knox Church Heung Shan. The property at first available passed beyond their reach, but another suitable site is being secured, and a congregation of respectable size will be organized in that city.

Miss Agnes I. Dickson, B.A., and Miss Isabel Little, M.D., have been appointed to labor amongst Chinese women in this field, and will, it is expected, enter upon their work this year. Woman's work in this Mission is to be entirely maintained by contributions received from the Woman's Missionary Society, having headquarters in Montreal.

CHINESE IN CANADA.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Of the Chinese work in British Columbia there is not much new to report. The work at different points is conducted as reported last year. The number of Chinese in Canada rapidly increased during the latter months of 1903 in anticipation of the $500 capitation tax, which took effect on the 1st January, 1904. Since that time there have been comparatively few arrivals, and thus the tax so far proves practically prohibitive.

Notwithstanding the Chinese Exclusion Bill in force in the United States, the Chinese in Canada are finding their way thither. The prospect is that the Chinese population in Canada will gradually diminish, and that this department of our Foreign Mission work will become less and less important.

In Vancouver the work has suffered from the necessity of leaving the Mission Hall occupied for some years, and removing to another less favorably situated, and even this has been secured only temporarily. Yet the uncertainty of the Chinese population makes it undesirable to incur the expense of erecting suitable premises at this time.

Mr. Ewing, Mr. Colman and Mr. Hall, with three Chinese helpers, are industriously sowing the seed, and much valuable aid is being received from earnest Christian workers at the eight different points where schools are conducted.

A Boarding School for boys has been opened in Victoria, having 25 in attendance, and is practically self-supporting. It is expected that these young lives will respond to Christian influence more readily than does the Chinese conservatism of older men.

WINNIPEG.—There are in Winnipeg about 200 Chinese, and of these considerably more than one-half are in attendance at school, and are under Christian instruction. There is good work being done, and there is hearty co-operation on the part of the churches. A request came from Winnipeg that a Chinese missionary should be employed for service in Winnipeg and other western points. The Committee realized the desirability, but the state of the funds did not justify an appointment.

ONTARIO AND QUEBEC.—There are at least 2,000 Chinese in these two provinces, largely centered in the larger cities. There is very much being done in their behalf with very excellent results. During the winter Mr. Colman was invited to spend two months in Toronto, which he did to good purpose. Mr. Colman speaks the Chinese language with unusual fluency, and his earnest evangelical addresses were much appreciated by the Chinese. There are now about 700 Chinese in Toronto, and at least 250 of them are found in the seven Presbyterian Schools regularly conducted in the city, where there are twenty-three baptized members, fifteen of whom were baptized during the year. Much of the success is due to the untiring devotion of Mr. Thomas Humphries to the work.

Similar work is being done at other points, such as Ottawa, Hamilton, Guelph, Brantford, Woodstock, London, St. Thomas, Sarnia, etc., and everywhere results are apparent.

In Montreal, Dr. Thomson and his helper, Mr. Chen Sing, are constant in service, and with encouraging results.

FUNDS.—As all Chinese in Canada come from the Province of Canton, an endeavor is being made to concentrate the interest of all the schools about the Macao Mission and cultivate in the minds of the Chinese a sense of proprietorship. About fifty schools at twenty-three different points contributed during the year $2,197 for the support of that Mission.

APPEAL.—It is extremely important that churches everywhere should be alert in looking after even the ones or twos who are found in different localities. The Chinese themselves appreciate this attention, and it is going to have large results in the future.

Any desiring information in connection with such effort may write to Dr. J. C. Thomson, Montreal, or to the Secretary of the Foreign Mission Committee.

INDIANS.

The Indian problem consists largely in turning the attention of the Indians to the cultivation of the soil. The children make satisfactory progress in the schools, and more or less advancement is visible amongst the older people, but, unless the young people, after they leave the schools, are willing to return to the Reserve and establish homes for themselves, the work cannot be permanent. With very few exceptions, the Indians of this or of the next generation cannot compete with the white men in the industrial or commercial world, nor do they seem to be able to stand alone in Christian work and leadership amongst their own people.

A distinct step in advance has been made in the last year or two in the right direction. At File Hills, for example, a portion of the Reserve has been surveyed into farms of 80 acres each. An 80-acre farm is given to any young man who will undertake to cultivate it, with the promise of the adjoining 80 acres after he has cultivated the first. Horses and equipment are provided by the department, but to be paid for within four years, when they become private property.

The result of this effort has been that seventeen young men have gone to work, and several of them have already earned the second section.

The Agent, Mr. Graham, in reporting to the department on the success of the colony, gives the following instances of results: "Fred Dieter attended the File Hills Boarding School for nine years, and the Regina Industrial School for two years. He was admitted to the colony two and a half years ago. The first year he broke 40 acres and the second year 35 acres. The first harvest he had 1,000 bushels of grain, and the next 2,200 bushels. He has a fine house, a good stable large enough to accommodate twelve head of stock, a frame granary, three fine Canadian mares, two cows, two calves, three pigs and poultry. He is now what may be called a well-to-do farmer.

Ben Stone, another lad with similar advantages, and admitted to the colony about the same time, has 100 acres under cultivation. His first crop was 1,019 bushels, and this year it is 2,389 bushels. He has three good horses and an outfit.

J. R. Thomas has been in the colony only a year and a half, and yet his first crop was 1,990 bushels. He has a good house and good farming equipment.

A divergence of view exists amongst the missionaries who have had most experience amongst the Indians as to the best method of reaching the desired end, but all are one as to the end that ought to be reached.

In connection with industrial school work, the chief difficulty lies in securing pupils. As the revenue of such institutions is derived from a per capita grant from the Department, a gradual reduction in the number of pupils gradually reduces revenue below the living point. This has been the experience of the Regina Industrial School, where the attendance has been steadily falling for some years, with the result that a deficit has accumulated, requiring a readjustment of per capita arrangements with the Department, or a complete surrender of the school. This falling away in attendance is not owing to want of efficiency in the administration of the school, but in part to the unwillingness of the parents to send their children to an industrial school at a greater distance, when Boarding Schools are nearer home, and in part to the keen denominational competition, which is not only hurtful to the schools, but demoralizing to the parents as well, who are ready to take advantage of such competition for mercenary ends.

Changed conditions demand a review of the policy of administration in the West, and will, it is expected, at a not very distant date, receive the attention of the department.

UNION.

It is a gratification to the Committee to be able to report that the spirit of co-operation and union is manifesting itself and taking effect in almost all Foreign Mission fields. It seems unpardonable that there should be perpetuated in foreign lands the manifold differences of the different sections of the Presbyterian Church.

The unfavorable impression upon the heathen mind of a divided Church, as well as economy of men and money, demanded such a combination of forces, which as might have been expected, is being attended with happy results. The consolidation of the Presbyterian bodies into the "Church of Christ in Japan" has proved eminently satisfactory, the new organization being characterized by the aggressiveness of that remarkable people.

In India the movement has culminated in the organization of the "Presbyterian Church of Christ in India," as a result of years of negotiation, and into which twelve different Presbyterian churches have merged their interests.

In Amoy the English Presbyterian and Reformed Church of America have been happily co-operating for years.

In Korea there is a movement on foot for the unification of the work carried on by the American Presbyterian Church North, the American Presbyterian Church South, the Canadian and the Australian Presbyterian Churches.

In Formosa negotiations have begun for closer relations between the English Presbyterians in the South and the Canadian Presbyterians in the North. A railway is now almost completed, which makes communication between the North and South easy, and the result cannot but be beneficial to the missionaries and the Island. It will induce economy and effectiveness, especially in collegiate work. The Brethren in Honan are also speaking, and have been speaking for years, of co-operation in educational work with neighboring Missions in Shantung. This spirit of union is abroad.

Missionaries are face to face with the world's greatest problem, the salvation of the heathen world, and its magnitude minimizes by contrast the differences that have divided the Church of Christ. They are satisfied to centralize upon the great fundamental doctrines of Christianity that are held in common. It is believed that a similar vision of the world's need would lead to similar results in the home land.

SPECIAL OBJECTS.

Of our missionaries, twenty are supported in whole or in part as special objects: Mr. John T. Ross, of Quebec, contributes $1,000 a year for the support of Rev. J. Fraser Campbell, of India; Crescent Street Church, Montreal, gives $1,200 to support Dr. W. McClure in Honan; Mr. David Yuile, of Erskine Church, Montreal, gives $1,200 a year for the support of Rev. Murdock MacKenzie; Erskine Congregation, Montreal, supports Dr. Percy C. Leslie, in Honan, at $1,200 a year, and has undertaken to support, at $800 a year, Rev. J. A. Mowatt, son of their pastor, who is under appointment to go to Honan this year. Rev. W. A. Lochead, another graduate of Montreal College, who is under appointment to go out this year to Honan, is to be supported by a gentleman of Montreal, who undertakes to contribute $1,200 a year and travelling expenses to the field, but wishes to have his name withheld. Central Church, Toronto, gives $800 a year toward the support of Dr. J. M. Waters of India; Bloor Street Church, Toronto, gives $1,200 toward the support of Rev. James Menzies, Honan; two gentlemen in St. James' Square Church, Toronto, give $800 toward the support of Rev. H. M. Clark, Honan; St. John's, Toronto, gives $800 towards the support of Rev. G. M. Ross, Honan; Westminster Church, Toronto, gives $500 toward the support of Rev. J. A. Slimmon, Honan; St. Giles' Church, Toronto, gives $300 toward the support of Rev. John Griffith, Honan; Knox Church, Toronto, has undertaken $800 towards the support of a missionary, not yet assigned, and last year gave $800 towards the erection of a church at Heung Shan, in the Macao Mission, to be called Knox Church, Heung Shan; College Street Church, Toronto, has undertaken $800, but missionary not assigned; Knox Church, Hamilton, contributes $1,200 towards the support of Rev. R. A. King; Principal of the Indore College, Central India, and St. Paul's Church, Hamilton, has undertaken $1,200, but missionary not yet assigned; Central Church, Galt, has undertaken $800 towards the support of Rev. R. A. Mitchell, Honan; Knox Church, Stratford, contributes $1,200 towards the support of Rev. D. J. Davidson, of Central India; Beechwood and Nairn have undertaken $300 toward the support of Rev. J. A. Slimmon, but contribute more than they have undertaken; Ailsa Craig and Carlisle congregation contribute $500 toward the support of Rev. J. H. Bruce, Honan; Beverley congregation has undertaken $300 toward the support of Rev. J. A. Slimmson, Honan; the Young People's Society of Winnipeg give $800 a year to the support of Rev. W. G. Russell, of Central India; the Young People's Society of the Presbytery of Kingston undertook for a term of years $400 toward the salary of Rev. W. Harvey Grant of Honan, and this has been further supplemented by $100 from the Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Vancouver. Knox College Alumni Association contributed last year $667 toward the salary of Rev. J. Goforth, Honan. It is worthy of mention that Dr. Percy C. Leslie, missionary in Honan, gives $400 a year from his personal estate toward the support of Rev. John Griffith of the same Mission, that being supplemented by $100 each from Mr. W. S. Leslie and Mr. W. G. King, of Montreal. St. Stephen's Church, Winnipeg, has undertaken $800 towards the support of Rev. James S. Mackay under appointment to Central India.

It is thus seen that about $22,000 have been received from eight individuals, seventeen congregations and three societies. It is not possible to give the names of Sabbath Schools, societies and individuals who have undertaken the support of individual native helpers and famine children, but in all about $25,000 have been received as contributions towards the support of special objects.

When it is remembered that this is more than one-third the total amount contributed to the General Foreign Mission Fund during the year, the possibilities of the whole Church are manifest.

The Committee, whilst greatly appreciating such special liberality, desire to state that the policy of assigning native helpers and children as special objects for support is fraught with so much difficulty as to make it impossible to maintain it. The natural desire on the part of the donors is to receive some correspondence from the object of their interest, and that proves to be impracticable. This failure to secure direct communication has sometimes resulted in, not only disappointment, but in a measure of bitterness, which is much regretted by the Committee, although unavoidable. Natives cannot write English, and missionaries would require to write thousands of letters in order to meet the demand. That they cannot be asked to do. The Committee, therefore, in common with Committees of other churches, seeks to discourage the assigning of such cases and have yielded in a measure only because of the persistency of the demand, although against their judgment. The help thus received for the support of famine children has met an emergency, and has proved a very valuable aid, but in a few years that special need will have passed away, unless another famine should visit the land.

The support of missionaries on the other hand by congregations and individuals is found, not only to be practicable, but stimulating to both congregation and missionary. It is not a burden to a missionary to tell of his work at intervals to a congregation interested in him, and it must be an inspiration to him to know that he is specially remembered in the sanctuary and at many a family altar.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society had another successful year; their total receipts amounting to $55,706.95, being $3,422.20, more than the receipts of last year. Their Auxiliaries and Mission Bands number 1,078, with a total membership of 23,698. The Church has much reason for gratitude for so great a work, and there is occasion for much prayer that the entire membership may be anointed with the Spirit of wisdom and love, that the best possible results may be achieved.

FINANCES.

The total receipts of the year were $107,818.27, of which the sum of $40,200 was received from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

As intimated in the report to last Assembly, the amount required for the work directly under the Foreign Mission Committee, not including that of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, was $99,827. As this meant an increase of nearly 90 per cent. in congregational contributions, the hearty co-operation of ministers and Sessions was asked. It is greatly to be regretted that the response did not justify the expectations of the Committee, and the year closed with a debt of $25,603.57. The receipts from legacies—$1,745—were the smallest for many years, the average income from this source being about $9,000 annually.

In the hope that contributions would be forthcoming, the Committee, in September last, adopted estimates for the current year requiring an expenditure of about $103,000. They were, however, reluctantly compelled at a later date to reduce this to $93,000, which is fully $25,000 in excess of the revenue of the past year.

An urgent appeal was issued in the month of April, to all congregations of the Church, for a special collection towards the removal of the deficit. At the date of writing, the amount received in response to the appeal is about $6,000. If the entire amount is not received, it will be a source of great embarrassment to the Committee, and will effectually prevent any enlargement of the work in the near future.

The actual amount required for the expenditure of the current year, being so greatly in excess of the receipts of last year, unless the full amount of the deficit is got by special contributions, the Committee may be under the necessity of still further contracting the work. This would be disastrous in many ways. It will especially be discouraging to the missionaries in the field. One of these, fearing that the cut made by the Committee might result in delaying operations in Whaiching, personally contributed upwards of $2,000, that the buildings there may be immediately erected. If men on the field are willing, not only to give themselves, but of their means, in the interest of the work, are there not many at home willing to sacrifice that the cause may be advanced? It is believed that not a few congregations would cheerfully contribute the amount necessary to support a missionary, were the minister and members of Session to take up the matter in earnest.

APPENDIX.

I.—NEW HEBRIDES.

NEW HEBRIDES' TRAINING INSTITUTION.

By Rev. Joseph Annand, D.D., Principal.

Allow me to submit to the Committee the following report for 1903:—

First, I shall speak of the "Training Institution for Native Teachers and Pastors," as our chief work is conected therewith.

Fifty weeks of class work have just been completed. Two hundred and fifty days' teaching has been given to the students plus the Sundays. Not a whole day was lost out of the fifty weeks, but several single classes were missed through arrival of steamers.

However, none of us teachers adhered to our work quite so closely as that would seem to imply. Our assistants had a months' holiday on Malekula, during which time I took charge of all the classes. Then in May last, owing to a somewhat serious breakdown in Mrs. Annand's health, she and I made a visit to Ambrim, for medical care, and were away for nearly six weeks. During these weeks Mr. Bowie kindly conducted my classes.

We began the year with thirty-five students. Within the twelve months seventeen graduated, and returned to their own islands and missionaries save one, who died of heart failure while awaiting the steamer to take him home. Another one who had been with us for about a year returned home ill of consumption, and died a few months later. Thus eighteen left us, and seven new students have entered, making our present number twenty-four. Nine of these have wives, and among them there are six infants.

The work done in schoo! has been somewhat higher than that of any former year. There are some fine young men among them, who we expect will do good work for the Master. As in other years, our grand aim has been to give the young men an accurate knowledge of the Bible, and to stimulate them to seek earnestly spiritual power.

The Institute has now completed its ninth year of service. The total number that have entered as students is a hundred and twenty-six.

Financially, we are still in good condition, so that I did not apply this year for any assistance from your Committee. We are very desirous of seeing the Committee free from debt.

Four months ago Mr. and Mrs. Bowie left us for a twenty-months' furlough in Scotland. We have been appointed to take the oversight of their work during their absence. This increases our labors considerably, as well as ties us more closely to our class work, as there is now no one upon whom I can call to take my place in an emergency.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, our assistants, recently engaged in Australia, leave us also at the end of April, to become settlers on Malekula. He has taken the "land fever," and in his eagerness to enter upon his independent career he will not remain his full two years with us. At present we do not know of any couple likely to succeed them in the institution. Still we trust that the Lord will provide.

The presence of settlers and their families near to us has also enlarged our duties somewhat. I have been exercising a pastoral care over them; and conducting service on the Sabbath, with a view to their needs. Our home is a common meeting place for most of them, and almost every Sunday we have several of them to dinner with us.

REPORT OF REV. J. W. MACKENZIE, D.D., FOR 1903.

We arrived in Efate from our furlough to Australia about the middle of May. Although we had chosen one of the healthiest districts of New South Wales, I did not derive much benefit from the change; nearly all the time we were away I was suffering from an attack of sciatica. Since our return, until recently, however, Mrs. Mackenzie, our little boy and myself have had excellent health. So far we are having a very trying "rainy reason," the heat at times being very enervating. Indeed we are dreading somewhat the coming months.

Shortly after we returned, one village after another came to welcome us home, each bringing a nice present of yams, bananas, etc. This token of their good-will was very gratifying.

We found the work at all the villages going on fairly satisfactorily, under the native teachers left in charge. We were much saddened, however, missing so many familiar faces. During our absence and since our return a great many adults have been called away, especially at Mele, Pango and this village. Consumption is very prevalent among the natives. About a month after our return we lost our native teacher, Kaltong, at this village (Fila). He was one of the gentlest, humblest, most exemplary natives I ever knew. Kaltong and Solomon, who died at Mele about two years ago, were Erakor natives, and were amongst the first who attended my training class.

Kaltong was recovering from an attack of pleurisy, when he was suddenly seized with what seemed to be meningitis. Although I had a doctor from a man-of-war to see him, nothing could be done to give him relief, and gradually he sank. Kalsakan, a very energetic young fellow, a native of this village, trained under Dr. Annand, has been appointed to Kaltong's place. He is giving great satisfaction, and is a credit to the good work done at the Training Institution, Tangoa.

Soppi, a Pango boy, trained by myself, is in charge of the work at Mele. He, too, is doing well. He is assisted by a native of the village, Tingat, or Joe as he is commonly called. Tingat is one of our few good natives of whom we feel proud, and for whose blameless, consistent lives we never cease to give thanks. They are an outstanding evidence of the power of the Gospel of Jesus. In heathenism Tingat was not a man of very great influence, but now it is simply marvellous to see how his word is respected by old and young. This is no doubt in large measure owing to the fearless way in which he reproves evil doers, and to his own godly, upright sincere life.

The work at Mele is certainly very encouraging. The population is over 200. Among them we have a fine lot of young people, strong, healthy and bright. About 90 attend the children's school.

A short time ago, at the close of the weekly prayer-meeting, Tingat, the treasurer, brought in his bags of copper and silver and laid them on the table. The young men deftly fingered the coins, and soon placed them in rows, £1 in each. The amount was £18 11s sterling, the Sabbath collections for the year. Of this sum they gave Soppi £8. The rest they divided among the assistant teachers.

At Erakor, Pango, and this village, we also have a fine lot of bright, intelligent young people. At Erakor there has been an introduction of new blood, but I regret to say that the result has not been the improvement of the village morally. Some half-castes and Loyalty Islanders, perhaps guilty of some outrage on their own islands and afraid to return, have come and settled there, and the Erakor people, glad to have an addition to their population, have given them wives. Before long, however, it is found that these foreigners are addicted to drink. But it is not alone in this way that this curse is being introduced among our young men of that village. Some of them are employed on steamers and trading vessels where occasionally spirituous liquors are supplied to them; and then about the harbor they see so much drinking among whites that naturally they wish to taste what the white man is so fond of, and the result is that now we have a new evil to contend with, one worse, infinitely worse, than heathenism.

As usual a quantity of arrowroot was prepared as a contribution to the mission.

Mrs. Mackenzie's Sabbath service for the "labor" of the settlers about the harbor has geen kept up during the year. The attendance has been very satisfactory, for, while some have been returned to their homes, others have been brought to fill their places.

In regard to the decrease in the population, I may mention that it has been greatest at the villages formed by those who, living away in the interior of the island, moved to the shore, when they renounced heathenism. The death rate has gone on steadily ever since they came in. I believe, however, that the death rate was much higher previous to the introduction of Christianity, as when I began to visit them I found several villages with only three or four natives in them, and was told that once they were large villages. In other encampments I might find a dozen or even a score, but very few children. Then many places were pointed out to me where villages had once stood.

The accounts show that no less than $58,696.44 were expended on the work in Trinidad during the past year. This amount was received from the following sources :—

Canada	$18,513 00
Proprietors	1,248 00
Native Church	6,342 90
Government for Schools	23,435 20
Sundries, Rents, etc.	9,157 34
	$58,696 44

It will thus be seen that considerably over two-thirds of the whole amount required to carry on the work was received from Trinidad sources.

Two new churches were built during the year, one at Balmain and one at Riversdale. These mark a very distinct advance in our work.

It is gratifying to report that the work shows progress in all directions, and that, too, in the face of the very "hard times" that characterized the whole of the second half of the year. It is hoped that the business depression is over. Through ill-health Mrs. Fraser was compelled to leave early in the year for a more temperate climate. It was a case of urgency.

Dr. Grant left in June at the call of the F. M. C. Dr. Morton's health broke down under the heavy strain of the work he was carrying on, and he left in a very weak state for Great Britain in the month of July. It is very gratifying to all his friends and the mission staff to learn that his health is steadily improving, and that he hopes to be able to return to the work.

Mrs. Morton, who had not had "a change" for eight years, accompanied him.

At the urgent request of the Mission Council for help in carrying on the work in San Fernando, during the absence of Dr. Grant, Dr. Coffin was sent out and arrived in December, and was very cordially welcomed by all the mission staff.

A brief visit from Messrs. Cropper and McKay on their way to Demerara was much enjoyed.

Our thanks are hereby tendered to all friends, old and new, here and "at home," for their help, sympathy and support.

Without their ready co-operation and aid the very satisfactory results of the year's work could not have been realized.

Above all others do we look up with heartfelt thankfulness to Him whose promises have sustained us, presence cheered us, and blessing crowned our labors. Not unto us ! not unto us ! but unto Him be the glory !

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, SAN FERNANDO, BY REV. W. L. MACRAE.

During the first half year the work was carried on as in former years. In July, however, owing to the absence of Drs. Morton and Grant, changes were made in the teaching staff. In lieu of Dr. Grant's subject Mr. Thompson made a special study of the shorter catechism, and in lieu of Dr. Morton's subject Mr. Fraser took the class over the first few chapters of the Epistle to the Romans exegetically.

Babu Lal Behari's subject was the Geography of Palestine and the travels of St. Paul, with Mohammedanism and the discussions arising therefrom. Mr. Macrae brought the class very carefully over the history of Judah and Israel from the time of the revolt of the ten tribes down to the Christian era. The class met regularly every third week, each missionary having but one day—Monday being omitted. Written examinations have shown that the students have worked well and have taken a deep interest in the various subjects. In all 14 were in attendance, of whom 3 are from Jamaica.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. JOHN MORTON, D.D.

At the beginning of the year I handed over to my colleague the special care of the finances and schools. The dry season gave opportunity for visiting and exploring in outlying and new settlements, and of this I did a good deal all around the border of our field from Chaguanas to the Atlantic Ocean.

It was toilsome, involving some long walks; but, as a continuation of what I had done in 1902, it fell more naturally to me than to my son.

Longdenville we have occupied, in rented buildings. At Cunaripo, three miles south of Guaico, we have secured five acres of Crown Land. Four miles south of Sangre Grande Railway station, on the new Carriage Road toward Rio Clara in Princestown field, land has been offered us in a large Indian district. Every effort should be made to open up these two stations without delay.

I gave much attention to our Hindu printing, in which I hope some progress was made, and I carried on my usual college work. But in July I was taken ill so seriously that my only hope of life lay in removal for a time to a cold climate. Mrs. Morton and myself accordingly sailed for Great Britain July 31st.

Since that I have only helped the mission by my constant prayers on its behalf. I have the conviction that in this way I have continued my mission work.

Mrs. Morton kept up her night school and other work as in 1902. She had seven girls in the Home, six of whom were taken in charge by Mrs. Thompson, to be trained along with her Couva girls.

To meet a long-felt want, Mrs. Morton prepared thirty short Hindu prayers, of which we printed 1,000 copies. They are intended for the use and guidance of converts and had been much asked for.

I leave Mr. Macrae to report for the College, and my colleague, Rev. Harvey H. Morton, to report for the Tunapuna field.

My health has improved as much as could be expected. Mrs. Morton, who greatly needed the rest, is also profiting by it. We only await increased strength and the doctor's permission to return to our field and our flock.

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. K. J. GRANT, D.D.,

SAN FERNANDO.

The first six months of 1903 were spent in the mission field, in our station at San Fernando, and from July to the end of the year we have been in the Home field.

I will avoid all statistics, as my co-laborer, Mr. Fraser, will doubtless furnish full returns.

Our self-sustaining charge in San Fernando, in which both Hindi and English are required, is not unlike the majority of congregations at home, which, in providing in full for their minister, naturally expects a full toll of service.

In addition to the ordinary Sabbath services and Sunday School, the weekly prayer meeting, Christian Endeavor and pastoral visitation, attention was given twice a week to religious instruction in the Primary School, in Naparima College and Training School jointly, and to the lads of the Boys' Brigade weekly.

We took our part regularly in the work of the Theological School, and once a week gave a lecture in Systematic Theology to West Indian students in training for Christian work in the U. F. Church of Scotland in the Colony.

At the call of duty we sometimes gave a helping hand outside the town, and this we did invariably when Mr. Fraser took services in the town.

Early in February, in response to an invitation from the Foreign Mission Committee of the United Free Church of Scotland acting under a resolution of the Synod of Jamaica, I went thither accompanied by the Rev. Lal Bihari.

In 1894, when that Synod resolved on evangelistic work amongst the 12,000 East Indians in Jamaica, application was made to us for trained men. San Fernando district gave two, Rajkumar Lal and Siboo; later still five more went from Trinidad who had been under training in our Theological College, and through the labors of these men and assistants raised up through their instrumentality, mission stations now dot the country where East Indians are settled, extending from Savanna la-Mar on the southwest to Port Antonio on the northeast.

All these stations we visited, guided by the superintendent, the Rev. W. F. Martin, M.A., late of Rajputana Mission and in Kingston. We visited not only the Indian Mission Church and people, but also the Leper Asylum, Reformatory and Penitentiary, where Miss Croil, who uses Hindi freely, labors for the good of East Indians generally, but more particularly for the women of the East.

Our journeyings occupied nearly three weeks, and, on returning to Kingston, we submitted a report to Synod, which was published with the Minutes of that Court.

It will be difficult anywhere to find a mission so fruitful conducted at so small a cost. It is highly creditable to the Presbyterian Church of that Colony. The assistance rendered by your mission in Trinidad is gratefully acknowledged, and by resolution of Synod I was instructed to convey sincere thanks.

It is a matter for congratulation that our Church has been able to render a sister church aid so highly appreciated and so generously acknowledged.

On February 1st John Gudar, a convert of the Jamaica Mission and a student of our Theological College, returned to Jamaica with us, and, closely following our visit, three men with their wives came to our Theological School in Trinidad, and are now under instruction in San Fernando.

It might be noted that the Established Church in Scotland in Grenada is indebted to our mission for men. From us, also, went the men that have carried on evangelizing work in St. Lucia, and it was the success of the Trinidad work that secured for us the generous offer of Mr. Crum-Ewing, of Better Hope, that led to the re-opening of mission work in Demerara.

From 1st March up till the 4th July we continued our work in Trinidad, when, at the invitation of the Foreign Mission Committee, we left for Halifax. From Sabbath, 18th July up to the close of the year, I was constantly engaged in seeking to promote the work entrusted to me, i.e., to deepen interest in Foreign Missions and to receive contributions to reduce the debt of $12,600 on the Foreign Mission Fund.

Pastors in every instance have shown much cordiality, and many have worked hard to secure the very liberal contributions sent in. We expect the debt to be removed in a short time.

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. W. L. MACRAE, PRINCESTOWN, TRINIDAD.

After seventeen years' work one is strongly tempted to look backward in review.

The report of this field for 1886 shows an income from the native church of $187.98. This year that item amounts to $1,319.17, a gradual increase of $66 per annum.

Then there were seven schools, with an average attendance of 226. This year fourteen schools show an average attendance of 673.

Three Sunday Schools in this field have increased to twenty-four, with an average attendance of 608.

Then there were but forty communicants, now 192.

During these years seventeen schoolhouses were built, eight teachers' houses and one church, 975 persons were baptized and 185 couples married.

These figures, however, do not show the spiritual improvement and growth in grace. The very decided advance in this respect forms the ground of our brightest hope for the future. Some of the boys of the infant class of 1886 are now among our most satisfactory teachers and Christian workers.

The line dividing our Christians from heathenism is becoming more distinctly marked. Very few Hindoos and Mohammedans now come to our services, and some of those who do have to endure persecution.

A few weeks ago a Mohammedan, who recently became a Christian, appeared in church with his head and hand badly cut and bruised—the world's reward for his profession of faith. In describing the ordeal he passed through it was stimulating to hear him say he would give up his life before he would abandon his faith in Christ.

Another promising young man was quite ready for baptism, when he was taken in hand by some of the Mohammedan priests and has since been kept closely under guard. It is, therefore, through much tribulation that many enter the Kingdom.

With the help of fourteen faithful catechists, four of whom attended the College in San Fernando, an honest endeavor was made to reach and instruct all classes.

In the weekly catechist class stress was laid on thorough preparation for work and system in the performance of it. We are confident some progress was made in this respect. I heartily acknowledge the invaluable assistance received from Mr. Soodeen in the teaching of this class, as well as in all phases of missionary work, especially financing, in which he excels in carefulness.

The new church at Riversdale has given quite a stimulus to the work in that district.

The work among the women, under Mrs. Macrae's supervision, has been encouraging. Mrs. Mahindebeg is her chief Bible-woman—a very competent and faithful worker. Fifty women's meetings were held in the Princestown Church, with an average attendance of fifteen. Also fifty women's meetings at St. Croix with an average of ten. The wives of the catechists have also done some good work in their respective fields.

The schools show an increase in attendance of sixty over last year. On account of a large number of free people having removed from the Ben Lomond, the school on this estate was closed and the aid transferred to the new school on St. Julien Branch Road.

Some interest has been taken in the new department of agriculture, and our schools have taken their full share of prizes at the annual Agricultural Exhibition.

Loud calls for extension come from a new but large cocoa district, about nineteen miles from here in an easterly direction. The majority of the people in this district have gone from estates adjoining Princestown, and therefore many of them are known to us. Hence, our desire to follow them and give them a school next year, if possible. A few miles beyond this we are likely to meet Dr. Morton, who is working in that direction from the Tunapuna side. When we meet there will then be a chain of schools and mission work around a very large part of the island.

Our young people have manifested some new life in connection with the Young People's Society Christian Endeavor movement. Two helpful and stimulating conventions were held in this district, one conducted and managed by the young people themselves.

The debt on the Palmyra property has been reduced to $118.46.

THIRTENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. A. W. THOMSON, COUVA, TRINIDAD.

During the whole of the past year it was borne in upon us as never before that the salvation of Trinidad, humanly speaking, must come from within, not from without; from the "Native Church," not from the foreign one; that the future church will be the harvest of all our present seed-sowings, and that the child is the key to all the problems the Church has to solve.

It follows, therefore, that our best thought and effort must be given to the child; that our present seed-sowings must be as varied, as extensive and complete as we wish our harvest to be, and that just as long as our Native Church hesitates or delays, just so long will the salvation of the people tarry.

Our manifest goal is a Native Church, self-supporting, self-governing and self-propagating.

Large emphasis has always been laid upon the self-supporting characteristic, while small attention has been paid to the other two. Is it not time to emphasize strongly the others also? And would not a liberality that followed from a due appreciation of duties and responsibilities be more likely to be better sustained, more regular and systematic and more generous as well?

In this case would it not be found that where head and heart went the money would be sure to follow?

One of the hard tasks in mission work is to get the converts to accept their responsibilities, and harder still is it to get them to regard these, not as duties, but as privileges, in the performance of which alone can all the richer blessings come.

Yet until the Church, people and leaders alike, come to see that it is not in getting, but in giving, not in leaning on others, but in making the effort herself, not in bemoaning her poverty and "hard times," but in consecrating her gifts and offerings, "what she has," "as God prospers;" not in waiting for more strength to come, but in using what she has, that the secret of growth and strength and wealth and power and fitness for work lies.

Until the Church comes to see this and accepts it, she can neither fulfil her mission to others nor come into the full possession and enjoyment of the richest spiritual and temporal blessings for herself? Weakness and poverty are a ready plea, but it is well to remember that in making the effort to obey, the weak are often surprised at their strength and the poor at their ability to give.

The conviction keeps growing upon us that even now if the Church would move along the line of duty—privilege—blessing—and call upon her redeemed sons and daughters to follow her, she would discover such resources and fitness, and take on such strength and beauty as would be a surprise and a delight to both herself and her well-wishers.

"Till this effort is made she cannot possess "the more abundant life" for herself, much less bring it to others.

The Young People's work has had a large share of attention. The responsibility for it was entrusted to the teachers, and right gladly and heartily did they take it up.

A S.S. Union was formed, schools were better organized, and there was a more systematic and thorough study of the S.S. Lessons, followed up by regular quarterly examinations. All this was done by the teachers themselves, and at their own suggestion. It is pleasing to be able to report that both day schools and Sunday schools have never shown better results. The teachers are anxious for a "Training Course," and, as Presbytery has this matter in hand, their wishes are likely soon to be gratified.

We have had our first District C. E. Convention. There were one hundred and fifty delegates from our Couva Societies, and six visitors from Princestown and San Fernando. The Chairman of the Convention, the Committees who made all the arrangements; the young men and women who prepared the papers that were read and discussed, were those who, thirteen years ago, attended the infant classes of our schools.

It is proposed to put the whole case and responsibility connected with the "preaching work" "upon the shoulders" of the catechists. This will not only be an education for them and their people, but it will also free the missionary and give him time and opportunity for other work now urgent and pressing. It is time the catechists felt "the burden of the Lord" upon them in this great work, and rose up as one man to bear it. We hope much from this new departure.

The building of the Balmain Church enabled us to proceed wtih the reorganizing of the district, and marking it off into congregations. Four centres have been chosen, and all the neighboring stations grouped around them. At each centre communion rolls and registers for baptisms have been formed and quarterly communions held since the middle of the year. Two centres are licensed for marriages. The others will be licensed as soon as suitable buildings are secured.

NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. S. A. FRASER, SAN FERNANDO.

I have labored the whole year in San Fernando district. This is unusual, as in most other years I have given more or less supply to some of the other stations.

In early summer the doctor ordered Mrs. Fraser to leave at once for a lengthened furlough in a temperate climate. She left here the 1st of June for Canada, where she spent the first week in the hospital.

Dr. Grant and family left for Canada on the 1st of July. I carried on Dr. Grant's work in addition to my own as far as I could, giving one day a week to the Theological College for five months, when we had the pleasure of welcoming Dr. Coffin back to Trinidad to take up Dr. Grant's work in the meantime.

On reading over the portion of my report of last year referring to the work in this district I find with but few changes that it describes the work and progress of the present year. As the Committee exhort us to brevity in our reports, and the missionary has no time for repeating what is in the hands of all, I will simply note a few of the salient facts.

The Theological and Naparima Colleges, Training School for Teachers and Elementary Schools have been maintained in their usual state of efficiency.

The average attendance of some of our schools is smaller than last year on account of the prevalence of sickness among the children and the large crop of rice, the children had to assist their parents in cutting.

The rate of mortality in this district has not been so high for many years. Thirteen of our communicants died during the year. I find that, leaving out the extra amount raised last year by bequests and special effort for the repair of Susamachar church, there has been an increase this year in the regular contributions of the native church, notwithstanding the loss sustained by deaths, business failures, and the general depression and hard times throughout the island. Looking back over former reports, I notice that in eight years the contributions in the country districts alone have increased from $300 to $1,100, and the income and expenditure for the whole district has doubled in that time.

The amount received from Canada has remained the same, and on account of hard times we have been receiving for the last four years $340 a year less from proprietors. During eight years we have spent in the San Fernando district $21,000 in building churches, schoolhouses, catechists and teachers' houses and in the purchase of land.

This year we have purchased five acres of Crown land at San Froncique for a church and school, also two lots of land in Gasparillo Village for a church, and a portion of land on the New Oropouche Lagoon Road, where we hope to get permission from the Government to build a school.

We built this year a catechist's house at Palmiste and Siparia, a teacher's house at Dewi, enlarged Rev. Lal Bihari's house and did extensive repairs to several of our other buildings. While a great work has been accomplished under the blessing of God in Trinidad, let it be borne in mind that much remains to be done. There are 1,600 heathen in this district alone to every native minister and catechist we have employed, and one man cannot with advantage teach and instruct more than two hundred ignorant heathen in addition to ministering to the Christians.

In Cedros, twenty-five miles from San Fernando, there are about 5,000 heathen for whom we are at present doing nothing. A misisonary and six catechists are required for Cedros at once. Land has been offered to us free for our buildings.

A few months ago, away two miles in the jungle, a heathen man offered me land free for a school. It may be said even yet of Trinidad, "The Harvest is great, but the laborers are few."

Miss Archibald did the same work as last year among the women and schools, giving more attention to the training of Indian girls and to school work in Dr. Grant's absence. Her own report wil give further particlulars.

The faithful and devoted Rev. Lal Bihari continued this year as last to give instruction one day a week in the Theological College, and did the larger portion of the work of teaching the catechists on Fridays. He has about completed a small book on the Hindu sacred book, "Valmiki Ramayan," which is now being printed on our Mission press in Tunapuna. This work should be very helpful to our catechists in showing the Hindus that their books are false.

The Rev. David Ujagar Singh passed away on Christmas Day. He was ordained to the native ministry about eight years ago and settled over the newly organized congregation of Oropouche. Owing to failing health, he has been unable to do active service for over three years. When health permitted he preached on Sabbaths. He has left a wife and seven children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and loving father. Many of those who knew him most intimately were heard saying on the day of his funeral, "A good man has gone."

For tabulated results of the year's work see Statistical Returns.

THIRD YEAR'S REPORT OF REV. H. H. MORTON, TUNAPUNA, TRINIDAD.

From January 1st to July 31st in addition to regular preaching and pastoral duties, the care of the finances and the seventeen schools of the Tunapuna field fell upon me. From August 1st to December 31st, owing to the absence of Dr. Morton, I have had full charge of this extensive and extending field.

The Rev. Andrew Gayadeen, our native ordained minister stationed at Caroni, in addition to managing a large and populous district, has helped me greatly during Dr. Morton's absence by giving instruction to our catechists and rendering faithful and efficient aid in all other matters.

Rev. Paul Bhukan, stationed at Sangre Prande, twenty-four miles east of Tunapuna, has also worked well, and mangaed a fast growing and very hopeful district of this field.

Our eight catechists have by preaching and house to house visitation and instruction done much good work.

Mrs. Harvey Morton was absent five months on a visit to her home in St. John. During the seven months that she was here she took a part in overseeing the women's work in co-operation with Mrs. Morton, senr., and, since the latter's absence, had full charge of the women's work, and aided much in Sunday School and night school work in Tunapuna.

Of our three Bible women, Deborah Talaram has done good and faithful work among our Christian women, and especially in visiting heathen homes house by house to instruct the heathen women.

SCHOOLS.—In 1903 we opened a new school at Santa Cruz. It is not assisted by a Government grant. In spite of much sickness, our schools have had the large attendance of nine hundred and ninety-two children daily for our seventeen schools.

Our six night schools for working lads and men at Tunapuna, St. John, St. Joseph, Woodbrook, Longdenville and Cumuto have done much good to Christian and heathen alike.

More and more attention is being paid by the Government of Trinidad to agricultural and manual training in the primary schools of our Island. Eight of the schools of our Tunapuna field, at the Schools Agricultural Show held at Tunapuna December 22nd, secured eighteen prizes for excellent vegetables and fruits grown and exhibited by them. Thus our boys are getting not only good religious and secular instruction, but are being taught to be handy men, industrious and equipped for work after school.

HINDI PRINTING.—This year the Sunday School Lesson sheets, Scripture Texts, and a temperance tract by Dr. Morton were printed and widely distributed in Trinidad, and a quantity was sent to our Mission in British Guiana.

Early in the year a large editon of Hindi hymns for our Christian people here and in British Guiana was issued; also a Hindi catechism and a "Garland of Prayers"; this later was edited by Mrs. Morton, senr.

At present a book on the Ramayan, by Rev. Lal Bihari, and "The Teaching of Jesus in His own Words," by Dr. Morton, are more than half through the press, and will fill a much-needed want.

The two compositors are young Christian lads who have passed through our schools.

THE SOWING OF THE SEED.—Apart from some voluntary preaching and house visitation on the part of some of our Christian people, at least twenty-five fixed stations in this field were ministered to every Sabbath by the missionaries, ordained natives and catechists, and the Bible-women every Sabbath ministered to the women in their homes or in quiet groups.

More and more attention is being given in endeavoring to train our preachers to give the people solid and systematic teaching. Comparatively few heathen attend our Christian services now; the lines drawn between Christianity and Hinduism and Mohammedanism are more marked than ever. The need is now more than ever felt of good preachers to preach and teach wisely and well.

With a view to this end four of our teachers have had special Bible study and instruction on Saturday.

SPECIAL THANKS are due to the proprietors of estates in the Island who have aided with contributions and sympathy, and to all the kind friends in Canada who have sent us gifts for the school children, clothing, cards, Sunday school picture rolls, etc.

Miss Blackadder sends her own special report.

We all look forward to and pray for the glad day when the head of this field and Mrs. Morton will return in renewed health and strength to continue their labors so blessed and made fruitful by our Father above.

This large overdraft is due largely to the fact that payments for the first half of the current year were made on the basis of last year's estimates, while estimates for the current year, amounting to between two and three thousand dollars, were referred back to the Mission Council for further consideration, and had not been sanctioned at the date of the closing of the accounts.

III.—BRITISH GUIANA.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. G. A. SUTHERLAND, BETTER HOPE.

My work during this year has been twice interrupted by sickness, malarial fever, which, with both Mrs. Sutherland and myself, was so severe as to leave us rather feeble, but, after two weeks' rest, we were able to resume work and have not been again interrupted.

The work of the field has been carried on along the same lines as in former years, and may be briefly reviewed under the following heads :

WEST INDIAN CONGREGATION.—This is an English-speaking congregation of ninety-five members, but a large proportion of them are living in a state of extreme poverty. I believe that, according to their means, they give for their work as well as congregations at home. Mrs. Sutherland has assisted in the Sunday school, and I have not found it necessary to give as much time to this work as formerly.

EAST INDIAN CONGREGATION.—Although we have no organized East Indian congregation, we have 183 baptized persons, including twenty-three communicants, under our care, with whom it is necessary for the missionary to keep in personal touch.

As at home, a large proportion of the baptized take little interest in vital religion. The majority are children, and special efforts have been made during the year to bring all to one or another of our Sunday schools.

The attendance of women at the Sunday services has largely increased, no doubt owing to the presence of a lady missionary and a Bible-woman. I have taken considerable pains to cultivate in them the grace of giving, but it is to be remembered that all our members are very poor, not one excepting the catechists earning a shilling a day. I believe they are discouraged by their hard circumstances from trying to give. In this place, it may be truly said, the poor have the Gospel preached to them.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We have five Sunday schools for East Indians, where 170 children, the majority of whom are heathen, gather weekly for instruction. All the schools have shown progress during the present year. The most encouraging is that in Better Hope Church.

I found at the outset of my work great difficulty in bringing the boys and girls to the church service. I tried early to bring them into a Sunday school preceding the service, and while dismissing the infant classes to keep the larger ones, and thus accustom them to church-going.

I had little success until the present year. Mrs. Sutherland succeeded in gathering one large class of boys, which stimulated the whole school. I aim at visiting two schools each Sunday, examining them and directing the teaching.

DAY SCHOOLS.—We have added two schools to the list of Government aided schools during the year, one at Ogle and the other at Le Resouvenir, the latter being a branch of Better Hope School. Our three schools are now supported entirely by the Government. Religious instruction is given daily in Hindi and in English.

The administration of these schools down to the minutest details falls to the missionary, and recent regulations conditioning the grant makes considerable work managing them, but it is labor well spent.

Night schools were held at Better Hope and Plaisance.

CATECHISTS' CLASS.—The catechists and Bible woman met twice a week for instruction. The work of the class included Bible teaching, the study of some Chirstian doctrines, Hinduism, Mohammedanism and lessons on their pastoral work. Mrs. Sutherland read English with them. Lessons have been given for home study and the work reviewed.

I regret I have not been able to give this work the attention it deserves. The catechists report work and receive orders twice a week or oftener.

EVANGELIZATION.—There are some 6,000 East Indians within three or four miles of the manse.

Few heathen adults will come to a meeting-house. The outdoor meeting, beside a group of houses, is perhaps our greatest agency in teaching them. This work is being carried on every day.

The hospitals are very useful places for reaching and teaching the people on the estates. Individual work is always at hand.

While the accessions from heathenism are not numerous, it is evident that where Christ is being preached, the coarser and most degrading beliefs and practices of heathenism are giving way and the superiority of Christianity is being recognized.

There has been a distinct awakening of interest at Plaisance, where a new building has been erected. More heathen men, and especially women, have attended the services there than I have ever seen in the Better Hope Church.

OUR MACEDONIA.—The West Bank of Demerara River has been visited with a view to opening there a catechists' station. It is a Presbyterian parish with some 4,000 East Indians, and practically nothing done for them.

The West Coast has also been visited with a view to see what may yet be done to care for the fruit of the ministry of the late Mr. Gibson, our pioneer missionary. The memory of that noble missionary is fondly cherished, and those who were blessed by his work are anxious to hear the Gospel again in the only language they can well understand.

Two reasons may be given for extending our work so widely with a staff so small. The strongest is that our first duty is toward those who seek. There are a few in every place who are groping in the darkness, and from these come our best workers. The second is that our people are continually moving, so that it is impossible for a mission confined to a small area to grow.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. J. D. MACKAY, ESSEQUIBO, BRITISH GUIANA.

On the evening of Feb. 5th, 1903, in Coburg Road Church, Halifxa, I was designated by the Presbytery of Halifax as third missionary to Demerara, the desire of the Church being that I should open work in the new field of Essequibo.

When the Mission Council was organized, May 19th, it was determined to visit the Essequibo field at an eary date with a view to the commencement of work there. This visitation was carried out on June 2nd and 3rd. Messrs. Cropper, Sutherland and myself landed at Suddie, and spent two days in travelling up and down the coast, and interviewing estate managers and others interested in our work. It was found that the field was a large and attractive one, fully ready for work. The chief difficulty arose over the securing of a house suitable for residence. It was found impossible to procure a house rent free as in the other fields, and the only available building was in Suddie. It was consequently decided to rent this house and begin work on July 1st.

On the 2nd day of July I returned to Suddie bringing with me Catechist Peter Ishwari Das, one of our oldest and best men from Better Hope. We made our headquarters at Suddie, the catechist occupying rooms in the same house with myself. We immediately set out to acquaint ourselves with the nature and needs of the Essequibo field. We were well received by the East Indan people and soon had abundance of work on our hands. Suddie is a village at the mouth of Essequibo River, and has a few white families resident, chiefly government officials. Immediately adjoining on the one side are the estates of Maria's Lodge, Johanna Cecilea, Zorg, Golden Fleece and Perseverance, and on the other, Onderneeming, Adventure and Airy Hall. The East Indian population of the district is about 5,000. Meetings are held reguarly at seven places in this area, including the Colony Hospital at Suddie and the Estate Hospital at Golden Fleece.

Westward from Suddie, seven miles, is the Village of Queenstown. Here we found a few Christian people, among whom was a young man named Solomon Sherkhan. He had been converted from Mohammedanism a number of years ago, and had spent two and a half years in the Church of England Training School at Kitty. Deeming him a suitable man for our work, I encouraged him to hold meetings among the people, which he did, with such success that on the 1st September I took him on trial as catechist. The field in which he labors consists mainly of L'Union Estate, Queenstown Village and Taymouth Manor Estate.

Mr. D. Carruthers, Attorney of L'Union Estate, very kindly gave us the free use of a large building formerly a hospital, and Mr. McCulloch, Manager of Taymouth Manor, with equal generosity, put the Estate School buildings at our disposal for meeting purposes. Both of these gentlemen are Presbyterians.

Sherkhan holds service on Sunday at Taymouth Manor in the morning, conducts Sunday school and visits the hospital. In the afternoon he conducts Sunday school and meetings at L'Union. Three days in the week he visits the Taymouth Manor School, where he gives the children religious instruction and teaches Hindi. On the other three days he teaches a school which we have started at L'Union. On a recent visit I was delighted to hear nine of the children correctly repeat the Ten Commandments in Hindi.

Twelve miles from Suddie is the large Island of Wakenaam, in the Essequibo River. Rev. J. G. Cruickshank, minister of the Scotch parish there, very cordially invited us to take up East Indian work in that district, and offered the use of schools and other buildings. The Island has three sugar estates and some 3,000 East Indians.

In company of a catechist, I visited the Island and was very favorably impressed with the opportunities presented. Accordingly, a catechist, who had been for some time in training under Mr. Cropper, was released from the Helena field, and on the 1st November he began work on Wakenaam. He resides at Melville Village, where he assists in the day school, giving instruction in Hindi and religious knowledge. He visits the Marionville Hospital and holds meetings at Good Success, Beele Plain, Bank Hall, Caledonia and elsewhere. Already he has a satisfactory and promising work developed.

Southeast from Suddie, up the Essequibo River, is one of the most beautiful parts of the Colony. Riverstown is three miles distant and has a large East Indian population. Huis l'Dieven, one of the Government settlements, follows. Here there is a church belonging to the Presbyterian Missionary Society of British Guiana, which does work among the blacks and aboriginal Indians. Their Committee very kindly offered us the use of the same.

They also gave us the use of their church still further distant four miles, at Aurora, a very compact East Indian settlement composed mainly of free people, who cultivate the land for themselves. With the help of two Christian East Indian men, I have been able to do some work here. A colored lady, Mrs. Highfield, has been encouraged and helped to conduct a Sunday school. I hope to get a catechist to work in this promising field early in the New Year.

Twelve miles westward is Anna Regina Estate. It is a very prosperous plantation, and, with the adjoining Village of Henrietta, has at least 3,000 East Indians. I have given an occasional visit either in person or by catechist.

Seventeen miles west is Hampton Court Estate, one of the most prosperous on the coast, in the midst of a large East Indian settlement of free people. It has a population similar to Anna Regina.

Each of these fields is greatly in need of a catechist, and we must occupy them as soon as possible. When this is done the Essequibo field will be well organized. It will then have one Canadian missionary and six catechists working among its twenty thousand East Indians.

A considerable portion of the East Indian population is Mohammedan, the remainder Hindu. Considerable opposition has been experienced from their religious leaders. Some of our services are attended by Buck and Arawaac Indians, by Chinese and Portuguese. With few exceptions, the planters have received us cordially. We are indebted to Mr. W. Middleton Campbell, proprietor of Golden Fleece, and Anna Regina, for a contribution of £50 to our funds.

In concluding this report I desire to acknowledge my gratitude to God for health and the measure of success that has crowned our efforts. I have had an occasional attack of fever, but not sufficient to interfere with my work. It is absolutely necessary for Canadians to take all precautions in this malarial climate.

"I am glad to say that the field is a splendid one and holds great promise for the future. It is one of the healthiest locations in the country. The land has natural drainage, and we have a fine sand beach where others have mud. Much of the land is cultivated and owned by the East Indian population. These settlements are rapidly growing."

I have made some progress in Hindi and can now read with a degree of fluency. Fortunately, broken English is fairly well understood in all parts of the field.

We commend ourselves and our work to the prayers and sympathy of the Church at home, and to the direction and blessing of Almighty God.

IV.—KOREA.

FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. W. R. FOOTE, B.A.

Immediately after the last annual meeting our attention was given to preparation for the half-yearly communion in Wonsan, which took place on the 2nd of November. Sixty candidates came up for examination, twenty-one of whom received baptism, and nineteen were enrolled as catechumens. The following Sunday one was baptized, three were received by letter and four admitted as catechumens, being certified from other congregations.

The second and third weeks in November I was busy preparing lessons for the approaching training classes and in teaching an evening Bible class for the benefit of the leaders and any others who wished to attend.

Near the end of November I went to Ham Hung and taught during the time the class was in session there.

I then went to Anpyon and held a class which was well attended.

I came home from Anpyon, expecting to start immediately for Song Chin to teach again, but, there being no boat, was delayed. At last I took my chance on a little coasting steamer, which took four days on a wild sea to make a trip ordinarily occupying twelve hours. The class was interesting and all made good progress.

The class in Wonsan closely followed the Song Chin class.

Just a few days after this class began I was taken sick, and was not only unable myself to teach, but took the attention of others who expected to devote all their energies to the class. Messrs. Yu and Kim taught my class, and the ladies of the mission kindly undertook Mrs. Foote's work in addition to their own, so that no classes were neglected. The other classes I expected to teach were taught by two native Christians with good results.

It was the middle of April before I was able to do any mission work.

The rest of the month was spent in preparation for the spring communion in Wonsan. Forty-three applicants either to become catechumens, or for baptism, were examined. Of this number twenty received baptism and seventeen became catechumens.

At this time, as I felt stronger and had received letters from several groups urging me to visit them if possible, I decided to spend a few days in the country.

At Chok Tari I held three services, baptized two and admitted five catechumens. At Chil Pu Tong I held a service and enrolled four catechumens. The Christians here were suffering because of the famine. In the house where I held service the family had nothing to eat and were very poor; since then the Church has helped them.

I spent Sunday at Chong Tok, where I baptized one and received a catechumen. These people had been without food for several days, with the exception of roots dug on the hills. Since then they have received aid from the Church.

At Sai Mak Kol I held two services and enrolled two catechumens. At Sok Sai Kol, one hundred miles from Wonsan, I held two services, baptized one and enrolled three catechumens.

My next call was at Sang Sin Won, where I held several services, conducted examination for candidates for baptism and the catechumenate, baptized thirteen and enrolled eighteen catechumens, and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Here I promised the applicant for baptism answering best a New Testament, which was won by a boy 15 years old, who, besides answering well, repeated correctly Matt. chaps 5, 6 and 7, Romans 12th chap., John 3rd chap., 1 Cor. 13th chap., 1 John 4 : 7-21, the Ten Commandments and the Apostles' Creed. Several others did nearly as well.

The next day I held service at Pul Lang Kol at noon, where I enrolled two catechumens, and at Chang An Kol the same evening, where I admitted four catechumens. At Cho Sa I held a midday service and enrolled a catechumen; the same evening I held a service at Tak Kori, where I enrolled seven catechumens.

A few days later I reached home, having spent seventeen days on the road, travelling two hundred and forty miles, visiting ten groups, baptizing seventeen and enrolling forty-seven catechumens.

I have here entered into details to show clearly the kind of work your missionaries do several months each year.

In several places the cause has been considerably strengthened.

Throughout the whole field there is not a group but what has made some contribution to the spread of the Gospel outside its own immediate vicinity, Wonsan leading by paying the salary of an evangelist and a Bible woman, besides supporting two male teachers and a woman to teach in the girl's school. The total contributions for the year were 4,050 yang, 2 yang being equal to a day's wage.

The total number baptized during the year was sixty-two, and the total number of catechumens enrolled was one hundred and three.

At the last annual meeting Mrs. Foote was given oversight of the Bible Society's Bible woman, Lydia, whose services are much appreciated. In March she severed her connection with the Bible Society to become the representative of the women of the native church, who are responsible for her support.

Miss McCully and Dr. McMillan both spent some months away from Wonsan during the year and at such times Mrs. Foote took charge of their work. On Sunday morning the Sunday School was in Wonsan, and in the afternoon in Kai Mal; Tuesday was the women's class in Sing Phungie, Wednesday and Thursday the girls' school, Thursday afternoon the women's class in Wonsan, and Saturday the Sunday School teachers' class.

Besides the ordinary duties in the mission, owing to sickness at home and in the neighborhood, Mrs. Foote devoted three months almost exclusively to nursing.

In closing this report we wish to give thanks to the Giver of all good for the progress of the year and for every blessing received.

REPORT OF SONG CHIN STATION, 1903.

Missionaries.

Rev. R. Grierson, B.A., M.D., arrived Sept., 1898.
Mrs. R. Grierson, B.A., arrived Sept., 1898.
Rev. A. F. Robb, B.A., arrived Oct., 1901.
Mrs. A. F. Robb, B.A., arrived Oct., 1901.

This is the third annual report of the Station,though it is only two years and three months old at the time of this meeting, having been opened May 18, 1901. Since last year the personnel has been changed by the departure of Mr. John Grierson, who, after a year and ten months of unselfish labor, returned to Canada in May, and by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Robb, who were assigned here in October, 1902.

The period now reported on is only a period of ten months, owing to the unusually early incidence of the Annual Meeting. The work of God in this whole field has been under the pastorship of the two missionaries, without any special allotment of field; each has worked in Song Chin or in the out-stations as occasion served.

We are glad to be able to record again a marked increase in the population and trade of the new port; the growth of the Korean town has kept pace with its previous rate of increase, but the Japanese business settlement has more than doubled since last Annual Meeting.

The steamer service has been immensely improved, and everything seems to favor that development of Song Chin as a trade centre, the anticipation of which was one of the chief reasons for the opening of the Station. In this whole region last year's bad season and shortage of crops has made living very hard for all Christians, but all have so far weathered it without being actually destitute or requiring much help from the missionaries.

SONG CHIN LOCAL WORK.—It is now just one year since our new church, built by the handful of believers then comprising our congregation, was opened, and already we are finding it small for a full Sunday attendance. Last year our average attendance was twenty-five, this year it is thirty-six, and now occasionally we have a total of fifty.

This increase is not entirely due to an increased interest on the part of the local population, who, even to the present time, hold somewhat aloof from us; it is, in part, due to the moving from Wonsan of several Christian families.

There were on the roll at last Annual Meeting eight baptized adults. Since then there have been received by certificate from Wonsan five and by profession of faith ten, but, as one has been removed for unbecoming conduct, the present number is twenty-two. There are also twelve catechumens enrolled at the present time.

Three catechumens were led to discontinue church attendance by various temptations, and of these one has since returned.

Sunday, August 9, was a happy day since it saw us celebrate the baptism among others of the carpenter converted while building the hospital two years ago, and also of the laborer, who, for belief in Jesus, and refusal to join in the ungodly revels of the other coolies, was driven from the Coolie Labor Union into many hardships and deep distress.

We have been permitted to see the final act of one of the triumphs of the Gospel in Korea, when a man who, before his conversion, had forsaken his own family and run off with another man's wife, brought his mother, wife and children on foot 450 miles to this place, where he is now employed as a colporteur and where they are living together in accordance with the law of God.

The local church has given very liberally considering the hard season.

With all of the northern province of Ham Kyung and one-third of the southern province for our parish, it will be seen that there must be much itinerating work done on this station. We have groups north, south and west, six in all.

* * * * * *

CLASSES.—There was but one regular winter theological class conducted during the year for the whole field, and at it we had the assistance of Mr. McRae and Mr. Foote. In spite of a great fall of snow there were two representatives each from four of the country groups, some of whom travelled 130 miles to reach Song Chin. The number in regular attendance was about twenty, and for two weeks they studied hard. It was a time of great blessing to all who attended. There were held occasionally, in Song Chin, Friday evening classes for study of the Scriptures.

WOMEN'S WORK.—Besides women not yet enrolled we have in our field thirteen baptized women and twenty-two women catechumens. Of these nine baptised and four catechumens are in Song Chin. These have been well instructed by Mrs. Grierson in the Sunday School, and by Mrs. Robb and Mrs. Grierson alternately on Monday and Thursday afternoons.

Most of the women can now read the Scriptures for themselves. Several of them have gone out preaching in the nearer villages, and succeeded in bringing a few women to church.

A Bible-woman, under the direction of Mrs. Robb, has been working in a portion of the field for six months.

Nearly all the women in the country stations are unable to read, and the only instruction they have received is what their husbands and this one Bible-woman gave them. One of our problems for the future is how to teach these to read and train them up in Scripture knowledge.

SCRIPTURE DISTRIBUTION.—There are connected with this station three colporteurs of the Bible Society and one Bible-woman. These have travelled through twelve of the sixteen counties conected with this field, and have been the means of starting new work in many places. They have sold 120 Bible and Testaments, 870 Gospels and Portions, 1,036 Tract-books and 1,450 Calendars. We are much indebted to the Bible Society for these workers.

EDUCATIONAL.—Since last Annual Meeting until the month of June, the children of the local church, of whom there are about ten, were taught by the missionaries for certain hours on five days of the week. Then by a united effort the brethren contributed almost enough to pay the salary of a teacher, the balance to come out of the Sunday collections. A suitable young man was obtained for teacher, the school has met in the church daily and the scholars have already made much progress.

Mrs. Robb has taught the younger children in the Sunday School and all the adult members of the congregation have studied Mark's Gospel, while the men have all studied more or less of the Shorter Catechism.

There are as yet no schools in any of our country groups, although at Yea Dong there is what approximates to one for the children, who all went to work at farming during the day, and are taught in the evenings and on Sundays by Leader Yi, so that six of them can read and repeat the Bible Catechism and a hundred or more Scripture texts.

SUMMARY.—There are now in this field thirty-eight communicants, as against fourteen reported last year, and forty catechumens, as against twenty-two last year. There were twenty adults and two infants baptized during the year and five members were received by certificate from Wonsan. The total contributions for all purposes amount to nyang 735, about $56.00.

All the missionaries have been in perfect health, and for all God's manifold blessings we render Him our humble and reverent thanks. We plead with Him that He will take unto Himself His great power and reign over this people.

Ham Heung City. The work in this city, which we are just on the eve of opening as a station, has, during the past year, claimed my attention more than any other work. It has at this date sixty communicants and twenty-three catechumens. They have this year elected and sent out one of their number as an evangelist to the heathen. Not only do they give him his entire support, but their prayerful interest, his monthly reports being listened to with eager attention.

The boys' school has been carried on regularly during the year, with an average attendance of fifteen. The teacher, who is supported entirely by the Church, gives excellent instruction in the Bible, Chinese character and Christian books, which I was able to supplement to a small extent while in the city.

A school for girls has also been carried on regularly by one of our Christian women, who gives her service voluntarily, absolutely refusing to receive pay from the Church. She is a born teacher, and the eleven little girls under her care are developing into bright little students.

A large class for Bible study was held for two weeks early in December, and, notwithstanding the busy season, the attendance from all the groups was good, and all profited by the instruction given by Dr. Grierson and Mr. Foote, while Mr. John Grierson, with his magic lantern views and charts of the Tabernacle, won for himself a place in their hearts. Memories of his self-denying love for them will long remain in Ham Heung. That a man of his age should endure such hardships and walk so many hundred miles in their own country over steep rocky mountains to teach them the Gospel has been a witness to its power that truly makes them marvel.

During my absence, while helping to teach similar classes in Song Chin and Wonsan, a quarrel between several of the Christians resulted in the divsion of the Church into two parts, which greatly injured not only the Christians themselves, but the growth of work in the city. My return in March found them worshipping (?) in separate buildings and about to establish separate schools. God be thanked, I was able to lead them to see their mistake and a reconciliation was soon effected.

The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper have been dispensed twice during the year, thirty-seven were baptized, thirty received as catechumens.

SUB-STATIONS OF NORTHERN CIRCUIT.—This work has suffered for want of more misisonaries to give it the attention it requires, but I am glad to be able to report some degree of progress, perhaps more along the line of development in the former sub-stations than increase in numbers of new ones formed. Three small ones reported last year have dropped out entirely—in one place on account of the family moving to Wonsan, in the other two I was obliged to suspend the catechumens. However, five new ones have been added, making a total of twenty-two.

There are in the Northern Circuit seven unorganized churches.

ITINERATING AND CLASS WORK.—Up to the time of the rainy season almost my whole year has been given to itinerating and class work. About two-thirds of my time has been spent travelling in Ham Heung and Northern Circuit, and, as I have already mentioned, united classes for study were held in Ham Heung, Song Chin and Wonsan respectively, and alone I was able to do some regular teaching in the former city and for a short time in Hong Won. Again my helper has supplemented my work by holding classes in all the groups I was unable to visit. Koreans are always eager and willing to pass on their knowledge to their fellows. One hundred and forty-six days were spent in itinerating.

WOMAN'S WORK.—During the past year Mrs. McRae has accompanied me throughout almost all my itinerating, sharing with me for one hundred and thirty-four days the hardships which for a woman are doubly great on account of the curious crowds she must receive from morning until night. For three months and a half she occupied with me a little mud house in Ham Heung City, not only cheering me by her companionship, but doing daily work among the women and girls of that city. She has also visited the women of the outstations, teaching the Christians, and, with their aid, preaching to the heathen. Miss McCully made one extended trip with us among the women of this field, holding classes with Mrs. McRae in Hong Won and Ham Heung. Dr. McMillan accompanied us on the longest itinerating trip we have yet made, leaving Wonsan on April 3 and not returning until late in June. During our stay in Ham Heung she carried on her work under most unfavorable circumstances in a small unhealthy Korean mud hut, and by the kind use of her medical skill greatly aiding us in gaining influence in the city.

In this field there are about eighty Christian women, beside the thousands of heathen, and Mrs. McRae unites with me in urging upon you our need of at least one more single woman for woman's work in this field.

NATIVE WORKERS.—Beside my own personal helper, I have this year under my care two colporteurs of the Bible Society, and Mrs. McRae has had one Bible-woman supported in the same manner. Owing to famine the sale of books has not been large, but all have been faithful preachers of the Word. The men of Ham Heung Church have done nobly, not only going about preaching themselves, but accompanying me on many of my trips. The Church Evangelist is an earnest man whose work will doubtless be richly fruitful. In directing his work I make the Church share with me its responsibilities, and a voice is given them in all matters affecting the organization and management of the Church, making them feel as much as possible that the work is theirs.

We are looking forward in the near future to an advanced system of schools for training the young men and women to be intelligent thinkers and workers, for only thus can we hope for a strong, independent Native Church and ministry

In conclusion, we wish anew to offer up thanks to the God who, watching over us, has not suffered that our feet should be moved, and who has in a special maner evidenced His love by restoring Mrs. McRae from what at first threatened to be a very serious case of the dread disease, smallpox, by which we were surrounded.

Again, also, we tender thanks to our fellow missionaries and to the friends at home who, by their prayers and manifest interest, have done so much to make our work a success.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF REV. A. F. ROBB, B.A.

Having been appointed to Song Chin Station at the last Annual Meeting of our Mission, we packed our goods and chattels and arrived here on November 6. Nearly a month was spent in overseeing Korean workmen making repairs, alterations and additions to the building we were to occupy.

The larger part of this year has been spent in language study. Very often the book-study is interrupted by Korean visitors. They may have come merely to see the foreigners' strange dress and furniture, or they may have heard of the doctrine he preaches and wish to know more of it. But whatever the motive, we make use of the opportunity to give them our Master's message.

Mrs. Robb and I have followed the course of study laid down by the examiners of the U. S. (North) Presbyterian Mission. We have taken the first Year's Examination, our papers having been returned endorsed, "Passed with honors," and we expect after Council Meeting to receive the Second Year Examination papers. It is with a feeling of relief from mental barriers that one realizes that the shut-out feeling of the first months' of mingling with a people of strange tongue is gone, and we rejoice at being more and more able to enter into the life of the people.

In Song Chin Church I have a class of baptized men in connection with the Sabbath School. For a considerable part of the year, while Dr. Grierson has been itinerating, I have had charge of the work in Song Chin, with oversight of the Sunday and mid-week meetings.

I have twice visited the little group of Christians at Yea Dong, spending a Sabbath with them each time. They, and especially the children, gave marked evidence of diligent study of the New Testament. On one of these trips I was accompanied by Mrs. Robb.

In company with Dr. Grierson and his father, the month of April was spent in itinerating in our Northern field. We visited most of the chief towns and found many interested listeners, both at the street-preachings and at our night meetings in the inns. Over four hundred Testaments, Gospels and Tracts were sold. If we had not exhausted our supply we could have sold many more, and this in spite of the fact that it is a year of partial famine and food is very dear.

As we sat at night in the little inns with the flickering candle light falling on the faces of those who crowded the room to its utmost capacity and blocked up every door and window, while we told them of the Son of God, the Saviour of men, we longed that their darkened minds, lit only by the flickering light of vague speculations and beliefs, might be illumined by the radiance of the Sun of Righteousness.

As we realized that these had not before heard the Gospel, and that it might be months before they heard it again, while so many more have not heard it even once, we longed for more helpers in the great work that lies before us.

During the year Mrs. Robb, in addition to her language study, has taught a class of children every Sunday. For some months she also taught them two afternoons of each week until a Korean teacher was secured and a daily school established in the Church. Since February Mrs. Robb has also been teaching a mid-week class of women. She reports encouraging progress on the part of both women and children.

The Bible Society Colporteur, who has been laboring under my oversight, has travelled chiefly between Song Chin and Puk Chun and has done good work.

In March Mrs. Robb secured the services of a Bible-woman, a widow, who had shown her faith by enduring persecution, and the energy of her character by teaching herself to read, a notable thing for a woman in this land. She also has done good work among her heathen sisters.

To our Heavenly Father we give thanks for whatever has been achieved, and to Him we pray for that outpouring of His spirit without which our efforts must be fruitless. Brethren, pray for us.

During the year the Wonsan Church and itineration of the Southern Circuit have been in charge of Mr. Foote. Mr. McRae has been apportioned the Ham Heung City Church with itineration in the Northern Circuit, while Miss McCully and Dr. McMillan have given their time to women's work in the entire field. Mrs. Foote and Mrs. McRae have also devoted themselves to work among the women and girls, Mrs. Foote in Wonsan and Mrs. McRae in Ham Heung, with itineration in the Northern Circuit.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF LOUISE H. McCULLY.

To measure the work of a year by the apparent success, would not only be contrary to our God-given rule, but very probably a source of discouragement to the worker. So, while sincerely trusting that much has been done of which there can be no record, that which can be told in numbers or by results, is humbly submitted.

My apportionment beginning with "language study," I have to report that a considerable portion of my time, while in Wonsan, has been spent in that most important work, and I trust with some profitable results.

ITINERATING AND COUNTRY CLASSES.—During the year I have made five itinerating trips, one to the Northern Circuit, in company with Mr. and Mrs. McRae, and four to the south, accompanied by native workers. In this way I have spent 96 days in the country and travelled 573 miles overland, besides a boat journey of 120 miles.

In Hong Won and Ham Heung I assisted Mrs. McRae in holding classes for the Christian women. In Hong Won they gave up their work, and for five days that we were with them the attendance and interest was remarkably good. There seems to be a very earnest spirit among them, and I greatly enjoyed the stay there.

In Ham Heung we stayed for four weeks, during which time we had a regular class for ten days, and the rest of the time it was my privilege to teach a class of women daily who came to my house.

The next trip was to Anpyon, at New Year's time, for a class which lasted ten days, and at which the attendance was better than ever before.

In April I went 110 miles south, visiting on this trip seven places where there are Christian women, besides a number where we had large audiences of heathen women. The work among the women in this circuit had made marked improvement since the previous spring, for which I praised God.

The next long trip was to Kim Seng, a distance of 90 miles, where we found a new group of Christians, among whom were three women, who attended regularly both Sunday and Wednesday meetings. One other woman decided while we were there, and others we trust were influenced. In three other villages we met women who were interested, and one at least, we believe, was helped to a decision for Christ. We found on this trip a large field for service, and many very willing to listen to our message.

A brief visit to Anpyon for one Sunday in July completed this part of my work this year. At this time I met three women, all of one home, who had very lately been brought to Christ, and were apparently anxious to be taught.

WONSAN CLASS.—Besides the class work at Hong Won, Ham Heung and Anpyon, I took a share in the women's class in Wonsan, held in February for two weeks. The attendance was the best we have ever had, and the interest correspondingly deepened. Thirty-seven women attended in all, six being from the country districts and the rest the Wonsan women.

* * * * * *

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS.—The Thursday afternoon meeting for women has been continued all the year in the Wonsan church, or, when too cold to meet there, in a Christian home near by. Twenty-seven names have been enrolled, and about half the number have attended regularly, and made very good progress in their study in the life of Christ, and I hope have learned lessons that will make them better followers of Him.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.—Twenty-eight names are at present on the roll for this class; two have been taken during the year to assist in teaching the other class for women and the girls' class. We have continued our consecutive study in John, and sought to learn that which can only be spiritually discerned, but is promised to be "revealed unto babes."

BIBLE WOMAN.—The work of directing Hannah, who is paid by the Bible Society, has been no small part of my year's service. She has accompanied me on all my itinerating trips, besides making a number by herself, or in company with one of the other Bible-women. She has spent nearly all her time and done most of her work outside of Wonsan, but when here has helped some in the work. She has travelled during the year 720 miles on foot, besides one boat trip and another on a pack horse after an illness in October. She has preached to over 1,200 heathen women, and God his given her some souls for her hire, we believe. She and Dr. McMillan's Bible-woman held a class for women at Sang Sin Won, in February, which we felt was helpful in the work there.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.—One afternoon in the week, when in Wonsan, has been given to helping in this most important department of our work, taking for our lessons the story of the Creation in catechism form.

The Secretaryship of the Mission has brought some duties during the year which, while not heavy, were we trust rendered in a spirit to make them acceptable to Him "whose we are and whom we serve."

ANNUAL REPORT OF DR. KATE McMILLAN, 1903.

One year and ten months have passed since my arrival in Korea. A great part of this time has been taken up with the study of the language, in which I wish I could report much greater progress. Apart from this, I have made an effort to help the other missionaries in their work or to do anything that came to my own hand.

On the work assigned to me I make the following report :

MEDICAL WORK.—Shortly after our last Annual Meeting I was appointed with Mr. and Mrs. McRae to the work of opening Ham Heung, and as it is even more difficult to close than open a dispensary, no regular clinical work was done in Wonsan. The work when there consisting of treating the Christian and the few heathen women and children who almost daily came to my home for relief. A great proportion of these were children with eye diseases, caused by uncleanliness, and I feel that I have at least saved some of these little ones from a life of blindness. At the time of Mr. Foote's illness with typhus fever I attended twenty cases of the same fever in the village where he contracted it, seeing them as often as I could walk the two miles to that place.

Already I have treated cases of typhus fever, cholera and smallpox, the three most dreaded diseases of Korea.

When in Ham Heung, although many came for treatment, they did not come in such numbers as one might suppose, being somewhat suspicious of the foreign doctor, bringing first only the very desperate cases that all other means had failed to cure, and expecting by some magic power that any diseases might be healed. It was hard to listen to the pleadings of the mother for her crippled child, or to turn away from the poor woman, who, with upturned sightless eyes, knelt and clasped my knees as she begged for sight. But what could be done for the sick with the little room and accommodation we had was done. Many of the patients treated were minor surgical cases, the mud floor being used as the operating and dressing table, however unhealthy it may have been to live on it afterwards. No table I have seen had such drainage; all fluids which could not be prevented from falling on it disappeared with surprising rapidity. All who came were also told of the Great Physician who can cure our souls, and I hope and pray that the seed thus sown may bear much fruit.

On account of the famine, the money received for medicines was less than otherwise would have been, as it was hard to ask for the full price of the medicine when we knew they were suffering for want of food. During the year two of the members of our station have had a severe attack if illness. At the time of Mr. Foote's dangerous illness my responsibility and anxiety were shared by Dr. Grierson, who was in Wonsan attending the class at the time Mr. Foote was taken ill, and who so very kindly remained and took the greater part of the charge of him until he was out of danger.

Some very anxious days were spent in Ham Heung, when Mrs. McRae was taken sick with what appeared at first to be a very serious attack of smallpox, but the eruption did not go on to suppuration, and, with exception of some weakness, she was soon convalescent; and here I must express my gratitude to our Heavenly Father, not only for the recovery of these members, but for the health that all on the station now enjoy. Some of my attention has also been claimed by illness among the foreign residents of Wonsan.

ITINERATING.—In company with Mr. and Mrs. McRae, an itinerating trip of seventy-seven days was taken. The greater part of this time was spent in Ham Heung, where, besides what medical work I could do, I helped with the instruction of the women. On Sunday taking charge of the class of twelve who could read and on Thursday those who had not yet learned to read. A very important part of our work when in Ham Heung was receiving the heathen women who came to see us, and, with the help of our Bible-women, to tell them the way of salvation. From this city we also made a trip of one hundred and ten li, or, thirty-seven miles farther north, to a group of new Christians; this trip I enjoyed very much; here, although there is no one baptized yet, some of the women had studied the lessons which had been sent them, and four of them had made good progress in learning to read. The people in whose homes we were opened their houses to admit the heathen women, who thronged every room and to whom our Bible-women talked from morning until night.

CLASS IN WONSAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The class assigned to me consists of young women who have recently come to church. Some because their husbands are Christians. Some have heard the gospel and become interested, but all of them knowing very little even of the plan of Salvation. Much earnest prayer, and teaching is needed that these young women may be led into a full Christian life.

GIRL'S SCHOOL.—When Mrs. Foote came to Korea she had the little girls come to her house to be taught, then Mrs. McRae taught them at her home for a short while; but last fall it was decided to organize a girl's school under the native church. A Christian, living about a mile from the mission houses, but nearly central to the children of Wonsan and the two other villages where there are christians, gave the use of a room for two days in the week, the church paying a woman to take charge of the children for these two days. The school was opened, Nov. 19th, with eleven pupils, there is now an enrollment of twenty with an average attendance of over eleven. Mrs Foote has gone to the school one afternoon a week taught singing and some arithmetic and some sewing. Miss McCully, when in Wonsan, went the other afternoon and gave the children lessons on the Creation. Besides this the children were taught reading, writing lessons in Mark's Gospel, Catechism, Chinese characters, and the study of Geography had just been begun.

BIBLE WOMEN.—Since the middle of last November I have under my charge a Bible-woman supported by funds transmitted by the W. F. M. Society. When in Wonsan she visits from houses to house preaching to the heathen and selling books. Any home where the inmates would listen was visited again and again, and frequent were the requests made to me to pray for some one whom she thought near the Kingdom. Many of them being for women whose husbands would not permit them to come to church or to have any Christian book in their house. She also assisted me in teaching the women, and went with me when I visited their homes. She also accompanied me on my itinerating trip—preaching to the heathen women, helping me teach the Christian women and when in Ham Heung she also helped me with my medical work.

V.—FORMOSA.

Oxford College and our Girls' School were in session for the greater part of the year, as is our usual custom. At the end of the year there were eight students in our senior class at College, seventeen in our second class, and fifteen in our third. The teachers for the year were Messrs. Fraser, Gauld, Koa Kau and Yap Soon, while Mrs. Gauld directed the singing classes in both our College and Girls' School; at the College with the assistance of Koa Kau.

Those studying at our Girls' School are chiefly students' wives. In addition to these there are four Pepohoan girls, under the charge of the matron A-un, who is also a Pepohoan. At the beginning of the autumn term there were a few requests from Chinese Christian parents to have their daughters admitted to the Girls' School; but, after very serious consideration, and also having discussed the question with some of our thinking Chinese, we decided not to entertain such request until such time as our Girls' School might be started on a different basis from its past history, and be opened as a residence only to females, not as in the past to married students and their wives. Mrs. Gauld was assisted at the Girls' School by Mrs. Mackay and two native women.

We feel greatly our want of a preparatory school. We believe that in a theological school, such as ours, nearly all, or all, the time and energy of both teachers and taught ought to be directed to giving, and acquiring knowledge of the Bible, and such other subjects as are so closely related as to be given the name "sacred learning." But it is very difficult to arrange a theological curriculum according to our Western notions of what we would like to see in such a school, with students whose preparatory training is very defective. Still, by the blessing of God, at our Oxford College, from its first establishment, most useful and important work has been done in the teaching of God's Truth to those, who have again taught it to others. While we rejoice in what has been accomplished in the past, we are decidedly of the opinion that the time has arrived when we ought at least to make the advance in our educational work suggested in this paragraph.

All our out-stations were visited by the pastors in charge at least twice during the year.

In connection with some of these out-stations there are certainly signs of life and increasing zeal. If we were to mention the names of a number of our out-stations where the progress for the past year was marked, we might give the names of Twatutia, Bangkah, Tsui-tung-kha, Kelung, Sintiam, Tiong-lek, Tho-a-hung, Tek-chham, Geh-bai, Ai-liau-kha, etc. One church, viz., Tsui-tung-kha, was added to the list of self-supporting churches, and this at the request of the Tsui-tung-kha Christians themselves. Then, in addition to paying their own Evangelist, of their own accord they informed us during the year that if we should give them a little time they wished to undertake to pay the balance of the debt on their Church, which is known as "The Mackay Memorial." At the beginning of 1903, there were still due $200.16, of which amount $32.36 had not passed through our Mission Accounts. Of this they paid off during the year $56.16, leaving a debt of $144.10 due our Mission Accounts. When they made the request to be allowed to pay off this debt themselves, we were happy to accede.

Twatutia congregation had been growing beyond the limits of their Church as it was. So the congregation desired to build an addition. They pointed out to us that this could readily be done by utilizing the inner end walls of the Evangelist's and Pastor's rooms at the two back corners of the Church; and one of the Elders, our wealthiest member, Mr. Lee Choonsing, offered to pay the whole amount necessary. We agreed, and the extension was made at a cost of $163.20. Some other churches have also increased their givings. Tho-a-hung wish a new church; and last year towards that end they subscribed and paid $113.95. There is a thriving cause at Tho-a-hung, but so far the members are mostly women, and none of them very wealthy.

To sum up: Subscriptions towards Evangelists' salaries for 1903, were $428.64, an increase over the previous year of $160.80; repairing and building churches, $561.60, an increase (not including "Mackay Memorial" debt) over the previous year of $185.84; "Mackay Memorial" debt, $56.16; assist weaker churches, $14.40; for various other purposes, $294. Total native contributions $1,354.87.

During 1903 there were adult baptisms 63, adult deaths 13; net gain 50; infant baptisms 55, deaths of baptized children 5.

The health of our native staff was, on the whole, fair. For the greater part of the year our native pastor was unfit for work. At the time of writing he is physically stronger, and is again attempting some work. During 1903 there were no deaths among our native workers.

Towards the end of the year, on our own responsibility, we purchased about three acres and a half of land, to be the site of our prospective Middle School, teachers' residences, etc. For this we paid a sum equivalent to $354.13 Canadian currency. But afterwards a cheque for Sil. $100.00, equivalent to Canadian money $44.27, was returned by Mr. H. E. Hobson as a contribution to our Mission funds. Along with the cheque was the following kind letter, which we valued much more than the cheque:

"Dear Mr. Gauld,—I am in receipt of your letter dated 23rd ult., enclosing a cheque for $700.00 (Mex. Sil.), in final payment for the plot of land at yours, known as the cricket field.

"As I suppose that whatever building you now purpose erecting will be connected with 'Oxford College,' which my dear old friend Mackay built, and took such interest in, I return herewith your first cheque for $100.00, and shall be pleased if you will place the amount of same to the credit of your Mission accounts.

With kind regards, and best wishes for the success of your efforts in Formosa,

I remain,

Dear Mr. Gauld,

Yours sincerely,

H. E. HOBSON."

Mr. Hobson was once Commisisoner of the Chinese Imperial Maritime Customs at this port, and is now Commisioner of Customs at Shanghai.

This property has been registered by us as Trustees for the Canadian Presbyterian Mission. We petition the Foreign Mission Committee to sanction our purchase.

In conclusion, we wish humbly to express our thanks to our Heavenly Father for all His goodness towards us throughout the year. We have had opportunities for service; and we have been blessed with health for our work. After the birth of her little daughter in June, Mrs. Fraser's health was so poorly that her physician strongly urged that she should have a trip to Japan. Her husband went with her, and, after an absence of better than a month, they returned. The benefit to Mrs. Fraser's health was very marked. Since then till the end of the year her health has been good, as has also been the health of the other members of our staff.

We know that we always have a share in the prayers of the Church; and we believe, moreover, that "He knows what things we have need of before we ask Him." "In Him we trust."

VI.—CENTRAL INDIA.

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

Not since 1887-8 has our Mission staff been so smitten as in the past two years. Then, within a short time, we lost Mr. and Mrs. Murray and Mr. Builder, and two men for months had to care for five stations. In 1902 Mr. Norman Russell and his babe died of dysentery; in 1903 Dr. Menzies, striving self-forgetfully to save others from plague, was himself cut off by it, and so, a month later, was Mrs. Harcourt. In the same visitation a number of those young Christians were taken away to whose usefulness we were looking forward. And the work evangelistic, educational and even medical, was seriously interrupted. Mr. F. H. Russell's work, both ordinary and in the Training Classes, was for a time stopped by an attack of typhoid. Miss McKellar, M.D., was also laid aside by serious illness. And the heavy strain borne by Mr. Drew during the plague has rendered a furlough necessary. There have been other hindrances also. But behind all second causes is God, and God makes no mistakes. What more can we say?

A cause of great thanksgiving is the safe return of Dr. and Mrs. Campbell from furlough. We rejoiced also to welcome to our midst Miss Herdman, Dr. and Mrs. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson and Miss Dr. McMaster to our Central India Mission. May every blessing attend their efforts.

On the whole, though there has not been the large ingathering of some recent years, there has been much to cheer, as will be seen from the individual reports.

In December the Presbytery for the first time met at Amkhut in the Bhil country, and all who were able to attend were gladdened by seeing the evidences of blessing granted to the devoted and wise labor of Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan. It was to some a new and not too pleasant experience to travel through dust and heat, night and day, in ox carts; it was new to us all to find all the carts owned and driven by Christians, whose voices occasionally rose in hymns instead of erotic songs or filthy abuse, and again to see so many Christians gather, from their little farms or crofts for miles around, for public worship. And these not long ago the wild Bhils despised and wronged and dreaded by their Hindoo neighbors.

At the other extreme is the College, educating to University degrees the young Brahmins, etc., who are soon to become perhaps leading officials in the various native States. And Mr. King reports that in the past year the College reached the highest point it has yet attained in attendance, in fees, in passes, including the passing, with honors in English, of its first Christian graduate, the younger brother of Mr. Crossette, the Head Master.

NEEMUCH.

Rev. W. A. Wilson reports :—

THE CONGREGATION.—During the year the congregation has had the pleasure of worshipping in the new Church which it built with the gatherings of many years.

The Church, a commodious stone structure, costing about Rs. 5,000, was opened for Divine worship on Christmas Day, 1902. There is still a debt of Rs. 1,000, but it is expected that it will be wiped out during the year. The building stands in a mission compound within five minutes' walk of the bazaar. The congregation has been weakened by the removal to another mission of one of its Elders with his large and interesting family. Mr. J. Paul, originally from the U. F. Mission, was Head Master of the A. V. Middle School for several years, and Session Clerk since the organization of the congregation. He found the struggle to make an independent living in a caste-bound community most difficult, and on the death of his wife, one of the excellent of the earth, he gave it up and entered into employment in the Mission where he had been brought up. We regret the loss of his example in making an independent livelihood, an example which is all too rare.

Among those baptized during the year special mention may be made of a Rajput family from old Neemuch, who, we trust, will bring strength to our community of Christians. The husband, formerly employed as a Hindu pundit in primary schools, first in the U. F. Mission and then in our own, had his faith in Hinduism shaken. For a long time he seemed near the kingdom lacking the courage to enter. While still a professed Hindu, he gave no little help among the boys of his school, and in our bazaar preaching. Since his baptism he has been diligent among his acquaintances in the city and surrounding villages in commending the Gospel. His knowledge of the Hindu religion and its sacred books gives him much influence. It is encouraging to know that in different villages people are asking him to visit them that they may hear from himself the reason why so respectable a man as he became a Christian. It is significant of the change taking place in the thinking of the people. During the year seventeen persons received baptism, of whom twelve were adults. Most of them were from the orphanages. Several are now making an independent living as servants in various capacities. It was encouraging on a recent occasion to see a number of young lads who had a few years ago been starving skeletons, stupid and ignorant, now strikingly improved in appearance, quickened in intellect, neatly dressed, doing deftly the work usually done by trained Hindus and Mohammedans. It was an object lesson showing what may be made of the material we have on hand.

There are now sixty-one persons enrolled in the full membership of the congregation, of whom thirteen joined in first communion during the year.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—With the outbreak of the Plague, save in the case of the Christian School, all Sabbath School Work was suspended. Till then the attendance of heathen children was very encouraging, and the school held in the church was growing gratifyingly. But the evacuation of the bazar left us with only the Christian children.

As plague has now disappeared and things are settling down again, we look for the return of some at least of our old scholars. A class for the study of the lesson by the teachers was held a good part of the year.

PRESBYTERY CLASSES.—I spent two months assisting in teaching the Presbytery Classes at Dhar. The senior class was attended by six members, and read in the work assigned to the 3rd year as much as could be covered in the time. Sickness and death interfered with the work, but on the whole encouraging progress was made. The junior class, composed of some eighteen members mostly from the orphanages, studied in the work prescribed for Bible-readers and Catechists. It was the first introduction of a good many to hard study and the results were not in all cases equally encouraging. But some gave evidence of possessing the moral, spiritual and intellectual fitness for christian work, and in their case we are looking forward hopefully to their profiting by future training. After about five week's work in the classes, Mr. Russell was laid aside by an attack of typhoid fever much to the loss and regret of the students.

OUT STATIONS.—For several years, work at Mandsaur, a large city 30 miles from Neemuch on the railway, was carried on by Mr. Barnabas and his assistants. His death led to the closing of the work, as no suitable man was found to take his place. Since then the low state of funds has not warranted efforts to reopen it. Jawod is now the only out-station of Neemuch. The school there, though not closed, was so affected by the changes made that nearly all the old pupils, many of whom had attended for years, left. Those now attending are mere beginners, and the number is still low, averaging about 35. Muhammadshah, who is in charge, preaches with zeal and power in the city and surrounding villages, and his life is fitted to influence for good the community in which he lives.

VILLAGE WORK.—Much of the cold weather at the beginning of the year was spent in visiting the outlying villages around Neemuch.

We missed many who had perished in the famine, and from the dreadful fever which followed it. It was most depressing to find village upon village more than half in ruins, and well-nigh depopulated. In most places we were well received, especially in those where the people had received help from us in the time of famine.

We marked an increase of disbelief in the gods, and of willingness to listen to Bible truth. Many seemed to realize that the Great Spirit was in judgment dealing with men for their sins, and not a few professed to have abandoned idolatry. Certainly we saw many shrines and little temples greatly neglected.

In some cases, no doubt, this was because the temple servants had perished. Since the outbreak of plague in the villages we have not been able to make our usual itinerancies. All affairs are so disorganized, and suspicions that the English are poisoning wells and scattering plague germs to reduce the population of India are so prevalent, that we have not considered it wise to venture out, but have spent the time in the nearer villages where we are known and trusted, and among the people of Neemuch, who lay encamped in grass huts and blanket-tents in the open plain round about. It was not much that we could do to help the plague-stricken, but by words of counsel and instruction we were able to do something to infuse hope and courage in the hearts of their friends. Our daily visits to the scattered groups of huts and tents seemed welcome to many, and we felt that we got nearer to them than ever before.

These enforced lessons disposed a number to buy tracts and portions of Scriptures which we ever carried with us, and we found fine opportunities for impressing the vital truth. A few have begun to come with more or less regularity to our place of public worship, and, while shrinking from baptism, declare their faith in the Lord Jesus. Still we cannot see that the effect of this awful visitation has been a general repentance, or forsaking of the idols. In the terror and superstition they made frantic efforts to propitiate their gods by sacrificing numbers of goats and burying pigs alive and by other expedients. The village gods, rudely carved slabs of stone, and the uncouth rocks by the wayside, were decked out with fresh coats of red paint and tinsil, and presented with offerings of cocoanut and oil. In some places, indeed, plague has been proclaimed a goddess who must, like the goddess of smallpox, be duly propitiated. It is not an uncommon thing to be told now by those who have escaped that their efforts to please the offended deity were successful.

SCHOOLS.—On return from furlough to Neemuch I found that during my absence the A. V. Middle School and all the Primary Schools save the one at Jawod had been closed. It was a disappointment to me to find those points of contact, which schools constitute between the mission and the non-Christian community, gone. The fruits of school work in the matter of baptisms are not what we desire; still there is no doubt that the changes in the thought and attitude of those who attend our schools towards Christianity mark distinct progress in the establishing of God's Kingdom. Owing to lack of funds, the disorganization produced by the plague for several months, and the failure to secure suitable teachers, the work of re-opening and establishing the school has not made much progress. The Anglo Vernacular Middle School, which had been in existence for many years, and in which hundreds of boys had received their education, I found broken up, and the building converted into a Parsee store. As there was no other suitable building available, and no funds sanctioned for the carrying on of this work, no effort has been made to reopen it. The success following the efforts to re-establish primary schools in the bazaar and old Neemuch is very qualified. Confidence in their permanancy has been shaken, and the teachers whom we have been able to get have not met with much encouragement. Still a beginning has been made, and with time and patient, faithful labor, we hope to see the primary schools increase in number and efficiency. In the meantime only three, apart from the out-station of Jawod, are being carried on. And then re-organization since the plague is so recent that nothing need be said about them. The little Christian school under the care of Mrs. Cook was kept open during the plague, as it was held on a mission compound outside the bazaar, and the children had all been inoculated.

Rev. D. C. Cock reports :

AFTER OUR YEAR.—Much for which to be grateful and much to encourage one to go forward; but little to report of actual assistance rendered to the cause of Christ in India. The beginner finds his first year all too short and hesitates, at its close, to even begin a report. The work of the year is not of that kind that can find expression on tabulated forms, but is of that steady application to desk work—a preparation for service.

By no means the least helpful of the influences that color the aspect of affairs for the new-comer is the warm welcome and yet warmer companionship and friendships accorded by the older missionaries.

One looks in vain for the feeling so frequently met with elsewhere of distrust by older men who see the labors of years with its results passing into the hands of the less experienced. The new-comer is welcomed as a fellow worker with Christ in His cause and meets with every assistance possible in his work of fitting himself to do work among a people of strange tongue and as strange customs and thought. From the experiences of older men freely and frankly talked over, methods that have failed and plans that have proved workable, tend to temper the ardour of the man eager to revolutionize and replace the old by the new.

The same spirit of unity and of devotion to the great end and purpose of missionary service, together with the deep regard for personal feelings and preferences, encourage on the other hand to earnest consecrated effort.

These, together with the admiration for the good and attractive in the peoples for whom we labor, are among the influences that have tended to make this our first year in India one of the most pleasant of all the years of our life.

It has not been confined to any station or limited to any workers. We began our Indian life in Ujjain, and there began the admiration for fellow-workers and for native. From Ujjain we were removed to Neemuch to minister to the Scotch Presbyterian soldiers stationed there, and the impressions made in Ujjain were deepened in Neemuch. And, again, in boys' work at Rasalpura the same awaited us. Impressions and experiences such as these do much to make bright the outlook in Indian service.

Of one other impression only would I write in this report, and that the impression made by the Indian army, both official and private.

Happily my impressions have been very different from those against which many missionaries have spoken and written. And, while both the ranks and the leaders can furnish the bad, yet for both private and officers I shall still continue to hold the esteem they richly deserve from both missionary and the men in private life in India. During our stay in Neemuch we were treated with every consideration, and we shall long retain pleasant memories of our days among the soldiers.

RUTLAM.

Rev. F. J. Anderson reports:—

For the first half of the year Dr. Woods was in charge of the station and carried on the work with energy.

Not very much evangelistic work could be done, however, apart from the orphanage for the first three months on account of plague. Although the scourge was not quite so bad here as in some of our other stations, yet it made its appearance here first, and, whilst nearly one-third of the inhabitants fled, several thousands perished. One day the number of deaths recorded reached 73.

When the plague broke out in our own compound we thought it best to send the ladies to Neemuch, where they would not be exposed to it, and they remained there for six weeks.

The first to contract the disease was the pastor's daughter, but we were able to rejoice with the parents in her complete recovery. Then it found its way into the Orphanage, and 2 boys and 8 girls died, although many others who caught the disease recovered. It seemed nothing short of miraculous that the pestilence did not break out again in Rutlam several months later when it was playing such havoc in the towns and villages round about.

THE CHURCH.—The pastor, Rev. Jairam Makasare, has carried on his work faithfully among the orphans and other Christians, etc. For the first six months a service was held every Sabbath morning and evening in the orphanage quarters, to which all were invited. In July it was considered advisable to drop the evening service, or rather to transfer it to the city bazaar. This arrangement has continued till the present time. On Sunday afternoon the International Sunday School Lessons are taught, and on Wednesday the usual mid-week prayer meeting is held. As yet we have no church building, but it is hoped that this will soon be forthcoming. The pastor's salary is raised by subscriptions and collections.

ORPHANAGE.—Last year Presbytery decided to concentrate all the orphan boys in one place, and so during the year, as accommodation was provided, the boys from the orphanage here were sent to Rasalpura. The last fifty were sent in July, leaving but a few who were engaged in the Mission Press.

At the end of the year there were 86 girls in the orphanage under the care of a matron, who lives among them. Mrs. Anderson spent several hours each day assisting them with their drawn-thread and other fancy work. The girls do all their own grinding, cooking and sewing, as well as the grinding and cooking for the boys. The drawn-thread and fancy work generally finds a ready sale, and in this way the girls are able to help in their own maintenance. Every morning, except Saturday, several hours are spent in school. Saturday is cleaning-up day. Every day also about noon the pastor gives them an hour's Bible lesson. Many friends at home have undertaken the support of orphan children, and we would take advantage of this opportunity to place on record our appreciation of the practical sympathy thus manifested.

INDUSTRIAL WORK.—The Presbyterian Alliance, having assumed the control and management of the Indian Standard, arrangements were made in March for transferring the printing of the Standard to another press. This made it impossible to continue our publication, the Gyan Patrika, except at a great loss, and so I thought it best to discontinue it altogether. During the year, in addition to several tracts in the vernacular and some job work, a new edition of our Hindi Hymn Book was printed. Several boys who had served their apprenticeship in the Mission Press, secured situations as compositors elsewhere with fair salaries. The press employees, as well as the boys, are a great help in our evangelistic work also.

EVANGELISTIC.—In the early part of the year all city and district evangelistic work was prevented by plague, and all our efforts were confined to the orphanage. In July we began our work again in the city and villages round about until the rains. After the rains considerable touring was done and several persons asked for baptism. The idea entertained by the people that we were spreading the plague was a great hindrance to us in our work. No baptisms are recorded this year, but we trust that those who have manifested some interest, and many others, will take a decided stand for the Master in the new year.

JAORA.—Jaora, an out-station, in the care of Theophilus, suffered severely during the plague, both from plague and the cold, for all were turned out of the city and had to protect themselves from the cold weather as best they could. Theophilus, going from village to village, was threatened and persecuted, as though he alone were responsible for the pestilence, until weary and disheartened he wrote me that he wished he might die.

MEDICAL.—The dispensary in the bazaar is under Mr. S. Massey, Hospital Assistant, a very competent man, whose time is divided between the medical care of the orphans and the sick and suffering in the city who come to him for medical treatment from day to day. The people who thus come for medicine are not permitted to depart without hearing the Gospel message.

There is much that discourages in our work, but there is much also that encourages, and so, leaving the past, we set ourselves with renewed earnestness to the work of a new year, rejoicing in the privilege of service and praying that multitudes may learn to know the truth as it is in Christ.

In November we were glad to welcome Dr. and Mrs. Campbell on their return from furlough to take up work again in their old station.

Also Dr. and Mrs. Waters, who came to India for the first time. While engaged with the study of the language, Dr. Waters will also superintend the medical work of the station.

Dr. J. Fraser Campbell reports :—

A very brief report will suffice for the month and a half between our return from furlough and the end of the year 1903.

While the removal from Rutlam of some of my most interesting and hopeful work was a disappointment, it left me free for other most important work which was waiting to be done, and there was plenty to encourage.

Even the plague, which had previously cut off several of our bright young Christians at Rutlam, and was now shutting up Jaora and scattering the converts and inquirers from there, was thereby spreading the Gospel.

I could get no account of the large number of Bhils who in 1902 had expressed a wish to be Christians—and we may never know the harvest which might have been reaped had there then been workers to follow to their homes those who had become so far convinced and impressed—but, besides other hopful inquirers, several Bhils were applying for baptism and others were favorably inclined, partly through the life and words of one Bhil woman, a fruit of the famine relief and accompanying preaching.

Apart from the regular accounts I wish to acknowledge, the following sums put at our disposal by personal friends, most Episcopalian :—A Dartmouth friend gave $5, which was expended in Liverpool on materials for the girls' work; Col. C. Russell, England, gave £5, of which Rs. 11-5-0 have been expended on books for the orphanage girls, and Rs. 21 towards a Christmas dinner for them; and a collection of Rs. 9-6-0 at a Christmas service in England for the railway people towards the same dinner.

James M. Waters, reports :—

In India at last ! The reception which greeted us showed very plainly how much missionaries on the field rejoice when even two or three are added to their small numbers.

Never till you travel in a land like this "continent" of India, and pass in quick succession through village, town and city, where Christ has, as yet, not a single representative, do you realize the full truth of our Master's words, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

Regarding regular work, I have practically nothing to report, although at the meetng of Presbytery at Amkhut we were assigned to Rutlam, and I was given the medical supervision of that station. Although always ready for special cases, I am endeavoring to keep myself as free as possible for the study of the languages. We are fortunate, indeed, in having the assistance of a reliable and competent native physician, Mr. Massey, who does the work at the City Dispensary, where there is a daily attendance of about eighty patients, all of whom hear the Gospel message before receiving their medicine. He also visits the Girls' Orphanage daily.

This is not the place to record first impressions, but I may be allowed to say that we were very agreeably surprised with India, and, although heathenism is still rife on every side, yet we see many hopeful signs which assure us that the cause of Christ shall yet gloriously triumph in this dark land.

Dr. Alex. Nugent reports :—

CHURCH WORK.—Two services are held every Sabbath. One in the hospital, the other in our little cemetery where lepers live.

On profession of faith eleven lepers and fourteen others were received to full communion, two were received by certificate, several more are asking for baptism, and others desire to become communicants. Prayer meeting is held weekly.

For a number of years past this station has been without an ordained minister. Much more might have been accomplished had one been here, for medical and other duties occupied so much of our time that it was impossible to overtake what was strictly Church work in the way we would have desired.

At the December meeting of Presbytery our hearts were gladdened by the appointment of Rev. W. G. Russell to the evangelistic work at Ujjain.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.—We have three Sabbath Schools. One for the blind, one for lepers and one for the general Christian community. Miss Grier is in charge of the school for the blind, and a visit there on a Sabbath morning soon convinces one that these blind children understand the lessons in such a way as might put to shame children who can see.

On Saturday afternoon a class is held for all the Sabbath School teachers.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Bazaar preaching is carried on as a rule about two days weekly. On market day the villagers flock in, and are always ready listeners. Both Hindoos and Mohammedans hold many religious festivals down by the sacred Sipra River, and on these occasions we find many hearers.

The remaining free days of the week are spent in the surrounding villages. When the weather and distance allowed, the larger of the blind boys take turns, two at a time, in accompanying the regular workers.

Toward the latter part of the year plague gained a foothold in Ujjain, and soon spread to the surrounding villages, seriously affecting our evangelistic work. It is reported that missionaries and Christians put poison into the wells to spread plague and death.

Efforts made by the officials to inoculate for plague has led to the belief that this is another means that foreigners are taking to destroy them.

At our approach to villages men, women and children fled from their work in the fields, calling to one another "Run, run, the inoculators are coming!"

Under such circumstances one could not expect to do very efficient work. One thing that encouraged us much was that those who personally knew us, especially those who had received medical treatment at one time or other, did not believe these false reports. People fled from the city until the population, which is normally about forty thousand, had decreased to about six thousand. Wherever we met city people who had fled to the villages for safety, we found that they endeavored to make the way easy for us among the villagers.

Just what effect this trying time may have in preparing the hearts and minds of the people to receive the Gospel of Christ we cannot tell.

MEDICAL WORK.—One would naturally expect that an increase of disease, especially when of an epidemic form, would increase our hospital work; but the reverse has been the case. In former years our register showed a great increase in the number of patients during and following the rainy season, and, as a rule, the increase is made up of fever patients.

Immediately plague was declared in the city the number of patients decreased. All persons who had fever, whatever the nature of their disease, strictly avoided State and Mission hospitals and doctors. Their fear was due to the strict regulations which were being enforced by the plague authorities.

During the year the medical work has brought us into close contact with many that would not be accessible otherwise. More and more are we led to feel that in this land the healing of the body opens the way to the healing of the soul.

The services in the hospital are carried on every morning for about three hours, and in this way thousands are reached every year, including many who come only to hear, but would fear to attend other services.

LEPER WORK.—While the lepers are supported at the present time by the "Mission to Lepers in India and the East," it may be of interest to understand their relationship still to our mission.

Some years ago they were supported by our native congregation and a few friends. When the numbers increased, the burden was found too great; and about two years ago the above named mission undertook their support; our native church giving one-third of its contributions as a subscription. Buildings being necessary, the State was requested to grant a free site. After a long delay the State offered not only a free site, but also all necessary buildings and support, the initial number not to exceed seventy-five, and all lepers to be residents of Gwalior State, the entire management to be in the hands of the Mission to the lepers.

This offer was at once accepted, but a short time afterwards it was withdrawn. Again, after some months of correspondence, the offer has been renewed, with one or two slight changes, and we hope in a short time to see the work commenced.

The Mission to the lepers, with the sanction of Indore Presbytery and the Foreign Mission Committee have appointed the missionary in charge at Ujjain as Superintendent of the Leper Asylum. Thus our connection with and our opportunity for work among these poor sufferers continues.

Fourteen are now members of our Church, and others are asking for baptism.

Rev. W. G. Russell reports :—

Having spent the past year in different stations, a full report of which will be given by those in charge, my report will therefore be brief.

The first part of the year I was at Amkhut station. While there, together with pursuing the study of the language, I went to some of the villages to preach.

From about the first of June till the end of November my work was in Indore in connection with the evangelistic work there, until the plague started. Sabbath Schools were held in several parts of the city. There was also some street preaching, as well as regular Sabbath and mid-week services. A few of the near villages were also visited.

Since coming to Ujjain in December, the most of my time, up to the present, has been spent in district work.

INDORE.

Rev. R. A. King reports :—

THE CHURCH.—During the year services were held every Sabbath afternoon in the Assembly Hall of the College. Mr. Johory, the native assistant, frequently preached. The attendance was large, but it should be remembered that the inmates of the Girls' and Widows' Homes number about three hundred. It is impossible to make comparisons, for this year has been one of unique distractions. During the plague outbreak Mr. W. G. Russell did heroic work among the Mangs.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The College Sunday School for boys met on Sabbath mornings in the College. We were forced to close during the months of August, September and October. The average attendance while the school was open was 250. Since re-opening there has been difficulty in getting teachers; some of the staff have died and some have gone away. At present there are fifteen classes. All of these are taught in the Vernacular, except the highest, which is taken by the Principal. It is attended by the boys of the upper classes, as well as by many of the teachers. The small schools throughout the city and camp which were conducted by the Christian workers on Sabbath forenoons were closed during the plague, and on December 31st had not been re-opened.

ORPHANAGE AND INDUSTRIAL WORK.—In March the Boys' Orphanage was transferred to Mhow. An account of its work will more appropriately come under that station.

OUT-STATIONS AND EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Owing to the smallness of the staff at Indore not much systematic work was carried on outside the city. Mr. Russell and his workers made periodical visits on foot to the villages in the neighborhood, but their efforts were mainly directed to the station itself. There was regular street preaching up to the outbreak of the plague. More telling, perhaps, was the personal work done by Mr. Russell from house to house, but, alas, many of those who promised best have been carried away.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—This will be treated separately under the head of the College.

COLLEGE.

Rev. R. A. King reports :—

INDORE COLLEGE.—Up to July 1st the College was under the management of Mr. Taylor. At the March examination of the University of Calcutta 29 students appeared from our College—by far the greatest number up to that date. Among the successful students 4 passed with distinction and one graduated with honors in English. This is the first Christian graduate from Central India.

These good results materially affected the attendance of both College and School. At the end of July the numbers in all departments were the highest in the history of the institution, viz :

High School	150
Vernacular Schools	201
Total	395

On the 10th of August we had to follow the example of other institutions and close our doors on account of plague. It was not until November that we re-opened. The result was appalling. We began again with 50. Some of the lower classes had been almost wiped out, but the attendance soon improved, and by the end of the year the numbers in the College and High School were almost what thy had been. We shall send up more candidates than ever to the University examinations in 1904.

An account of the College Sunday School is given elsewhere. One word as to its work. During the past two years 30 students havt received Diplomas from the All India Sunday School Association, and 60 more expect to write at the ensuing examinaion.

Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association a great variety of work was undertaken. The Athletic Society and the Reading Room were re-organized on a sounder basis. A Debating Society was formed and many questions of educational and social interest were discussed by the students. Regular lectures were also delivered. Some were evangelical addresses; others were on ethical and scientific subjects. Sabbath afternoon Bible class was continued and was well attended by all the Christians in connection with the Mission, as well as by outsiders.

The College Hostel has had an average population of 30. While the classes were in session every room was occupied and many applications were refused. During our enforced holiday it became a place of refuge for the Christian native workers. Though whole families were wiped out on the other side of the road, no plague came near their dwelling.

The outlook is bright. The department is well on the way to self-support. The return of almost every college student after three months' absence bespeak their opinion of the efficiency of the institution.

MHOW.

Rev. J. R. Harcourt reports :—

I am to give a report for Mhow, yet what shall I report! The past has been a year long to be remembered; so much has happened. The crushing reality of it all simply leaves one silent—what can one say?

Until the beginning of April, 1903, I remained at Rasalpura and continued the building work there, while Mr. Drew superintended the orphanage work on his own compound. Sabbath services and Sunday School were held at both places, and the day school was continued as usual.

In April Mrs. Harcourt and I left for the Hills, and Mr. Taylor and Dr. Menzies took over charge of the orphanage work at Rasalpura.

During the last week of June we returned from the Hills and took over charge of the evangelistic work in Mhow and the district about it. Plague had already started its deadly work, but soon it greatly increased in force. Church and schools were closed, and for a few days nothing but wailing, wierd strains of music from the temples, the ringing of bells and the beating of drums, could be heard. Then the idols were brought out, processions formed, and paraded the streets. Hindoos sacrificed fowls and Mahommedans goats by the hundreds; but all was of no avail. Days passed into weeks and still no relief. Thousands fled for their lives. The streets were empty, the market deserted, and only one store remained open.

In the meantime Plague had reached Mr. Drew's compound, and in the first few days 13 of our brightest boys fell victims to this terrible scourge. Mr. Taylor had left for the Hills, and Dr. Menzies had to visit the sick in Mhow, and we were again asked to assist with the work at Rasalpura. Then followed dark days—not darker were the heavy rain clouds which poured forth their volumes of water at that time, than was the cloud that hung on almost every face we met. The death rate in Mhow rose to as high as 140 per day, and there were only about 7,000 people left in the bazar. Just one week after we went to Rasalpura, Dr. Menzies was stricken down, and a week later "he was no more, for God took him." And exactly one month later Mrs. Harcourt passed to the Home prepared for her in the mansions above.

Thanks be to God for His protecting care, for, although both Dr. Menzies and Mrs. Harcourt died at Rasalpura, and although much cleaning up, disinfecting, etc., had afterwards to be done, still not one of the boys in the orphanage was touched by the sickness.

But let us pass on. There has been one figure that has stood out like a rock during these stormy times, and has been a source of encouragement to more than one. I refer to Mr. Drew. True, Dr. Menzies visited the sick on Mr. Drew's compound twice a day and prescribed for them, etc., but on Mr. Drew fell the heavy end of the burden. With heroic devotion and marvellous strength, Mr. and Mrs. Drew labored night and day, preparing all the foods and medicines, as well as feeding and nursing the sick, and after Dr. Menzies' death they only redoubled their efforts. Without a servant about to help in their own work, they often were more fit to be themselves in the Hospital. To hear the cries of the boys, to see them pass away, to have to roll them in a blanket with their own hands, and then to have to bury them, would be a trial for any one, but how much more so for Mr. Drew, when he had cared for them for years, and had learned to love them deeply. Mr. and Mrs. Drew are deserving of all the Mission can bestow upon them.

As time passed on Plague died out, and things began to assume a normal aspect again. In the last of November church services were again opened in the bazar. But it was not until the new year was ushered in that things seemed to take on an aspect of cheerfulness. May the new year be a bright one; surely the seed has been sown in blood.

RASALPURA.

Rev. J. T. Taylor reports :—

EDUCATIONAL.—From January to July 1st I had charge of the College and High School work at Indore, but Mr. King undertakes to include the report for those months in his account of the work for the year.

In Mhow the educational work was in my charge from May till December. In August it was found necessary to close the school owing to the Plague. Since then the educational work has been confined entirely to the orphans. The work has been carried on on the orphanage compound, but owing to lack of accommodation it has been far from satisfactory. The dormitories were the only available place for teaching purposes. The experience of the past year has shown that it is impossible to send the boys into Mhow to school if industrial and educational work is to be combined. A course of study has been adopted based almost entirely upon the Central Provinces Government Vernacular Curriculum and modified to meet the needs of a Christian institution such as ours. The aim is to give a good vernacular education. When lads show special promise, provison has been made for their pursuing advanced study at Indore. We have introduced the sytem of "pupil teachers," and hope to develop that much more in the future. In a short time we hope to have a room entirely for school and preaching purposes, which will greatly assist in the successful carrying out of the work.

ORPHANAGES.—Everything has been abnormal this year in our orphanage work.

First of all, the concentrating of the boys in Rasalpura, Mhow, from the other stations, necessarily interrupted both the industrial and educational work. In March the new bungalow was completed, and Dr. Menzies moved from Indore, relieving Mr. Harcourt, who had charge of the building work along with the care of the orphans already in the compound. At the same time, owing to the plague in Indore, the boys there had to be speedily sent away, and, after two weeks quarantine, were brought to Rasalpura, although accommodation then was very inadequate.

In July the last contingent arrived from Rutlam. Dhar also was relieved of a number of its orphans. In April I assumed joint charge with Dr. Menzies. The work of organization was no light one and was in a very short time made almost impossible by the re-appearance of plague in Mhow. On this account also it was impossible to continue the building or the workshops, and the close of the year finds us still with them uncompleted. On this account it was deemed inadvisable to remove the boys from Mr. Drew's compound in the camp out to the new orphanage at present.

The orphans in camp suffered severely from plague. In all, 56 cases and 13 deaths. The Church owes more than it can repay to Mr. and Mrs. Drew for their work during that awful time. It was a great grief to them to see the lads, upon whom they had spent their best efforts for years, taken away one by one. But their hearts were cheered by many a noble dying testimony. Fortunately, not a single case of plague appeared among the boys at Rasalpura. Although, as recorded elsewhere in the report, two of the Mission Staff were cut down in the compound there. As might have been expected, several boys ran away when plague began to rage so violently. It is surely a testimony to the value of the work done in the past among the lads, that when thousands were fleeing for their lives from Mhow, only a very few orphans ran away.

At the end of the year we have three hundred boys in Mhow, and I may further state that, with other stations, including the blind at Ujjain, where there are about 80, making 380 boys in the care of the Church.

During the year a large number have gone out to service in various places, while we regret to again record that a considerable number have died. Over and over again it has been found true that orphans who come to us in an emaciated condition, and who, after careful nursing, become strong, healthy looking children, have suddenly developed diseases which in a short time cut them down. They have no reserve of strength to withstand even the slightest illness.

Then, too, there are those who have run away. The causes for this are manifold, and our experience is by no means unique in this respect. The most effective preventative is to make such ample provision for the care of our orphans that those in charge will have time to get more into personal touch with the lads.

We feel that the conditions are favorable for doing good work in the future. In a few months we hope to have ample workshop accommodation. The school is on a good working basis. The compound is a very healthy one and sufficiently removed from the city bazaar to keep the lads from much that would work for their undoing. The sleeping accommodation for the boys is limited, but we hope that this may be remedied. Two missionaries will give a large part of their time to the work. This is necessary. And, further, it is doubtful if their time and strength can be devoted to anything which will mean so much to the strengthening of the work of Christ in our field.

DHAR.

Rev. F. H. Russell reports :—

CHURCH.—There has been gratifying progress in all departments of Church work during the year. The average of attendance has been high, and the interest manifested has been encouraging and stimulating. The members have contributed liberally towards the work of the Church, continuing the practice of former years in giving a full tenth of their income to the congregational funds. At the annual meeting of the congregation it was reported that the sum of Rs. 533 ($178) had been contributed during the year. Of this amount it was agreed, among other things, to send Rs. 75 ($25) to the fund for the erection of the Martyr Memorial in Shanghai. During the year there were six removals, these being girls who were married in Mhow and Amkhut, and eight were added on profession, leaving a total membership of 62. It is with profound thankfulness that we record no death from among our number.

In addition to the morning and evening Sabbath services, there have been the weekly prayer meeting, and occasional other meetings, all very well attended. Classes have been held for general Bible study, chiefly with the young people, and special classes have been held for those looking forward to joining the Church. The Christian Endeavor Society met weekly throughout the year, and was well attended by the younger members of the congregation.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.—There have been 3 schools in operation. Of these the largest one, consisting chiefly of Christian children and others directly under our care, has received the greater share of time and attention. It is held immediately after the morning service, and is attended by a fluctuating number of outsiders, as well as by those connected with the congregation. The teachers have done faithful work, and the progress made has been noticeable. A class for teachers was held weekly for training in the lesson, until interrupted by illness. A large number of the children appeared for the All India Sunday School examination, the most of whom were successful, some getting the highest possible number of marks. An effort was made to have the people realize their duty towards the work throughout India, and an appeal for aid for the India Sunday School Union was liberally responded to.

ORPHANAGE.—The removal of the greater part of the boys from Dhar, as reported last year, left a mere handful to carry on the gardening and other work which had been begun here. The boys who remained did so chiefly on account of their having sisters among the girls in our orphanage, from whom it was thought inadvisable to separate them. Five of the boys became independent during the year, and now earn their own living. These boys are a real source of strength to the Christian community, doing much to further the work of the Church of which they are members. The daily work done by the boys has been very satisfactory, and cases of discipline have been few and far between.

TRAINING CLASSES.—The Presbytery's classes for the training of workers were held this year at Dhar, Mr. Wilson coming from Neemuch to share the work of teaching. In addition to the catechists at Dhar, two or three others were present from Mhow, and a number of boys came from Mhow, Indore and Ujjain to take the work of the Junior Class. After carrying on classes for five weeks, the missionary at Dhar was laid aside by an attack of typhoid fever, which necessitated his absence from the station for some weeks and prevented his resuming the work till almost the end of the year. In consequence of this interruption to the work of the classes, the usual examinations to test the progress of the students were not held, but a number of these did very good work in the respective classes.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—A special effort was made this year to reach systematically all the villages within reasonable walking distance of Dhar, and it is gratifying to be able to report that this has been accomplished, and that no one of all these villages has been left unvisited. As a result of this, in part at least, we find to-day a much larger spirit of inquiry among the village population, and a keener appreciation of the Gospel message than ever before. In several of the villages there are inquirers who receive constant visiting and teaching. Towards the end of the year a man of the Nath caste, with his wife, was baptized. As he is fairly well-read, and a man of both intelligence and influence among his caste-people, as well as being remarkably earnest and zealous, there is good reason to hope for a large ingathering as a result of his conversion. Already several of his relatives are asking to be baptized. Moti is a farmer and cattle dealer, and is comfortably well-off, so that he is far from being a charge upon the Mission, and is likely to do much more good in his travels among his fellows than if he were a mission employee. He has had to suffer some persecution since coming out, but this has served only to strengthen his faith and increase his zeal. He lives several miles from Dhar, but every Sabbath morning sees him in his place, unless his work has taken him away to a distance.

The daily preaching in the bazaar and mohullas has been kept up without cessation, and the audiences have been uniformly good. The people give as a rule respectful attention, and occasionally strong interest is manifested. One noticeable feature of the work in the city is the desire to know more of the story of Christ, and the principles of Christianity, along with which there is a quite unprecedented demand for Bibles, especially from students of the High School.

TOURING.—Early in the year the missionary paid a visit to the district south of the Nerbudda River, in the Nimar Valley, in which live the few Christians who were baptized about 18 months ago. The visit, though short, was encouraging, and it was evident from what was seen of the people in the neighborhood that Devaji had been doing earnest work as a voluntary missionary among his own people. Though there is as yet no movement towards Christianity of at least a definite nature, signs are not wanting that Devaji's consistent life is having its effect, and we hope soon to see many brought in through his instrumentality.

Later in the year, though the missionary himself was incapacitated for touring by illness, the catechists made several extended trips in both the northern and southern parts of the field, and met with a most encouraging reception. In several places plague, which is still rather prevalent, interfered with the work, but in all the villages and towns visited the people were eager to hear the Word, and there was no difficulty in obtainig an audience. There were many inspiring experiences n connection with these tours, whch we have not room to relate, but we have every hope that the coming year will prove a fruitful one, if it fulfils the promise of the present.

EDUCATIONAL.—Owing to the difficulty of obtaining teachers, and the superior claims of the evangelistic work, there was no extension of the educational work during the year. The work was confined, as in the previous year, to the orphans left in our care after the removal of the others to Mhow. Of these boys, several during the year passed out of the school altogether, having reached the standard considered desirable in the case of boys who are to earn their living by manual labor. As soon as they could read the fourth book thoroughly well and had made sufficient progress in arithmetic, etc., they were allowed to devote all their time to their outside work. The progress made by the others has been good on the whole, and in some cases surprisingly so, though others are rather backward.

AMKHUT.

Dr. J. Buchanan reports :—

The year has shown steady increase all along the line. Not that we have not had our sorrows and disappointments, for with the increase of spiritual, as well as natural children, come new responsibilities and cares. But these sorrows and tears over the wayward are but as a drop in the bucket and hardly to be mentioned at all, save as they lead to prayer, in comparison with the great joy of seeing the efforts at holy walking on the part of these babes of the jungle. One baptized adherent of the Church is publicly cast off for taking, according to the custom of the country, a second wife, but up to the end of February 49 baptized adherents were received into full communion. One member in full communion had to be disciplined for stealing two old goatskins. Much had been expected of him, and we had great sorrow and pain. But, while one has so fallen, 20, some of whom formerly could join in a cattle lift, have gone voluntary, in the face of bitter taunt and persecution from officials and friends, to win conquests for truth and right. One had to be suspended because of drunkenness, that great curse of the Bhil people. For the Bhil the wedding and the feast, the house of joy and the house of mourning must all end with a big drink. We teach and expect our people to be total abstainers from strong drink as the only safe course, and we demand as a part of the baptismal pledge that they shall not be drunken. The advance in temperance, though not all we could wish, is a great cause for joy. About 30 adults are learning in spare time to read and write. While the growth in Scripture knowledge of both women and men, a result of God's blessing upon that divine method, "Line upon line, line upon line," etc., has been such as to fully repay every effort put forth.

CHURCH.—Church services are held each Sunday, two in Amkhut, two in Mendha and one in Sardi. The "Panch," committee of five, of the Bhil Christians, is used in administration. We thus get much help in the cases to be dealt with, and these young Christians are getting practice in governing the Church and so being prepared for full organization.

BAPTISMS during the year have been 37, and 35 more since the close of the year, making a total of 282 baptisms since coming to the Bhil country. While we have had our trials, we have much to be thankful for; 12 were added to the Communion Roll during the year and 37 since the close of the year.

VOLUNTARY work is carried on somewhat irregularly on Sundays from three centres. To the villages about Amkhut the following persons may be mentioned as going : Guman Buru, Burio, Ditio, Budio, Bathu, Chimliya, Bhagwan Das, Ram Lal, Chitriya, Phaju, Buru Bawan, Chandar Singh, Bap and Buchio. About Sardi, under Mr. Missal's care, villages are visited by the following voluntary workers : Vistio, Umrao, Chomriya, Nako, Ranjit and Bhimo. About Mendha, under the charge of Mr. H. H. Smith, the following may be mentioned : Patlio, Nakio, Chitu, Waja. While the Sunday volunteer work of going to villages is not as regular as some would like, still it is a beginning, and does good. It needs constant encouragement. We would like to see every Christian heartily engaged in some definite work for Christ and his fellows. Then what might not be accomplished ? At times some of the above, 4 preachers and 2 teachers, one of whom is a woman, have been sent out, paid from the local funds of the Christian at the rate of two annas a day (four cents), for work during the week. By means of the morning and noon drill, for those who can come daily, there is always something fresh for the villagers on Sunday. The difficulty, after paying taxes and dues, of sustaining life makes it a hard problem for the men to attend for even a couple of hours daily study unless supported while doing so. With a view to self-support, we do not wish to pay them from foreign funds for either studying or preaching, consequently some industrial work seems necessary. The Bhil building work is such an opportunity. Whether employed by day labor or by contract, they get less than half what they could earn up in Malwa. This we do largely in their own interest. The limited fund will thus last longer and serve more people. Again the habit of many Bhils is that when they have made a little money they stop and spend it too often injuriously. What the people need is steady work and steady instruction. The farm at Sardi is also a help in this direction. If the dairy side of the farm can be developed without too much expense it would help.

The farm year by year gives employment to poor Bhils who are unable to have a plough and land of their own. By getting service for a year they generally manage to take up independent farm work the next. Thus year by year some 15 laborers are converted into farmers, and is accordingly a help, not only to the poor people, but also to the revenue of the State. The farm is a regular Mission agency started by Presbytery. Though it spends over Rs. 1,000 a year, we are thankful to say it has so far not been a charge upon the funds of the Mission. In this respect it may be somewhat irregular, but not therefore less deserving of prayerful sympathy. By means of the farm from 30 to 50 and more persons men, women and children are taught twice a day the Gospel truths. Under God it is the daily work that counts. Mr. Missal is still in Sardi and has had the joy of seeing souls brought to Christ. To train and create in jungle Bhils an ambition to be good farmers is something, and to lead them to the fountain of true knowledge is more.

NIHALO, Tarvi or headman of Chota Sardi, has become a Christian. As a consequence some of the people, urged on, it is said, by officers, presented a petition to the young Rajah stating that as Nihalo had become a Christian he should not be any longer Tarvi. I am happy to say that the Rajah showed his desire for fairness in matters of religion by tearing up the petition. Petty State officers have shown some opposition to Christianity by persecuting the Christians. I hear that His Highness has ordered this to stop. The Rajah, newly come to power, speaks English and seems desirous of conducting his Raj. on enlightened principles. May he prosper in all such efforts.

Mr. H. G. Smith, an ex-soldier, was taken on by Presbytery in December as an assistant missionary. He had previously thrown up a good position on the railway and come down among the Bhils. It was after about two mnths here without pay that he made application to Presbytery, feeling a special call to the Bhils. Jobat State has granted us 12¾ acres of land, and Mr. Smith is beginning work there. The Presbytery decided, "That Bhil orphans of a fit age who are suited for farming be drafted to Amkhut under the charge of Dr. Buchanan." A few of those who come may be sent out with Mr. Smith. They are expected to be self-supporting after nine months.

Mr. H. H. Smith, an ex-soldier, who offered himself for the Bhil work, has now been a year at Mendha. The work of the Lord seems to be prospering there. Let Christian friends remember him and his family in their isolated service. Mr. Smith writes as follows :—

MENDHA is situated some 14 miles from Amkhut, and, like it, is the home of the Bhil and Bhilala. We have been here just a year now, and, in humbly reviewing the work, rejoice to see that God has been with us, and that He has blessed some of the seed sown in much weakness.

There have been 15 baptisms here during the past year. Among others, Goolji, the Pujara (Bhil Priest) of Sindanpani has confessed Christ in baptism.

He now delights to show his late disciples the foolishness of idol-worship, and can sometimes be heard telling the story of his conversion, to the interest of his hearers. As told to me, it runs something like the following :—

We are of the Tarvi (Headman of village) family. My brother is Tarvi of our village, and when he dies my own son will take his place. Some years ago I was Tarvi, but gave it up and became Pujara. I have set up many idols and used to throw my whole energy into the worship of them.

I have done much Daga-puja (stone worship) in my time. I did puja for my first wife, but she died. I pleaded much with the Bhut to spare my second—she died also. I went on with my puja for many years—I pleaded for my people too, but the Bhuts had no mercy on us.—Bullocks, goats, and crops all perished.

I was miserable and wandered here and there, but found no rest or peace. At last one of the Christians got hold of me and brought me to you, sir, and now I know that your God is my Father and that Jesus Christ is my Saviour.

We were touring through Sindanpani a few days ago, when my wife called my attention to Goolji. He was felling a devil-possessed tree ! This tree had been cursed by an evil spirit and had withered in consequence. Hitherto no one had been brave enough to cut it down for fear of disease or death from the hand of its ghostly tenant. Fearing that this act would produce the ill-will of the villagers, I remonstrated with Goolji, but was reassured with the fact that both the tree and the Bhut belonged to him, and that the others would be extremely glad to get rid of their unwelcome guest. Goolji is still alive and well and has done forever with the Bhuts.

The work in the villages is encouraging. There are a number of inquirers whom we hope soon to see baptized.

We have no regular school here, but some of the Christians are being taught sufficient to read their Testament.

A few medicines are kept here. The Bhil has his own Bharwa (medicine man), who generally effects a cure (?) by tying a piece of string round the patient's wrist and doing some sorcery over him; if the patient recovers the Bharwa may get a present of a fowl or a goat; if he dies—well, he gets nothing ! Some of our people have been rather amused of late by noticing the Bharwa coming to us for medicine to cure his own ailments and also for his son.

Nanya had been suffering from a loathsome disease for three years; so offensive were his sores that his people had removed him from their house and had left him in a field to die. Our Christians built him a temporary hut and, under strong antiseptic treatment and good feeding, Naniya was soon well enough to be restored to his relations. He has not yet been baptized, but we see evidences of his turning towards the living God.

Our bungalow has been built by the Bhils. We were thus enabled to preach the Gospel of Christ to the workmen, several of whom have since become Christians, while others are, we believe, inquiring the way to God.

Our little mission hall is being built. We thankfully acknowledge the following subscriptions :—

MEDICAL.—This is one of the departments in which both Mrs. Buchanan and myself find opportunity to come near the people. No medical assistant is kept, and, though considerable work is done, no record is kept of the number of patients treated. With building work, an orphanage and its school, the training of Christians and the general Church work, embracing the care of a considerable number of people received from wild Bhildom, it may be surmised that medical work cannot be a specialty. Still medicine is almost an essential here for the treatment and care of valuable Christian lives which would otherwise be neglected and lost, as well as for the breaking down of devil worship and belief in witchcraft. Of the two witch doctors in Amkhut one died, and his son, instead of taking the position as his hereditary right, became a Christian; the other, Vistio, has so far lost faith in his own charms that he brings many patients to us. He secured treatment for his son gored by an ox, his daughter-in-law with synovitis and for himself suffering from an attack of pneumonia. It is said that since your missionary came the witch doctor's head will not go round as formerly in the incantations. They seem to loose faith in their own arts. There is no doubt that, among as simple and uncared for a people as the Bhils, medical work is a specially powerful mission agency. A good central hospital here, carried on by a missionary who could give his time to that work, would be a mighty factor in bringing this Bhil country to the feet of the great Physician.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS have been held in Amkhut, Mendha and Sardi. The course of study was the International lessons for the first half of the year and the Life of Christ, following Mr. Wilson's chart for the second half. At Sardi there are 25 pupils and 1 teacher. At Mendha there are 40 pupils and 1 teacher. At Amkhut there are 20 teachers and 160 pupils. Of these 25 are from the orphanage. The remaining 135 are made up as follows : 43 men, 46 women, 25 boys and 21 girls. That is independent of the orphanage. There are in all 200 belonging to the Sunday School. For the most part these are Christians, for Bhils of this part generally do not allow their names to be registered until they are ready to identify themselves with the Christians. As many as can come during the week are drilled twice a day on the Sunday School lessons, the back work being kept constantly under review. Sunday by Sunday, men having been appointed, give in sucessive order before the whole school the story of past lessons. In this way the whole work for the six months is kept in review, and the men, at first shy and shaggy as wild bison, learn to deliver the message of peace. These little addresses are interspersed with singing, in which all heartily join, and, with brief remarks by the Superintendent, the classes are then taken by the teachers, for the most part not to class rooms, but to selected spots about the place. One claims a certain stone as his throne, another adopts the mango tree with its thick shade, while a hewn Gurar log makes a rather pretentious class room for a third. Even if we had rooms for them all, it is doubtful if these children of nature would not prefer the freedom of the out-door class. The new teacher at the beginning may be afraid to venture with his class beyond the Golden Text, but by and by his gifts increase till one is amazed at what some even of those who cannot read so as to get any benefit from it, can do in the way of instruction.

THE ORPHANS.—There are now only 25. Mr. Thomas is in charge and loves the children. He is an earnest Christian man, whose zeal for the advancement of the kingdom is very real, and, accordingly, has a very wholesome influence upon their young lives. Men going to the villages to preach always like to have two or three boys along to help sing. By this also the boys are kept in touch with the non-Christian Bhils, and are learning to work and look for the redemption of their own people. Evylin, the baby girl, is supported from Lacombe by Mr. Howell's family. All the children are taught about 4 hours a day in school, and most of them can read and write fairly well. Simple arithmetic is taught and the Bible is the chief text-book. The smaller children are in the first and second book Hindi. Out of school hours the boys gather their own wood and do general work in the fields. The girls bring the water, do the grinding and cooking and help in the work in the fields. The aim is to fit them for a simple, intelligent Christian life.

Of those who have gone out from the orphanage and are now independent of the Famine Fund, being either Christians or under Christian influence, we find them earning their living as follows : Farmers, 10; servants, 12; laborers on farms, etc., 26; wives, 9; washermen, 2; brickmaker, 1; mason, 1 (while a number know something of masonry); teacher, 1; total, so far as known, 68. In addition to this, 27 were claimed by friends, or ran away to join friends. In addition to the School work, Mr. Thomas has done considerable evangelistic work. He goes to villages morning and evening. He also did some touring, taking a few of the Christians with him. He had special encouragement in that part of Udaipur State, near here. The Mission has now work from Amkhut in three States, viz., Alirajpur, Jobat and Udaipur.

WOMEN'S WORK, AMKHUT.—Though not supported by funds from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, the work for women and children is a very important part of the work done among the Bhils.

Mrs. Buchanan's classes for Christian women (some non-Christians also attend), have been carried persistently on for about an hour and a half each morning and noon. Ten-year-old Ruth has the self-imposed task of visiting and calling the women to her mother's classes. Almost every day, particularly in the evening, Ruth may be seen at some Bhil hut, and we know what she is doing. She is a great favorite with all, and the largeness of the class is partly due to her faithfulness. Even the tardy ones can hardly resist her pleading to "come to class to-morrow." The women were thoroughly drilled for the first six months in the International lessons, and then for the second six months on the Life of Christ. A few have learned to read, and they get on more rapidly, but many a poor Christian Bhil wife and mother who cannot read has still a good knowledge of the book that makes wise unto salvation. In the Church foundation work such effort is essential and will count not only for this but the next generation. From this class quite a number have come forward and professed their faith in Christ and been received by baptism into the Christian church, and then into full communion.

Some of those more advanced among the women have become teachers in the Sunday School. About half of the 20 teachers are women. The daily class prepares the teachers for the Sunday class. Though not normal trained, they learn to tell the story of the Christ of the Goseplş. Ruth also has an interested class of girls who pass a creditable monthly examination. I wonder if the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society could not strain a point, and, counting Ruth an honorary Miss "Sahiba" missionary, send one of the much appreciated Christmas "boxes" to this Bhil district also. She would not find much difficulty in getting the box opened or emptied.

Mrs. H. H. Smith, wife of Mr. H. H. Smith, though she has a family of 4 children, manages to do a good deal for the people and is much beloved. She has some knowledge of medicine, having formerly worked in connection with our Mission as Miss Lewis. She, with her husband, is holding the fort in a lonely place about 15 miles from Amkhut. A box for her and her sister, Mrs. H. G. Smith, now opening up work in the Jobat State, would be a helpful, encouraging tribute to faithful missionaries.

MEDICAL.—Medical work for women has not been extensive, but it has been useful, especially among the Christians. Precious lives have been spared by God's blessing and opportunities given to declare in a practical way that love of the Goseplı which fails to be understood by words.

WOMEN'S WORK.

DHAR.

Dr. Margaret O'Hara reports:—

We thank God for another year of opportunity and for health granted to workers and missionaries. There were no interruptions to the work in either of the two dispensaries or the hospital, but the common round of daily experience that comes to the medical woman in India.

The Brahmin inquirer who was reported last year was baptized, and for some months remained with us, witnessing to the power of Christ and comparing the Gospel message with the various cults she had heard during the many years of her pilgrimage to India's numerous shrines. In October she returned to the village, but we heard she was not received. From there she went to the village in which her husband's people live, and since then we have lost all traces of her. To our inquiries the reply has been that "plague was bad in the village, and no one knows where she is."

Latcha, the little cripple, who was an inmate of the hospital since the famine, grew weaker and suffered more intensely as the days went on. The Russell children were always especially interested in him, and their daily visits with dainties and inquiries were the bright spots in the little invalid's existence. He always said he was better, except when the pain was more acute, than usual; then he would reply that he was "just the same." He gave clear evidence that he had found Jesus to be his Friend and Saviour, and one evening while we were speaking to him he went to with Him. We had more obstetrical work than in any previous year, but in the matter of fees there has been no increase.

Number of patients	5,594
Treatments	20,446
In-patients	293
Surgical operations	153

EVANGELISTIC.—Services have been carried on in connection with the medical work as formerly, and the teachers and Bible-woman have engaged in Christian Endeavor and Sunday School work.

ORPHANAGE.—The generosity of the Victoria India Orphanage Society, Winnipeg, in supporting so many girls, gives us the added privilege of working among the children and of influencing them for Christ and His Church. Besides the orphans, there are ten children of Christians and three Hindu girls attending school. The girls have made good progress.

18 are reading in the 4th book
10 are reading in the 3rd book
21 are reading in the 2nd book and the remainder in the first reader. They study arithmetic, grammar, geography, sanitary science and the Shorter Catechism, besides all the subjects required for the examination of Bible-woman. One girl passed this exam. and another of the orphans tried the lower grade teachers' examination, and, although securing more than the aggregate, failed to receive a sufficient number of marks in grammar. It was simply to test their knowledge that they took the exams, as they were too young to be either teachers or Bible-women.

Nineteen of them passed the "All India Sunday School Examination" and received certificates from the Central Committee in Calcutta. Twenty of them were baptized on profession of faith. For their bright young lives we thank God and take courage.

MHOW.

Miss Mary E. Leach reports:—

EDUCATIONAL.—Little that can be recorded on paper has been done this year for the children of Mhow. The history of the past ten months may not yet be written, for the eye blurs, the heart aches and the troublesome lump rises in the throat at every remembrance of the scenes of sorrow witnessed.

In March the attendance at the school was good, averaging eighty-five. In April it dropped to fifty, and on April 22nd the school closed, as the parents refused to send their children because of the scare in the bazaar on account of a few cases of plague having occurred. On June 15th school opened after nearly two months' holiday. June and July the average attendance was eighty. The beginning of August found it down to thirty, and on August 6th the school closed, and up to date, December 31st, 1903, has not been re-opened. The plague broke out in full force in August, and in a few short weeks fully half of my school children, two of my calling women and three of my teachers were taken off by its ravages.

EVANGELISTIC.—During March and April the Bible-woman went daily to teach the women at Mr. Drew's. May and up to June 15th was holiday time. From June 15th to the end of July she went daily to the villages, and to 377 women and children preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Then the plague broke out in the camp, and the villages would not allow anyone from the camp into their villages. Then when the plague was over in the camp it broke out and raged in all the villages around, so that there has been practically no evangelistic work done since July. A few visits have been made to villages near, but no systematic work has been attempted.

On account of the plague, all organized work has been stopped; even the Bible classes have not been held, as quarantine rules somewhat interfered with the assembling of ourselves together. Yet the past months have not been profitless. Missionaries, native Christians and heathen have all learned lessons that will bear fruit for eternity, and eternity alone will reveal all they have meant to us.

Dr. Agnes Turnbull and Dr. Chone Oliver reports :—

The past year has been one of singular interruption in our regular medical work here on account of the dreadful epidemic of plague that has devastated Indore. There was a slight outbreak during March and April, which died away when the hot weather came. At the beginning of the rains, however, it again appeared in a very virulent form, lasting several months, and sweeping out whole families. In the native city alone, with a former population of about 80,000 (though multitudes fled), over 12,000 deaths were recorded before December—for some time over 200 a day.

HOSPITAL.—In the month of September, when the plague was at its worst, we admitted only two patients. Plague cases, of course, were treated in their own homes or at the special Plague Hospital. Of the 190 in-patients during the year a good number were from our schools, home and Christian community. Of those who came from heathen homes several appeared to have their hearts touched by the Gospel message, but none got the length of confessing Christ openly. One poor woman died in hospital in April. During her illness she heard of Jesus, and before she died professed her belief in Him. Whether her faith was genuine the last day will reveal. For six weeks we had an unusually intelligent little Marathi Brahmin. While she was here she read much of the Gospel and other religious literature and knew many Bible stories. But last fall she seemed to have a real belief in Jesus. She asked if it were necessary to leave home to be a Christian, or if she could believe secretly. One day her only child, 'Auri, who came to see her mother, was suddenly seized with fever. Fearing plague, we sent the child home, and the poor mother, weeping bittrly, accompanied her. The child died, and since then we have heard nothing of the mother. Perhaps she, too, has fallen a victim to plague. A Bhil woman came on foot from a distant village, and after her operation was in hospital for a long time. She heard and accepted the Gospel message. Before plague broke out she returned to her village, we hoped, to come back with her little son, but we have never seen her since.

When the plague was decreasing there came to us a sweet, gentle, educated Punjabi woman. She had received her early education in a mission school. She was not an idol-worshipper, but belonged to one of the Hindu reformed sects. When questioned in regard to her belief, she replied : "Yes, I believe in Him and take His name in prayer, but if I were to confess Him I should become an outcast." We pray that one day her faith may prove stronger than her fears.

We have now accommodation for 30 in-patients. A friend in the United States has been sending money for the support of a bed, called by her choice "The Finelte Bed." It takes about $20 a year to supply all necessities.

The Nurses' Training Classes have been rather disappointing for many reasons. There has been no one, such as a trained nurse from home, able to give the lessons quite regularly. Owing to the nature of our work we are liable, at the best of times, to be interrupted. But this year plague and the lack of helpers have sadly interfered with our classes. One of the nurses-in-training, a particularly good, reliable girl, died in July. In her we lost the services and example of an earnest, sincere follower of Jesus, one who truly adorned the doctrine. She passed fearlessly into the presence of God, witnessing her faith by her dying testimony. A friend who is a nurse in the United States has taken pleasure in supplying all the things necessary for the nurses' classes. One of the class is supported by two friends at Lieury, Ont., and the compounder is supported by the Marlow and St. George congregations, Quebec.

During the plague we were for a long time without hospital assistant, matron, Bible-woman, nurse or cook, and for weeks we were unable to have any washing done.

Throughout the year many minor and a number of critical major operations have been performed in the hospital and in the homes. We have also inoculated, with excellent results, over 300 women and children, including the inmates of the Boarding School and Widows' Home, many of the Christians and others.

DISPENSARY WORK.—The Hospital Dispensary has been kept open throughout the year, but we regret that it was not possible to re-open the one in the city. This department was greatly affected by the plague, causing the numbers to be much below the average. This is partially accounted for by the fact that many thousands had fled, and the majority of those remaining were so sorely affected by the terrible scourge that little attention was paid to minor ailments. Another great reason was their superstious fears, many thinking that we might forcibly put them in the plague hospital or give them medicines which would cause them to contract the disease. This was on a par with other erroneous ideas they held, e.g., that Government was poisoning their wells with plague germs in order to decrease the population, and that inoculation was a means of introducing plague into their systems. We have been encouraging the patients (many of whom come only twice a week) to attend more frequently that they may have further opportunity of hearing the Gospel; but, owing to the distances in Indore being much greater than in other stations, we have not been able to induce them to attend daily. Many have listened with much interest to the truth, and of a few we feel we can say that they really seemed to find the light. Two of those, a former school calling woman and a servant in the city dispensary, professed their faith in Christ, and the latter asked for baptism. Both were carried off during the epidemic.

VISITS TO HOMES, MISSION INSTITUTIONS AND PLAGUE HOSPITAL.—Many patients have been attended in their homes. In this department, too, we have had interesting experiences. We regret that we cannot always follow up our patients after their recovery. A Zenana missionary would find a large field of labor here. Many of those we have visited have been suffering from plague and have gladly availed themselves of our help. Much time has been spent among these poor stricken people, over 400 visits being paid in September. Our hearts have been inexpressibly saddened by the suffering and neglect witnessed. Often the poor victims were found dying alone in dirty dark rooms where neither light nor fresh air could enter. The fatalism of their relatives caused them, in the majority of cases, to be quite indifferent to the necessity of the sufferer's receiving remedies or nourishment, and so large numbers of lives were sacrificed. Many had their buboes cauterized, leaving great festering sores, which increased their misery. Numbers died after only a few hours' illness. We can speak of only two or three interesting cases.

Our matron's daughter had a very severe attack, her life being despaired of for some time. For weeks her temperature remained very high, and she had an uncommonly large number of plague abscesses to be poulticed, lanced and dressed. She received every care, however, and made a good recovery. A young mother, one of India's many deformed women on whom we had to perform an obstetric operation, was in a very precarious condition and had to be visited often. The truth was frequently presented in their home. The husband, an intelligent man (suffering from plague at that time), became quite interested and read all the Scripture and literature we brought him. He has now a good knowledge of the way of salvation. We visit them whenever possible.

A young man whose first interest in Christianity dates back to six years ago, when he received a hymn-book from a lady doctor here, confessed Christ before his relations, and, with his wife, seemed ready to come out. They were both seized with plague, and he died, trusting Jesus. His wife, we hope, may be one of us yet.

As our Widow's Home and Boarding School were surrounded on all sides by danger, we could not expect that they would remain exempt from the ravages of the plague. In these two large institutions, however, only 8 contracted the disease and 3 died. For some time after the first case occurred all the inmates underwent a daily medical inspection, and any suspected cases were at once isolated. The number of those examined daily does not appear in the statistics. The good stone floors in these buildings were a great help in permitting them to be thoroughly disinfected. We secured part of the Government Temporary Plague Hospital, a shed with sides of bamboo and grass, and there those attacked were immediately removed and cared for by two of the widows installed as nurses under our continual supervision. The sights and sounds in the adjoining wards, where dozens of people lay suffering and dying of the loathsome disease, was almost indescribable, but in the midst of so much that was alarming and depressing, these brave women faithfully tended those in our own ward, and we were rewarded with more recoveries than we had dared to hope for. There, too, some witnessed a good confession upon their death beds, and some through our services heard the Gospel for the first time.

VILLAGE WORK.—No regular touring among the villages has been done this year. In the beginning of the year there was no one free to send, and at the end of the year, when touring was again possible, plague was rampant in the villages. We have reached a number of village people through our dispensary work and our out calls. During the hot season for many weeks we attended a case in a village five miles distant. The people brought the halt, the maimed and the blind to us for treatment. It was very sad to see the result of neglect. One day we noticed a child whose hand was deformed and almost useless on account of an old burn. We offered to operate. At first the relations were unwilling, but finally consented. The news that the doctor, Miss Sahib, was to operate spread like wild-fire, and the people crowded into the courtyard. We turned them out and barricaded the door, but with the determination of Zaccheus they climbed upon the adjoining walls and no doubt satisfied their curiosity.

RELIGIOUS CLASSES.—A daily morning hospital prayer meeting has been held. The afternoon Bible-class has been carried on throughout the year, and on Sabbaths all helpers and patients who were able attended the Sunday School class.

"We close our year and lay it back upon the years of God, not daring, not caring—to ask whether it has been good or bad, but only praying that out of it may come a sweeter prophecy and a dearer gladness and a profounder joy in the work of the years that are yet to be, first here, and then in the complete life of the eternal home."

Miss J. White reports :—

THE WIDOWS' INDUSTRIAL HOME AND CAMP SCHOOL, INDORE.—The work assigned to me on my return from furlough has been the Widows' Home and Camp School, both situated in the Residency Camp.

In January, 1903, the Industrial Home here and the Widows' Home in Neemuch were amalgamated into what is now known as the Widows' Industrial Home at Indore.

The change has been advantageous financially, as the building used for the Home is Mission property, and thus rent has been saved. The number of women has varied throughout the year and has always exceeded 100. At present the number is 103 women and 7 little children.

The majority of the women are under 25 years of age, and all such receive instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic. Where aptitude for learning is shown, encouragement is given to extend their studies with a view to pass the Council's prescribed examination for Bible-women and teachers. Six of the girls educated by Mrs. Johory in the Industrial Home, tried this examination in August, and three passed the Lower Grade Teachers' and two the Lower Grade Bible-woman's examination. All are kept busy with cleaning cotton and wool, spinning, weaving, knitting, sewing, crotchet, fancy work, cooking and grinding. They rise early, often at 3 o'clock, to grind the grain for their morning meal. At 6.30 all come together for prayers, after which school begins at 7 o'clock and continues until 9.30. Then the first meal (they have only two meals) is served up and all assemble again for the Bible lesson. The Life of Christ has been taken up daily along with the Ten Commandments and Golden Texts, and at the Christmas examination on Sabbath School work several received prizes. From 11.30 until 2 o'clock all the Industrial branches are carried on. In the large new court may be seen the spinners, mostly the oldest women, seated in rows, and the whir of their wheels lets us know that they are not idle. Their aim is to keep the Ujjain Blind Institute supplied with spun wool for blanket-making. The inner court presents a busy scene also, for here, grinding, cooking and weaving are going on simultaneously. On the little back verandah of the bungalow or main building of the Home, and forming one of the boundaries of the court, five young girls are busy making thread buttons ,and vie with each other in making good ones, which obtain a ready sale, the demand often exceeding the supply. Inside the building a number are busy sewing, crocheting and making fancy work, and one girl is making cotton stockings on the knitting machine, which, like the goose that laid the golden eggs, is adding considerably to our revenue, so much so that I hope in time to see a second knitting machine at work. We have been kept busy sewing for the boys at the Rasalpura Orphanage. Many kind friends have given us plain sewing to do, and so have helped our exchequer. At 2 o'clock all separate to attend to the garden or help in the domestic work in the Home.

From 3 o'clock to 4, a class for teachers and advanced pupils is conducted by Mrs. Johory, whose services, as in the past, are invaluable. The same class meets with me from 4.15 to 5.30 for Bible instruction and prayer. After this come the evening meal, prayer and praise; and the day is over.

All seem happy; they are not oppressed with work, but it is deemed wise to have them constantly at something, for here especially, "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do." I realized this fully when our work was disorganized in the sad time of Plague. The health of the women, on the whole, has been good. The death rate for the year has been low, considering the ravages Plague has wrought, cutting down thousands round about us. Two died from Plague, a third who never regained strength after it died this month, and six others died throughout the year from fever and consumption. The dregs of famine seemed to weaken their systems, and such are ever a prey to that awful scourge, Consumption. Three of our girls who were teachers in the Home have been married lately, and have gone to Ujjain, where I trust they will be used in the Master's service. Several of the oldest women have obtained situations in our Institutions here and in some of the other stations, concerning whom cheering reports reach us from time to time.

The past year of sororw will live in all our memories, but in it all we realize that sorrow is sent for good. The anxious time of Plague drew us all very near to each other, and called forth possibilities in some of the women that under ordinary circumstances might have remained dormant. Above all, it has had a quickening effect in many of the women, of whom twenty-five are seeking baptism, which would have been administered ere this had our Session been complete, but Plague has thinned its ranks too.

CAMP SCHOOL.—The report of the Camp School must necessarily be short. The work was twice interrupted during the year on account of Plague. The children attended well until the end of March, and then people were afraid to send their little ones, for they could hardly go and come without meeting funeral processions, a source of infection. The School was then closed, a month earlier than the usual holiday time.

In the middle of June, School was opened again, and the few who came attended well, but early in July Plague broke out with greater force than ever, and the death rate became alarmingly high. All who could, fled to distant villages, and once more the School had to be closed. In the middle of November, all sign of Plague having died out, school work was resumed, and I am thankful to say all is going on nicely now. A number of the little girls are mostly new-comers to the Residency Camp, children of enterprising merchants who have flocked into Indore to fill up business gaps caused by death. Some of the former pupils have not returned. I know many have died, but between plague ravages and the number still afraid to return from distant villages, I cannot tell who have died. The attendance is increasing, and I have had to appoint a second teacher this week. I tried to do with one teacher while the numbers were low, but the school still resolves itself into two departments, Marathi and Hindi, and so teachers for both languages are necessary.

We have been studying the Life of Christ when we could together. Now we have to go back to the beginning of almost everything for the sake of the new-comers. This is a real pleasure to the older pupils, for they enjoy the stories of the creation and the birth and childhood of Christ. Two of my most advanced girls I have asked Miss Duncan to receive as day pupils in the Boarding School, as they have got all that can be given them in our Primary School. They seem very happy in their new work. They attend their own little Sabbath School, and so are not severing their connection with us. Another of the first pupils in this little school now an inmate of the Widows' Home, Lachminia, attended until she could read the third reader. She was married when quite a little girl, and while I was home on furlough she went to live with her husband's family. They all treated her very cruelly, and burned the Bible and Hymn-book that she received as prizes for Bible knowledge. Life became unbearable, and she ran away to us last April. She cried piteously and begged to be saved from the awful cruelty she was subjected to. If she ran away to her father he beat her and compelled her to return, and she was just worn out. She told me that she was afraid to sleep at night, as her husband threatened to cut her nose off (a common practice in this land, I am sorry to say).

She is now a bright happy girl in our Widows' Home, getting on well with her studies, eager to work, and is one of the twenty-five anxious for baptism.

Miss J. Duncan reports :—

BOARDING SCHOOL.—The first two months of this year were spent in the Girls' Orphanage, Neemuch, and in March I came to Indore to take charge of the Christian Girls' Boarding School. I have many mercies to record this year, one being the good health which has enabled me to continue at my work without a break. Then, too, you all know how terribly the plague raged about us for months, and how wonderfully we were preserved in the midst of it. Whilst thousands of the poor people about us were carried away, only three of our number contracted the dread disease, one of whom succumbed after a short illness. As this was the only death in the School during the year, and these the only cases of serious illness, we have, indeed, much for which to thank our Heavenly Father. The visitation, too, was not without good effect, for we believe that many little hearts were at that time drawn nearer to the Saviour.

When the plague broke out in the School most of the girls who had parents were sent to their own homes for safety; and, to avoid further contagion, we shut ourselves off, as much as possible, from intercourse with the outside world. For months this isolation was kept up, the waterman, washerman, and milkman even, servants who in time of safety are considered absolutely necessary, being dispensed with. For milk we used the condensed kind sold in tins, and the girls became "dhobies" to wash the clothes, and drew water night and morning from our own well for use in the school. All week-day and Sabbath services were held in our own school-room, for the most part conducted by myself, until at last it was considered safe to get Mr. Johory or some other of our Christian helpers to assist.

All this interfered much with the attendance of the School, but the average, exclusive of teachers and women helpers, was 107, viz., 98 resident and 9 day pupils.

Each school day, at 8 o'clock, a Bible-lesson has been given to the whole school, and this was continued also throughout the holidays. We have taken up the life of Christ in analytical order, and all have shown much interest in every detail of that wonderful life. Besides this a second lesson has been given to the smaller children during school hours.

On Sunday mornings the International Sabbath School Lessons have been taught, and in this work I have been assisted by five teachers who were prepared for the work by a class held for the study of the lesson each Saturday.

The whole School has given much time to the study of the Assembly's verses for the year, and I expect a much larger number than usual to be successful in repeating them correctly before the allotted time expires. The diplomas and seals for last year's work were presented during the summer months at a meeting in the church, and this has helped to stimulate the girls to greater effort this time.

A meeting which has helped much in the formation of the girls' Christian character has been the prayer meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association of the School held at noon on Sundays. This has latterly been carried on on Christian Endeavor lines, the girls taking the lessons in turn, and all helping by leading in prayer or reading and expounding Scripture verses bearing on the subject.

I might write much more concerning the religious and moral instruction of the children, for everyone knows that in an institution of this kind the missionary's responsibility is not at an end when she has given the regular Bible-lesson. Day by day, there are little wrongs to be righted, disputes to be settled, hearts to be reconciled, consoled and encouraged, the wayward to be corrected—all, in fact, must be guided patiently and lovingly in the paths of righteousness to follow in the footsteps of the meek and lowly Jesus. Happy is the missionary who sees good results from her labors and teachings and prayers, and knows her litte flock to be growing in the knowledge of Christ and in likeness to Him.

School-work has gone on steadily throughout the ten school-months of the year, being uninterrupted even by the plague, and the children have made good progress in their studies, most of them being found ready to enter higher classes after the promotion examinations held in December. Fifteen of the most advanced pupils and teachers tried the various examinations prescribed by the Women's Council for Teachers and Bible-women, and as four tried two examinations, and none failed, nineteen certificates were granted them. For some months previous to this examination, classes were held for the study of the subjects not prescribed on the School curriculum, and thus we went through, very carefully, several books of the Bible, as Genesis, Exodus and Acts, also an outline of Old Testament History, the Geography of Palestine, the Shorter Catechism and two books which treat of the false and true religions. There have been some changes made in the teaching staff during the year, all of which, I think, have been for the advantage of the School. For some months past I have myself taught, with the help of a pupil-teacher, all the English classes of the School, and have thus come in contact daily with each girl reading above the Second Vernacular Reader, and have tried to bring my influence to bear upon her other studies as well.

Bible-classes and school work occupy six hours of the children's time each day, but besides this they have much house-work and sewing to do, which leaves them very little time for leisure. The children have throughout the year done all the sewing necessary for themselves, and have done the cooking, grinding of the grain, sweeping, etc., by courses, often rising early and working late in order to have their various tasks performed in proper time. During the time of plague the domestic work of the school was very heavy, as besides being short of helpers we had many extra things to do by way of precaution, and so it was a great relief to all when, at last, the usual outside help could be safely utilized.

Miss B. Ptolemy reports:—

MARATHI AND HINDI GIRLS' SCHOOL IN INDORE CITY.—All reports of school work in Central India this year must contain some reference to the plague, which has caused us such anxiety, sorrow and hindrance in the work.

The schools were going on as usual until March, when plague appeared in the city, and spread so rapidly that at the beginning of April both schools had to be closed—a month earlier than usual for the summer holidays. They were not re-opened until the middle of June. At that time the plague seemed to have entirely disappeared,as we never heard of a case; but with the rains it re-appeared and was worse than ever. In the middle of August the Hindi School was surrounded by the plague and had to be closed, and at the beginning of September the Marathi School was closed. They were re-opened the middle of November, after being thoroughly cleaned and disinfected.

Very thankfully I report that the teachers have all been spared, and of the other workers only the caretaker of the Marathi School died during the first outbreak, and a dear old calling-woman from the Hindi School died during the second. Another who had plague recovered.

The children suffered most. The calling-women of the Hindi School report twenty-three known deaths among their girls, while many who fled to other villages are still away, and they do not know whether they are dead or living. There were nineteen deaths among the Marathi girls, and many others have not returned to Indore. All this has brought down the average attendance of both Schools to less than ninety, but as many new girls are coming this month we hope the attendance will soon be as large as usual. It will take longer to bring them up to their former standard of good Secondary Schools; for the two highest classes in the Marathi School have been almost wiped out by plague. Instead of a full room of about thirty girls from second to fourth class—some reading in the second and third English readers, and well up in other subjects—there are now only six regular attendants in that room. I hope more of the former girls may return from other places. If not, it will take many months to bring up the standard.

In both schools the International Sunday School Lessons were taught on Sundays and reviewed on Wednesdays. Other days the children memorized portions of Scripture and learned hymns. Several of the larger girls had spoken freely in these classes of their faith in Jesus and their desire to follow Him. We miss them very much, but God knew best whether they were able to meet and overcome the temptations sure to come later. A mothers' meeting, with singing and Gospel addresses, was held in both schools on Thursday afternoons during part of the year.

On Saturday afternoons the Christian teachers come to the bungalow, and I take up the Sunday School lesson for the next day with them. Sometimes an old pupil from one of the schools comes with them and stays for the lesson, showing that she is still interested, though not allowed to come to school since her marriage. One of the teachers prepares a paper connected with the subject and it is read and discussed. Then we take up the lesson and its connection with those before, paying special attention to the practical lessons we should learn from it and those most necessary for the children.

During the rains, when the schools were closed because of plague, I had a class for the Christian teachers three or four hours daily, taking up part of the work they will have for their second examination next year. As most of them have families to cook and care for, they have little time for study while teaching, and two failed on their second examination this year; so they seemed to fully appreciate the extra chance they were having. Each day in the class we had prayer for the women and children in danger in the city, that God would spare them and us, that we might again meet to hear and teach the Word of Truth. Since re-opening the schools there has been in most classes a greater earnestness in listening to the daily Bible-lesson, and especially among th Hindu teachers and helpers. Their questions and answers show that some are not far from the kingdom.

The plague left us for a short time without any house servant, except a Christian boy, who helped with the work, but did not know how to cook, and we had to take our turns at the cooking and house work too. The cook and ayah had an only son, who attended the Mission College, and was a Christian, though not baptized. He took plague and was sent to the plague camp, where he died. Since her return from the plague camp the ayah (who has for years been a Christian, or at least interested in Christianity), has been more anxious than ever to be taught, and a class has been started for the women and children on the compound. Though this work among those immediately surrounding us has always seemed important, there seemed no time to take it up specially until this break in the regular outside work.

UJJAIN.

Miss Greir reports :—

ATTENDANCE.—If increased numbers denote prosperity, then we ought to be encouraged in regard to our School for the Blind. Last year 51 pupils were reported; this year ther are enrolled 38 boys and 26 girls. Besides these there are 3 blind women, also 3 sighted young women, who, while they do their share of the ordinary work, do all the sewing for the school, and are besides receiving instruction in order to fit them for either Teachers or Bible-women. There are also 4 widows, who grind, cook, etc. These, too, are sighted. As there is generally a good deal of sickness among these blind children, one of the widows gives most of her time to looking after the sick. During the year 9 of the children and 1 woman were called to higher service.

BAPTISMS.—Four girls were baptized and received into full Church membership, also one boy. Four others, who belong to the "Christian Mission," went to their own town, and were baptized by immersion, and received into full membership of that Church. Two of the four widows above mentioned, and one girl, having been previously baptized, were also received as full members of our Church.

EDUCATIONAL.—The educational work has been carried on along the lines of former years, but on account of the increased numbers another teacher will be necessary this year.

Two of the boys attended the Presbytery Classes, and were reported as having paid good attention.

Two girls also passed the Lower Grade Bible-woman's examination, and 3 girls and 6 boys passed the Indian Sabbath School examination on lessons for first half of last year.

INDUSTRIAL.—We have found ready sale for all the blankets the boys have been able to make, and could have sold more had they been on hand. The weaving is practically stopped at present, as, on account of plague in Ujjain, we have to be very careful as to where the unspun wool comes from, and the Widows' Home is not able to supply us with all we need of spun wool.

PLAGUE.—Early in November, as plague was increasing in the city, it was thought advisable to move the boys, their workshop, also the teachers who lived in the city, up to the Mission compound. The boys live and have their workshop in a long building, consisting of 7 grass and bamboo huts placed together, thus forming a fine long room 80 by 15 feet. The school is in connection with the girls' department, and here the boys spend 4 hours daily. It is very satisfactory having them so near and they themselves like the change. We hope they may be able to stay till the rains. At any rate they cannot return to the city as long as there is plague. As the Mission compound is nearly a mile from the city gate, and as we allow no communication with the city or people, we trust that we may be spared the sorrows experienced by the other stations, at a similar time.

We owe much to Dr. Nugent for all his kindness in attending to our sick, and for his ever ready help in all repairs of buildings, etc., indeed the entire planning and building of the boys' grass house, we owe to him.

We have received up to December 31st, 1903 :—

Miss B Goodfellow reports :—

In reporting for another year's work I can say that there have been some things to discourage and test the genuineness of our motives in service. There has also been much to encourage and very much joy in service, which far exceeds any worldly pleasure. The discouragements come when we see the work so great and so much ground untouched, and the laborers so few, and when those needed so much, both missionaries and native workers, are taken away from the work they love. Again we are discouraged when those we have taught and prayed with, and expected so much from, prove dishonest and failures. Also, when we, with earnestness and zeal for the salvation of souls, present the message and it is treated with indifference, scorn, and contempt, and the messengers of the truth are blamed for bringing sickness and death into the homes of those we would sacrifice so much to save.

We are many times disappointed, too, in going from home to home in the city, or from village to village, to find that some we have been most hopeful of have moved away to other parts, where we cannot follow; but just here some of our encouragements begin, for, while those we may have helped a little often drift away where someone else may carry on the work, those that others have taught often come to us. Often someone around us joins readily in our singing, or, picking up one of our books, commences to read, and in surprise we ask, "Where did you learn our hymns?" The reply comes, "Oh, Miss Sahiba taught me." Others have been helped by the Doctor Sahibs, and we, on that account are the more warmly received. One young man produced a Testament and tracts, which he had kept for a long time, and, though not used much, he is more ready to receive our message than those who have never heard it before. You ask some if they remember the truths taught, and thy say, "Oh, yes, we believe in Christ, and do not worship idols," and they are often not afraid to be seen sitting with us and telling others we teach the truth which saves people's souls.

Many women we have had during the famine welcome us to their homes, and, though not strong enough to take a stand alone, are much in advance of those around them in their lives and conduct, and we long for more workers to be able to teach them oftener. I met unexpectedly one day in a village a little girl from Miss Sinclair's school, whom she had allowed home on holidays. She had her Bible and Hymn-book, from which she read and sang, carrying it everywhere, lest it should get lost. Her mother, who was with us in Ujjain for a time, and her grandmother are amongst our warmest friends when we go to that village, where we have several others we know. They are always begging some of us to go there.

We are pleased to report having done work in forty villages in November and December, the most of this being new ground to me. In January and February we reached thirty-five.

We have been pleased to find so many ready to listen notwithstanding the fear of our bringing the plague, or that we were coming to inoculate them or carry off their children, and even in those villages where the doors are closed we find nearly always some in the outskirts of the village or in the field ready to listen. One man drawing water at a well said he could read, having been taught by missionaries in Calcutta, and asked for a hymn-book, which we gave, and to-day when we went back to that village for the fourth time, each time getting nearer to the people, he sat singing with us our hymns, the centre of a crowd of listeners. Before leaving they urged us to send them a teacher who could stay with them. When we visited that village for the first time we met with our worst opposition since coming out; very many have come to our tent through the day, and those most afraid of their friends, at night, saying, "We will hear no matter what they say."

I have most of the time had only our faithful Brahman widow Kashima to help me. She has been energetic enough lately to learn to read with the characters for the blind, and though reading only slowly as yet, can interest many who come to the tent, who, as she explains the truth in her earnest way, forget the curious method of reading, and become interested in the One in the message.

One thing has pleased me very much, and that is the way two servants I have with me (young men) help with the singing, and spend hour after hour reading to those at the tent, this being voluntary service. We are in this reaping something of what we have sown in our servant class and in other ways. This class has been well attended throughout the year. Mrs. Nugent has very kindly taken charge of it when I have been out in the district or away for holidays, which has been several months. She has also had the same class with others for singing practice on Saturday afternoons throughout the year. This has been of great help in the church services.

During the past year I have been conscious of mistakes and failure in accomplishing all I wished, but I know I am not alone in this. I rest with my fellow-workers in the thought, "It is required of a steward that a man be found faithful." May God take the service we have rendered overruling all good to those we seek to win for Him.

NEEMUCH.

Miss K. Campbell reports :—

The cold season of 1903 was spent with Rebecca-bai among the villages around Neemuch. Some times in a court-yard, with the buffaloes and cows, sometimes in the mud-washed tiny square before a house, oftener just in the street by a door, we told over and over again the Gospel story. Often the villagers would ask us to come to their threshing floors, and there, amid the fragrant dil and jiwari, we pointed them to the world's Redeemer. In March I resumed work in the orphanage and took over the bazaar schools. Three schools for heathen and Mohammedan girls have been kept open part of the year. All were closed for a time on account of plague, many of the girls and one calling-woman who had worked in the Misison for about 14 years died. It will take months to get the schools back to their normal condition. We lost, by death, one of our very best Christian teachers. The school is still closed, as we have not yet found anyone to take her place.

ORPHANAGE.—We began the year with 243 residents, including matron and teachers. During the year 6 were taken in, 6 were removed to the Widows' Home, 9 sent to the Boarding School, 8 were married, 2 sent to learn nursing, 1 is doing ayah's work and 3 were removed by death.

EDUCATIONAL.—Steady progress has been made under the two teachers and 9 pupil teachers.

INDUSTRIAL WORK.—During the ten months the sum of Rs. 1,121-2-3 was realized from sales and donations, not including the wheat, jiwari, corn, vegetables and fruit the children ate. The returns from the fields and garden were not as good as usual owing first to the great rainfall which destroyed the low-lying jiwari and some of the vegetables, and, second, to the plague, which interfered with the sale of fruit. The children ate all fruit that could not be sold, hence it was not wasted.

SPIRITUAL LIFE.—One little incident to illustrate. Dr. MacKellar was very ill. At the daily Bible class and evening prayers, earnest prayer was being offered for her recovery. She became so ill we hurried her off to Bombay. The first Sabbath after we left Paro happened to go into a room and found the babies and tiny tots, 30 of them, on their knees in prayer. Little Gulabi, smallest of all, was praying for Dr. MacKellar. Paro called the matron quietly to see, but no one disturbed the little meeting.

In the afternoon the same little ones met again and invited four big girls to help them with the singing. The meetings were quite their own thought. God bless the babes ! A fine spirit of love and obedience is manifest among the children.

"We love because He first loved us," is their watchword. The burden of their prayers this year has been, "the spiritual awakening of India and our preparation for God's call to labor when the awakening comes." God grant it.

Dr. Margaret MacKellar reports :—

One has not much heart to write a record of the past year's work. The question, which is uppermost in ones mind is, "Wherefore hath the Lord done thus unto this land? What meaneth the heat of this great anger?" One does not need to go far for the answer, "Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord . . . . they went and served other gods and worshipped them."

DISPENSARIES.—In our medical work, this year, the plague did more havoc than the famine four years ago. For the first time since the Camp Dispensary was opened in 1892, it had to be closed for about a month, as the bazaar was deserted. The people, who did not flee to other places to escape the plague, were ordered to the open plain, where they found shelter; the well-to-do ones in tents and the poor ones in huts made of bamboo, matting and grass, while their own houses in the bazaar were fumigated, unroofed and cleaned. Amongst the plague-refugees, I worked, while I was well enough to do so, in October, after my month's rest at the Hills. Sad, sad were the heart-rending tales one had to give a sympathetic ear to listen to. The City Dispensary was closed for about four months. Plague broke out in the latter place first, then the authorities placed a cordon around the Cantonment, so that there could not be any coming and going between the plague-stricken city and the Camp. Much as we wished to go to help the people in their time of sore distress, we dared not be a probable source of bringing the disease from the city to the Camp. Total number of new patients 3,767, and total number of treatments 11,372. There were over 300 inoculated with anti-plague serum. Of these 111 were women and children, belonging to a native regiment under the British in Neemuch Camp. The women being in pardah, could not be inoculated, except by a woman.

HOSPITAL.—As the Hospital is on our Compound, it too had to be closed for some time, during the plague epidemic in the camp bazaar. Dead rats, the harbingers of the plague, were found in some of the servants' houses, which had to be unroofed, fumigated and cleaned, the occupants in the meantime living in grass-huts on another part of the Compound. Later on plague appeared and carried off a dear little child, but we were thankful to our Heavenly Father that none of the others within our gates took it. All the Orphanage children who were in as patients in the Hospital, were moved with the nurses to the former place, where they were safe, four miles away from the affected area ; 86 patients were received into the Hospital this year. Of this number 20 were from camp, city, villages and Ujjain. Two of them, who came in as heathen went out on the Lord's side. One is in the Widows' Home in Indore, and the other, Gumnibai, the blind woman, who after her conversion went so gladly and hopefully to the School for Blind in Ujjain, to learn to read and to be fitted as a Bible-woman, is now in the presence of her Saviour. She passed away after a few weeks' illness and was faithful to her Saviour to the last.

Miss Bayly did valuable work in the Hospital all the year, even after she was transferred to another branch of Mission work she paid several visits daily to the Hospital and looked after the nurses' bedding and sewing. She conducted morning prayers during the year, and taught on Sundays those who could not go to Sunday School.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES.—The church being on our new compound, the Sabbath School classes, which used to be held in former years on our compound, all attend the Sabbath School there on Sunday mornings.

HOUSE VISITING.—One hundred and eleven patients were visited in their own homes and 491 visits paid to them. Besides these, Mrs. James was set apart to assist the cantonment authorities, who were putting forth every effort to stamp out the plague, and she visited 166 women and 35 children suffering from plague.

VILLAGE WORK.—One village was visited frequently during the early part of the year. The door to one house was opened by a visit from Dr. Chone Oliver, who went as my substitute to a critical case. One young lad in the house could read Hindi, so I gave him one of our Hindi hymn-books, and he taught several others the words of the different hymns, which I sang with them on every visit. It was encouraging to have them all join in so heartily when I sang. In the cold season we hoped to visit many villages, but there was such a widespread idea among the villagers that Europeans were the cause of the plague spreading, that it was not wise nor very safe to go amongst them. We were accused of throwing a certain medicine in the wells to contaminate the water, and whoever drank of it three days afterwards was sure to die of plague!

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The Bible-woman conducted the usual services in the Camp Dispensary until the plague broke out. The workers' class, which meets at the close of the morning work, for prayer and the memorizing of Scripture, had many interruptions this year. A service was held in the city dispensary before the dispensing began. Our Brahmin widow friend, who attended the city dispensary daily, whether she wanted medicine or not, during the past five years, was one of the victims of the plague. We fain would believe that she is "safe in the arms of Jesus," for she knew "the old, old story" well.

ASSISTANTS.—Not since the medical work started in 1892 has it been so poorly "manned" as in 1903, nor has there been so many changes in the personnel. We started the year with no qualified helper to fill Louise Paul's place. While Dr. Chone Oliver remained in Neemuch, besides studying the language, she helped in the medical work as she had opportunity. In July Dr. Eliazbeth Eltzholtz expressed a desire to join our mission. Her application was most opportune and she came to take charge of the work in September, while I went for a month to the Hills; at the same time her application for more permanent work went through Council to the Foreign Mission Council and Woman's Foreign Missionary Board, with the result that she is to be with us for a year at any rate. As the plague broke out in the camp-bazaar after I left for the Hills, the burden and anxiety of taking precautions to prevent the plague spreading amongst our people fell upon Dr. Eltsholtz. Her previous experience of plague—preventive—measures in the Punjab, stood her in good stead in Neemuch. In the end of November I was laid aside with fever, so that again she had full charge of the medical work until the end of the year, with no one except Mrs. James to help her. It was like pioneer work waiting for patients to come back and to begin again the training of workers. Plague, marriages and ill-health deprived us of 11 workers from the medical branch of the work this year. Radhabai, whose name is familiar to you, for she was in the work 7 or 8 years, died of plague in a segregation camp, on the line of railway, as she was fleeing, it is supposed, to the holy city of Benares. The camp dispensary sweeper and the water-carrier also died of plague.

VII.—HONAN.

CHANG TE STATION.

EVANGELISTIC.—During the past year the Ch'u Wang field has continued to be worked in connection with Chang te, but more and more has been felt the urgent need for another pastor at the latter place. So much work has in past years been fairly begun in the Ch'u Wang field that the whole time of at least one man should be given to that region. The necessity for this during the past year has necessitated the comparative neglect of a great field to the south and west of the central station.

During January, February and part of March, excepting the ten days spent at Hsun-hsien "fair," Mr. Goforth gave himself vigorously to a city campaign and reported hearers numerous and interest good. At Hsun-hsien the interest in the Gospel message was believed to surpass that manifested in any previous year, and in addition there was the satisfaction of carrying on a special mission among the women attending the "fair" to help in which Mrs. Goforth and Miss McIntosh made the journey from Chang-te-fu. For over two months before going to the coast Mr. Goforth devoted his time to special efforts in Tsichou and Linchang, and had the pleasure of recording in those places nearly 20 men as catechumens. Since returning from the coast he has had charge of the station work and has also carried on evening preaching in the city chapel, where the audiences have been exceedingly large.

Mr. Griffith had charge of the station work during January and February, and also during three months in midsummer. Three station classes were conducted in different places, that in Chang te being especially large, with 76 men in attendance. Communion services were conducted at our stations, and a total of 24 weeks devoted to itinerary preaching. These trips covered a wide area, though the urgency of work in the Ch'u Wang field led to spending about 16 weeks in that region alone.

Mr. Bruce has, during the year, given himself earnestly to the study of the language, and in addition has given a great many evenings to oversight of meetings in the city and in Ts'ichou.

Up to December 31st there were 123 new catechumens recorded and 52 adults baptized. At the present time the total baptized adult membership on our roll here is 262. In addition there are 182 catechumens on probation, but not yet baptized.

MEDICAL.—Medical work has been carried on steadily during the past year, with a very fair average attendance of patients. The hospital wards have been especially well patronized, and the larger number of resident patients have rendered the work more satisfactory in every respect. We have had representatives from four provinces, coming purposely for treatment, some of these travelling more than 100 miles and on foot, making this long pilgrimage as their last resort—too often, alas, to be sorely disappointed.

The number of patients for the 13 months has been 3,946, and the number of treatments 16,244, an average of 4.1 treatments for each patient, and affording an average daily attendance of 47.77 as compared with 35 of the previous year. About 25 per cent. of the patients have been women.

During the early summer six "chien" of hospital wards were erected for women patients, and alterations made in an old building, formerly occupied by the ladies as a residence, provided a bright and convenient waiting-room and chapel. In consequence of this work among the women patients, both medical and evangelistic, has been much more satisfactory, and it was hoped that, with new wards situated in a more private part of the compound, the number of women patients would largely increase, but in this we have been somewhat disappointed, for the increase has not been appreciable.

One hundred and seventy-seven operations have been performed during the year. Of this number 27 were for cataract, 59 were operations on the eye other than cataract, and 7 were for harelip. There has been little hesitancy on the part of patients submitting to operation when advised, and we not infrequently have definite requests made that we will use the knife or the needle.

In addition to our work in the hospital, a few visits have been made to the city for which conveyance was provided and a small fee of 500 cash charged. This work has given us admission to some homes among the better class of people, but we regret to report that almost without exception these visits have been apparently futile, for we are rarely invited till the patient is so sick that no hope can be held out of recovery, and it seems to be impossible to get these patients to follow out any systematic plan of treatment, and sometimes we are hardly out of their house when a native doctor (?) is called in. I have been assured that this is no mark of disrespect to a doctor, but the more doctors called to a house the better name does that house get for all the efforts made and money spent to effect a recovery.

Preaching has been carried on in the waiting-room of the dispensary and daily worship has been conducted among the in-patients. Evangelistic work among this latter class is much more satisfactory than among the dispensary patients, and not a few have shown an intelligent interest in the Gospel message and out of these ten have been recorded as catechumens, but we regret to say that unfavorable reports are heard of two of these. Three others were baptized. We may frankly acknowledge that it is somewhat disappointing to find that only one patient in every four hundred treated makes a profession of Christ, and we are at times tempted to ask, "To what purpose is this waste?" Such small result is indeed an occasion for humiliation, and a call for deeper devotion and closer attention to the spiritual side of the work. It is, however, unfair and impossible to tabulate the spiritual results, and we are assured that the seed sown will yet bear much fruit; to our certain knowledge a large centre which previously had been indifferent and even hostile to the Gospel, showed a complete change of attitude which was ascribed by our native preachers as definitely due to influence of the medical work.

We have found considerable comfort in doing away with the custom of presenting the doctor with presents, which were chiefly of uneatable eatables, and substituting a subscription book for the use of grateful patients, 41 of whom have contributed 26,800 cash ($15.00); while most of the contributions have been from the poor and are consequently for small amounts, yet in many cases they are the tokens of genuine appreciation and real thankfulness, and we hope that this is but the beginning of making this work less of a charge upon the home Church.

In closing let me express appreciation of the faithful service rendered by our senior assistant, Chang Ai Hsin, and by our two juniors. Association with these and our "aye ready to help" gatekeeper has been very pleasant. The assistants all show a commendable wish to make themselves more proficient, and the work of the year has been carried on without the least friction.

To our God and Saviour who has given us this ministry of healing be the praise and glory for any good accomplished, for any suffering relieved and for any soul saved.

WOMAN'S WORK.—We have endeavored during the past year in our work for women to "sow beside all waters," and, realizing that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, have striven by precept upon precept, line upon line, here a little and there a little, to bring before those with whom we came into contact, Christian and heathen alike. God, as the source of all life and knowledge, and Jesus Christ in whom alone is to be found salvation and deliverance from the power of sin. Work has been carried on along tne old lines with much to encourage and stimulate us to greater effort, and some new features have been introduced.

In February, for the first time in the history of the mission, a direct attempt was made to reach some of the thousands of women who frequent the Hsun-hsien "fair" from year to year. From early morning until the sun went down, first within the large room rented for the purpose, and later when the crowds grew too numerous in the open court-yard, we preached unto them Jesus and Him crucified. To some it seemed as an idle tale, while to others it was something new and different from anything they had ever heard before, but there were a few who heard the word gladly, and these returned again and again, saying: "Tell me once more about Jesus" or "How should we pray to Him?" May the good seed sown during those days spring up and bear fruit unto eternal life!

Particular mention, too, should be made of the great improvement in the service of praise at public worship on the Lord's Day; a part of each Saturday has been devoted to teaching and training the school boys to sing correctly. It has been no light or easy task, but we feel sure that those who so willingly gave themselves to this task have been well repaid for their toil by the heartiness with which the boys availed themselves of the opportunity afforded, and by the result which is apparent to all.

Station classes have been conducted in different parts of the field, as during last year. It was a noticeable fact in connection with the classes at Ta Kwan Chuang that almost all of those attending were old or middle-aged women. The matter was brought before the minds of the women, and it was agreed that we make it a special subject for prayer, asking that more of the younger women might become interested enough to care to come and study. While our last class was in session there this fall one of the most eager to learn was a young woman, daughter-in-law of one of the leading church members, and she made such rapid progress that, having finished the catechism, she has begun Matthew's Gospel. In some of the villages, such as Tou-Kung, Shih-Chien and Ma-Ts'un, where the work is, so to speak, in its infancy, the greater portion of the time was devoted to receiving and talking to heathen women.

Referring to the second visit to Tsi-Chou, made in March, Mrs. Goforth says :—"During the 35 days of our stay I had little to encourage me in the woman's work. Almost incessant rain and the vile stories circulated against us prevented many women from coming. Those who did come listened well. Towards the close of our visit there were indications that we were winning in some degree the confidence of the people. More women began to come, and one most encouraging visit had been made to a home near by. It is a source of regret that another visit could not have been made this fall, but home duties prevented."

Station work, including morning worship and evening class for those women who were otherwise employed during the day, the reception of visitors, as well as the daily speaking to and teaching of out and in-patients, has been carried on by whichever lady happened to be at home at the time. That the work among the patients has not been wholly fruitless, we have but to glance at the bright cheery face of Mrs. He, a resident of the city. Mrs. He, who was as an out-patient undergoing treatment, seemed to respond almost from the first to the Gospel message. She soon gave up her opium habit and began to study for herself. Her interest deepened into conviction, and now she is a regular attendant at the Sabbath services. Through Mrs. He's changed life at home her husband has become interested. He, too, has given up opium-smoking, and now he is to be found amongst the worshippers on the Lord's Day and not infrequently attends the preaching services at the city chapel. The Sabbath services have been well attended, particularly by the city women, throughout the year. A class of girls, formerly taught by Miss Pyke, has been handed over to Mrs. Griffith; the attendance is small, however. In July, when it was impossible to go out to the country, an opportunity was given to the city women to come out twice a week to study, but as the weather was so hot only three came, and then only for a few days. Station classes were held as follows :—

WEIHUI STATION.

STAFF.—Dr. W. McClure and Mrs. McClure (2½ months), Rev. W. H. Grant and Mrs. Grant, Dr. W. Malcolm and Mrs. Malcolm (4½ months), Rev. J. Menzies, M.D., and Mrs. Menzies, Rev. G. M. Ross (2½ months), Rev. H. M. Clark (2½ months), Miss M. E. Robertson (1 month), Miss I. McIntosh (1 month).

STATION.—Evangelistic work has proceeded without interruption throughout the year, daily morning prayers and the weekly prayer meeting, together with the Sabbath services being all fairly well attended. Considerable street preaching was done in the city in addition to that which was done daily in the chapel in the west suburb. A station class for the instruction of converts was taught by the missionaries for ten days in February, and was attended by 22 men and boys; another class was instructed for three weeks in July in the Shorter Catechism.

FIELD WORK.—The country belonging to the Weihui prefecture extends about 80 miles from east to west and 40 miles from north to south. Such an extent of country cannot be properly attended to by a single missionary, but the missionary, with the assistance of two helpers and a temporary assistant, has sought as far as possible to reach every part of the field with the Gospel. Many towns and villages in the neighborhood of Weihui City have been visited. All the nine district cities comprised within the prefecture have been visited, some of them several times. Eighteen of the larger "fairs" hav been attended, including those at Hsun-hsien and Hui-hsien, these latter two each lasting for more than 10 days. Over 30,000 cash worth of Gospels and tracts have been sold. We gratefully acknowledge the kindness of the engineers in charge of the construction of the Peking Syndicate Railway, who generously presented us with passes over the line. This has greatly facilitated our work in those places near the railway, enabling us to reach distant points with a hitherto unknown speed.

CHURCH ADDITIONS.—While these, we believe, scarcely represent the work which has been done, yet they mark a steady and sure advance. During the year six persons have been united with the Church by baptism, the names of 16 persons have been recorded as catechumens. One feature of interest in the work at Weihui is the movement among the soldiers, who are stationed here, toward faith in Christ. This, humanely speaking, is doubtless due to the courageous and faithful witness-bearing of one of their number, P'an T'ing Tei, who has believed for more than a year and was baptized in December.

STAFF ADDITIONS.—Early in October the number of missionaries was augmented by the arrival of Dr. McClure and family returned from furlough, and of Messrs. Ross and Clark coming to China for the first time. Dr. McClure was appointed permanently to take charge of the medical work at this station, while the two latter gentlemen were located temporarily here while studying the language. Misses Robertson and McIntosh joined us in November.

WITHDRAWAL.—In April Dr. Malcolm, owing to the illness of his infant son, went with his family to Pei-tai-hoa, a summer resort on the sea-coast, where he remained till September without any improvement in his son's health. So in October he resigned from our mission and returned to Canada.

HEALTH.—The members of the mission staff at this station, with the exception of Dr. Malcolm's family, have, notwithstanding the prevalence of much disease around them, been blessed with uniformly good health during the year.

HARVEST.—Most parts of the Weihui field were this year blessed with abundant harvests. The wheat harvest in June was excellent, and the later harvests in September were also abundant. This was due largely to the frequent rains which fell throughout the summer; these were so well distributed that there was really no season which could, as is usual, be called "the rainy season," but the rains fell gently and with great frequency, so that the ground was always moist and every growing crop flourished. This interfered with several trips which were planned, but had to be abandoned on account of bad roads. But we are thankful to God for this year of plenty after so many years of want, and the people are happy and contented, though, alas, they do not recognize Him who is the True Source of their blessings.

OFFICIAL RELATIONS.—The relations between the officials and the missionaries during the year have been so cordial that it would have been unreasonable to have desired that they be more so. The "hsien" mandarin, "Yen Shih Jen," has been particularly friendly and attentive to us, and we greatly regretted when he was removed from office and replaced by another.

RAILWAYS.—During the year there has been great activity in the surveying of routes and construction of railways in this field. The Peking Syndicate (British) have laid 80 miles of track, over which trains now run daily, and are extending their line still further. The surveys for the line of the Lu-Han Railway (Belgian) have also been completed, and the work of construction is being pushed on rapidly as possible, both from the north and from the south, so that we expect at no distant date to be in direct railway communication with both Peking and Hankow.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Work among women was begun at Weihui in April, 1902, by Mrs. Mitchell and continued until she left on furlough in September of the same year. For two months the work was carried on by the native Christian, Mrs. Li Ming, until November, when Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Malcolm and Mrs. Menzies arrived. The few women who had shown some interest before came to welcome us, and have continued faithful in attending services, and showing an interest in the Gospel.

Mrs. Grant made a visit to Christians in the out-stations with her husband in November. During the winter the rented compound in the city was so crowded that no women's station class could be held. Morning worship was conducted daily for the women in the compound and the few Christians who lived near-by. A Bible class was held each Sunday afternoon, and paper sheets with hymn or prayer printed on them were given to those who would take them. All visitors were welcomed and invited to return.

In April Mrs. Malcolm left for the coast, and, owing to sickness in the family, has not been permitted to return.

In May we moved out to our new compound, and new visitors came from the neighboring villages. Visits were made with Mrs. Li Ming to many of these villages, and a hearty invitation given to all to come and see us. Usually we were very cordially received into some home, and the neighbors crowded in to see and hear.

In October Mrs. McClure joined us, and in November Misses McIntosh and Robertson.

Besides the Sunday afternoon Bible class for women, we have at present a Sunday School for the little folks, average attendance seven, ages from seven to 11. The Bible class during the summer months averaged 25, and during the colder weather 12.

Since medical work has opened in the fall there have always been a few women patients in the wards; these have been visited and taught each day and some have shown great interest in the truth. Besides the regular work at the station, two classes for study were held during the year, one in July, the average attendance being five women and three girls, and another in December, the average attendance being seven women and seven children. At the close of this class one woman was accepted for baptism and two women and one girl were recorded.

From May until November two visits a week, weather permitting, were made to the "hsien" yamen to teach the official's daughters English; at the same time ample opportunity was given for teaching the way of salvation. These visits were stopped by the official being removed from Weihui.

Since the station class in December a mid-week prayer meeting has been conducted for the women each Wednesday afternoon.

In July and August two afternoons a week were devoted to teaching some women and girls to read the Chinese character. Now, there is the beginning of a future girls' school in a class held every afternoon, when the girls study Chinese characters and are taught how to write figures. This has proved very encouraging, there being sometimes as many as six girls present.

For whatever has been accomplished this year we give thanks to God, knowing that it is only through the power of the Spirit that good results can be obtained. With increased numbers in our staff we look forward with even greater hope to the work of the future.

HWAICH'ING STATION.

Work has been carried on throughout the whole year, with the exception of two months in the early summer, when, owing to the disturbed state of the country and frequent rioting, it was felt inadvisable to attempt much in the way of direct evangelistic work.

Wang Feng Ao, who is a proved and valued helper, was taken so seriously ill in July that he had to proceed to Weihui in order to receive medical treatment, where he still remains.

On account of lack of accommodation and also difficulty of one missionary finding time to conduct a station class along with all the other work of the station, no station class was held. Work on the whole has been very encouraging and full of promise.

During the year two members were added to the Church, one by certificate and one by baptism, and one catechumen was enrolled.

VIII.—MACAO.

More than a year has passed since my last report was written, but it has flown so swiftly that it seems only yesterday when we first landed in Macao.

As last year, so now, I have to report that the most of my time during the year has been spent in language study. Only one who has learned Cantonese, with its nine regular and two or three secondary tones, can appreciate fully the amount of patient plodding which is necessary to acquire a fair working acquaintance with its vocabulary. One who begins the task with the expectation of being able to master it in a month or a year or even two years, is sure to be disappointed. We have already the pleasure of being able to converse, though in a rather halting way, with those around us. To be able to use the language fluently is, however, quite another thing. But the acquiring of even a thorough knowledge of pure Cantonese does not end the matter, for, though Cantonese is the basis of the language of most of the people of this province as well as the neighboring Province of Kwong Sai, yet there is an almost endless variety of dialects actually used, some of which differ so widely from that of Canton as to be scarcely understood by one speaking pure Cantonese or one of the other dialects. In the region where we hope to work there are at least two or three of these different dialects spoken, to say nothing of Hakka, which is entirely different from Cantonese. Sometimes neighboring villages even have distinct dialects. The one encouraging feature is that the written language is the same for all, but anyone can readily see that to prepare for effective work among such a heterogeneous population must require long and strenuous application to a study of their language.

In my last report I stated that we had opened work in Ping Lam, a village of between 8,000 and 10,000, situated about 18 miles from Macao. Ching Kwan Tsing, our native preacher, has worked faithfully there during the year. Owing to the fact that he is a native of the village and one of its oldest men, the people respect him very highly, and are always willing to listen to his message. Through his influence we have been able to rent an ancestral temple, which we use as chapel and school, and also as a home for the pastor. In company with Dr. Liu, a native preacher, I have visted Ping Lam several times, one occasion staying over a week there, during which we visited the many villages which dot the country all around, and on the market days we distributed Gospels and other Christian literature, and Dr. Liu preached daily to large crowds who were, on the whole, very friendly. In nearly every village we met some who had been abroad, either in Australia or in America, and who generally accosted us in broken English. Their presence all through this region does much to disarm the suspicion of the foreigner so natural to the Chinese. The work in Ping Lam is already showing signs of fruitage. Two young men have become believers in Christianity and are awaiting baptism, and many others are deeply interested and seriously considering the Gospel message. In addition to the chapel, we have also a Christian school in Ping Lam, which is open throughout the whole year. Mr. Yin Ping, the teacher, has been many years in Australia, and thinks himself competent to teach English as well as Chinese. He began the school with about 20 boys and girls. He teaches them to sing hymns and explains the Bible doctrines, together with the ordinary studies of a Chinese school.

We had hoped before this time to have begun work in Shek Ki, or Heung Shan City, the capital of the district, and a large and important centre, with from 100,000 to 200,000 inhabitants. In this city and the surrounding villages are many men who have been in Australia, and who, while there, have become members of the Presbyterian Church. As the Australian Presbyterian Church has no mission in China, these people wish our Church to open a chapel in their city. The sum of $3,000 (Mexican) has already been subscribed by themselves and their friends in Australia, and the balance required to erect or purchase a suitable building ($2,000 Mexican or $800 gold), we are happy to say, has been promised by Knox Church, Toronto, on certain conditions, which we hope will soon be fulfilled. When I first wrote to the Committee a very convenient and well-situated house was in view, but it has since been sold, and friends in that city have all summer been endeavoring to secure another, or a site on which to build, but until lately it seemed almost impossible to find one, as land is very scarce and the people more or less suspicious of foreigners. Now, however, we know of a property which we hope before long to secure. We have already obtained a native pastor, a young man who for several years had charge of a Chinese church in Australia, who will begin work as soon as the building is ready.

We have not, as yet, undertaken any independent work in Macao. What little we could do, in intervals of study, we have done in connection with the native church already here, whose pastor, Dr. Liu, is a noble young man, who has been of much assistance to me in my work. We have engaged a colporteur to sell Bibles and tracts in Macao and surrounding towns and villages, going every month as far as Ping Lam. His work does much to open the way to the preaching of the Gospel. We have also rented in Macao, in the Chinese section of the city, a house which is used during the week as a reading room and library and for the holding of prayer meetings, and on Sundays for preaching services.

During about half of the past year I have assisted in the "Christian College," temporarily situated here, by teaching the Bible and Universal History for an hour a day. Apart from the benefit my teaching may have been to the students (many of whom come from villages within the bounds of our mission), I feel that the time spent in contact with these thoughtful Chinese boys has been as profitable to myself as any other kind of preparation which I could possibly have made for my work among the people here. The remuneration received for my services ($200 Mex.) I have used to help defray the expenses incurred in supporting our native workers.

During the year Mrs. McKay devoted the greater part of her time to the study of the language, making very good progress in acquiring it. When only four months in Macao she took charge of a class of girls in the Sunday School, teaching them in Chinese throughout the year. She also, together with two other ladies belonging to the Christian College, opened an English school for girls, each teaching an hour daily, and employing a Chinese teacher for the remainder of the day. She has also the oversight of a school for young Chinese boys and girls, which is taught by Mrs. Liu, wife of the native pastor. The scholars number between 20 and 25, and they are well drilled in Scripture truth, and would put to shame many of the boys and girls in the home land in their readiness in answering questions on the Bible and on other subjects as well. Mrs. McKay also employs a Bible-woman, who, in addition to visiting the homes in Macao, teaches a class in Sunday School ,and holds a weekly meeting for women.

In my previous report I expressed the wish that we might soon be joined by reinforcements from home, as the responsibility of opening a new mission is necessarily very great. So far we have looked in vain for the arrival of fellow-laborers, but recently we have been cheered by the news that two young ladies had offered for service in this field and would likely be appointed and sent out here immediately. For this expected addition to our staff we are profoundly grateful, and feel like congratulating the ladies of the Montreal W.M.S., whose representatives they will be, on their connection with this interesting and hopeful field. But, though encouraged by this prospect of addition to our numbers, we are not yet satisfied. We earnestly hope that at least one male missionary will soon be appointed to share with me the pioneer work, on which depends so much the future success of the mission. We are aware that calls from other and older missions of our Church are loud and urgent, and we will try to be patient, but we feel that it will be greatly to the interest of the mission to have an additional man here with whom to consult. So many questions and problems daily arise in connection with the opening of our work, which require immediate solution, that it seems almost imperative that the responsibility of deciding should be shared by another who is in a position to consider the matters in all their bearings, and this can only be done by one actually on the field.

Our report is only one of beginnings. Our work at first must necessarily be slow and often very disappointing. But we believe that, though this is the day of small things, there is a great and glorious future in store for this mission, and it is with the hope and prayer that the Home Church may take a deep and ever-increasing interest in this, its youngest and smallest mission, that this report is now submitted.

W. R. McKAY.

IX.—CHINESE IN CANADA.

CHINESE IN ONTARIO AND QUEBEC.

Dr. Thomson reports:—

The calendar of Chinese events opens early by attendance upon the New Year Presbyterian Sunday School rally in Erskine Church, which, with all the great crowd, the large organ and the songs of praise in English, French. Italian and Chinese mingling, led a little Chinese lady to remark, it is "like Heaven."

Of other meetings the next was at Chalmers' Church, pleasant, profitable, and largely attended in honor of Chinese New Year. The excellent progress of the scholars in reading, recitation and song was remarked. The other Christmas gathering was equally successful, at Stanley Street Church. Besides the monthly teachers' meetings, and the annual, are occasional local gatherings amongst Chinese and friends. This year was celebrated the first anniversary of the sending out of our missionaries to Macao, in St. Paul's Church, Dr. Barclay presiding over a well attended and interesting meeting.

An auspicious event was the arrival, July 22nd, of the cultured Christian wife, and sturdy boy, "Tsung Kwong" (Light Follower) of the assistant Chin Nom Seng (South Star), in view of their helpfulness to the work in various ways. The wife and boy of another earnest Christian followed, increasing the Chinese colony to eight women, and an even dozen of bright children, full of promise under Christian influences for future good.

EVANGELISTIC.—That so many faithful missionary teachers are instructing so many earnest, receptive young men, withal so receptive and grateful, and representatives of millions more, is cause for congratulation not only, but of much moment respecting the future. One teacher regrets relinquishing her labor of love to go off summering. At another point one impressing the love of Jesus as the Saviour of the world caused the request, "I wish some woman would go to China to tell my mother that; she never know it unless some woman go." She offered herself for China! Such desire is not rare on the part of teacher and scholar.

But of teachers, the cry is not only for those of the right sort, but "more, more," all across the country. "If you cannot cross the ocean you can find them at your door." Seed-sowing here and reaping there, but both may alike rejoice over privilege and responsibility. Many come and go, but for the most part carry away seeds of truth. The 17 Sunday Schools are full; the Endeavor Society awake and interesting, attracting attention without.

We would it were as with the German pastor, who declared that all his members were "missionaries." An up-to-date feature, specially in Montreal, should not fail of commendation in the union character of this work, teachers of various denominations co-operating so happily, and avoiding separate organization.

A pleasant picture recently, was some thirty, amongst them several women and children, occupying four seats in Knox Church, the centre of Montreal Chinese activities, at the celebration of the Lord's Supper, renewing their vows of fealty to their Divine Master.

THE SABBATH SCHOOLS, seventeen in number, varying in attendance from about one hundred to a dozen, are most of them continuous throughout the year, several combining during the summer holiday-months; and are found in the American, Calvin, Chalmers', Crescent Street, Erskine, Knox, Maisonneuve, Melville, Nazareth, St. Andrew's, St. Giles, St. Mark's, St. Matthew's, St. Paul's, Stanley Street, and Taylor Churches. These, with the week-night schools in St. Paul's on Monday, and at the Mission the other evenings, and the Christian Endeavor Society and Chinese Service, constitute the features of the Montreal Chinese Mission.

The especial work of Assistant Chin Seng, now reinforced by his capable wife, is in connection with various Sabbath meetings, at week-night schools, Chinese correspondence, and in visitation, as also acceptably at a number of other points.

In a LITERARY way, the distribution of Gospel and tract literature far and wide, has been a helpful adjunct. Gladly accepted, we recall one returning to China quite ill asking for more, specially a Bible Catechism, who died before reaching his destination. The only refusal was by one on the same train, saying: "No, my religion different." He came under the Roman Catholic influence. Song literature has been also very acceptable. They are fond of music. It becomes one of the happiest agencies in Chinese work. Montreal reading-room literature has been well used, and the desire is for extension of such opportunity.

In SCHOOL WORK, not only is there good attendance, but progress is, as ever, encouraging. Some ten are in public schools, a few are taught privately, with an average of eighteen at the Mission week-night school, which is under the faithful conduct of Miss Helen Tweedie. The attendance is only limited by lack of teaching force. Some have desired to pursue advanced studies, several looking towards Christian work. The intellectual ability of the Chinese justifies all that can be done for them in this direction.

MONEY MATTERS.—The collections from the Chinese classes amounted to $687.63, for the Macao Mission, while a sum equal to nearly two-thirds of this amount was raised for the current expenses of the Montreal Chinese Mission specially. The various calls upon the Chinese themselves during a year amount to considerable, with a special outlay in the past year of $1,200 for a cemetery lot. The half hour of fire-crackers in honor of the Chinese New Year cost one hundred dollars.

MISSION ACTIVITIES.—Besides the regular Sabbath work of Sunday Schools, Christian Endeavor Society, Chinese Service, and week-night schools, are many Mission and other meetings of various kinds, and of several denominations, because of the union character of this work, calls for articles, literature, maps and curios.

CHINESE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Mrs. Ewing writes :—

During the period ending with this report the work in the various centres has gone on steadily, winter time, being the busy season in our stations. The attendance to the schools on the coast, has been abnormally large, owing doubtless, to the great influx of immigrants during the latter months of 1903. Both in Victoria and Vancouver the accommodation has been taxed to over flowing, but with the passing of the new capitation tax this will, doubtless, be only a passing phase.

DEVELOPMENTS.

Some interesting developments have occurred in our work, notably (1) the starting of a Christian Boys' Boarding Home in Victoria. This, so far, has been a success, some 25 boys now living together, and except for $30 per year, which, I find, the Home is self-supporting.

(2) Acting on the instructions of the Committee, I engaged a new Evangelist for a probationary period of six months. This man, Chu Kin Pai, is now in Victoria studying, and also helping in the work. He has many qualifications for a successful Missionary, and I trust that after his temporary period he may be able to labor permanently for us.

(3) What is more of a change than a development has been the removal of the Mission in Vancouver into other premises. While not by any means suitable, yet we consider it a fortunate thing that premises were to be had at all. Ere long it will not be possible to get any premises to rent whatever, when we need them, and as we only have the lease of the new hall for one year, the outlook is serious. Westminster Presbytery is impressed with the dangers which threaten the Mission, and have doubtless ere this communicated with the Committee. Should buildings be erected in Vancouver, it is quite unnecessary to have anything ecclesiastical in their structure, so that ultimately they could be used for other purposes if need be.

VICTORIA.

During the early part of the winter our great difficulty was to cope with the large attendance at our night schools, as many as 120 being present some times. By a system of tickets we managed to bring things into order, so that our average attendance has been 80 per night. In all, 353 pupils passed through our hands. Thus the word of life has been spread abroad.

Mr. Ma Seung has been indefatigable in his efforts, and his influence is good. About mindwinter he had to go into the Hospital for a slight operation, but he is now well and strong again.

Miss Gunn continues her invaluable services in the evening school, as well as visits amongst the women. All the other organizations have been kept in full swing, and our prayer meetings, open-air evangelistic Bible class, as well as our Sabbath services morning and evening, have been well attended.

I need only refer to the Boarding Home for Christian Boys, which I have dealt with more fully above.

VANCOUVER.

As already mentioned, it became necessary to change our abode here, and obtain new premises for the Mission School.

Mr. Ng-Mon-Hing has been faithful in his work here, and has gained the esteem of both Chinese and Europeans.

With the beginning of the year Mr. Colman proceeded East at the request of the Committee to engage in work in Toronto. We are glad to welcome him back again, though he arrived 24 hours too late to welcome a new member of his family. During 1903 Mr. Colman did a lot of itinerating work, and the following extract from his report will give an idea of it. He says:—

"I started out and vsited the Chinese, preaching to them, talking with them, distributing tracts, as I had opportunity in eighteen different towns (here follow names). I visited them in their stores and lodging houses, in shingle mills and saw-mills, on ranches and railroad, meeting with fairly good treatment everywhere, and generally the Chinese listened attentively to my message.

"In all there were about 1,700 Chinese in the places I visited."

Thus, there is a real need for this kind of work, and while tangible results may be few, yet who can measure up the spiritual results of a widespread proclamation of the Gospel message. As ye go, preach.

CUMBERLAND.

Mr. Hall reports fairly encouraging attendance at the various services. Accidents have been numerous amongst the miners, and many opportunities have been afforded of doing them kindness. Rival schools, started by the Chinese themselves, have attracted some of the scholars, even Seventh Day Adventists are eager for converts. Notwithstanding these, however, the work has gone steadily on. For some weeks Mr. Hall was laid up with la grippe, but is better now. Mrs. Hall has been a faithful and efficient helper to her husband in the work.

NELSON.

Owing to the landlord demanding an increase of rental, it was found necessary to rent other premises, which Mr. Laing did, to the satisfaction of the pupils, at the same rental. The attendance has kept up, averaging from 15 to 25.

Owing to lack of Cantonese speaker and other things, spiritual results have been few. The day may yet come for these.

CALGARY.

Mr. Porterfield writes encouragingly of the work there, though a very great loss was sustained by the removal, through death, of our brightest and most promising boy. He was buried amid tokens of regret from all classes of the community. Mr. P. says:—

"The funeral was a very large one, as he was a highly-respected citizen. The pall-bearers were three teachers of the Mission School and three Christian boys. There was no Chinese worship, being purely a Christian ceremony, and because of this the Chinese have won a high respect from the citizens. We miss him (Loey Hoey) much, as he was our chief support in dealing with the affairs of the mission.

Other denominations are showing their appreciation of the work by contributing teachers to help in the evening classes.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Ladysmith and Duncans are progressing very slowly, too slowly to be able to give any report yet.

In spite of the indifference as to our work in many quarters, and the anti-Semitic feeling in others, we have much to encourage us.

The Presbytery's Committee give much thought to the affairs of the Mission, and from them, individually and collectively, we get not a little sympathy and help.

X.—INDIANS IN CANADA.

MISTAWASIS.

This Mission lies about fifty miles south-west of Prince Albert, and has grown into all the characteristics of an ordinary congregation. The Missionary, Rev. W. S. Moore, writes:—"Sabbath services have been held every Sabbath during the year at Mistawasis, and monthly services at Nebo, Dreaver's, and Hurds, the last being a place at the south-east corner of the Reserve, about eight miles from the Mission, where a few of our people have homesteaded. The attendance at all these places has been satisfactory, and when at certain seasons few seemed to be living on the Reserve, the attendance has been such that outsiders have in wonder asked where all the people came from.

There are enrolled 43 families and 75 communicants. One was added and two removed by death. There were 9 baptisms, and the Sabbath School has an enrollment of 45, with an average of 24. The congregation contributed $137.55, and the W.F.M.S. $40.

The Day School is successful—all the children of school age on the Reserve being in regular attendance, besides a few outsiders. None of the treaty children on the Reserve have gone to other Boarding or Industrial Schools, but a few of the non-treaty outsiders have gone to the File Hills Boarding School. There are 27 names on the roll, with an average attendance of 18. During the winter 10 children were in the Boarding Department, but in the summer not more than five, and that only a few days at a time. This department is kept open only to enable children who live at a distance to attend school in the winter."

FILE HILLS.

The last year has been one of the most encouraging in the history of the Mission. Miss Kate Gillespie, the Principal, Miss Janet Gillespie, the Matron, and Mr. Gordon, the teacher, have co-operated to such good purpose as to not only increase the attendance in the school, but to touch effectually the industrial and religious life of the Reserve.

Miss Gillespie writes :—"Services in Cree have been held every Sabbath on the Reserve at two points in tents, and at two other points, namely, the school house and Fred Dieter's, in English. Three were baptized, and three added to the Communion roll, making seven in all.

Mr. Graham, the Agent, has reached a system of government that better meets the problem of what is to be done with the young people when they leave the school, than any that has been tried. It consists in surveying sections on the Reserve, which are assigned to young men willing ot work them. The longest date of settlement in the colony so far by any of the young men or expupils is three years. The first year was devoted to preparing the soil. Two of the boys belonging to our Church, who harvested their second crop last year, had 1,100 and 1,400 bushels of wheat respectively, and 1,100 and 989 bushels of oats. Each has one hundred acres under cultivation for next spring. Both have comfortable houses and granaries. One of the boys was married last spring, and enjoys the comforts of as cozy a little home as most white men enjoy who are beginning life as these are.

Mr. Graham, the Agent, directs the situation so firmly and wisely, that drinking is not known, nor are heathen dances and festivities so distracting to the Indians allowed. This meant considerable opposition and criticism from quarters where it should not have been expected, but courage and patience have succeeded in producing most satisfactory results. Another of our boys will next spring seed 45 acres. The harvest fields belonging to the Indians last year were a delightful sight, and looked as if the end in view were in sight.

The school building, which is of stone, was very much out of repair, and a considerable amount of money was expended upon it last year, not only in repairing the roof, walls, verandah, etc., but a considerable addition was added, providing kitchen and hospital on the ground floor, and boys' dormitory above.

The prospects upon the Reserve are brighter year by year. The Indians are beginning to look upon the school as their own, and take pleasure in every improvement they witness about the place. Chief Starblanket, who has hitherto been an enemy, has now become an avowed friend, and has sent his little boy to us. Other boys have also been received from homes where there has hitherto been unfriendliness.

During the past year a quarter section of land has been secured from the Government for the use of the school. Mr. Gordon, the teacher, proves successful both in the school room and on the farm. He has that general adaptibility that fits him specially for the position he holds, as well as being deeply interested in the spiritual welfare of the children and the older people. He superintends the Sabbath School, and conducts afternoon services in English during the summer and fall in the colony, and during the winter in the school.

One of the pupils, Maggie Pratt, illustrates favorably the teaching of Rev. Mr. Moore, of Mistawasis Reserve, from which congregation she comes. Her clear knowledge of the way of life makes her a valuable interpreter, and she is characterized by steadfastness and intelligence, although but seventeen years of age."

MOOSE MOUNTAIN.

Mr. Dodds writes :—"On this large Reserve of 31,360 acres the Crees, Saulteaux and Assiniboines live peaceably together. There are 200 in all, of whom 175 reside permanently.

The Indians have built about eleven miles of fencing, intending to inclose the whole Reserve, which will be completed, it is expected, this year. About 500 acres are inclosed in one field, 300 of which are under cultivation. Each one chooses his own plot of ground, has his own vegetable garden, and his own herd of cattle, as well as the cheaper farming implements, such as waggons, sleighs, ploughs, etc., the more expensive, such as binders, seed drills, threshing machines being common property. The work is largely done by oxen, but in some cases horses are used. Cows are not milked, but are sometimes used for work as oxen. During the winter, attendance on stock, cutting and selling wood, and during the early part of the year trapping fur-bearing animals, such as muskrat, mink, badger, lynx, etc., are their chief employments. Many of the women, besides attending to their own household duties, dress hides and skins for themselves and other people, whilst some give service amongst the settlers. Log houses and stables are usually comfortable, many of them being furnished with stoves, beds, tables and chairs. In summer they always resort to tent life, which is more healthful, but with the one disadvantage, that it fosters roving instincts. There are some who cling tenaciously to former habits, and because of it are in extreme poverty, with its attendant evils.

Health on the Reserve has been, on the whole, good, although the death rate amongst the children has been high.

There were twenty-one names on the day school roll, the average attendance being 9 1-2. There are on the whole Reserve twenty-four children of school age.

Progress in writing has been good. but the spelling, reading and arithmetic have not been satisfactory. The girls are instructed in knitting and sewing, and religious instruction has been regularly given.

A few years ago the Missionary had to go from house to house, and his reception frequently was less than courteous. Now the attendance at Church services is from thirty to forty, and they come to the Missionary with all problems and difficulties. He has to soothe and allay sorrow and suffering, to arbitrate in disputes, to counsel with patience, and to correct without giving offence ; to lend, hoping for nothing in return ; to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, and to break unto them the Bread of Life. He must be interested in whatever interests them; to be their helper in every time of need.

They are simply emerging from dense darkness inuto the light of the Twentieth Century.

ROUND LAKE.

Mr. McKay writes:—"There are four Bands of Indians settled over this large Reserve, extending from the east end of Round Lake to the west end of Crooked Lakes and south to the C.P.R. They number about six hundred souls. About one-half of them are now settled in permanent dwelling places, and make a living by cultivating the soil, caring for cattle, fishing, selling hay or wood, gathering senega root in summer, tanning hides, sawing wood or other employment available. About 24 died during the year, and there were about an equal number of births.

The eastern Reserves are Crees, and the western a mixture of Crees and Salteaux.

Strong drink is doing deadly work amongst them, the proceeds of the sales of wood, hay, etc., being expended upon intoxicating drinks instead of the necessaries of life.

The Indians of Sheshep's Band are becoming more friendly. A few attend meetings, and would be willing to have a school if one were established. There are about 20 children of school age.

On the Goose Lake Reserve there are 7 members in full communion. The leading man, Akoos, was baptized, married according to the law of the country, and partook of communion in November last. When the present is compared with the past, progress is manifest.

A few years ago Mrs. Jeffrey, of Toronto, visited with me the Kewistahaw Reserve, and found one tent with three men sitting outside playing cards. There is now a church where that tent stood, and about 70 were present at the last communion, most of whom were well dressed. The congregation gathers from all parts of the Reserve, driving from six to sixteen miles. The singing was good, and thirty partook of the Lord's Supper. The Master was consciously present.

The school building has been improved by the introduction of a new furnace, a windmill which pumps water into the building, and makes hot and cold water a much appreciated comfort in connection with the kitchen.

The staff remains as during the past year. The pupils number thirty on the roll, and the average attendance is twenty-five. The highest class in the school has completed the program of studies prescribed for Indian schools, and has taken up advanced studies, as Algebra, Geometry, and Literature.

The boys are taught farming, caring for cattle, dairy work, carpenter work, and managing an engine during the threshing season. The girls receive instruction in all kinds of housework, such as cooking, baking, and laundry, besides fancy sewing, knitting, dressmaking, etc. Instruction has been given in music, both vocal and instrumental, for which some of the children have shown marked ability. Needless to say that constant effort is being made to impart religious instruction, both by morning and evening devotions in the school room, as well as on the Lord's Day. All advantages have been enjoyed by the pupils during the last year that they could have received in an Industrial School.

CROWSTAND.

Mr. McWhinney, who took charge of this school in April, 1903, speaks with kindly appreciation of the work of his precedessor, Rev. Neil Gilmor. The conditions of the school and the Reserve afford as much encouragement as could reasonably be expected amongst the Indians with their past history.

With a few exceptions, they feel work now to be their duty, and are making an honest effort to provide for themselves. Some of the younger men have worked for the entire year in railway camps, giving satisfaction. Now that the railroad has come, opening a market, it has stimulated farming upon the Reserve. The women as well as the men are becoming industrious, and their homes are becoming really homelike.

Church services have been held throughout the year, and the attendance has been very satisfactory. Mid-week services, as well as magic lantern views from "Pilgrim's Progress," have been appreciated. Two Communion services were held, at which 10 new members were admitted on confession of their faith, making the total membership of 48. One man of 40 years of age stated that he had tried to find satisfaction in Pagan customs, but was now convicned that they were worthless. He no longer lived in them, but trusted in Christ as the only one who could save and satisfy.

One adult and twelve children were baptized during the year. Pagan customs have practically disappeared, and Pagan dances, which have been causing trouble upon other Reserves, were banished by the Agent, with the cordial approval of the Chief.

Monthly collections have been taken in aid of Foreign Mission Funds ,and $18.25 were contributed to the Fund.

The school has been encouraging. There are 45 children present. The problem is not so much to give information, either intellectual or industrial, as to build up a healthy moral tone, and develop the power of self-control that will enable them to stand amid temptation.

The chief drawback in school work is not lack of ability, but lack of ambition to excel. The larger pupils spend part of each day in the school room and part in industrial work. The girls are given a thorough training in all departments of housework, such as cooking, baking, buttermaking, sewing, washing, etc.

The farm work is steadily expanding. Last year 40 acres were under crop and garden. Oats yielded 80 bushels to the acre, and wheat 25 bushels, whilst roots and vegetables were equally good. Twenty acres more are broken for crop during the present year. There are 10 cows and 9 other cattle, 4 horses, besides a number of pigs and poultry. Improvements in drainage and root cellar were made during the year, which have added much to the convenience and sanitary conditions of the school.

Religious instruction is imparted to the children every morning and evening, besides regular Sabbath School and Sunday services. The children meet on Saturday evening for the study of the Sabbath School lesson.

BIRD TRAIL.

There are upon this Reserve about 20 families, making in all about 70 people, including children who are at school. There are at present 13 children who are under school age. Upon this Reserve they have got beyond the stage when the heathen element occasionally breaks out, and tries to organize old time dances for the purpose of interrupting religious services. All that is a thing of the past. They are settled down to sober living, and are manifesting an increased interest in farming as well as Church work. There are about one-half dozen yet of heathen belief, who have not identified themselves with Christian work, but have abandoned heathen practices, and have taken a hold of civilized life.

Farming is encouraging. The most enterprising man got 1,700 bushels of grain, and another 1,000. The frost did some damage, but not serious.

Clothing sent by the W.F.M.S. is less and less needed, and the Missionary seeks to impress upon them the importance of independence of such gifts. Only a few of the older people will need such aid in times to come.

The different Church organizations are interesting and efficient.

The Auxiliary of the W.F.M.S. meet weekly, and besides religious exercises they are engaged in sewing, knitting, beadwork, etc., the proceeds of which go to the society's fund. Last year they contributed $53.00 toward the Foreign Mission work of the Church.

There were one marriage, three baptisms, and three deaths during the year. Two were received into full communion of the Church, making a total membership of 32.

HURRICANE HILLS.

This is one of the most discouraging of all of our Missions. There are in all about 200, but they are largely Pagan. There are 21 families nominally connected with this Mission, three of whom are openly Christian. In these families there are in all 75 souls. Two were received into full communion during the year, the total membership being 8. The average attendance has been about 20, the highest number at service on Sunday being 35. An attempt has been made to start a day school, but without much encouragement so far.

OKANASE.

The Missionary, Rev. J. MacAlister, has been in Scotland during the winter, completing his theological course, and he returns this spring to his work an ordained Missionary, and will thus avoid the inconvenience formerly experienced of securing some outsider to dispense ordinances. Mr. Ross has had charge of the school during his absence, and has done satisfactory work.

The winter has been specially severe, and there has been much suffering on that account. Services, however, were regularly held upon the Sabbath, and the school was kept open except four weeks, when because of whooping cough the doctor ordered that it should be closed. The number of pupils on the roll is 11, two of these being non-treaty children.

The Band is a small one, having in all 91 members, of whom 40 are children. There are no Pagans, and the Communion roll numbers 45. This Reserve may be accounted as Christian as any ordinary white community.

LIZARD POINT.

The Rev. Mr. Pritchard reports encouragements and discouragements. There are about 120 upon the Reserve, but the number is steadily decreasing. There is no day school, inasmuch as the children are sent to the Birtle School. The attendance on ordinance is satisfactory, and there have been indications of improvement over the previous year. An interest has been manifested in improving the Church building, and work in that direction needs to be done. As some of the plaster has fallen, it is proposed to line the building with wood both outside and in. The Misisonary, however, regards it as too great an undertaking for one year.

The Sabbath is better kept than formerly. A few years ago it was not uncommon to see Indians ploughing on the Lord's Day. This has been discontinued.

The solemnization of marriage is more appreciated, and wives are confirmed in their position in the home by this service. The Missionary says :—"Altogether it can be said that the Indians are awakening to a better understanding of the Gospel, and the need of finding peace through the Cross. The simple, yet beautiful, the tender, yet severe, morality of the New Testament is making itself felt.

"The great point of danger is drink. During the past two years stores have been opened in the neighborhood of the Reserve, in both of which the Indians have been able to get all the drink they are able to pay for. Warnings from the Indian Agent have so far been without avail. The effect is discernible in increased poverty, in a shrinkage of Church attendance, and in frequent quarrels amongst the Indians themselves. It is encouraging to be able to report, however, that a better section of the Indians are firmly opposed to such practices, and resist to the best of their ability."

BIRTLE.

This is one of our best Boarding Schools, and is under the management of Mr. E. H. Crawford. He has taken up successfully the work laid down by Mr. McWhinney. Two of the children were transferred to the Regina Industrial School. Three were discharged, three died, and one is away on sick leave. The present attendance is forty, but other children are in sight who will bring up the number to what it formerly was.

Miss McGregor, who is in charge of the school room, has been giving entire satisfaction.

The small quantity of land connected with the school is utilized for gardening purposes, and industrial work is taught in the school by the Matron, Miss MacLaren, and Miss MacLeod, the Assistant Matron.

During the year the barn was burned down, but restored before the cold weather.

Water hitherto was drawn from a spring about a mile away from the school, which was not only a great inconvenience, but left the school without any protection in case of fire. The Indian Department are now installing a water system from a spring upon a neighboring estate, which will be not only a great convenience, but security in case of fire.

The fuel problem is becoming a serious one in the western country. The cost of wood is very great, and other provision will have to be made by and bye. Every effort is made to impart religious instruction and the children illustrate in their lives the spirit of truth imparted. Much assistance is given by Rev. Mr. Cormie, who conducts regular weekly services in the school. The children have a Mission Band, in which they are much interested, and feel much gratification in the contributions they are able to make.

ROLLING RIVER.

There is not much to report in connection with this school. The total population of the Reserve is less than 100, 35 of whom are children. A day school has been started during the year by Dr. and Mrs. Gilbart, which has had an attendance of six during the winter, but it is expected that with the spring attendance will increase.

Some young men are learning to read and write in English. Greater attention is given to agriculture, and during the past year over 3,000 bushels of grain were gathered in.

Services are held every Sabbath. It is but a few years ago when this Reserve was entirely Pagan, and strenuously opposed to the education of their children.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE.

This is not one of the largest, but is one of the most interesting of our Boarding Schools. There are 24 on the roll, and the health of the school has been good throughout the year. Although all are under 12 years of age, there are few below the third standard. English only is spoken in the school. Every morning 40 minutes are devoted to Bible study and sacred songs. Mr. Hendry, the Missionary, has made a departure in having a class in "civics," which, although elemental, instils into the minds of the children thoughts as to the duty citizens owe to the State.

The services on the Reserve are conducted each Sabbath by the Missionary, and have an average attendance of 35. There are 19 communicants upon the roll, and the contributions amounted to $15.00, which were donated to the W.F. M.S. Fund.

There are in all about 150 Indians in the village, and they are fairly comfortable through earnings amongst the farmers.

PRINCE ALBERT.

Miss Baker writes that there are 12 children upon the roll, and 9 in regular attendance at the school.

The report of the Inspector as to the condition of the school was satisfactory, being especially pleased with the knowledge of the English language, notwithstanding the fact that no English is spoken in their homes

The greater part of this Band is located 12 miles from the school, and is a stronghold of Paganism largely through the influence of several old medicine men who were leading characters years ago. All their influence is exercised against the Mission.

There are over twenty children of school age, and if compulsory education were enforced by the Department, transformation would be much more rapid.

Regular Sabbath services are held, and are fairly well attended. The old Chief died last spring. Although he had never made a profession of faith in Christ, he was always anxious to have the Bible read to him, and when dying gave instructions that his son, when of age, should be placed in the school.

PIPESTONE.

Mr. Speer reports that this is one of the smallest Reserves, and has only about 50 Indians in all. There are about 20 children, but they have no day school. A number of the children from this Reserve have attended the Regina Industrial School.

Men willing to work can earn $2.00 per day, or $3.50 for man and team, and the work is abundant. The Government supplies cattle, and there is abundance of hay upon the Reserve for all cattle and horses they own. There is also sufficient wood for their needs. Many a white community throughout the country, and especially the cities, is poorer than these Indians. Some of the men are excellent workers, but many of the women are too independent to do menial service.

There are 9 communicants on the roll, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was twice dispensed during the year. The Missionary's difficulty has been in securing a satisfactory interpreter. Contributions to Foreign Missions amounted to $10.00, and the proceeds of the Women's Sewing Circle amounted to $37.00. There has been one baptism, one marriage, and two deaths. The Band is gradually becoming smaller. Because of offence given in suppressing heathen dances, some refuse to attend Christian service.

REGINA.

During the year the Regina School suffered great loss in the death of John Casto, one of its most hopeful graduates. He gave promise of great usefulness among his own people, but it was otherwise ordered. His memory is cherished amongst his fellow-students.

The school has prospered in all its educational departments, but the difficulty of securing students, and the reduction of revenue consequent has led to financial embarrassment. A considerable deficit has accumulated, and the Committee is at present in correspondence with the Indian Department not only as to the liquidation of the debt, but as to some such arrangement as will meet the necessities of the school.

Industrial Schools have been supported entirely by the per capita grant from the Department, and have not been directly a financial burden upon the churches. The Committee refused to become responsible for the deficit, and has also refused to enter into any arrangement that will involve financial responsibility.

Many of the graduates of the school are making for themselves a good record on the Reserves to which they have returned, and in every other walk of life. Friends of the school have contributed a traction engine, valued at $2,170.00, and the Department granted a threshing separator with all modern improvements. With this outfit the boys last year earned $1,000.00, and had the reputation of doing the best threshing in the neighborhood.

Other gifts, such as a gang plough, worth $280.00, donated by Mutch Brothers, a turning lathe, drilling machine, and wood shaper were donated by Frost and Wood Company, of Smith's Falls. These gifts are appreciated, and are valuable contributions, both as to their educational value and as farming implements. Nevertheless, unless some satisfactory adjustment of finance can be effected, the school cannot continue to do its proper work.

During the year 9 made profession of faith. Services are regularly conducted on the Lord's Day, as well as throughout the week, and the spirit and tone of the institution is satisfactory.

SWAN LAKE.

This is a comparatively new school among one of the most discouraging of all Indian Bands, numbering in all about 140. There are about 13 children in the school, and about 20 of school age on the Reserve. Intemperance has been the curse of the Band, which has been in a measure resisted, and more attention has been given to the cultivation of the soil. Mr. Kemper Garrioch, the Missionary, was interrupted in his work during the year by the long illness of his wife and her subsequent death.

CECILIA JEFFREY SCHOOL.

This school is situated on the western wing of the Lake-of-the-Woods, and about 45 miles from Rat Portage. It is a boarding School, and is intended to supply the needs of about 500 Indians on the west and south of the lake. There are at present 23 children on the roll. The Missionary, Mr. McKittrick, is the Principal of the school, and Miss Cameron is the Matron.

Changes in the staff have not been to the advantage of the school, but it is hoped that continuity can be secured in the future, and that progress will be more rapid and permanent.

The Indians in that quarter have been hitherto neglected, and consequently prejudiced against Christianity. Heathen customs must be gradually overcome by kindly, direct treatment, and through the education of the children.

SUMMARY.

In these 17 Misisons, the work is chiefly educational. About 350 children are under instruction in the one Industrial School, six Boarding Schools, and four Day Schools. There were 23 communicants received on profession of faith, the total communion roll reported being 274. Comparison with the report of last year indicates neglect in reporting. In a few of the Missions contributions were made, which amounted to $310.60 for the year.

INDIANS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

ALBERNI.

This school, which has outgrown accommodation, has been enlarged this year, providing not only suitable accommodation for the Principal and his family and more pupils, but as well, additional rooms as hospital for sick children. In every respect the work seems to have been encouraging throughout the year.

The Principal, Mr. J. R. Motion, and Mrs. Motion, the Matron, have not spared themselves, and the result is gratifying.

Mrs. Cameron, who is in charge of the day school, reports 45 children, 26 boys and 19 girls. The school is properly graded, and in addition to the ordinary school work, a verse of Scripture is memorized daily, resulting in a large acquisition of Scripture knowledge during the year.

The Missionaries give attention to the older people who live in two villages near the school, where the improvement in domestic conditions give ample testimony of the success of the Mission. But very few remain of the original shacks called homes. They have been succeeded by a class of comfortable houses respectably furnished.

The garden was specially fruitful last year, providing ample supply for the school.

The Government grant has hitherto been for thirty pupils, whereas forty-five are maintained. It is hoped that the Department will this year raise the grant from thirty to fifty pupils, which will not only enable the Principal to maintain the school more generously, but also keep the buildings in repair.

UCLUELET.

At this Mission a residence for the Missionary was erected, which was much needed, the former rented building being small, and continuously damp because of the location.

Mr. Swartout reports that drinking and gambling have practically disappeared. Sabbath services are well attended, and there are seven inquirers, three of whom will probably be baptized in the near future.

The day school at Ucluelet has had its best year. Compulsory attendance at the school is not enforced, although upon the Statute Book, and whilst its mere enactment has a salutary influence, the time is drawing night when with safety parents may be required to send their children to school.

The Sabbath School numbers twenty-five. The whole work of the Mission suffers annually by the migratory habits of the people for fishing purposes.

DODGER'S COVE.

This Mission has been vacant for some months because of the resignation of Mr. McKee through ill-health. Accommodation is so limited that certain appointments cannot be made, whilst others more suitable for the location are not available.

It is one of the larger Bands in Barclay Sound, and requires special attention. Mr. Swartout periodically visits, and reports more encouragement amongst that Band than any other Band in the Sound. A number of them are at present personally interested in the truth.

AHOUSAHT.

This Mission suffered in the removal of Mr. J. W. Russell, who for nine years served the Church with exceptional devotion and ability. The day school was found to be unsatisfactory, because of the wandering habits of the Indians, who took their children with them. It has been, accordingly, converted into a Boarding School. The Department has allowed a Boarding School grant for twenty-five children, and has also allowed $1,500.00 toward the erection of a building. The building is at present in process of erection, and will cost, it is estimated, $6,500.00, and will accommodate fifty children. There are about 100 children under 18 years of age in the Band, about 60 of these being school age. The Mission is one of the most encouraging on the West Coast, and the Indians of the tribe are among the most stalwart and responsive.

Attendance on Sabbath services is good, and the children have adopted the English language, which they use in their homes as well as in the school.

The Missionaries are cordially received, and gambling and drunkenness has been greatly reduced if not entirely banished.

Mr. J. C. Butchart has been appointed Principal of the school, and Mrs. Butchart, Matron.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE HALIFAX, 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

At the time that the Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, presented their last report to the General Assembly it was under the shadow of a great disappointment, in which the Assembly fully shared, in consequence of the sudden death of the Rev. James Croskery, whom it had nominated to the Assembly as a suitable successor to Principal Gordon for the chair of Systematic Theology and Apologetics. Mr. Croskery had intimated his intention of accepting the appointment in the event of its being made by the Assembly, and he was diligently preparing to begin his work, when he was called to higher service in the immediate presence of the Master. In the unlooked-for situation which had thus been created the Assembly gave power to the Synod of the Maritime Provinces to make an appointment to the chair as soon as the Board might be ready to make a nomination and to deal with other matters relating to the College which arose from the last report of your Board.

Accordingly, on July 7th, the earliest possible date after the return of members from the Assembly, the Board met for consideration of the situation and agreed to a second meeting on September 8th to consider the nomination of a Professor to the vacant chair, at the same time giving the customary intimation to Presbyteries of an opportunity to submit names to the Board. At that meeting, after the most careful consideration, the Board unanimously agreed to nominate Rev. Robert Magill, M.A., Ph.D., of Maghera, Ireland. This action was reported to the Synod at its meeting early in October, and in the exercise of the powers conferred by the Assembly the recommendation of the Board was adopted, and the appointment of Dr. Magill was duly made. Dr. Magill accepted the appointment, and, by direction of the Synod, the Presbytery of Halifax inducted him on November 4th, and he at once entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Last year the Board had the pleasure of reporting to the General Assembly the celebration of the Jubilee of Principal Pollok's ordination. This year it has regretfully to announce his resignation. In fact his resignation was in the hands of the Board within a few months after the celebration of his jubilee, and his request was that it should be accepted, to take effect on September 1st, 1903, but at the earnest solicitation of the Board he agreed to continue his work as Principal and Professor for another session on the understanding that his resignation would take effect at the end of the session. At the meeting of the Board, held on the 28th of April, Dr. Pollok's resignation as Principal of the College and Professor of Practical Theology and Church History was duly accepted, though with great reluctance. The Board appreciate so highly the services of Dr. Pollok, both as Principal and Professor, that it would have been much pleased if he could have seen his way clear to retain for a while longer his connection with the College, and it made overtures to him with that object in view, but he preferred that his resignation should take effect at once, and the charge of the College be intrusted to other hands. To this wish the Board gave effect.

At the same meeting it was agreed to recommend to the General Assembly to appoint Rev. R. A. Falconer, D. Litt, LL.D., to succeed Dr. Pollok as Principal of the College, and also to nominate the Rev. Arthur S. Morton, B.D., of St. Stephen, N.B., as Lecturer in the College for three years on Practical Theology and Church History at a salary of $1,500 per annum.

The Board reports with thankfulness that the daughters of the late Senator Carmichael have made a gift of $2,000 to institute a scholarship for post-graduate study. The Board has conveyed to the donors its appreciation of their generosity and its satisfaction at having the name of one who was held in such high esteem associated with the College, and it has decided to designate the scholarship "The James William Carmichael Scholarship."

Financially the Board has had a fairly good year. There is still, however, a small debt on the College Fund. The receipts for the year were $13.300.76, an increase of $560.22 over the preceding year. The income from interest and rents was $8,214.32, from donations $455,and from congregational contributions $4,629.44, an increase of $293.63 over the previous year. Repayments were only $2.00.

The expenditure for the year was $13,105.51, which was $195.25 less than the income. This expenditure was as follows :—

Salaries of Professors in Presbyterian College	$7,738 88
Salary of Lecturer on Elocution	400 00
Salary of Professor in Dalhousie College	1,750 00
Assistant Librarian	25 00

Taxes (several properties for two years)	415 51
Travelling expenses of members of the Board	181 96

Amount allowed House Steward for loss of land	50 00
Light	10 00
Fuel	191 95
New furnaces in two of the Professor's houses	230 00
Repairs and furnishings	656 92
Special grant to House Steward	250 00
Mission books, proceeds of R. McC. McG. bequest	7 00
Cablegrams	10 75
Wiring and fittings for electric lighting Profs'. house, one-half of which is to be refunded	78 00
John Naylor	21 50

The receipts for the Bursary Fund were $956.23, a decrease of $395.16, as compared with the previous year, scarcely fully accounted for by the fact that there had been a special payment of $235.20 from arrears of interest in that year. Of this amount $328.60 came from congregational collections, $556.63 from interest, $22.00 from donations and $49.00 from repayments.

Twenty-three bursaries were given to students, amounting in all to $680. Towards the payment of the Students' Board there was allowed fifty cents per week for each, or a total of $276, but of this sum only $26.03 were paid during the twelve months covered by the accounts. Five prizes of $10 each were paid, amounting to $50. Interest between schemes was $1.86. The proportion of office expenses was $26.13, making a total expenditure of $784.02. The debt at the beginning of the year was $121.23. The Bursary Fund has now a credit balance of $50.98.

The receipts for the Library Fund were $214.57, of which only $5.00 came from congregational collections, $20.92 from interest, $68.65 from donations and $120.00 from the College Fund. The expenditure was $151.10. Excess of receipts over expenditure, $63.47, which added to the credit balance of last year, makes a credit balance on February 29th of $108.71.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOMAS SEDGWICK,
Chairman.

E. A. McCURDY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, HALIFAX.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The Session just closed has been signalized by the advent of a new Professor, Dr. Robert Magill, whose skill as a teacher, scholarship and sympathy with the ideals in theology and Christian truth for which our Church stands, have fully justified his appointment. We hope that this Session is but the first of a long series which Dr. Magill may spend in this College.

Our numbers are about the same as last year, though the graduating class is the smallest for many Sessions. However, there are signs of improvement, but the promise is not yet as abundant as the demands of the present time would lead us to desire.

The following students were in attendance, 24 in all :—

Third Year.—J. A. Bradley, B.A., L. B. Gibson, B.A., William Macdonald, B.A., F. S. Vance, B.A.—4.

Second Year.—G. A. Christie, B.A., H. J. Fraser, G. S. Gardner, H. A. Kent, B.A., R. B. Layton, B.A., J. A. MacKean, Norman McQueen, Colin MacRae, D. J. Nicholson, B.A., R. H. Stewart, B.A.—10.

First Year.—A. Ferguson B.A., W. J. Green, G. W. Langille, B.A., James Malcolm, B.A., G. W. Miller, D. K. Ross, W. M. Ross, A. A. Smith, H. M. Upham, B.A., L. L. Young, B.A.—10.

The work of the class has been as follows :—

1. Church History. The history of the Christian Church from the beginning of the Christian era to the Reformation was the subject of examination on two days of the week, and the history of the Scottish Church from the Restoration to the close of the eighteenth century upon other two days.

2. In Practical Theology the subjects of lecture were the office, the studies, the social aspects of the ministry, the preaching, the services of the Church, including the daily service of the Lord's Day, the administration of the sacraments and the visititation of the sick. On one day of the week discources were heard and homiletic exercises were given in the class.

3. Hebrew and O. T. Exegetics.

The Junior Hebrew Class, attended by five students of the first year, met on five days a week. Davidson's Elementary Grammar and Reader was the text-book, which was studied as carefully as time would permit.

The Senior Hebrew and O. T. Exegetical Classes, composed of four students of the Third Year and ten of the Second, met four times a week. Driver's work on an Introduction to the Literature of the Old Testament formed the study for Tuesday. Wednesday was devoted to Hebrew studies, when extracts were read from Samuel, Kings, Psalms, Ezekiel, Canticles and Ecclesiastes. On Thursday a full course of lectures was delivered on Pentateuchal Criticism; and on Friday expository lectures were given on Hosea, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah and Micah. Each of the students of the Third Year prepared a Hebrew Critical Exercise on a prescribed passage.

During the term the classes underwent two written examinations, which gave fair results.

4. N. T. Exegetics. In the Senior Class the Epistle to the Hebrews was read in a course of expository lectures on two days a week; one day a week was devoted to paraphrasing the Epistles of John, and one day to lectures on the first half of the Apostolic Age, including Introduction to the Epistle of James, to the Thessalonians, Galatians and I. Corinthians. In the Junior Class three days a week were spent on the Gospel of Luke, all of which, with the exception of a few chapters, was read. One day a week was devoted to the study of New Testament Greek and Textual Criticsm of the New Testament, and another to lectures on Introduction to the Gospels and Problems in the Life of Christ.

5. Apologetics and Systematic Theology. In the Junior Class Fisher's "Grounds of Theistic and Christian Belief" was used as a text-book, and lectures were delivered in line with the text-book, and on Inspiration and Christian Ethics. Two essays were required from each student and were discussed in class. In the Senior Class lectures were delivered on Introduction to Theology, the Sources of Theology, Revelation, Inspiration and the Doctrine of God. Van Oosterzee's Systematic Theology was used as a text-book, of which about 400 pages were studied. Essays were also required of the students of this class.

6. Elocution. In the First Year the General Principles of Speech and Gesture were studied, and special attention given to the removal of any pecularities or defects in Respiration and Vocalization.

In the Second Year the time was devoted to the Literary and Vocal Interpretation of the Bible, Variety of Delivery and the Nature of Expression.

In the Third Year the subjects studied were the Practical Administration of Public Worship, the Administration of the Sacraments, Marriage and Burial Services and Procedure in Church Courts. The students were not only taught, but exercised in all the above.

In addition to this work students of the Second and Third Years delivered Extemporary Discourses in the presence of the Professors and Classes.

These prizes were awarded :—

The "Senator McKeen" prize of $25 for the best public speaker of the Third Year to F. S. Vance, B.A.

The "Henry Crawford" prize of $20 for the best written and delivered theme, open to the whole college, to H. J. Fraser, and a prize of $10 from Principal Pollok to G. A. Christie, B.A., who was second in this competition.

The "Wiswell" prize of $10 for the best reader of Second Year to G. S. Gardner.

The "Carruthers" prize of $10 for best written examination in elocution to L. L. Young, B.A.

The "R. J. Grant Memorial" prize for the best essay on "The Westminster Doctrine of the Church," F. S. Vance, B.A.

A prize of $10 from Rev. Aeneas Gordon of Scotland for best essay in the class of Systematic Theology to Colin MacRae.

Two candidates were successful in obtaining the degree of B.D., the Rev. D. H. MacKinnon, M.A., who elected the department of Church History, and Rev. E. H. Ramsay, B.A., who passed in the department of New Testament Exegetics with high distinction.

The degree of D.D. was conferred on Revs. A. F. Carr, M.A., Campbellton, N.B.; Thomas Cumming, Scotsburn, N.S.; E. D. Millar, B.A., Yarmouth ; Edwin Smith, B.A., Musquodoboit, and Thomas Somerville, M.A., Glasgow, Scotland.

It was agreed that the Senate should make application to the General Assembly, as is hereby done, for leave to institute in this college a course for the training of "Ministerial-Evangelists."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ALLAN POLLOK, Chairman. R. A. FALCONER, Clerk.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT FOR THE SESSION, 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The Board of Management of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, in presenting their Annual Report, desire to express gratitude to the great Head of the Church for another year of prosperous work.

The students enrolled last sesion numbered 46, of whom 9 completed their course in the spring.

The amount received for the Ordinary Fund was $18,825.58, of which $11,590.00 was derived from interest and $7,234.90 from congregational and other contributions. The generous friend who, for several years past, has supported the chair of Homiletics and Biblical Theology, renewed his contribution for the past year.

Owing to exceptional repairs on the buildings, and to a special tax in connection with the opening of a street near to the College, and the expense of a deputation to Britain, the expenses of the year were unusually large.

Pursuant to the authorization given by last Assembly to continue their inquiries for a suitable Principal to succeed the late Dr. MacVicar, the Board decided in December last to send a deputation to Britain. This deputation consisted of the Rev. W. R. Cruikshank and the Rev. E. A. Mackenzie, who conducted their mission with the greatest diligence, and secured fullest information as to all likely and available men. Their report was received and considered most carefully by a joint committee of the Board and Senate, which reported its finding to the full Board. This finding was adopted and becomes the recommendation from the Board to this Assembly. It is as follows :—

1. That the Rev. Professor Scrimger, D.D., be appointed Principal at a salary of $3,000 per annum, with residence.

2. That Professor Scrimger be transferred to the chair of Systematic Theology from that of Old and New Testament Exegesis.

3. That the chair of Exegesis be divided into two—one for Old Testament Literature and Exegesis; the other for New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and that, as soon as the finances of the College will allow, a Professor be appointed for each.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. MORRICE, Chairman.

Montreal, May 5th, 1904.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, MONTREAL, FOR THE SESSION 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

While the Senate has much cause for gratitude to the Great King and Head of the Church for the prosperity that has attended the labors of the past Session, it cannot forbear referring to a number of cases of sickness among the students, the natural outcome of a generally unhealthy season. It is a cause for thankfulness that, while one or two were seriously ill, all have recovered.

The classes in Biblical and Church History and Apologetics were taught by Professor Campbell, the Acting Principal; those in the French Theological subjects, by Professor Coussirat; those in Introduction and Old and New Testament Exegesis, by Professor Scrimger, who also lectured on Systematic Theology; those in Practical Theology, by Professor Ross. Professor J. Clark Murray lectured on Christian Ethics; the Rev. Dr. Barclay, on Comparative Religion; A. T. Taylor, Esq., on Ecclesiastical Architecture, and Principal John P. Stephen, on Elocution. Special series of lectures were also delivered at intervals during the Session by Professor Orr of Glasgow on the Bearings of Modern Anthropological Speculations on the Bible Doctrines of Man and Sin; by Dr. A. H. McKinney, on Sabbath School Pedagogics; and by the Rev. Murdoch MacKenzie, on Missions to the Chinese. The classes in Classics and Mathematics were very successfully conducted by Dr. Johnson, Emeritus Vice-Principal and Dean of the Arts Faculty in the University of McGill. The Senate desires to place on record its high appreciation of the valuable and at at the same time gratuitous services of Mr. A. T. Taylor, F.R.I.B.A., R.C.A., and its regret that, owing to his withdrawal to London, England, these will no longer be available.

ANDREW JEFFREY, Auditor.

Toronto, April 14th, 1904.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of Queen's University respectfully submit the following report of the sixty-third session of the University.

The formal installation of Principal Gordon took place on October 14th, 15th and 16th last. There were present representatives from Universities of Great Britain, the United States and Canada, and one from Heidelberg; and all the ceremonies passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

ATTENDANCE.

The number of students continues to increase. Last Session there was an increase in all the Faculties, the numbers being : Arts, 526; Theology, 38; Medicine, 216; Science, 143. Deducting 26 who were registered in two Faculties, there was thus a total of 897, an increase of 44 over last year.

FINANCES.

It is gratifying to report an increase in our share of contributions from the Assembly's College Fund, although the amount still falls short of the sum specified by the Assembly, and is less than what we had hoped to receive after the discussion of the claims of the University at last General Assembly. The very growth and expansion of the University have caused additional outlay, while the revenue has not grown in proportion. On the contrary, there has been a shrinkage of the revenue derived from interest on Jubilee Fund subscriptions, while there has been an increase in expenditure owing to the refitting of the Principal's residence, the increased cost of maintaining the new buildings, and special expenses connected with the installation. Hence, the finances of the year show a considerable deficit.

CHANGES IN THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

We regret to have to report the death of two of our Trustees, the Rev. Dr. Thompson and Mr. E. W. Rathbun. In addition to the valuable services rendered by Dr. Thompson on the Board of Trustees, he had been for a number of years Lecturer in Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, bringing to the duties of this position spiritual insight, wide scholarship and ripe experience. We are glad to be able to report that the work formerly carried on by Dr. Thompson has, during the past Session, been continued with much acceptance by the Rev. Dr. Milligan. Another of our Trustees, the Rev. M. W. Maclean has removed to Assiniboia. The places on the Board, vacated by the removal of these three members, have been filled by the appointment of Rev. Dr. Warden, Rev. Dr. E. D. McLaren and Mr. John Charlton. We have also to report with much regret the death of Mr. J. B. McIver, who had long been the faithful and efficient Secretary-Treasurer of the University. Mr. G. Y. Chown, the Registrar of the University, has been appointed as his successor.

ABSENCE OF PROFESSOR JORDAN.

The teaching staff has been weakened during the past Session by the regrettable absence, through ill-health, of Professor Jordan. Arrangements were made to cover his work as well as possible through the services of Messrs. Petrie and Watts, in Hebrew, of Professor McComb in O. T. Exegesis, and of Rev. Dr. MacGillivray in O. T. History. The Trustees express their special gratitude to

Dr. MacGillivray for his kind assistance in this department, and also to Professor MacFadyen, of Knox College, for his willing and valuable aid in connection with examinations.

BEQUESTS.

Since our last report we have received through Mr. James Dingwall, of Cornwall, executor, a legacy from the late Mr. John Stewart, of Roxborough, of $5,000, the interest of which, according to the terms of the bequest, is to be applied "to assist needy and deserving theological students studying in the Theological Department of said College for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada."

There has also been received from the family of the late Mr. Francis McNab, of Kingston, a number of interesting Scottish relics, some of which were once the property of Prince Charles Stuart, and all of which have been for generations in the possession of the Chief of the Clan MacNab. These form a valuable contribution to our Museum.

ALUMNI CONFERENCE.

The Alumni Conference, which has now become an annual feature in the life of the University, was held for the twelfth time in February. A rich and varied programme was provided, embracing critical, philosophical, theological, literary and scientific subjects. This annual Conference forms for a number of our Alumni a sort of post-graduate course, while the students in attendance at the meetings, especially those in Theology, find much benefit from the addreses and discussions. As mid-winter is, for various reasons, an inconvenient time for many graduates to attend, it has been decided to hold the next Conference in the first week of November, and a very attractive programme has already been prepared for it.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES.

On the resolution of the General Assembly regarding the relations of Queen's University to the Church being reported to us, we met on June 30th and passed the following resolution : "That, having heard the resolution of the General Assembly anent the proposed changes in the charter of the University and also the Principal's report on same, this Board stay proceedings in Parliament and await the conference with the Commission of Assembly at the earliest date found most convenient. Accordingly, the Board invites the Assembly's Commission to meet in Convocation Hall of this University some time in September."

In accordance with this resolution we met the Commission of Assembly on Tuesday, 15th of September, 1903. After a series of conferences with the Commission, extending over two days, and after due deliberation and consideration of the resolution adopted by the Commission, it was decided : "That the Trustees, having already stayed proceedings in connection with the proposed constitutional changes, resolve, in view of the decision of the Conference, to prosecute these changes no further at present, but to maintain the existing connection between the University and the Church, pending the action of the Church regarding the support of the University."

Pursuant to adjournment, we again met the Commission on February 10th, 1904, after the answers had been received from the Presbyteries to the remit sent down for their consideration, and after deliberation, resolved to defer further consideration of the resolutions until our regular meeting in April, and meanwhile to report the whole of the proceedings which had been taken to the University Couuncil.

The University Council held its annual meeting on April 26th, 1904, and the report of the Trustees was very fully considered on that day and the day following. As a result of the deliberations the Council passed the following resolution, which the Trustees transmit to the General Assembly with their approval,

That the University Council desires to express its hearty sympathy with the spirit which prompted the resolution arrived at by the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church last June to maintain the connection of the University with the Church.

That the Council will be glad to co-operate in the line of that resolution with the view of ascertaining if any definite arrangements can be made in the interests alike of the Church and the University.

That in the meantime the Council desires respectfully to bring the following points before the notice of the Assembly :

First. The resolution of the Assembly is virtually a reversal of its previous attitude and of all the steps which have already been taken by the University authorities to nationalize the University.

Second. As the continuance of the present relation between the Church and the University may impose considerable limitations on the future development of Queen's University, the Council desires to draw the attention of the Church to the gravity of the situation created for the University by the action of the Assembly at Vancouver.

Resolved, further, that this resolution be sent to the Board of Trustees for transmission to the General Assembly.

The Board of Trustees at the same meeting, 27th April, passed the following resolution :—

The Trustees having already stayed proceedings in connection with the proposed constitutional changes, in view of the action which has been taken by the General Assembly and by the Commission appointed by the Moderator, resolve to reaffirm the resolution of September, 1903, and to continue in the meantime the existing connection between the University and the Church, pending the action of the Church regarding the support of the University.

G. Y. CHOWN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Kingston, May, 1904.

REPORT OF THE THEOLOGICAL FACULTY.

During the past Session there were thirty-four students in attendance on the various classes of Theology, and four post-graduate students engaged in special studies, in all thirty-eight. Eight of these completed their course of study, viz., I. N. Beckstedt, B.A., H. D. Borley, B.A., J. A. Caldwell, B.A., J. Y. Ferguson, B.A., W. Moore, G. Munro, G. B. Maclennan, B.A., John R. Watts, B.A. Mr. J. R. Watts, having successfully passed all the examinations, received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

The work of the Session was impaired by the illness of Dr. Jordan, necessitating his withdrawal from the duties of his chair. It is sincerely hoped that a prolonged rest may thoroughly restore him to health, and that he may be enabled to resume his duties in the autumn. The work of his department was divided, that of the Hebrew classes being taken by Mr. Petrie and Mr. Watts, and that of O. T. Exegesis by Professor McComb, and of O. T. History by Dr. MacGillivray.

HEBREW AND O. T. EXEGESIS.

Junior Hebrew. — For a time part of the work in this class was taken by Professor Jordan, but throughout the Session instruction was given by the Fellow in Hebrew, Mr. J. A. Petrie, B.A. The work covered was Davidson's Hebrew Grammar, sections 1-20, with the exercises attached, and prescribed passages from the Hebrew Bible. Fifteen candidates presented themselves at the final examination, of whom fourteen were successful.

Senior Hebrew. — This class, under Mr. John R. Watts, B.A., covered the prescribed course in Grammar, and read Jonah, part of Joel, and portions of I. Samuel. Fifteen students were in attendance during the Session, twelve of whom presented themselves for examination, and were succssful. The class exercises and term examinations gave evidence of careful work on the part of the members of the class.

O. T. Exegesis. — During the absence of Professor Jordan, Professor McComb took charge of this class. The students read Isaiah, chapters I.-V. Lectures were delivered on the grammatical structure of the language and on the interpretation of the passages read; relevant points of O. T. Theology were also discussed. Distinct progress was made by the students in attendance, and their diligence is to be highly commended.

O. T. History. — From the Christmas vacation to the end of the Session the students of the three years attended this class one hour each week, and both the attendance and diligence were excellent. "Old Testament History," by Professor H. P. Smith, was read, and there were in addition such lectures and reviews as time permitted. There was also a voluntary class in this department one hour each week, of which quite a number took advantage.

CHURCH HISTORY AND HISTORY OF DOGMA.

The number of students in attendance during the Session was 31. Lectures were delivered on the History of the Doctrine of Immortality. The gradual development of the belief, especially in the Old Testament and New Testament periods, was traced. In Church History lectures were given on "Eusebius' Ecclesiastical History, Books II., III., IV. and V. In addition the class studied the latter half of Rainy's "Ancient Church." Essays were written on (1) "The Ante-Nicene Doctrine of the Incarnation" and (2) "The Life and Work of St. Augustine." The attendance and interest of the classes were well sustained, and the students as a whole have done excellent work.

APOLOGETICS.

Sixteen students attended the class in Apologetics, which met three hours a week. The number was smaller than in previous years, owing to the fact that several were taking the Honor Philosophy course, which gives them exemption from one year's attendance on this class, provided they receive final or second class honors in that department. Lectures were delivered on the attitude taken by negative critical thought to the questions of the need and the possibility of a special Revelation, the Historicity of the Gospels, the Seat of Authority in Religion, the Virgin birth and the Person of Christ, the miracles of the Gospel as related to a rational Christian faith, and the Immortality of Man.

The nature and genesis of religion was discussed, and an investigation made into the points of difference and of contact between the Ethnic and the Christian religions, and also into the evidence for the truth of Christianity furnished by the philosophy of history. Oral examinations were frequently held, two essays on prescribed subjects were written by each member of the class, and three written examinations on the contents of Bruce's Apologetics, Book III., were held during the Session. The diligence of the students was highly commendable.

N. T. CRITICISM AND EXEGESIS.

The class in N. T. Criticism and Exegesis met two hours a week during the Session. A detailed study of selected portions of the First Epistle to the Corinthians and the first two chapters of the Epistle to the Ephesians was made. Lectures were delivered on general and special Introduction and on the history and character of the MSS., on which the Greek Revised text is based. The written critical exercises on prescribed passages were carefully gone over with the writers, and attention directed to any defects in treatment. Thirty-one students were in attendance, twenty-six of whom wrote at the April examinations.

SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY.

In the class of Systematic Theology, which is conducted by the Principal, 33 students were in attendance. The course in this class extends over three sessions. During the past year the work of the class was confined to the study of the Person of Christ and of the Atonement, with a critical examination of the leading theories of the Atonement. Van Oosterzee's "Christian Dogmatics" was taken as a text-book, but was supplemented by lectures. Two essays were required of each member of the class, the first on "The Preparation in Israel for the Coming of Christ," the second on "The Teaching of our Lord regarding His own Death." Written examinations were held in this as in each of the other classes.

THE ENGLISH BIBLE.

During the session the class on the English Bible received more attention than formerly. It consists of a two years' course, optional to all students, conducted by the Principal and Professor McComb, the former taking the Old Testament and the latter the New Testament, each giving one hour a week. In the Old Testament the work of the class covered the Hexateuch and the history down to the captivity of the Northern Kingdom. In the New Testament the work was confined to the Gospels. It is expected that, during next session, the remainder of the Scriptures will be gone over in this class. The attendance was large, including not only a good proportion of the Theological students, but also a considerable number of Arts students, as well as of the general public, who were permitted to be present. It is hoped that this class may prove to be of much service.

KNOX COLLEGE.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

The Board of Management of Knox College has much pleasure in submitting to the General Assembly its sixtieth Annual Report.

The number of students enrolled in the various clases for the past year has been seventy-one. Of these twenty-three received their diplomas at the close of the Session. The Board observes with satisfaction that forty-three of the students are University graduates, and trusts that an annually increasing number of students may obtain such degrees before entering on their course in Theology.

The total receipts for the Ordinary Fund, including the balance of $328.08 brought forward from last year, have been $20,076.08. The disbursements during the year have amounted to the sum of $19,898.96, leaving a balance at the credit of income account of $177.12. Of the moneys forming the Ordinary Fund $6,034.69 are derived from congregational subscriptions, donations, legacies, fees, etc. The amount received on this account during the past year is less by $9.23 than what was paid during the previous year, but it is satisfactory to learn that the amount consists this year almost entirely of ordinary subscriptions, and is not swelled by legacies or other incidental and extraordinary payments.

The revenue derived from the Endowment Fund last year was $15,833.89, as against $13,713.31 received this year. The decrease arises largely from the fact that during the previous year large arrears of interest on investments were paid to the Treasurer. During the great depression in real estate which prevailed some years ago many properties representing a very large sum reverted to the Church. These have been largely disposed of. Last year the amount of these securities still unrealized was $59,889.60. During the past year this sum has been reduced to $50,589, and it is hoped that during the coming year more of these properties may be sold. In the meantime lands representing $30,000 are not productive, and are indeed a charge on income accounts for taxes, etc.

During the year an extraordinary expenditure of nearly $5,000 has been made for the purpose of placing new steam boilers in the College for heating purposes, and for repairs to the building. These outlays were absolutely necessary. This amount has been charged in the meantime to the Endowment Fund.

The Board again calls attention to the necessity of renewed effort being made to raise the funds required for prosecuting the work of erecting the new library building. The very valuable collection of books now in the library is exposed to continual danger from fire, and the accommodation at present available is quite inadequate to give space for new books which are much needed.

The Board, in conjunction with the Senate, in pursuance of the thority granted by the Assembly in that behalf, appointed the Rev. J. D. Robertson, M.A., D.Sc., to the chair of Apologetics, Homiletics and Pastoral Theology in succession to the deeply lamented Prof. A. Halliday Douglas. Prof. Robertson entered on the discharge of his duties at the beginning of the Session, and the Board has every confidence that he will prove a source of strength to the College.

The Board has again to express its thanks to the Ladies' Auxiliary, who have placed the Board under fresh obligations by continuing their efforts to improve the furnishings of the College and promote the comfort of the students.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. MORTIMER CLARK,
Chairman.

The following is a summary of the Professors' reports :—

DR. CAVEN conducted the classes in New Testament Literature and Exegesis and in Biblical Criticism. The Senior Class received exegetical lectures on the Epistle to the Romans and lectures on the Sources of the Synoptic Gospels, and in Introduction to the Four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles. The Epistle of the Romans, chs. 1-12., was studied for purposes of translation. The Greek Critical Exercises of the Second Year were examined, and criticisms of them written out for the benefit of the students who prepared them.

The Junior Class read critically in the Gospel of Luke, and prepared chs. 1-12 for purposes of translation and grammar. A course of lectures on the Principles of Interpretation, and a short course of lectures on Biblical Criticism were delivered to this class.

DR. MACLAREN conducted the Senior Class (Second and Third Years) and the Junior Class (First Year) in Systematic Theology. The Senior Class met four hours a week, and heard lectures on Sanctification, Good Works, the Moral Law and the leading topics connected with the Department of Eschatology. They also analyzed and studied carefully the Confession of Faith, Chs. 1-8 and 31-33. Dr. A. A. Hodge's "Outlines of Theology," pp. 520-650 were prescribed for study.

The Junior Class met three hours weekly and heard lectures on questions introductory to Systematic Theology, on the Authority and Inspiration of Scripture, the Rule of Faith, the Attributes of God and the Trinity. They analyzed and studied carefully Chs. 10-21 of the Confession of Faith. Hodge's "Outlines," pp. 65-200, were prescribed for study.

The students of both classes were required to write an essay on a prescribed theological theme. Their papers proved generally good, and many of them evinced careful study and marked ability.

PROF. BALLANTYNE reports that the Senior Class in Church History studied "The History of the Reformation in Great Britain and Ireland" and "The General History of the Church since Reformation Days." Fisher's "History of the Christian Church," Dr. Norman L. Walker's "History of the Scottish Church," and Dr. McAdam Muir's "Scottish Church History," were used as text-books. The study of missions formed a part of this course. In addition to lectures on the subject, an examination was held on Dr. A. C. Thompson's "Protestant Missions; their Rise and Early Progress." Lectures were also given on the "Origin of the Christian Ministry and the Fundamental Principles of Presbyterian Church Government."

The Junior Class studied the history of the Church during the first six centuries of the Christian era. Fisher's history was used as a text-book, but special attention was devoted to the apostolic age, based upon the text of the English New Testament. Each member of both classes wrote an essay on a topic connected with the work of the department.

PROFESSOR McFADYEN reports that in his classes there were 22 students of the First Year, 16 of the Second and 22 of the Third. Till Christmas the First Year met four times a week; after that three times. One day a week was devoted to Hebrew grammar, and weekly exercises were written by the members of the class. Selections from the Psalter were read, and lectures delivered upon them. Each student wrote an essay, which was discussed in the class, on some subject connected with the study of the Old Testament.

The Second and Third Years, which studied together, met three times a week. The book of Amos was read and commented upon, and introductory lectures were delivered on the Messianic hope, and a few on the historical books. Each member of the Second Year wrote an essay on some subject connected with Old Testament study, and each member of the Third Year wrote a Critical Exercise on a selected passage of the Old Testament.

PROFESSOR ROBERTSON reports that the Junior Class in Apologetics studied the nature, place and functions of Apologetics, scientific and practical. The history of Apologetics was briefly considered. The Apologetics of Theism, as the basis of the religious interpretation of the world, was then dealt with. Materialism, in connection with the Monism of Haeckel; Pantheism and kindred evolutionary views were discussed, and the existence and personality of God were vindicated. In Senior Apologetics religion and revelation were the principal topics. The nature, reality, origin and function of religion were studied, and the relation of Apologetics to Dogmatics discussed. Revelation, as universal, was considered, and non-Biblical religions treated of. Special revelation, its nature and media, its character as redemptive, its necessity and reality in view of human sin, were finally brought under review. To the Senior Class Professor Robertson gave a course of lectures on Pastoral Theology. The nature, purpose, utility and history of this subject was set forth. Under the head of first principles, the Kingdom of God, the Holy Spirit and the Christian Church, service through the Church, gifts of Ministerial service and efficiency in the Ministry were treated of. The practical application of these principles in the life and habits of the minister were dealt with. The conduct of public worship, visitation of the sick, etc., were treated of.

All the Professors record perfect satisfaction with the deportment and diligence of the students.

MISS CORNISH, who conducted the classes in Elocution during the second term of last Session, was in charge of that branch of study during the whole of the present Session. Her classes were attended by the students of the several years, and gratifying interest was manifested by them in the work of this department. It is much to be desired that the Board of Management were enabled to authorize such increase of expenditure for the teaching of elocution as should fitly represent its importance in the theological course.

The Librarian, REV. MR. McWILLIAM, LL.B., reports that the College Library has been largely used during the Session. Three hundred and thirty-eight volumes were added to the library. Of these, 168 were the gift of Mrs. Douglas, widow of Prof. A. Halliday Douglas, and of Chas. Douglas, Esq., M.P., brother of the late Professor Douglas. They are mostly from Professor Douglas' library, and are sent to us with the request that they should be regarded as a memorial collection, and should have a place appropriated to them in our library. Ninety volumes are donated by the family of the late Rev. John McMechan, of Port Perry, from his library; 17 volumes are from the library of the late Hon. Sir Oliver Mowat, the gift of his family, and three or four books are from the library of the late Hon. Justice Proudfoot, as likewise several volumes of M.S.S. sermons, (shorthand) prepared by the judge's eminent father, the Rev. William Proudfoot of London, Ont. These have been presented to the library by Mrs. Stevenson, the late judge's daughter.

THE LITERARY AND THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY, under the Presidency of Mr. Gillies Eadie, B.A., had a prosperous year. Weekly meetings were held, and also public meetings, as in preceding Sessions. The following are the officers of the Society for 1904-5:—President, Walter Nichol, B.A.; First Vice-President, W. M. McKay, B.A.; Second Vice-President, W. L. Nichol, B.A., Critic, G. A. Hackney, B.A.; Recording Secretary, J. E. Reid, B.A.; Corresponding Secretary, J. C. Ross, B.A.; Treasurer, W. M. Moore, B.A.; Secretary of Committee, T. J. Meek, B.A.; Curator, D. A. McKay; Councillors, T. Thomson Reikie, B.A., W. McLean and J. Blue.

THE STUDENTS' MISSIONARY SOCIETY, of which Mr. Walter W. McLaren, B.A., was President, had 30 missionaries on the field last summer. It is the purpose of the Society to send out 40 of its members for the coming summer. It is a gratification to the Society that by the appointment of so large a number of home missionaries it can celebrate the sixtieth year of its existence. The generous interest which many congregations and individuals have taken in the work of the Society has enabled it to undertake larger obligations than in any previous year. The officers of the Society for 1904-5 are: President, R. G. McKay, B.A.; First Vice-President, J. L. Boyd, B.A.; Second Vice-President, W. H. Black; Recording Secretary, W. M. Grant, M.A.; Corresponding Secretary, D. C. McGregor, B.A.; Financial Secretary, Andrew Thomson, B.A.; Treasurer, W. A. Mactaggart, B.A.; Secretary of Committee, T. M. Wesley, B.A.; Councillors, S. H. Sarkissian, George Hofferd, J. W. Gordon, J. G. Miller.

In accordance with authority granted to the Board of Management and the Senate of the College by the General Assembly of 1902, these bodies, at a joint meeting held in the college on April 30th, 1903, of last year, elected the Rev. J. D. Robertson, M.A., D.Sc., to the chair of Apologetics, Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, in succession to the late Professor A. Halliday Douglas. The Senate and Faculty have had the pleasure of welcoming Professor Robertson to his place in the college, and he has discharged the duties of his chair during the Session. The Senate may be permitted to express its gratification with the action of the General Assembly here referred to.

The Rev. Alexander McMillan, of St. Enoch's Church, Toronto, conducted the classes in Church History during the time that Professor Ballantyne was laid aside from his work by typhoid fever. The Senate desires to record its sense of obligation to Mr. McMillan and its high appreciation of the service which he has rendered to the college, as also thankfulness to God for Prof. Ballantyne's good recovery.

On each Monday the Professors and students met for half an hour, at the close of lectures, for prayer and conference. On one of these occasions an interesting address was given by the Rev. Dr. Meiklejohn, of Australia, and on another a fervid appeal on behalf of Foreign Missions was made by the Rev. Mr. Hotchkiss, one of the Secretaries of the Students' Volunteer Movement.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity has been conferred by the Senate upon the Rev. John Abraham, of Whitby, the Rev. W. G. Wallace, M.A., B.D., of Toronto and the Rev. D. M. Ramsay, M.A., B.D., of Ottawa.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity has, on examination, been conferred on the Rev. D. L. Campbell, B.A., of Dromore, Ont.

The thanks of the Senate are again most heartily tendered to the Knox College Ladies' Committee for continued valuable service in papering and furnishing with wardrobes the rooms of the students on the first floor, thereby greatly adding to the comfort of the occupants of these rooms and earning their sincere gratitude.

MANITOBA COLLEGE.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada :

The Board of Management of Manitoba College respectfully submit to the General Assembly their annual report, together with that of the Senate.

During the year Dr. MacInnis resigned the lectureship in mathematics, and Mr. W. Tier, M.A., was appointed to take his place.

It will be seen from the report of the Senate that the attendance in Arts has been larger than ever before in the history of the College, and that the arrangements for the teaching of Theology have, owing to the transference of the Session from the summer to the winter, been greatly improved.

As has been already intimated, the Presbyterian Church in Ireland resolved more than a year ago to discontinue its grant of £100 to the College, but agreed to make a gradual withdrawal by paying £50 a year for two years. The last of these £50 has now been received. The Board desire to renew their expression of gratitude to the Irish Church for its generous aid at a time when such aid was peculiarly valuable, and also for the interest which it continues to take in the prospects of the College and of the Church in the West.

The Board desire to thank the many friends of the College, East and West, who have made personal donations to its funds. A list of such donations will be found appended to this report.

Owing to the death of Miss Perine, the interest on her donation of $2,000 is now available for the general purposes of the College.

The congregational contributions from Ontario and Quebec are $30 less than last year, but those from the Synods of Manitoba and British Columbia exhibit an increase of $300.

The Board have gratification in stating that, through the liberality of the United Free Church of Scotland a large number of volumes have been contributed to the library. These include editions of the Fathers, works on Church History and general theological literature. This is by far the most valuable donation which the library has ever received. The Board desire especially to thank Professor Marcus Dods, D.D., the Librarian, and Rev. James Kennedy, D.D., the Acting Librarian of the United Free College, Edinburgh, for the kindness with which they allowed Dr. Patrick and Dr. Baird to select such volumes as they thought would prove must valuable to the library of the College.

The Board are deeply thankful to be able to inform the General Assembly that their expectations regarding the subscriptions to the endowment of the King Memorial Professorship have been surpassed. The canvass is still not wholly complete, but the results already accomplished make it certain that the sum asked for the endowment of the chair will be reached. Of the amount subscribed $32,090 have already been paid in.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT.

The Board regret to state that notwithstanding their best endeavours they have not been able to make a nomination for the chair of Old Testament Language and Literature in Manitoba College as they hoped to be able to do.

As it is desirable, in the interests of the College, that an appointment should be made as early as possible the Board respectfully request the Assembly to grant them power to make the appointment.

To permit of the new arrangements for the teaching of theology being introduced in their complete form, the Board appointed the Rev. Dr. G. B. Wilson to conduct the Senior Class in Hebrew, and the Rev. R. J. Macpherson, B.D., to conduct the Junior Class.

The Board found it necessary this year to make extensive repairs on the College building, which had remained almost untouched since the last addition to the premises in 1892. This has involved an expenditure of close upon eight thousand dollars, but the gain to the comfort and health of the students, as well as to the improvement in the class-rooms and dormitories, has been correspondingly great.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

COLIN H. CAMPBELL,
Chairman.

Winnipeg, April 16th, 1904.

REPORT OF THE SENATE OF MANITOBA COLLEGE.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The Senate of Manitoba College desire respectfully to submit to the General Assembly the following report of the work done in the College for the past year.

In accordance with the resolution of the General Assembly, the classes in Theology were taught simultaneously with those in Arts, the Session opening on the first of October. Owing to the change of Session from summer to winter, the Senate were able to introduce several most important and valuable changes into the curriculum. Senior and Junior classes were instituted in all the four great branches of Theology, and provision was also made for advanced classes for post-graduate students.

The number of students in Theology has been smaller than usual. This has been due to two causes. As there were no Theological classes last summer, the majority of the students of the final year completed their attendance at other Colleges. This accounts for the diminished number in the Third Year. The fact that there was only one student of the First Year arises from the recent extension of the Arts course of the University of Manitoba from three to four years—a year being thus created in which no regular students could graduate. The First Year student in Theology belongs to this anomalous year, and accordingly the attendance of students will not be normal till after two years.

Post Graduate.—Rev. W. J. Inglis, B.A., Rev. Christie McDiarmid, B.A.

Third Year.—J. J. Fergusson (special), R. S. Leslie, B.A., J. S. MacKay, B.A., D. N. McLachlan, R. E. Pow, B.A.

Second Year.—R. R. Clackson, B.A., F. A. Clare, R. J. Hay, B.A., Alex. MacLeod, D. McLeod, D. F. Smith.

First Year.—J. P. Jones, B.A.

Third Year :

Robert Carswell Scholarship	$70	R. E. Pow, B.A.
Robert Anderson Scholarship	50	Jas. S. MacKay, B.A.
John Black Scholarship	40	D. N. McLachlan.

Second Year :

Robt. Carswell Scholarship	$70	R. A. Clackson, B.A.
Nisbet Memorial Scholarship	60	Duncan McLeod.
Ruth Winchester Scholarship	40	F. A. Clare, B.A.
Mary Perine Tait Scholarship	40	Alex. MacLeod.

First Year :

John Ralph King Scholarship	$60	J. P. Jones, B.A.
Mary Robertson Gordon Scholarship	$50	for the best essay on Shakespeare's "Measure for Measure." R. A. Clackson, B.A.
Rev. Jos. Hogg prize	$25	for the best examination on Church Law ..... R. E. Pow, B.A.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on the Rev. James Farquharson, B.A., of Pilot Mound, honoris causa, and the degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred after examination on the Rev. F. J. Hartley, B.A., of Roland.

The following students attended the Minister-Evangelist Classes and passed the examinations of their respective years :—

The members of the Fifth Year class have completed their course and received their diplomas :

Fifth Year.—George Aitken, D. K. Allan, John G. Bitcon, Wm. M. Chalmers, Percy A. Knott, Wm. Waugh.

Fourth Year.—W. J. Allen, W. T. Hamilton, A. M. MacLennan, Alistair Murray, T. M. Murray, J. M. Niven, W. J. F. Robertson, W. H. C. Saunderson.

Third Year.—L. A. C. McRae, Hillis Wright

Second Year.—R. A. Hanley, R. H. Scott.

Of the students under the Fourth Year, one fell out during the year, and two others were found by the Senate at the close of the Session to have given so little promise of usefulness in the ministry that they were discouraged from pursuing their course further, and their names do not appear in the above list.

The classes in Theology were arranged as follows :—

Classes in New Testament Literature, Senior and Junior, were taught by the Principal, and he also conducted a post-graduate class in advanced work. Classes in Church History, Senior and Junior, were conducted by Dr. Baird, and similar classes in Systematic Theology and Apologetics by Dr. Kilpatrick. In the absence of a Professor of Old Testament Language and Literature, the Senior Class in this department was taught by the Rev. G. B. Wilson, Ph.D., and the Junior Class by the Rev. R. J. Macpherson, B.D. The Senate wish to express their thanks to these gentlemen for help readily given and highly valued. The arrangements for Practical Training embraced training in the preparation of prayers and sermons (First Year) by Dr. Kilpatrick; the duties of the pastorate and an account of the missions of our Church (Second Year) by Dr. Baird; and the administration of the Sacraments, Church Law and the Art of Teaching (Third Year) by the Principal.

Further, all the students received instruction and drill in voice production and reading and in the solution of practical questions arising in the Mission Field. The Minister-Evangelists, in addition to the classes which they took along with other students, were drilled in a knowledge of the English Bible. The New Testament Class was conducted by the Principal and the Old Testament Class by Dr. Baird.

The total number of students enrolled was 197, of whom 14 were in the regular course in Theology; 21 were Minister-Evangelists and 163 were Arts students. Of those in Arts 86 went up to the university examinations, 20 in the Final Year, 16 in the Third, 12 in the Second and 38 in the First. Six Minister-Evangelists went up to university examinations. In the Matriculation Classes 32 were registered in Part I. and 37 in Part II.

In the Arts Department the following arrangement of classes was carried out :—

English and Political Economy	Principal Patrick.
Higher English	Dr. Bryce.
Greek and Latin	Dr. Hart.
Logic	Dr. Baird.
Philosophy	Dr. Kilpatrick.
Philosophy and History	Dr. Manahan.
French and German	Mr. Will and Miss DuVal.
Mathematics	Mr. Tier.
Greek and Latin	Mr. Calhoun.

The Senate are thoroughly satisfied with the work done and the devotion to the interests of the College exhibited by the Lecturers of the Staff.

The various undergraduate organizations, religious, aesthetic and athletic, have been vigorously maintained and perform a valuable auxiliary service in the training of their members.

Last General Assembly granted to Mr. J. J. Fergusson the standing required in Arts for entering in Theology. Mr. Fergusson had, previous to that time, attended all the lectures in Theology for two sessions.

During the past session he took his third year in Theology, passing satisfactory examinations.

The Senate, in conjunction with the Presbytery of Winnipeg, request the Assembly to sustain the three sessions as regular and to authorize the Presbytery of Winnipeg to take Mr. Fergusson on trial for license.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. PATRICK, Principal.

REPORT OF OTTAWA LADIES' COLLEGE.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The Board of Ottawa Ladies' College is pleased to be able to report to the Assembly a year of satisfactory and successful work.

The attendance of pupils has been gratifying. The total number enrolled, 128. The average attendance, 115. Of these 44 were pupils in residence.

The teachers have discharged their duties with exemplary diligence and ability.

Teachers and scholars have worked together towards the attainment of the best results.

The utmost harmony has prevailed and the whole tone of the College has been such that discipline was easily maintained, whilst a large amount of freedom was allowed to the pupils.

The moral and religious influence of the school has been most marked, whilst in no respect has it failed to develop scholarship and refinement.

The Board would gratefully acknowledge the liberality of the General Assembly in according a grant of $3,000 from the Century Fund, whereby the financial position of the College has been greatly strengthened.

The estimated revenue for the year 1903-1904 is $14,250, and the estimated expenditure $14,100. In this expenditure is included $1,150 spent in repairs and furnishings, which have added greatly to the appearance and comfort of the residence.

The arrangement made with the Conservatory of Music has proved satisfactory to all parties.

The Board is desirous of establishing a number of endowed scholarships entitling the holders to free general tuition. In this way it is hoped a number of very worthy pupils will be enabled to attend the College who otherwise could not afford to do so, whilst the money thus secured would give the Board freedom in further increasing the efficiency of the College.

The Board cherishes the hope that the wealthy members of our Church and others will, perceiving the double advantage of this scheme, be disposed generously to provide for these scholarships. The amount required to endow such a scholarship is $1,000. The donor of a scholarship may have the privilege of stipulating conditions under which it shall be assigned.

May the Ottawa Ladies' College not expect as liberal treatment at the hands of the wealthy members of our Church as we see accorded to similar institutions belonging to other denominations?

At the close of the present session Mrs. Ross, who for the past five years has rendered valuable service to the College, retires from the Principalship.

As Mrs. Ross had given timely notice of her intention to retire, the Board has made painstaking effort to secure a suitable person for this important office. Twenty-two applications for the position were received. The choice of the Board fell on Mrs. J. Grant Needham, a lady of well-known Christian activity, whose executive ability, high attainments and genial temperament are a guarantee of success. Mrs. Needham comes with testimonials of the highest order.

Our Church is recognizing more than ever the importance of such institutions in giving to our daughters intellectual and moral culture under the most wholesome auspices.

The Ottawa Ladies' College is worthy to claim from the members of our Church the most liberal patronage and support.

W. D. ARMSTRONG, President. LEVI CRANNELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT OF THE CHURCH AND MANSE BUILDING FUND OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA FOR MANITOBA AND THE NORTH-WEST, FOR THE YEAR 1903.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:—

It is twenty-three years since the Church and Manse Fund was established and within that time it has assisted in the erection of 589 buildings, valued at about $731,000. But it is far beyond the capacity of dollars and cents to express the value of its help in the building of churches without which in some places the holding of services would have been impossible, and with which in all places these services are more comfortable, seemly and reverent. During the last census period the Presbyterian population in the area covered by the operations of the Board grew at a rate considerably more rapid than that of the whole population, and a chief element in the explanation undoubtedly is that the appliances for effective Christian work have been so freely at the command of Western congregations through the agency of your Board.

The accompanying statements show that twenty-nine loans were made during the year and that these loans amounted to $18,150, an average of $625 to each building. These loans are usually repayable in from three to five years and they bear interest at the rate of five per cent., which is much lower than the prevailing rate for available loans in the West from any commercial source. The rate at which repayments of former loans are being made is seen in the fact that seventy-three congregations made payments of principal or interest or both during the year. The repayments on account of principal amount to $10,278.27, and the repayments on account of interest to $2370.77. To this amount of interest earned, must be added the interest on investments other than churches and manses, ($475) and interest on bank account, ($575.48). In other words the total amount of interest earned was $3421.25, while the total number of grants (not loans) was $2665, and the expense of management $423.05—a total of $3088.05, i.e., the grants made and the cost of management were more than covered by the interest earned. This is a goal to which the Board has looked forward for years, and its attainment has been made possible by the co-operation of several causes. In the first place the additions to capital, especially from the Century Fund, have so increased the funds of the Board that the interest earned is much larger than it used to be. Next, the harvests for the past two years in most parts of the country have been good, and repayments have been general and considerable. But even more gratifying is the fact that more loans and fewer grants are being asked for. This argues greater stability in the pioneer settlements from which such requests come and greater confidence in the future which encourages these little communities to believe that a promise to repay money in two, three or five years is not an intolerable prospect. Such grants as figure in this report are nearly all in outlying parts of the country where the guaranteeing of repayment would have been well-nigh impracticable.

It will be noted that the number of manses for which loans are given is increasing much more rapidly than that of churches, e.g. thirteen manses were built last year as compared with sixteen churches. The great increase in demand for manses has arisen from the changed nature of supply in the mission fields of the West. There has been a sharp advance in the demand for ordained missionaries in proportion to the demand for students. This means a much larger employment of married men, a much greater permanency and stability in our work, and a corresponding increase in the demand for manses, to meet which an endeavor has been made by the Board to provide for the erection of manses on the easiest possible terms. That these better terms have met a need is shown by the fact that four times as many manses were erected last year as in the year before.

To bring the Board's financial year into harmony with that of the General Agents of the Church, the books this year close on the 29th February, two months earlier than formerly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND (WESTERN SECTION) FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 29TH, 1904.

The Committee begs to submit its report respecting the matters entrusted to it, and while regretting that congregations have not responded to the appeal for increased liberality, it is gratifying that the larger income arising from the increase in the Capital Fund has enabled the Committee, by using the Ministers' Rates in payment of annuities, to deal more liberally with annuitants than in former years.

It has always appeared to the Committee that the cutting down of the annuities to ministers who have given twenty-five years and upwards of ministerial service, was a great injustice to them, and the Committee is glad that for the past year that injustice has been entirely done away, the ministers having received the full benefits provided by the Rules.

This means that for the first time in the history of the Fund the maximum annuities have been paid, so that the annuitants, who had given forty years of ministerial service, have received the sum of $400 each, and those who have given shorter service received in like proportion. There can be little doubt but that this has added not a little to the comfort of the older ministers on the Fund.

It is only right, however, that it should be pointed out that this was only done by exhausting the entire income for the year, including ministers' rates. The debit balance carried from the preceding year, of $3,435.89, has not been discharged, while on the other hand it has only been increased by the small sum of $27.02, making the existing debt against the Ordinary Fund $3,462.91.

The Committee also desires to point out that if the principle intended to be brought in by placing ministers' rates on the basis of a consideration for the purchase of an annuity, the using of the rates for the payment of current annuities, without first ascertaining, by actuarial calculation, the part that should be held invested to meet the future demands, is both unwise and unfair. However, if the Church is not to fall back to the old rate of annuities, it will be necessary to either continue the doubtful course or bring up the congregations to a measure of greater liberality.

The following Financial Statements will exhibit the condition of the several accounts connected with the Fund :—

Referring to the figures of the Ordinary Fund, a comparison with the previous year shows a decrease of $581.20 in congregational contributions and donations. So much has been said in past years in regard to this part of the income, that it seems useless to go on repeating, from year to year, statements referring to the apparent lack of sympathy with the needs of the aged and infirm ministers of the Church, and to the necessity for more liberal giving on the part of most congregations. The fault does not lie at the door of the Committee, as appeal after appeal has been made, and, as is seen, with but little result. The Committee leaves the matter in the hands of the Assembly, hoping that some action may be taken that will lead to better results.

Interest shows an increase of $1,817.81, which is due to the addition to the Capital Fund. Ministers' Rates also show an increase of $613.51, which is very satisfactory, as it indicates that ministers are seeking connection with the Fund.

The Committee desires to express its thanks to the Sabbath School Committee for the $200 apportioned to this Fund, and also to the Hymnal Committee for the sum of $1,125.43.

With regard to the Endowment Fund, it is a matter of regret that it has suffered diminution during the year instead of substantial addition as was hoped. With reference to the loss through the debentures in connection with the Toronto Board of Trade Building, it should be explained that they were a donation to the Endowment Fund years ago, when the late Dr. Reid was the Agent of the Church. It is quite possible that the donor did not place a high value on them. At any rate the gift has been of no value to the Fund.

The Committee proposes to make an appeal for further additions to the capital, with a view to bring it up to at least $250,000.

ANNUITIES AND ANNUITANTS.

Eighty-six annuitants received benefit during the year, and it will be of interest to learn that, as the year may be considered to have afforded a test of the application of the new rule regulating the annuities, only three, out of the entire eighty-six were adversely affected ; all the others either suffering no diminution or deriving benefit from the change. Of the three adversely affected two had only given eleven years of service and suffered a reduction of $20 each, the one had given fourteen and one-half years of service and suffered to the extent of $2.50. Fifteen years of service is the point at which the old rule and the new touch and then diverge to the benefit of the annuitants who have given more than the fifteen years of service. Of those whose names appear as having received benefit, the following have passed into their rest and reward :— W. C. Wendell, D. Anderson, D. M. McIntosh and M. Fraser, D.D.

The difference of $187.02 in the above total of $23,824.50 and the total of the payments made by Dr. Warden of $23,637.48 arises from the payment of $177.02 annuity to the Rev. Walter Ross in 1902-03 having been returned by him, and credited in 1903-4, and also by the payment of $10.00 to the Rev. Norman MacPhee after the close of the books for the year 1903-04.

By oversight in making up the final payments of annuities, over-payments were made to the Rev. James Douglas of $59.79, Rev. Robert Fairbairn $58.18, Rev. James Sieveright $83.37, Rev. D. D. McLennan $57.26, and Rev. Neil McNish $70.36. These annuitants went on the Fund in 1903 and their annuities commenced only from the 15th of June, but were paid a full year's annuity. The amounts in each case will be deducted from the 1904-1905 annuity.

The cases of the Rev. A. Campbell, and of the Rev. David Forrest, who were placed on the Fund temporarily, as hope was entertained that the impairment of their health would not prove to be permanent, have again been considered and the condition of these brethren would indicate the necessity to continue them on the list for another year. The case of the Rev. John Maxwell who was placed on the Fund by last Assembly for one year, has also been considered, and in view of the slight improvement in his health, and other circumstances, it seems that he should also be kept on for benefit, and therefore, the Committee recommends that all three be retained on the list of annuitants for another year.

SPECIAL GRANTS.

The Committee has not felt it necessary to make special grants in view of the payment of annuities up to the full measure of the rule, except in the case of A. T. Colter, whose circumstances called for special consideration, and therefore a grant of $17.50 has been made, bringing him up to $100. The Committee also considered the three cases in which, owing to the limited years of service, a diminution was suffered, and decided to supplement the annuity by an amount to bring up each case to the sum paid under the former rule. It is hoped that this will meet with the concurrence of the Assembly.

APPEAL TO CONGREGATIONS.

In view of what has been already said in regard to the insufficient support afforded by congregations to this Fund, it might seem to be useless to appeal again, but under the circumstances, the Committee must simply appeal again and again whatever, the results may be. It is hoped that this further appeal will not be in vain. For the first time in the history of the Fund, the reasonable, and yet fairly substantial sum of $400 has been paid to the old ministers who have served the Church for forty or more years, and others in like proportion. Ministers connected with the Fund, by the payment of rates, are doing their share, and will not the congregations also come up to the measure of their share? The Committee is of the opinion that the members of the Church are not informed in regard to the claims, and if, in this, the Committee is right, then the responsibility must rest with the minister who fails to present the aims and the claims of the Fund to his people.

Is the Church going to maintain the measure of justice to her retired ministers which has now been reached, or is she going to permit matters to fall back into the unfair measure of the past? The answer must come from the congregations of the Church.

AMALGAMATION OF THE FUNDS EAST AND WEST.

No actual progress has been made in the matter of fixing a basis on which the Funds can be amalgamated. The tardiness which some of the Presbyteries displayed in sending in the returns asked for, and the incompleteness of these in very many cases, has made it impossible for the Convener to compile data necessary to reach reasonable conclusions in time for a conference. The blame does not rest wholly with the Clerks of Presbyteries, as it is known that in some cases, and perhaps in most, very much was done to secure the necessary information, which the ministers themselves failed to promptly supply. It is proposed that the members of the Western Committee in attendance at the Assembly, shall meet with the members of the Eastern Committee and consider the question and present a special report to the Assembly, Arrangements to this end are in progress while this Report is being written. Data necessarily imperfect, for the reason already stated, has been prepared by the Convener.

MINISTERS' RATES FOR INDIVIDUAL AGES.

In compliance with the decision of last Assembly, rates for separate ages from age twenty-five to fifty-five inclusive, to take the place of the "Group Rates" have been prepared and brought into effect, under which payments are now made and have been for some months. In their compilation the principle which entered into the formation of the "Group Rates" has had full influence,—indeed it might be said has been closely followed, except at the extreme ages, where it was to some extent departed from. The principle referred to was to lay a relatively higher burden on the younger ages with a corresponding lightening of it on the advanced ages. It will probably sufficiently illustrate the principle to state, that the rate for age twenty-five provides an annuity of $200 on attaining the age of retirement (70), while in the case of age fifty-five the rate only provides an annuity of $90. A gradual decrease is made in each age beginning with age twenty-six. The Convener is not clear that it is wise, even at the extreme age, to provide a rate calling for less than $100 of annuity.

The Rates are as follows :—

Age at date of connection.	Rate.	Age at date of connection.	Rate.	Age at date of connection.	Rate.
25	$5 60	36	$8 60	47	$13 30
26	5 80	37	8 90	48	13 95
27	6 10	38	9 15	49	14 60
28	6 35	39	9 60	50	15 30
29	6 65	40	10 00	51	16 10
30	6 95	41	10 40	52	16 90
31	7 15	42	10 80	53	17 85
32	7 45	43	11 25	54	18 90
33	7 70	44	11 70	55	20 00
34	8 00	45	12 20
35	8 30	46	12 75

A copy of these rates was furnished to the Convener of the Committee for the Eastern Section of the Fund, and they have been considered by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and approved. They are now submitted for the consideration and approval of the General Assembly. It may be mentioned that a copy of these Rates in a circular, dated October 12th last, was mailed to each minister in the Western Section.

THE ADMISSION OF MINISTERS TO CONNECTION FOR FULL BENEFIT, AGES FIFTY-SIX TO SIXTY INCLUSIVE.

This question was committed by the last General Assembly to the two Committees for consideration and reported with recommendation to the following meeting of Assembly. As there has not been a meeting of the two Committees the subject has not had joint consideration. The Western Committee is anxious, notwithstanding the neglect on the part of the brethren themselves in failing to connect at an earlier age, to see the way clear to extend the full benefits of the Fund to those ministers of advanced age now wishing to connect, but the possible serious effect upon the resources of the Fund compel cautious consideration. If there was a more general and hearty sympathy on the part of all the ministers and congregations, there would be less difficulty in dealing with the question. The Committee will place its views before the proposed joint meeting of the two Committees to be held during the sessions of the Assembly, and hope that some safe deliverance may be reached, that will prove of benefit to the brethren interested.

APPLICATIONS FOR LEAVE TO RETIRE.

Applications for leave to retire and to be placed on the Fund for benefit, have been received from the following :—

Name.	Presbytery.	Age	Years of Service in Canada.	Reasons for Seeking Retirement.
A. M. Croll	Rock Lake	67	34 yrs. and 5 mos.	Physical condition.
M. W. Maclean	Kingston	63	27 years	" "
Duncan McColl, B.A.	Quebec	70	14 yrs. and 10 mos.	Age.
John Hogg	Winnipeg	73	32 years	"
Wm. McConnell	Barrie	71	35 yrs. and 3 mos.	"
James Little	London	67	37½ years.	Asthma and heart.
C. B. Pitblado, D.D.	Winnipeg	68	34 years	Ill health.
George A. Yeomans	Kingston	59	31 yrs. and 5 mos.	Physical condition.

The Committee recommends that all the applicants be allowed to retire and go on the Fund for benefit. In those cases in which the age is below seventy, the evidences of impaired health are, in the judgment of the Committee, sufficient to warrant the recommendations. In the case of the Rev. John Hogg he will only go on the Fund for benefit when the pastoral tie shall have been dissolved. In the cases of Duncan McColl and G. A. Yeomans, as they have not paid rates they will come under Rule 9, and be entitled to one-third of full benefit.

The Committee recommends that Rule 9 be amended by the substitution of the following for the second clause :—

"That every minister hereafter ordained or inducted be obliged to connect himself with the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund within four years from the date of ordination or induction, and pay the fixed annual rate, or lose all benefit in the Fund. No minister hereafter ordained or inducted can unite with the Fund after a period of four years has elapsed from the date of ordination or induction."

J. K. MACDONALD, Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND (EASTERN SECTION), FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 29TH, 1904.

Your Committee has the satisfaction to report that during the past year the condition of the Fund has decidedly improved. The adverse balance has been reduced to $237, and the capital increased $8,197. Of this amount ministers' rates for 1903 yielded $1,397, and the Little estate $6,741, making the total invested Fund at the close of the year $50,353. Since that date another bequest amounting to $3,175 has been paid to the Church agent; hence, at the present time, the Capital Fund aggregates $53,528. While rejoicing over the increasing stability of the Fund, it is to be regretted that ministers who have given forty or more years to the Church should have been receiving in the East such a small recognition of their services. Our expectation is that this inequality, as compared with the West, will henceforth disappear.

During the year 153 congregations contributed; a slight gain in number, but aggregating $195 less than reported last year; 179 ministers paid rates; 15 united, and 5 were dropped from the list. At the present time 203 names are on the roll. Since the change in the rules two years ago, 40 united with the Fund. This fact affords your Committee the greatest satisfaction.

We note with appreciation that donations amounting to $658 were received during the year.

Among expenditures the bill for printing is larger than usual, owing to the number of circulars issued in connection with the change of regulations.

The Rev. J. K. Fraser, now of Charleston, South Carolina, and Rev. George Bruce, D.D., of Toronto, have severed their connection with the Fund, and received one-half the amount of rates paid, viz., $19 and $82.75 respectively.

As this is in all probability the last report of your Committee to be submitted to the General Assembly, the members desire to express their sense of gratification on the present condition of the Fund, their gratitude to Almighty God for the benefits resulting from the thirty-four years of its operations, and their abiding good wishes for the increasing usefulness of the Funds when united.

Matters referred by the General Assembly to the Committee to be reported on:

(1) The following overture: "That the principle of dividing the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund into two sections, a business section for those who pay rates, and a benevolent section, including all ministers of the Church permitted to retire by leave of the General Assembly, be adopted." This overture was considered by the Committee at its regular autumn meeting held in Charlottetown on October 8th, 1903. After discussion it was unanimously agreed to disapprove of the proposed change.

(2) The proposal of the Western Section of the Committee to abolish the system of grouping ages for rates, and substitute individual age rates. It was agreed on motion, duly seconded, to approve of the proposed change.

(3) The proposal of the Western Section of the Fund to extend the period of uniting with the Fund from 55 years of age to 60. At a meeting of the Committee held in Halifax on April 27th, 1904, it was unanimously agreed to disapprove of the proposal.

Respectfully submitted.

ANDERSON ROGERS, Convener.

MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND. (WESTERN SECTION).

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

The number of annuitants on the Fund has rapidly increased during the past few years, and at present, there are 126 widows and 53 children on the list. During the past year the following have been added:—Mrs. M. A. Cuthbertson, Mrs. M. Fraser, Mrs. W. Lochead, Mrs. P. Musgrave, Mrs. J. McMechan, Mrs. D. M. McIntosh, Mrs. P. Straith and Mrs. Sutherland. The following have been removed by death:—Mrs. Smellie, Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs. A. Geggie.

Your Committee are gratified in being able to report that, after meeting the annuities and other expenditure, there remains to the credit of the Ordinary Fund the sum of $1,068.

There are at present 374 ministers connected with the Fund by the payment of rates. This number has considerably increased during the last few years, but it is to be regretted that nearly one-half of the ministers in the western section are not connected with the Fund. Experience shows that ministers who do not unite with the Fund in the earlier years of their ministry are not likely to do so afterwards. It is, therefore, important that when a minister is ordained and inducted into a charge the Presbytery should call his attention to this scheme, with a view to his uniting with it. No provision can be made for the widows of our ministers on terms so advantageous as those offered by this Fund, as the annual rate is only $8 for those under 35 years of age, $10 between the ages of 35 and 40, and $12 between the ages of 40 and 50. It is believed that were our ministers generally connected with the Fund there would be more hearty response upon the part of the congregations of the Church.

The annuities to widows have continued at the same rate since the Fund was instituted. In view of the great increase of recent years in the cost of living it is most desirable that the annuities should be correspondingly increased. This, however, cannot be done until the congregations of the Church manifest greatly increased liberality on behalf of the Fund.

During the year your Committee held further conferences with representatives of the Committee of the Ministers' Widows' and Orphans' Fund in connection with the Church of Scotland, and it is hoped that, by next Assembly, the amalgamation of the two Funds will be an accomplished fact.

Ministers' rates	$1,679 27
Congregational collections	283 13
Donations from Hymnal and Sabbath School Committee	429 25

Annuities, Widows and Orphans	3,596 91
Leaving a balance		$15,224 49

to be added to capital. The assets of the Fund at date are $145,814.68, as against $134,488.56 reported last year, showing, notwithstanding the great shrinkage of securities during the year, the very satisfactory increase of $11,326.12.

Since last reporting Mrs. Annie C. Meek has been removed by death from the list of annuitants, and Mrs. M. A. Macgregor and her three children and Mrs. K. MacKenzie have been added to the same list.

The number of widows' in receipt of annuity is eighteen, and of orphans eleven.

The following brethren have connected themselves with the Fund during the year : in Class I., Messrs. J. G. A. Colquhoun, Nashwaak, N.B., and D. C. Ross, Acadia, N.S., and in Class II., Messrs. A. Ross, McAdam Junction, N.B.; T. H. Boyd, Waweig, N.B.; R. L. Coffin, M. Stewiacke, N.S.; J. W. Nicholson, St. John, N.B., A. H. Campbell, L. Musquodoboit, N.S.; R. H. Macpherson, Margaree, C.B.; J. C. Robertson, Milltown, N.B.; D. K. Grant, Parrsboro', N.S.; and Dr. R. Magill, Presbyterian College, Halifax, N.S. The number is the same as last year and, though not inconsiderable, might well have been larger, in view of the recent reduction of rates and increase of annuities, and the financial prosperity of the Fund.

The Committee will have the sympathy of the Assembly in again urging upon all who are in a position to avail themselves of the advantages which the Fund offers to do so without delay.

The list of annuitants is as follows :—

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF PROBATIONERS, 1903-1904.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada :

The Report of the Committee for the year 1902-1903, as presented to the General Assembly at its meeting in Vancouver, stated that the Probationers' list for the quarter, closing with June, had on it 16 names, but the list for the quarter of the year closing with June now current, had on it only 10 names, 2 of those on the former one having accepted calls and been inducted into charges, and 4 having withdrawn.

At the meeting of your Committee in September 1 withdrew, and the name of 1 was omitted through expiry of time ; 2 were added, thus giving 10 available for vacancies in Presbyteries.

At their meeting in December 4 signified their withdrawal, on the ground of having accepted mission work, and 1 because of ill-health; 1 requested to have his name replaced after being engaged in mission work, and 3 were added, being duly certified by Presbyteries, thus giving a roll of 9 for the quarter.

At their meeting in March last I wished his name withdrawn, as he had taken up mission work in the West; 1 was dropped because of non-compliance with the regulations Probationers are required by the General Assembly to follow; 1 was replaced who had been obliged to retire on account of his health; 2 were added on certificate by Presbyteries; that is, 2 names were removed from the list for the previous quarter and 3 were added, thus again giving 10.

For the entire year there were 18 names on the roll. Of these 1 was settled on April 27th last; 6 accepted mission work; 1 was dropped for the present ; I had to remove his name from the state of his health, thus leaving, at the close, a roll of 9.

For the quarter, July to September, your Committee were able to give each Probationer 8 Sabbaths supply; from October to December, 11 Sabbaths; from January to March of this year 10, and for the quarter now current 12, and these did not come up to the requirements of vacancies.

If the closing year is taken as an average one for vacancies, it will be seen that there is a quite satisfactory amount of work for Probationers who take the regular course of supply, even after the vacancies are allowed the "use and work" privilege of procuring one-half, which is also guaranteed them by the enactments of Assembly, and the Committee has strict respect to this in the quarterly distribution, and the work would be still greater if all Presbyteries recognized their obligation to govern themselves by the injunctions of the supreme court of the Church. But it is still, as it had been for some time, a matter to be noted that some sessions, and even Presbyteries, do not walk according to the rules that have been adopted and prescribed by the Church at large as it is represented by the General Assembly. At the same time it should be mentioned, and it is a matter of congratulation, that more sessions and Presbyteries are falling into line in this respect.

Your Committee carried out the recommendation which was submitted to last Assembly, and approved by it, to provide for Probationers a blank form, on which they should report the fulfilment of their appointments, and some of these have returned, properly filled up, the forms with which they were furnished, yet all have not done so. The Committee recommend that the practice be continued.

During the year 65 vacancies were reported for supply. In Appendix I. the names of 73 are given, but in one Presbytery there are 5, and in each of 3 others 1 that were not reported, most of these having taken place since the last distribution. One has this peculiarity: It was reported for supply, but as being in an "unsettled state." It has since been occupied by the minister formerly in charge, but the Committee had no report of his return to it, but it is not now on the list.

Altogether 32 settlements were effected, but only 1 of these by a Probationer, but in reality there were 3 at least; 2 of these after the preparation of the report for last Assembly. There are now 33 still vacant, unless calls and settlements have taken place since the date of the compilation of this report of the 65 first mentioned.

In the Appendix 8 appear which are not in the printed Scheme as prepared and issued quarterly.

All which is respectfully submitted in name of the Committee.

ROBERT TORRANCE,
Convener.

Guelph, April 27th, 1904.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH LIFE AND WORK.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

Your Committee on Church Life and Work beg to present the following report :—

Before entering on a summary of the replies, your Committee invite your attention to two or three introductory observations, viz. :

(1) That the forms were sent out to the Convener or the Clerk of each Presbytery in the Dominion on the 18th December, 1903, the Presbytery of Calgary alone was overlooked until February 24th, 1904.

(2) In these, the recommendations of the General Assembly last year respecting directions to Sessions, and to the Conveners of Presbyterial Committees, were gven a conspicuous place; special request being made to Presbytery's Conveners to have returns made "to the Convener of the Assembly's Committee in due time."

(3) Being warned by the monotonous complaint year after year as to the "unfitness" or "vagueness" of the questions, your Committee added this note for the attention of Sessions :—"The Church confidently expects from Sessions full and earnestly considered returns for this report. If the questions do not seem to any Session to elicit, as fully as may be, facts respectng the Church's 'Life anod Work,' as confined to 'the sphere of the Christian congregation, as to its services, organizations, and methods," then please give the desired information in your own form—only give it."

(4) By a large number of Sessions and by seventeen Presbyteries out of fifty-five, these recommendations of the General Assembly would seem to have been ignored. Only thirty-eight Presbyteries have reported, the last three of which reports reached me to-day,—May 18th, the last day for the preparation of this report. And only three Synodical reports are in the hands of the Assembly's Convener, two of these received at this latest hour.

The Presbyteries whose reports are in the hands of your Convener—for the Committee have no opportunity of seeing them now until they see the printer's proof—are as follows :—

Synod of the Maritime Provinces : Seven out of ten—Sydney, Truro, Inverness, Miramichi, Halifax, St. John, N.B., Lunenburg and Yarmouth.

Synod of Montreal and Ottawa : Five out of six—Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa. Brockville, Lanark and Renfrew.

Synod of Toronto and Kingston : Eight out of twelve—Saugeen, Whitby, Owen Sound, Orangeville, Kingston, Peterborough, Toronto, Guelph.

Synod of Hamilton and London : Four out of nine—Chatham, Stratford. London, Sarnia.

Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories : Ten out of twelve—Rock Lake, Glenboro', Melita, Winnipeg, Dauphin, Brandon, Superior, Regina, Minnedosa, Portage la Prairie.

Synod of British Columbia : Four out of six—Westminster, Victoria, Edmonton, Kootenay.

(5) The questions submitted by your Committee have been freely criticised by a number of Sessions and a few Presbyteries. From other Presbyteries come such remarks as these : "Have felt the importance and searching character of the questions asked." Another remarks that some Sessions complained that the questions were too indefinite, but he adds, "None, however, suggested better." Another says : "They are admirably fitted to obtain the end contemplated." "The most common sense and helpful questions for years." The final form of the questions was cast under circumstances which compelled the hasty incorporation of belated suggestions of distant members of the Committee; hence defects crept in more easily. But it would be of no small assistance to the Church's Life and Work if those who do not like to do their "spiriting gently" would either amend the questions, or frame their own questions, and so fulfill the Assembly's recommendations, and prevent so large a part of the Church's territory from appearing barren as Sahara.

(6) With pleasure and gratitude your Committee refer to the fulness and value of the majority of the Presbyterial Reports sent in. Special mention may be allowed of the reports of the following Presbyteries :—Montreal, Kingston, Brockville, Regina, Kootenay, Ottawa, St. John, N.B., and Guelph. The last is printed and distributed throughout the Presbytery. Many others deserve mention as showing earnest, faithful and able consideration, but these must suffice.

As the searchlight of the Church was turned in 1902 upon the Home life, for 1903 it is turned, logically, upon the more public and congregational aspects of religious life and work. The questions on this subject are arranged under three heads : (1) Services, (2) Organization, (3) Methods. With an addendum called "General," which covers one question respecting the office-bearers and another concerning the membership.

1.—SERVICES.

(a) In comparison with, say, four or five years ago, specify if any changes in the regular services of the congregation have affected its life and work ? As manifested, for example, in the following or other ways :—

(1) In the average attendance.

In view of the wide territory represented in this report, and the diverse conditions obtaining in different sections, the replies to this question give strong grounds for thankfulness. In a small proportion of congregations a slight falling off is noted. In some cases this is due to a decrease of population; others, where new churches have been established, and divided the people, and two Sessions tell that in their communities Roman Catholics are slowly crowding out the Protestants. But in the overwhelming majority of reports encouraging increase is noted. In some the attendance has doubled and in at least two congregations, one far west and the other far east, it has trebled. Two say that the congregation's increase is not equal to the increase of population, but all other replies assure us that public worship is not losing its hold on the people. Whilst thankful for this, let not our satisfactoin blind us to facts of another colour. Especially in towns and cities, we require not only to compare our congregations of to-day with those of yesterday, but to compare the numbers in our churches on any Sabbath day with the numbers who are outside the church. To painstaking investigators the comparison is sobering, and calls for confession, prayer and work. From the report of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, I quote as follows : "It was right to put this question in the forefront, for if men lose the spirit of devotion, which delights to nourish itself in communion with God's people, Christianity cannot long survive in any useful or effective form. It is now possible for individuals to live pure, generous and sympathetic lives, without any form of worship, because they are buoyed up and inspired by the great body of believing, praying and communing people around them. But when the whole community falls away from worship such lives will be impossible. Even now, the noblest, truest and most helpful souls draw a large measure of their spiritual power from the sanctuary."

(2) The presence of the young at the church services is spoken of encouragingly by most of the reports. One oft-recurring phrase, "especialy at the evening service," rather detracts from the optimistic tone of a large number. The more so because a number speak of the Sabbath School as the "Children's Church." Many lament that the custom of the family assembling in the family pew is passing away. "A large number of our Sabath Scholars are being brought up outside the Church; this partly accounts for the multitude of people in the ranks of the lapsed, who were once Sabbath School scholars." Speaking out of his wide experience among men on the Teslin trail, and among the creeks of the Yukon, Dr. Pringle recently said that the very men who, on first meeting, declared that they had religion licked into them when they were young, afterwards acknowledged that the influence of that early training in home and church saved them from ruin and death. One Session strikes a true and timely heart-chord in these words: "There are large numbers of young people attending, but we are more concerned about the large number who attend irregularly, if at all." What an awful vision the thoughtful mind conjures up as it sees the innumerable multitude in each generation of those who "attended public worship irregularly, if at all," "having no hope, and without God in the world," filing their darkened way down to that depthless abysm, where they "perish not alone in their iniquity." Let the home and the Sabbath School be of the best, yet have they failed at a most vital point, and have left their offspring and scholars without enduring anchorage, if they have not led the young to "love the gates of Zion," and with uninterrupted regularity to "throng her courts." Many speak of a brief discourse to the young each Sabbath morning having had a most salutary effect. Certainly the young should be remembered in each part of the service if they are to be glad when we say unto them, "Let us go up to the house of the Lord."

(3) Concerning the pulpit's ministrations, it is not easy to give the gist of the replies. One minister does not desire to "blow hs own trumpet." Many "it is too personal." One Convener says, "If the Committee has been conducting a quiet hunt for preachers of the new critical school, its pursuit has been fruitless in this Presbytery." The useful replies are of two classes: (a) Those which pertain to doctrine, and (b) those that treat of method. Under the first of these are but few replies, but all agree in declaring that the great evangelical verities of our holy faith are reverently and ceaselessly proclaimed. If we accept Archbishop Whately's famous dictum, "If my faith be false I am bound to change it; but if true I am bound to propagate it," should we be so "self-conscious" and "diffident" about discussing this question? Surely in a decade marked by such sweeping changes in theology, the question is neither an anachronism nor superfluous. If any percentage of our ministers are preaching "another doctrine," there is no hint of it in the reports. One report would fain learn of the "doctrine" from the results. He borrows an illustration from a sister-nation to lead us to examine ourselves, lest we be "also in the same condemnation." A distinguished author and an earnest Christian man thus writes: "How often have we sat, our eyes delighted with the beauty of the solemn architecture, our ears delighted with the harmony of sweet sounds, our reason delighted with the linked chain of masterly logic, presented in the choicest English, while all the time our hearts and spirits were hungering for a morsel of the bread of life and the comfort of the spirit." An intelligent business man, head of a large manufacturing concern in a western town, said: "Our minister has a strong intellect; he quotes extensively from the poets and great writers, but somehow to me he seems to be always speaking of something distant in space and far away in time; he never seems to touch me, and yet I can honestly say, I think I am anxious to be impressed."

Since, according to the reports, more than eighty per cent. of the replies were not from the Session, but from the minister (a fact greatly to be deplored), no question in the list should have had more serious treatment than this one. When we find by these reports from all parts of the Church that audiences on the Lord's Day are large and still increasing, can we forbear to ask about the meagre results? If souls are not converted and saints edified, our ministry itself is vain. The feeling of the true minister is: "My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you." God's spirit seems extensively striving with men to-day, as He did before the flood, and before the first advent of our Lord. Are we giving the right direction to the religious currents of the day as fellow-workers with God? Or are we caught in the age-drift; blind leading the blind? The bare possibility of having hearers waiting, like the western man already quoted, "anxious to be impressed," "hungering for a morsel of the bread of life," and receiving only a "stone," should bring each servant of God to his knees, crying that he may be aroused from the effect of every opiate and drug of worldliness, and awake to "watch for souls," as one who must give account.

(b) As to methods, a large number speak of giving "more attention to expository preaching"; others "more systematic study of the books of the Bible." Apparently services are shorter, especially in the evening.

(4) With few exceptions the services of the choir seem to have given general satisfaction. Many of the replies to this, as to some other questions, are valueless. "No change," "Good," "Better than before," and so forth. Others seem to think the Church is concerned to know about the quality of the singing. One says: "Our music is more elaborate and ornate, and therefore more attractive to . . . the superficially religious." Some speak of the "professionalism" which threatens the spiritual usefulness of the choir. Churches bidding against churches for their singers. Young people singing one month in a Roman Catholic church, the next in a Presbyterian, and the third on the stage—according to the prices offered. The majority speak of the helpfulness of the choir, but only a few specifically speak of choirs who are qualified by Christian character to "shew forth the praises of Him who has called us out of darkness into his marvellous light." Of one choir it is said: "They lead the congregation in praise, rather than perform before them." Surely it is of vital moment that only such singers be chosen as shall offer the sacrifice of praise with hallowed lips, and it becometh the Church to look out such, and to pray for them, that they may be instruments at once helping our expression of grateful devotion to the great God and our Father, and that they be usable by the Holy Spirit for the impression of His truth on our hearts. In villages or large rural congregations, where they have no choir, the minister might do a real service for God in creating a constituency for a capable musician of good taste, and then finding a Christian character to measure up to the opportunity. Children's choirs in Sabbath Schools are reported from at least three congregations. There should be more. As a warning, one Session admits having secured a professor of music and paid singers to "draw" the people, but the experiment was so hurtful that they have returned "to ordinary worshipful music again."

(5) In the attendance at, and general tone of the weekly prayer-meeting. Here we strik the weakest part of our Church's life and work. "If attendance at prayer meeting is a true test of vital godliness in a congregation, we are woefully deficient in it. It is most evident that none but the few think of the mid-week meeting as a necessity of the Christian life or much of an aid to it." From ocean to ocean, in urban and rural districts, the unanimity is sad and startling. In one western Presbytery out of ten reporting congregations and mission stations eight have no prayer meeting. In another western Presbytery out of fourteen reporting congregations two omit reference to the prayer meeting, three have a substitute in the Christian Endeavor meeting, and nine report "no prayer meeting." One calls the prayer meeting "quite a dying institution." In almost all Prsbyteries some report "no prayr meeting." One suggests that in these days of many meetings and changed social conditions, the prayer meeting may-hap has "outgrown its usefulness." One thinks it is time for croaking and bemoaning the decadence of the prayer meeting to cease. This minister says: "If what Carlyle says is true, that 'all true work is religion,' who shall say that to a man of a different temperament God has not given another blessing in another place equally valuable, i e., to the blessing he might get in the prayer meeting." More than one Session confesses that none of its members except the Moderator ever attend it. Well may we take up the lament of the prophet of old: "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to Thee, my God: O our God, what shall we say after this?" Ezra 9,6-10. But darkness is pierced by some bright beams, which show that a remnant of the people do prize this means of grace, and rejoice to be God's intercessors. "Good both in numbers and tone," "No increase, but a higher spiritual tone." In a number appreciative remarks are made respecting cottage prayer-meetings, and other outside religious meetings. Is it not mortgaging the future strength of our Church to have our members going out of the Church in order to find that spiritual atmosphere so requisite to high Christian fellowship and service? Some try to account for the evident general waning of this important institution by reference to the pressure of business and social engagements in these feverish days, but the explanation may be anything but a justification. Business or social engagements which debar a man from the enjoyment of most valuable religious privileges can scarcely bear God's "image and superscription" upon them. "Let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God." 1 Cor. 7, 24.

(c) Have you had special services? For whom intended? By whom conducted, evangelist or brother minister? With what results?

In answer to this question the large majority of congregations report "No special services."

In the Synod of British Columbia Mr. Rogers, the Synod's Evangelist, has conducted special services at eight points, with gratifying results.

More than thirteen congregations in the Synod of Manitoba held special services; in all but three instances they were conducted by the pastor, or assisted by brother ministers. One case without results, one with mixed results, the others "some quickened, all helped."

In the Synod of London and Hamilton nineteen congregations held special services, chiefly led by pastors and brother ministers. All were successful, some in gathering in to the Church, others in deepening spiritual life. In one congregation over a hundred united on profession of faith.

In the Synod of Toronto and Kingston special services have been held in many congregations, with the result that spiritual life has been deepened, and not a few have confessed Christ as Saviour.

In the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa 30 congregations had special services, but they were not all revival meetings. Here, as in the former cases, the pastors assisted by co-presbyters were the evangelists.

In the Maritime Provinces a number speak of special services a few weeks before the communion, conducted by the pastors.

One Convener says: "It is well known that many ministers and Sessions have a distaste for special services. There has been so much exagegration, so much fanatical excitement, and so much transient profession, that we cannot wonder at the revulsion which they feel when they hear the phrase 'special services.' But the name does not always mean the same thing." Chosen instruments of God, men of sanity, piety and specially suited for the work, have wrought, and by the blessing of God will work a most beneficial and urgent ministry through "special services."

II.—ORGANIZATION.

(a) Have any organiaztions become defunct during the year? If so, why? It seems necessary to ask the questions of this second general division, in view of the latitude allowed to congregations in regard to conducting public worship, and also in regard to organizations operating in the congregations. The answer to this first question is the only case where a simple negative is pardonable and pleasing. A great majority have so answered. Without statistics from two Synods, we cannot be as definite as we would like. In three Synods twenty-seven Young People's Societies died, one Woman's Home Missionary Society, one Mission Band and one Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Several prayer-meetings and one Sabbath School. The reasons given may be summed up in a word: Lack of interest, dearth of workers, and want of leaders.

(b) What new societies, if any, have you organized? With what effect? Many new societies have been brought into being during the year. In one Presbytery thirteen new societies were organized, and no two of them have the same name. Of twenty societies of different names, with fifty-five branches organized in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, seven kinds, with nine branches, were organized exclusively for males. This is a new and hopeful feature of Church work.

Women's Foreign Mission Societies and Ladies' Aid Societies head the list of new organizations. Mission Bands come next, and a few Mission Study Classes Two features are outstanding, i.e., the serious study of missions and of the "boy" problem. The new missionary organizations have increased interest in that most vital work, and larger contributions have already resulted. In order to hold the boys who leave the Sabbath School, and who do not find their way into the Bible Class, several new efforts have been put forth. One provides a library and reading-room, and the "club" meets for Bible study every Sabbath evening. "Men's work for men" is a note growing in strength. The unanimous testimony concerning the different newly organized societies is, that they are meeting real needs, and doing so effectively.

Provided that we preserve the consciousness ever alive that it is "not by might nor by power," not by multiplication of wheels, or exchanging of "machines," that the Church's work is to be accomplished, but by the spirit of the Lord, we need not fear about the forms in which our life may express itself. It is impossible not to contrast the genius of our Church which seeks the culture of individual character after the image of Christ, allowing organization to proceed along endless lines, if true to the principles of her divine Head, with the Roman hierarchy, which cramps both the intellectual and spiritual life of the individual in order that its cast-iron forms of external organization may be maintained. Mechanism is not organism.

(c) Specify in one of the following. or other, ways in which your congregational organizations are proving their efficiency:—

(1) By a full enlistment of office-bearers and members in visiting, in the Sabbath School, in missionary, in financial and other departments of congregational work. There is undivided testimony as to the success and value of our congregational organizations, but if their efficiency is to be tested by their ability to get every office-bearer and member assigned to some position or some work, they have not proved their efficiency. There is no difference of opinion here, whether we consult the reports of the old or the new sections of our country. All rejoice that the work which is done is marked by so much of noble self-sacrifice and is productive of so much abiding good; but, almost all, plaintively contrast the few workers, with the large number of members and office-bearers who "still seem to think work a deadly thing." If the few can accomplish such great things, what marvels might be wrought if the unused forces of the Church were "hitched to the chariot!" It is clear that almost everywhere the visiting is largely, if not wholly, left to the pastor. Sabbath School work is encouragingly sustained, but the need for more workers is emphatically voiced. Universally the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is praised for their spiritual ministry, and Ladies' Aid and Young People's Societies are cordially commended. No department is better manned than that which has charge of the temporalities.

(2) By its oversight of those not in full communion, whether within or beyond parish bounds. By its efforts to retain the young, to seek out the stranger, and to reach the non-church-goers in the district.

"We have nothing like a sense of responsibility in these particulars, either on the part of individuals or organizations. Yet many strive to be faithful." This reply covers the answers from all parts so far as they have been given. It is significant that a majority of reports leave this question unanswered. Are the public reception of our infant members and the vows which we take individually and congregationally void of sacredness or meaning? Whatever unspoken proofs there may be otherwise, the returns give almost no evidence that these vows are taken seriously at all. One congregation, on the seventh anniversary of the child's baptism, gives a Bible in the name of the Session if the child be in the congregation, and if removed, he is followed by prayer, and on that anniversary a Bible is sent to him. If there was more conscience and carefulness in this matter there would be fewer go from our Churches and Sabbath Schools to swell the mass of the lapsed. The Church's settled policy seems to be to devote her strength chiefly to adult reclamation and upbuilding. Apart from our solemn obligations to our infant members, is it not possible that that wondrous organization, the Church of Rome, whose settled policy is to make the young her chief care, displays a wisdom which we might profitably emulate? In the efforts to retain the young, our Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies are making appreciated contributions. Their success is not so marked if we have special regard to young men. The Christly duty of seeking out the stranger and the non-church-goer seems to be left almost wholly to the pastors. Except in rare instances, there is a lack of solicitude for the souls who are "being drawn into death." Where is that intense "compassion for the multitude," that "seeking of the lost," which we see in our adorable Exemplar and Lord?

GENERAL.

III. (a) State briefly in what ways you think your methods for raising ordinary revenue and revenue for the Schemes, are Scriptural, and the most helpful in the development of the spiritual life of the congregation.

In the matter of raising revenue we have unquestionably made progress, but perfection is yet afar off. The "subscription list," with the annual or semi-annual collection, has been driven out save in a few less progressive rural congregations. For ordinary revenue the weekly contribution by envelope is generally in use, and where it has been faithfully worked has proved the most effective system yet tried. Its Scripturalness is unquestioned. The worshipper "brings an offering" when he comes to the house of the Lord. It is voluntary (2 Cor. 8, 12), and systematic (1 Cor., 16, 1-2), and we trust leads to proportionate giving. For the Schemes the "hit or miss" plan is too common. The monthly envelope for the Schemes is gaining in favor. A very small proportion of our congregations have the weekly envelope for the Schemes. But those who have adopted it have doubled their contributions to the Schemes, with signs of deeper interest in the work of the Church, and of spiritual benefit to themselves. The duplex envelope is the best method we have yet learned of. One end is for ordinary revenue and the other for the Schemes. Each day we come up to the house of the Lord with an "offering" for our congregation, we have a silent reminder on the other end of the envelope, of the vast work outside of ourselves, in which we are co-partners with God and the Church.

Most Sessions have not undertaken to show the Scripturalness of the methods employed. Perhaps one brother voiced the opinions of the silent ones when he said: "If we did not think our methods Scriptural we would not follow them." This is missing the point. Many may be using methods which were in vogue before they were born, and are followed from force of habit, without giving much heed to their Scripturalness or spiritual helpfulness. The question was intended to quicken conscience on this very important part of public worship. "There is a lack of a true missionary motive. The people give in response to special appeals, and not because of a firmly rooted and thoroughly reasoned missionary principle. There is still need for more tactful, sympathetic and intelligent instruction in Christian missions. The most of our members content themselves wth giving money and do not try to mould opinion."

(b) Specify any encouraging proofs of this, as, for example, regularity and system on the part of contributors; increased contributions; manifest growing interest in the work of our Church at home and abroad, or other signs of deepened consecration to Christ and His service.

Gratifying progress has been made in the matter of regularity and system in giving; also an encouraging increase in contributions is generally noted. But no one ventures to assert that the people as a whole, or any considerable part of them, have risen up to the New Testament standard, "As God hath prospered." Many report a deeper interest in the Church's work, and some express the conviction that greater faithfulness in our stewardship would enrich our spirits yet the more. Here and there are hints of self-sacrifice, but, generally speaking, we know not the meaning of self-sacrifice. The amount "offered" to the Lord bears no recognizable relation to the sums we spend on ourselves. In reply to a recommendation to adopt the tithe system, the Synod of Montreal says: "We hesitate to lay down the law (1) because it is too much for a poor man and too little for a rich man. (2) It is a very poor rule for a farmer, who takes nearly all his household expenses out of his income before he begins to count. (3) It seems to interfere with the spirit of stewardship, in which all our affairs are to be administered. But the giving of one tenth may form a good startng point for systematic giving."

(d) In view of the terrible evils wrought by the drink traffic, what means, if any, have been adopted by the congregation, or any organization of the congregation, for promoting a healthy temperance sentiment, especially among the young?

So far as the returns show, there is absolute unanimity in regarding the drink traffic as one of the most gigantic evils against which the Church has to contend. Whilst recognizing this, the reports indicate that there is no systematic or organised effort on the part of congregations against this fell destroyer. The great majority of office-bearers and members set an example of total abstinence. In almost all pulpits sermons are preached encouraging temperance sentiment and practice. In the Sabbath School the quarterly temperance lesson is generally adopted. Some Sessions have secured the teaching of temperance principles in the day school. Many ministers and elders have displayed courage and zeal in canvassing against the granting of licenses, and in bringing influence to bear on the authorities to withhold them. In some places Bands of Hope have been organized, and pledge rolls have been circulated in some Sabbath Schools and in congregations. Church members are said to be the strength of such temperance societies as the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and Sons of Temperance. It is peculiarly pleasing to hear from Quebec Presbytery that "some of its localities are freer from the curse of intemperance than almost any other parts of the Dominion."

The striking thing in the returns is the fact that, while it seems all our ministers, elders and Sabbath School workers, are united in faithful testimony against the accursed drink traffic, yet no very aggressive work, certainly no organized work within the Church, is matched against it. One Session concisely sums up in these words: "The congregation seems content to express its disapproval of the evil, without doing anything to suppress the cause." One temperance paper says pithily: "The Bar would abolish the Church if it could, and the Church could abolish the Bar if it would." Surely the Church, which is God's elect instrument for the salvation of man, can, if she will, do something more aggressive for the suppression of a traffic so irretrievably vicious and ruinous, than to express its horror at the awful carnival of crime, its detestation of the moral corruption, its shame at the burdens and agony of innocent victims, and its indignation against the whole viper-brood of which the accursed drink evil is the undoubted parent?

IV. (a) How has the work of the congregation been affected by the faithfulness or unfaithfulness of its office-bearers? State briefly points of strength or weakness.

Since office-bearers are their own judges and reporters, the question is confessedly embarrassing; yet it has served a good purpose if it has caused one delinquent to consider his position and responsibility as one charged with a peculiarly solemn trust. Ministers have spoken of elders in some cases, and some Sessions of office-bearers "whom they have known."

Points of weakness are spoken of, such as: —

(1) Kept in office too long.

(2) Having men in office who lack spirituality and have no due sense of responsibility.

(3) Life eldership, which sometimes places incompetent men in office, by accident of vote, with no practical means short of civil war for their removal.

(4) Where managers act as if finances were first.

Points of strength :—

(1) The annual election of officers.

(2) Christian co-operation between office-bearers.

(3) Consistent lives and self-sacrificing service.

The answers, on the whole, indicate that our Church is officered by men of ability and of high Christian character, and that their work has been inexpressibly helpful to the life of the Church. The points of strength, in a word, lie in the faithful performance of necessary duties, and in maintaining a high average of Christian character and service. The weakest point seems to be a complacent satisfaction with present spiritual attainment, instead of remembering that and that each rising opportunity is the Lord's call to deeper faithfulness, larger obligation and nobler devotion.

"New occasions, teach new duties,"

(b) In what respects, if any, do you notice the Christian spirit, the spirit of love, of prayer, of liberality, of zeal for the glory of God and the salvation of men, growing or lessening ?

This question was intended to give an opportunity to sum up all that is most vital in the report. A large number have left it blank. The replies are wide as the antipodes apart. Optimism and pessimism of the extreme schools are represented. Between these extremes the truth is to be found. Who can fail to be stirred with thanksgiving at such advance of the Christian spirit as these reveal: "Increased attendance, or public worship," "Greater liberality," "Helpful ministries to the sick," "Greater subordination of pleasure and gain to the things that are eternal and real," "Increased readiness to forgive injuries and forget the old grudges," "A deepened and less formal interest in the evangelization of the world," "A greater desire for the revival of religion." On the other hand, who can hear without trembling such things as these: "'Prayer meeting is a dying institution," "Worldliness increasingly manifest in the Church," "Growing desire for amusement, even in the house of God," "The number of those who are qualified and willing to do active aggressive personal Christian work is not increasing," "Sabbath desecration more flagrant." It is evident the Church has ample ground both for grateful praise and for humble confession. "The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad." But we have "not yet attained, neither are we already perfect."

In humble dependence in the God of our fathers and our God, cheered by the blessed tokens of His favor revealed in this report, vigilant by the memory of shortcomings and sins, with faces uplifted hopefully to Him "whose we are," we front the responsibilities of to-day and to-morrow courageously and earnestly.

"For, yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith." Heb. 10: 37, 38.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

(1) "That, inasmuch as the liquor traffic is a great hindrance to the progress of the Church, and a standing menace to our national well-being, all our people be earnestly urged to use strenuously all proper means for its effectual suppression."

(2) "That Sessions be urged to greatest diligence in their oversight of the young, their encouragement of the family pew, and in training, especially the young men, for the discipleship and service of Christ."

3. "That Sessions be asked to co-operate with pastors in an earnest effort to make the prayer meeting as effective as possible."

4. "That Sessions keep in close touch with the Spiritual life of their people, so that when the time seems ripe and opportune special services may be held for the quickening and deepening of religious life."

5. "That Sssions be reminded of the importance of this report, and be urged to make punctual and complete returns."

(6) "That Sessions take such measures as they may deem suitable to secure that the contributions of our people be "as God hath prospered" them, and that "the offering be recognized as a part of the public worship of God.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. B. WINCHESTER,
Convener.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE AND LEGISLATION.

To the Venerable the General Assembly:

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance and Legislation desires to report as follows :—

I.—PRIVY COUNCIL'S DECISION.

The matter of chief interest during the year past, so far as this Committee's special care is concerned, has been the decision given in July, 1903, of the test case referred by the Ontario Court of Appeal to the Privy Council.

By this test case it was hoped : (1) That the power of the Provinces in the matter of Sabbath legislation would be fully and finally settled in answer to the question, "Had the Legislature of Ontario jurisdiction to enact chap. 246 of Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897, entitled 'An Act to Prevent the Profanation of the Lord's Day,' in particular sections 1, 7 and 8 thereof ?" (2) That the meaning of the law in some clauses, especially in relation to corporations and their employees, would be made plain.

All that was hoped for from their decision has not been received, but a first and necessary step, and that a long one, has been taken.

The judgment of the Privy Council was in part as follows :—

"Their Lordships are of opinion that the Act in question, Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897, chap. 246, entitled An Act to Prevent the Profanation of the Lord's Day, treated as a whole, was beyond the competency of the Ontario Legislature to enact, and they are accordingly of opinion that this question ought to be answered in the negative."

In consequence of this answer to the first question no answer at all was considered necessary on any of the other questions submitted.

From the decision it is manifest that all legislation since Confederation passed by any Provincial Legislature in the form of the Lord's Day Act of Ontario is ultra vires, and that legislation sought in the future in this form must be sought from our Federal House.

Ante-Confederation laws, however, remain in force, especially the Act of 1845. These cover in Ontario practically all the Lord's Day Act, excepting a clause forbidding excursions and another dealing with electric and tram railways.

Most of these latter operate under Provincial Charter and are therefore subject to the Electric Railways' Bill, which forbids Sunday operation, while the International excursions at least, and these are the chief offenders, will be prevented by the praiseworthy action of the Minister of Customs, the Hon. William Patterson, refusing "attendance" on Sunday.

The Act of 1845 forbids Sunday business and labor, playing of all noisy games, hunting, shooting, fishing, bathing.

In addition to this and to the Electric Railways' Act, we have the Shops' Regulation Act and the Liquor Act.

Thus in Ontario there is still a very substantial bulwark about the day.

So in Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island Ante Confederation Laws remain in force, and, it would seem, safeguard very effectually against many attacks on the sanctity of the Day.

Manitoba, the Territories and British Columbia are perhaps not so well-off, but there remain at least the Liquor Laws and the Old English Laws of Charles I. and II., William and George III.

Besides, as Rev. W. Leslie Clay, sub-convener for British Columbia, writes : "We have in British Columbia some Provincial statutes and some municipal by-laws which are not affected by the decision of the Privy Council. An effort has been made to discredit their validity, but so far without success."

How alive the West is to the importance of the day as a day of rest may be judged, when it is recalled that the Government of the North-West Territories, of its own initiative, after the decision of the Privy Council, introduced an amendment to the Game Act, making Sunday a "close season" for all game and birds under its protection throughout the whole year. The North-West Mounted Police, in terms of the new act, are made ex-officio "Game Wardens."

II.—PRESENT EFFORT.

It is well known that, according to the Act of Confederation, all criminal law can be enacted only by the Federal House, and civil law by the Provincial Legislatures. It is not so plain, however, what is criminal law and what civil.

It is felt, e.g., that much now appearing in the Lord's Day Act, pronounced "as a whole" ultra vires of the Provincial Legislature because falling under criminal law, much of it, e.g., all relating to hiring and being hired, buying and selling, etc., can be properly placed under civil rights.

Much attention is being given to this phase of the questions by the Lord's Day Alliance.

Conference has been had with the Ontario Cabinet and this decision reached. The Honorable Edward Blake will be asked for advice by the Government as to the powers of the Province. In all probability a bill will be introduced on the lines of his advice.

From this, appeal may, of course, be taken to the Privy Council. The sooner the better, for only thus will the knowledge be gained of the proper source to which to look for legislation in this matter.

At the same time it is evident that much legislation, e.g., that dealing with companies, operating under a Dominion charter and all criminal law can be secured only through our Federal Government.

Accordingly, after the Privy Council's decision of July 14, 1903, a conference was held on August 13th with the Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Sir Wm. Mulock. At this conference your Convener was present. The delegation was received most sympathetically. Conferences have been held since and a Draft Bill presented to the Minister of Justice.

This Bill aims at prohibiting all labor and business, except works of necessity and mercy, which are specified with some detail. It prohibits Sunday excursions for pleasure, rifle practise and all sports and entertainments for which an admission fee is charged.

It seeks to remove the injustice of the present system which proceeds against the employee for infractions of the Lord's Day, while leaving the individual employer or corporation untouched.

At first it seemed that this Bill would be adopted and submitted to the Supreme Court, and perhaps also to the Privy Council, to see if within the powers of the Federal House to enact.

The probability, however, now is that a skeleton Act will be framed such as in the judgment of the Department of Justice might be enacted by any Provincial Legislature, and the Supreme Court and Privy Council asked to decide if this be competent legislation for the Provinces.

All this is, of course, causing delay, but a year, more or less, matters little in comparison with definite knowledge about the powers of the Provincial Legislatures and the Federal Government on this important matter.

III.—OUTLOOK.

The outlook was never more cheering. The public mind is being aroused, as is evidenced by the fact that in three years the number of Branches of the Lord's Day Alliance has advanced from 210 to nearly 550, and the membership from 8,000 to 25,000.

There is a unanimity of support from all religious bodies, Protestant and Roman Catholic, and a hearty backing from Trades and Labor Councils, Brotherhoods of Railroad Engineers and Fraternal Societies, which bodes well for advanced legislation in the near future.

IV.—DANGERS.

The old enemies are still with us : love of pleasure, love of gain, indifference to the needs and rights of our fellows and disregard of God's holy law. The chief offenders are the great railroad companies, who, while professing anxiety to reduce Sunday labor to a minimum, yet plan excursions for that day at special rates; handle enormous quantities of freight which is neither perishable nor live stock; go on with construction and repair work which could be done as well on week days. It is increasingly evident that nothing but the strong hand of the law will be of much or any avail.

Besides, new forms of peril and points of attack come with our awakening industrial activity. Cement, carbide, pulp, sugar refining works are springing up, and by some it is urged that best results can be obtained in these only by the "continuous process."

A few months ago the Deering Harvesting Company at Hamilton had a large number of men at work all Sunday and offered in excuse "filling rush orders." "Rush orders" might be on hand year in and year out, and so become a pretext for breaking down the glory of our national heritage, a quiet Sabbath, and of gaining unfair advantage over competing firms who regard the day.

Considerations like these make imperative legislation that was undreamed of before Confederation; make imperative, too, test cases to decide whether the claim of "continuous process" or "commercial necessity," or "rush orders" or any other plea can be allowed.

V.—IN THE COURTS.

These cases have occupied the courts :—

(1) The Crown authorities at Peterboro' took proceedings against employees of the American Cereal Company, charging them with violating the Act of 1845, Upper Canada Statute, cap. 104, now the only Lord's Day Act we have in Ontario, because they were occupied on Sunday in overhauling the machinery and doing repairs in the mill. In this case the Magistrate held that, inasmuch as some of these repairs could only be done when the mill was closed down, and if it were closed down any other day of the week it would mean that a considerable number of the other employees would be out of work, therefore the men were occupied in doing "works of necessity and mercy" in opening the way for the supplying of food and clothing and shelter for the poor employees of the Cereal Company. This judgment is being appealed against to the County Court.

Doubtless there are certain exceptional kinds of repairs that might fairly be held to be works of necessity, but reasoning like the above would open the door for endless new invasions of the Sabbath quiet and of the rest-day rights of working men and women.

(2) The Ontario Provincial Lord's Day Alliance took proceedings against the employees of the Ontario Sugar Company at Berlin for being occupied in operating the factory on Sunday.

The defence held that the process of sugar-making as carried on in the Berlin factory from its nature required to be carried on continuously. The evidence went to show that sugar could be refined without Sunday operation ; is so refined in Germany uniformly, but that the Berlin factory was constructed with the intention of continuous operation, because when so constructed and so operated sugar could be refined more economically and so yield a larger profit to those interested ; that the factory could be changed, though at considerable expense, so as to do away with the alleged necessity for continuous operation.

The Magistrate in this case has given decision that, inasmuch as the proposed change in the factory could not be made without large investment on capital account, it might make it impossible to operate the factory at a profit, therefore, in his view, the work complained of was work of "necessity."

Appeal has been taken from this judgment also to the County Court.

This case brings prominently before the Canadian public the unvarnished plea of "commercial necessity," which, if admitted, must necessarily result in alarming invasion of the quiet of our Canadian Sabbath, and in putting the burden of seven-day-in-the-week toil upon large numbers of our working people.

This case was taken up by the Alliance because it involves a test of the plea of commercial necessity which must be settled either by the courts or by the legislative powers.

(3) The Nova Scotia Provincial Lord's Day Alliance succeeded in persuading the Attorney-General to take proceedings against the Sydney and Glace Bay Electric Railway Company's employees for operating their cars on Sunday, on the ground that this was a violation of the Nova Scotia Ante-Confederation law, which prohibits "servile labor," excepting "works of necessity or mercy." The Magistrate convicted the defendants, whereupon appeal was taken to the County Court. The Judge, however, has not yet given decision. Almost certainly in this case appeal will be taken by one side or the other to the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, inasmuch as it involves a test as to the meaning of "servile labor."

Let it not be forgotten, however, that the real work of defending the day is not done chiefly in the Courts and Legislatures, but in every-day walks of life and by the rank and file of citizens and Church members. Each has a part to play in creating and crystallizing public sentiment; in antagonizing the forces that would destroy the Day of Rest with its opportunity for family reunion and its uplift of heart to the Great Father; in furthering the efforts made for its defence and safe-guarding.

In the words used in a previous report, "first as ministers and elders, the leaders of the people, and, secondly, in union with all our members we must face the solemn responsibility. We must help to stem the flood of worldliness that would sweep away this day, God's gift to the toilers, the hope of the home, the right arm of the Church."

"We must seek to solve the problem "of the greatest possible amount of the highest kind of benefit, to the largest number of people, with the least possible burden to the serving few." Realizing the strenuousness of modern life, we must re-affirm the Master's word : "The Sabbath was made for man." It is long-lasting, therefore, as his needs. It is fully kept only as it ministers to his many-sided nature. It is rightly kept only as each side of that nature is ministered to according to its relative worth."

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. The General Assembly acknowledges with gratitude the continued interest of her membership and of the Canadian people as a whole in the Christian Sabbath; rejoices in the brotherly co-operation of all religious bodies in its defence; recognizes the sympathetic interest of Provincial and Federal Governments in future legislation; confesses her abiding faith in the Love and Wisdom that ordained the day and in the blessings, temporal and eternal, which ever accompany its right use.

2. The General Assembly invites all to whom her words come with any authority to share by precept and example in the maintenance and defence of the Day of Rest, and in particular by refusing to countenance social functions on that day; by discouraging Sunday funerals and parades and the use of bands of music in connection with attendance on public worship by any Order with which they have to do.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. R. DRUMMOND, Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS FOR 1903.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The statistical tables and summary appended to this report will repay careful examination. They reveal the following :

There has been a gratifying advance in many important directions ; 330 more teachers are in our schools than last year; 2,355 more scholars ; 129 more Elders engaged in Sabbath School work; 340 more scholars have come into full communion with the Church than last year; 44 more schools are open the whole year; the contributions for all purposes are $9,104.00 more. In all $121,565 have been collected.

In other directions there has been a slight loss :

(a) The average attendance is not quite as good as last year.

(b) The Home Departments have decreased, especially in the mission district where they are most needed.

(c) The number of Teachers' Meetings for the study of the lesson, for consultation and prayer is less.

Special attention is directed to the following :

A careful Comparison of the Sabbath School returns with the last census returns shows that at least 160,000 Presbyterians under 20 years of age are not in our Presbyterian Sabbath Schools. About 20,000 young people graduate from our Sabbath Schools each year, the great majority of whom have not come into full communion with the Church. The ages between 12 and 20 are the critical years. If the young are not won for Christ then it is to be feared that very few of them will be afterwards. The question is asked, what is being done to make our schools more efficient, and to reach through this agency all our young people ?

1.—THROUGH PRESBYTERIAL VISITATION.

In only two Presbyteries of our Church has there been anything like thorough visitation of the schools, viz., in Montreal and Owen Sound. In Montreal Presbytery there has been a field secretary, who has devoted all his time to the organization and development of Sabbath School work within the bounds of the Presbytery. The results have abundantly justified his appointment. In Owen Sound the Presbytery has been divided into districts and without anyone being unduly taxed. The schools have been visited, and stimulus and encouragement have been given. "Could not other Presbyteries go and do likewise ?"

2.—SUMMER SCHOOLS.

Although not directly under the auspices of your Committee, summer schools have been held in Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Sydney and Toronto. These schools were signally successful. The attendance was good, the interest well maintained and the results gratifying. This year, in addition to those mentioned, arrangements are being made to hold schools in Ottawa and Edmonton. The value of these schools is being more and more recognized as agencies through which our teachers obtain instruction in Sabbath School methods.

3.—TEACHER TRAINING COURSE.

The second year of this course is now completed. Our returns show that this year 681 are studying it, and from 40 centres 160 are going up for examination. Professor Hamill, Secretary of the Education Committee of the International Sabbath School Association and a recognized expert in Teacher Training, in the Sunday School Times made a very appreciative reference to this course. He stated that Canadian Presbyterians were leading the way in Teacher Training on this continent, and that our Teacher Training course had more elements of promise in it than any other with which he was familiar.

We are as a Church indebted to Profs. Falconer, Scrimger and Ballantyne for the work which they have done in the preparation of the material for the Scripture Department, and to Rev. J. M. Duncan, who has acted as Secretary and has prepared the material for the Doctrinal Department. The work has been very much facilitated by the Teachers' Monthly opening its pages for the insertion of the Scriptural and Doctrinal Departments. The course is one which can be thoroughly commended, and which, it is to be hoped, very many of our teachers and those proposing to become teachers will study.

4.—SUPPLEMENTARY COURSE.

The last General Assembly instructed your Committee to consider the possibility of arranging for the Systematic Study of Missions in the Sabbath School.

The Committee gave this matter very full consideration, and propose, with the approval of the Assembly, that a question on Missions for each Sabbath, with its answer, should be given in THE TEACHERS' MONTHLY, HOME STUDY QUARTERLY AND HOME STUDY LEAFLET. The Editors of the Sabbath School Publications are willing to give space for the purpose.

In addition to this your Committee, in view of the importance of systematic instruction in the structure and contents of the Bible as a whole, and the systematic memorization of the Shorter Catechism and Scripture, and also in view of what is being done in other churches and by Provincial Sabbath School Associations, have framed a Supplemental Course in Bible drill and memorization of Scripture. The Shorter Catechism and some of the great hymns of the Church, with the addition of the question on Missions above mentioned, this course not to occupy more than ten minutes on each Sabbath. As outlined, it is simple and comprehensive.

5.—DIPLOMAS.

We would this year again direct attention to the Diplomas granted for the repetition of the Shorter Catechism and Memory Verses. It is to be hoped that the number issued this year will be greater than in any previous year. The thanks of the Church are due to the Rev. Mr. McEwen, our veteran Sabbath School worker, for the time and thought he has devoted to this department of our Sabbath School work.

6.—SABBATH SCHOOL HELPS.

It is most gratifying to know that the circulation of our own Lesson Helps and papers is increasing, and that from every quarter there is coming testimony as to their excellence and suitability. Many of the reports from Presbyteries make reference to them. The latest addition to the list, EAST AND WEST, has commended itself wherever it has gone as a strong, wholesome and attractive paper for the young.

7.—LITERATURE FOR NEEDY SCHOOLS.

Provision has again been made this year for assisting schools in needy districts to obtain our own Lesson Helps and papers. Also a grant has been given to aid in publishing a French paper (LA RAYON), which has been distributed amongst the French Protestants in the Province of Quebec.

8.—HOME DEPARTMENT.

It is to be regretted that the Home Department is not being introduced in more of our schools, especially in the more sparsely settled districts. Its value is appreciated by our best Sabbath School workers. The following extracts from Sabbath School reports testify to its importance:

Dr. Carmichael, Superintendent of Missions for Manitoba and the North-West, in his report says: "In the Yorkton district splendid work is being done by Mr. Sutherland, who is the agent of the Provincial Association. He has organized a great many Home Study Classes, which have yielded most gratifying results. Mr. Sutherland says that home study work affords a splendid opportunity for pastoral work, as well as for instruction in the Scriptures."

Rev. J. A. Jaffray, Convener of the Sabbath School Committee of Calgary Presbytery, says: "That where the children cannot go to the school the school should go to them. And in every such home there should be a Sabbath School class more or less fully organized. It will be found that many of these shut-aways will do as faithful work as those who are able to attend regularly." Can something not be done to introduce the Home Department into all our congregations, all recognize its importance; can we not all help to make it a success?

CONTRIBUTIONS.

It is gratifying that there is such an increase in the amounts contributed through the Sabbath School for missionary and other purposes. It is to be noted that an increasingly large amount is being contributed by the schools for self-support and for outside objects. Could not congregations make a special effort to make provision for the support of the schools so that the givings of the scholars could be more largely devoted to missions? And, whilst not discouraging contributions to worthy outside objects, your Committee would respectfully urge that special attention be directed in all our schools to the mission schemes of our own Church, and that in this allocation of moneys a foremost place be given to these. Our Church has undertaken a great work, both in the home and foreign fields, and it is our duty to encourage the young to share in that work.

We would again this year urge more active interest in Sabbath School work on the part of Colleges, Presbytery Committees, Ministers and Sessions. Reports show that in the schools where the greatest number of Elders take part there the best spiritual results are obtained.

In accordance with the resolution passed at last General Assembly a permanent Secretary is to be appointed this year. His duties will be many and important. Whoever may be appointed, it is hoped and believed that he will be afforded every facility for the work of developing our Sabbath Schools. He cannot do much if he has not the co-operation of our Sabbath School workers throughout the Church. Let it be our aim as a Church to secure that all our Presbyterian young people shall be in our Presbyterian schools, and that every aid be given to the consecrated men and women who have volunteered to instruct them.

JOHN NEIL, Convener.

SUMMARY OF STATISTICS.

Rev. W. W. Peck, M.A., Secretary.

Reports have been received from all the Presbyteries except Superior and Prince Albert. The report for Barrie, however, was so fragmentary as to be of little value. For these three Presbyteries the reports for 1902 have been inserted. For a summary statement of Sabbath School statistics attention is directed to the tables of Presbyterian and Union Schools appended to this report. The following analysis will explain, however, the significance of some of the items.

During the year a large number of the Presbytery Conveners have been changed. In the 5 Western Synods 34 new Conveners have been appointed. One inevitable result was a certain break in the continuity of Presbyterial oversight and effort. In not a few Presbyteries Conveners appointed in the fall have been unable to obtain any report of schools or mission charges vacant during the winter months.

NUMBER OF SABBATH SCHOOLS.

For 1903 Conveners report knowledge of 2,625 Presbyterian schools, 62 less than in 1902 and 115 less than in 1901, and 459 Union Schools, 8 less than in 1902 and 3 more than in 1901. Of these schools reports have been received from 2,465 Presbyterian schools, 31 less than in 1902 and 48 less than in 1901, and from 383 Union Schools, 32 more than in 1902 and 43 more than in 1901, i.e., in 1903 of 2,625 Presbyterian and 459 Union Schools, 2,848, an increase of 1 have reported. The seeming decline in the number of Presbyterian Schools is not a real decline.

UNION SCHOOLS.

All Conveners report that it is not easy, when the Superintendent is not a Presbyterian, to obtain a report from a Union School. Conveners vary as to the effectiveness of these schools. The following statements are typical: Calgary: "Some are quite effective. It is difficult to tell how useful they are. They are on mission fields, and our missionaries can never be present at them." Melita: "Twenty-one schools have reported. Their effectiveness was discussed at length in Presbytery. Many were of the opinion that little good was accomplished, some that harm was done, while a few spoke highly of the work done." North Bay: "Twelve reported. They are as effective as are the teachers, especially the Superintendent. A few are doing excellent work. More depends on the capability and piety of the teachers than on their denominationalism." Montreal: "Fourteen schools, doing good work." Halifax: "Fourteen schools; a few of them are doing excellent work, but it is evident that the great majority of them are by no means efficient." That Union Schools are necessary in sparsely settled places may be seen from the report of Dauphin Presbytery. The report gives 11 Presbyterian and 19 Union Schools. Of the Union Schools the Convener writes: "Some are highly satisfactory, others not so. But, on the whole, they are more practicable than separate schools."

Of the 15,929 scholars enrolled in the 383 Union Schools reporting, 7,732, or about one-half, are Presbyterians; of the 1,572 teachers 801, or more than one-half, are Presbyterians; of the 383 Superintendents 186, or about one-half, are Presbyterians; of the 383 schools reporting 75 use Presbyterian Lesson Helps; Cook's Lesson Helps are most in evidence; 62 use the Shorter Catechism and 67 our Presbyterian Hymnal. It is very noticeable that the attendance of Presbyterians at Union Schools about equals that of all the other Protestant denominations. One explanation given by Conveners is that denominations having missionaries remaining the whole year are not favorable to the continuance of a Union School.

I.—ATTENDANCE.

Officers, Teachers and Scholars.

In the 2,848 schools reporting we have 22,202 teachers and officers, 330 more than in 1902, and 186,004 scholars, 2,466 more than in 1902. Including the 6,394 enrolled in the Home Departments of the schools, we have a total enrollment of 214,600, or 2,355 more than in 1902. The total average attendance of schols is 125,745, or about two-thirds of the enrollment. In the Presbyterian Schools and their Home Departments the increase or decrease in enrollment per Synods is as follows:

Synod.	Enrollment of Home School.	Home Department.
Maritime Provinces	Gain 732	Loss 284
Montreal and Ottawa	Gain 46	Gain 154
Toronto and Kingston	Gain 767	Loss 178
Hamilton and London	Loss 213	Gain 118
Manitoba and North-West	Gain 56	Loss 159
British Columbia	Gain 61	Loss 92

It is noticeable that of the 6,394 enrolled in the Home Departments 3,312 are in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and that in the missionary Synods, instead of a gain, there has been a loss in enrollment.

As the last census returns gives the Presbyterian population of Canada as 842,442, and of these 374,887 under 20 years of age, it is evident that there is still room for the expansion of our Sabbath School work.

II.—RECITATIONS.

Your Committee is of the opinion that in many cases the answers given to the questions asked under this general heading are but approximations.

The returns seem to indicate that of the 186,004 enrolled in the home schools, but 74,442, a loss of 1,205, are memorizing Scripture; that 59,155, a gain of 137, are committing to memory the Shorter Catechism, and 16,012, a gain of 9, are committing a Junior Catechism. During the year 550 Diplomas, a loss of 63, have been received for memorizing Scripture, and 729 for reciting the Shorter Catechism.

The consent to issue Diplomas was granted by the 26th General Assembly meeting at Halifax, June, 1900. From that date to December 31st, 1903, the number is as follows:

Synod.	Sh. Catechism Diploma.	Verse Diploma,	Verse Certificate.	Verse Red Seal.	Verse Gold Seal.
Maritime Provinces	623	266	84	36	9
Montreal and Ottawa	408	158	59	18	0
Toronto and Kingston	496	265	91	22	6
Hamilton and London	367	159	52	19	0
Manitoba and North-West	114	55	27	4	3
British Columbia	27	26	3	6	0
	2035	929	316	105	18

During January and February of 1904 there were issued 238 Catechism Diplomas, 144 Memory Verse Diplomas, 53 Memory Certificates, 61 Red Seals and 36 Gold Seals.

GRADING OF SCHOOLS.

Of the 2,625 Presbyterian Schools 1,088 report themselves as graded schools. It would seem as if there was some confusion of thought as to what constitutes a graded school. Generally speaking, grading is the orderly arranging of the school into classes and departments for the systematic and progressive study of the Bible, and for Christian nurture; the members of the classes and departments being classified as may be consistent with age and advancement, the lessons and methods of teaching being adapted to the pupils of the several departments. To forget the law of adaptibility would be to fail, so we find varying graded plans. Your Committee has prepared one by means of supplementary lessons, believing that to construct a graded school it is not necessary to supplant, but to supplement the International lessons.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.

Of 2,625 Presbyterian Schools 234, a loss of 15, have regular weekly meetings for united preparation of the lesson, prayer for guidance and consultation as to how the efficiency of the school may be furthered. Your Committee is of the opinion that the reading by pastors and superintendents of some such book as "Teachers' meetings; their necessity and methods," by H. Clay Trumbull, would be very beneficial.

681, a gain of 189, are reported as undertaking the work of the Teacher Training course.

III.—CHURCH RELATIONS.

The returns indicate that of the 186,004 enrolled 22,273, or about one-eighth, are members in full communion. 5,138 of these became such during the year. A comparison made Presbytery by Presbytery comparing the number of schools with the number coming into full communion causes one some surprise. During 1903 we did not average two new communicants per school. It is computed that the average attendance of scholars at school is 7 years. If so, then about 27,000 passed out of our schools in 1903. If seven-eighths of these are not members on leaving, has not a great opportunity to influence them for Christ and to enlist hem in Christian activity been lost ?

PRESBYTERIAL VISITATION.

In but two of our Presbyteries has any definite place been in operation. In Montreal Presbytery a paid Field Secretary has visited 69 schools. The Convener of Owen Sound Presbytery writes: "Ministers by appointment of Presbytery exchanged pulpits so as to visit each other's Sabbath Schools.' In this way 22 were visited last year. It was effective in encouraging strong points and in suggesting remedies for weak places, etc. It is a good plan."

ELDERS.

2,796 Elders, a gain of 129, are working in our Sabbath Schools. The Synodical Convener in British Columbia is quoted by Dr. Herdman as follows: "Returns make it clear that only those schools in which Elders of the Church take a leading and interested part show additions to the Communion Roll."

"EVERGREEN" SCHOOLS.

Of 2,465 schools 1,656, a gain of 44, are reported as open twelve months of the year. As the International system of lessons is a system taking up a connected course of study, schools closed a part of the year must suffer from want of continuity in the study and teaching.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

In 1903 for running expenses our schools contributed $63,366, an increase of $6,075.

To the Schemes of the Church $27,894, an increase of $1,368, was contributed either directly to the Treasurer of the Church, or as forming a part of the congregational contribution.

$8,490, an increase of $978, was contributed to the Children's Day Fund, as follows :—

Synod Maritime Provinces	$1,811
Synod Montreal and Ottawa	1,348
Synod Toronto and Kingston	2,206
Synod Hamilton and London	1,477
Synod Manitoba and North-West	1,130
Synod British Columbia	518
	$8,490

$21,895, an increase of $1,112, was given to other purposes than self-support or Schemes of the Church. In view of the urgent need of funds for the expansion of our missionary efforts, your Committee is of opinion that superintendents and officers should give prominence in the disposal of all moneys to the Mission Schemes of our own Church.

For all purposes the Sabbath Schools reporting raised during 1903 $121,565, an increase of $9,104.

RESOLUTIONS.

(1) That Sessions and Sabbath Schools be affectionately urged to give earnest attention.

(a) To the gathering into the Sabbath School of all children and young people within reach who are not attending some school.

(b) To the establishing of a Home Department as a recognized part of the Sabbath School.

(c) To the organization of a Teachers' Meeting for united lesson study and for consultation in regard to the work of the school.

(d) To the urgent need of using every proper means to bring the young into the fellowship of the Church.

(e) To the introduction, where not now in use, of our own Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers.

(f) To the formation of a Teacher Training Class for the study of the Teacher Training Course approved by the General Assembly.

(2) That the Supplemental Course, as outlined in the report, be approved, and that it be issued in a booklet for handy reference.

(3) That Sabbath Schools give the Schemes of the Church a foremost place in their offerings, and that definite arrangements be made by each school for systematic giving.

(4) That Presbyteries be again reminded of the importance of keeping in close touch with their Sabbath School work, and be recommended to adopt some effective system of visitation of schools.

(5) That authority be given the Sabbath School Committee to use such portion of the Children's Day collections as may be found necessary for the various expenditures connected with their work, including salary, office and travelling expenses of the Secretary; the Teacher Training Course; and such further development and extension of Sabbath School work as may be determined on by the Committee.

The Committee appointed to nominate a General Secretary for Sabbath Schools, for appointment by the General Assembly, respectfully report :—

"They met on May 5th, at ten o'clock, in Knox Church, Montreal, Dr. Robert Murray, Convener, in the chair. Prayer was offered by Dr. Neil. Rev. W. R. Cruikshank was appointed secretary. There were present with the Convener, Revs. Dr. Warden, Dr. Neil, Principal Falconer, W. R. Cruikshank, Professor Walter Murray, and Mr. Walter Paul. Letters explaining absence were read. Rev. R. D. Fraser being present was invited to sit in correspondence.

Letters bearing on the proposed nomination were read by the Convener. After long and careful consideration, the Committee resolved to nominate, as they do now nominate, for appointment by the General Assembly, the Rev. J. C. Robertson, of Milltown, N.B., to the office of General Secretary for Sabbath Schools in the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

It is recommended that the appointment date from September 1st, 1904. Further it is recommended that Mr. Robertson's headquarters be in Toronto; and that his salary, exclusive of office and travelling expenses, be $1,500."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES FOR 1903.

GENERAL SURVEY.

The character of Young People's Societies is gradually changing. In the year 1898, of the 943 societies reporting to the Assembly, 783 were of the Christian Endeavor type, and in no less than twenty of the Presbyteries the Christian Endeavor had the whole field. Variety was found mostly in the larger towns and cities. But now, of the 763 societies reporting only 400 are Christian Endeavor. While the Christian Endeavor is still predominant, it is being displaced more and more by the Presbyterian Guild. Whether the change is for the better or for the worse, time will determine. The Guild has not been in existence a sufficient length of time to really test its worth. It certainly is being received with great enthusiasm in some quarters, and pastors and others speak highly of the influence it has exerted, of the interest it has awakened and of the impetus it has given to the young people in the work of the Church. But we must remember that equally warm commendations were once bestowed upon the Christian Endeavor, and, indeed, many pastors still speak of it in terms of highest praise. Each form of organization has its special advantages. As communities differ widely, it is doubtless a distinct advantage to have the two forms of organization, for, while the Christian Endeavor is specially adapted to one kind of spiritual atmosphere, the Presbyterian Guild may flourish better in another. In the Presbytery of Wallace, where excellent work has been done during the past year, all the societies, with one exception, are of the Christian Endeavor type; in the Presbytery of Brockville, where all the societies appear to be in a healthy condition, they are all, with one exception, Presbyterian Guilds.

Gratifying progress has been made by societies in the Presbyteries of Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Lanark and Renfrew, Kingston, Peterboro', Toronto, Barrie, London, Maitland and Victoria. The last named reports an increase in membership of almost one hundred per cent, and forty per cent. of an increase in contributions. On the other hand, the Presbyteries of Glengarry, North Bay, Lindsay, Whitby, Orangeville, Saugeen, Paris, Sarnia and Edmonton report rather a sharp decline. If these Presbyteries found a serious falling-off in the other departments of Church work, the probability is that inquiries would be instituted to ascertain the cause. Since there is a decline in this department, would it not be well to ascertain, at the earliest possible moment, what may be the reason of this retrograde movement ?

From the remarks above, it will be seen that locality has little to do with the progress or decline of societies. In one Presbytery the work may be flourishing, whereas in the neighboring one, where external conditions are very similar, it may be languishing. Perhaps the one exception to this is that portion of Western Canada where, owing to inadequate pulpit supply, the work has not flourished as it might have under more favorable conditions. But might not better work have been done even there ? If a missionary knows that his field is likely to be without Gospel ordinances for some months, would it not be well if he, before leaving it, were to organize a society which might hold services on Sabbaths during the vacancy ? With such helps are are now available, the young people could conduct a service which, if not ideal in its character, would be at least profitable to themselves and to others. The returns show that several societies are now conducting Sabbath evening services when pastors cannot be present, and in some cases, if not in all, these services are much appreciated.

INTERESTING AND SUGGESTIVE FACTS.

The Presbyterian Guild of Moose Jaw holds the banner for being the best all-round society of any denomination in the North-West Territories. . . . Cooke's Church, Toronto, is the largest society reporting to your Committee. . . . Toronto Presbytery leads in membership; Kingston Presbytery takes first place in the matter of contributions, with $2,348 to its credit. . . . The Presbytery of Wallace shows an increase all along the line; all the societies there, with one exception, are of the Christian Endeavor variety. . . . A society in the Presbytery of Halifax, another in the Presbytery of Paris, another in the Presbytery of Toronto and still another in the Presbytery of Sarnia have taken up Normal Sabbath School work. . . . A pastor in Yarmouth, N.S., takes charge of the meeting when the subjects of the Plan of Study are under consideration . . . A Presbyterian Guild in Miramichi Presbytery has taken a step in advance of the Model Constitution of the Presbyterian Guild, for it has six departments instead of four. . . . Several Presbyteries quite overlook the College Fund, the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, and Widows' and Orphans' Fund when allocating their money. The Augmentation Scheme has not fared well either, at the hands of the young people. This is a matter which should be remedied as soon as possible. . . . The Young Men's Guild in Levis, Que., has rooms which are open every night for reading and recreation. Lectures are occasionally given. The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, in Cobourg, is working along similar lines. . . . Winnipeg Presbytery, which stands at the gateway to the Home Mission Field, gave nothing to home missions last year, but gave $737 to foreign missions. The Presbyteries of Montreal and Quebec, situated in the heart of the French-Canadian population, gave only $5 each to French evangelization, while the former gave $169 and the latter $122 to foreign missions. Kootenay Presbytery reversed this order, giving $62 to home missions and nothing to foreign. . . . A society in Ottawa has formed a choral class; another in Perth devotes a little time to nature study . . . . Kingston Presbytery increased its contributions by $1,330. . . . A society in Montreal reads and reviews one book of the Bible each week. . . . A society in Toronto publishes a Church monthly. . . . Whitby Presbytery has the smallest number of societies of any Presbytery in older Canada. . . . Several societies have procured missionary libraries during the past year.

MISSION STUDY.

Your Commitee feels that if the young people of our Church are going to rise to their opportunities, and to do anything worthy of the name they bear, they must ever be mindful of The Great Commission. Accordingly, provision has been made for the regular and systematic study of missions. Last autumn a course of studies was outlined. This consisted of a series of twenty-six lessons in that excellent book, "The Evangelization of the World in this Generation," and selections from such other works as would throw light upon the several lessons. This course was published in the Manual, and also in a separate leaflet, but as the schedules for reports from societies did not contain a question bearing upon this branch of the work, your Committee is not in a position to state definitely to what extent the course has been adopted. It is known, however, that classes have been formed in the Presbyteries of Stratford, Saugeen, Kingston, Guelph, and Brandon. From information received there is reason to believe that the classes have found the studies not only profitable, but exceedingly interesting.

This subject of mission study is one which should receive the earnest consideration of the General Assembly. If facts are the fuel for missionary fires, these facts should be given to the young people in an attractive as well as in a regular and systematic fashion; otherwise we cannot hope to keep the fires of missionary love and zeal brightly burning. It would be a decided gain if young people could procure a good text book which, while dealing with the subject of missions in general, would not overlook the missions of our own Church. Such a text-book is not available just now. Several excellent text-books have been published by the Student Volunteer Movement, but these do not deal specially with the missions in which our Church is particularly interested. Would it not be possible for the Assembly to authorize your Committee to prepare a small text-book which would be adapted to our own needs, and which at the same time would be moderate in price?

PLAN OF STUDY.

The Plan of Study in its general features does not differ very materially from that which obtained in former years. The subject of missions occupies, very properly, the most conspicuous place. Attention has been called to the work of those who laid the foundations of our Church in the older provinces of the Dominion. Pioneer work in the Maritime Provinces, in Quebec and in Ontario, occupies a place in the Plan of Study this year, and the intention is to follow this next year with a study of pioneer work in Manitoba, the North-West Territories and British Columbia. Young people should be greatly benefited by having their attention directed to such subjects as these, because they are thereby reminded that they are "the heirs of as noble deeds as were ever done 'neath the allseeing sun," and in the lives of those noble servants of God who rendered such splendid service in the early days, they should learn lessons of heroism, self-sacrifice and consecration.

The plan of study for the present year is as follows :—

January—What are our Young People's Societies doing for the missions of our Church? How can they do more?
February—Pioneer work in the Maritime Provinces.
March—Missions among the lumbermen.
April—Pioneer work in Quebec.
May—What is being done for the Chinese in Canada.
June—Pioneer work in Ontario.
July—The Church's work among European immigrants in the West.
August—John Calvin and his teaching.
September—Life of MacKenzie, of Korea.
October—The relation of baptized children to the Church.
November—Recent work in North Formosa.
December—The Catholicity of Presbyterianism.

The number of societies that have adopted the Plan of Study is 219.

Grateful recognition must be made of writers who have treated these special topics in The Presbyterian Record. They have treated them so fully and satisfactorily that they have laid the Church under no small obligation. The editors of East and West and of The Presbyterian deserve special mention for the ample space they have devoted to the discussion of the special topics in their respective papers.

LITERARY STUDIES.

Your Committee would call attention to the literary department. This is a compartaively new feature, and one regarding which little has been said in reports to this venerable body. The course of literary studies was prepared primarily for those societies where such studies formed a regular feature, the aim being to give a pure literary flavor and high moral tone to this department. From reports which have come to hand, it is evident that this branch of your Committee's work is much appreciated.

It will be observed that the scope has been enlarged by the addition of a Reading Course. Three books were recommended. These are: "The Fact of Christ," by Carnegie Simpson; "A Young Man's Questions," by Robert E. Speer, and "In Relief of Doubt," by R. E. Welsh. In the opinion of your Committee, pastors, whether they have societies in their congregations or not, might properly call the attention of the young people to these excellent works and encourage them to read them. In these days when so much that is not only ephemeral, but actually injurious, is being issued from the press, pastors can render their young people valuable service by directing their attention to books of real worth.

CONSECUTIVE BIBLE STUDIES.

Last year a course of Consecutive Bible Studies was prepared. It was published in the Manual, and also in a leaflet. The course embraced 26 studies in the Life of Christ, and it is the intention to follow it next year with another on the Teaching of Christ. Salmond's Life of Christ, and Stalker's Life of Christ were recommended as text-books. This course was prepared to meet the wishes of those who felt that the Topics prepared by the United Society of Christian Endeavor were too disconnected, and some societies which have taken it up have evidently been much benefited by it.

MANUAL.

The demand for copies of the first Manual which was issued was so great that your Committee felt justified in publishing another last year. Some new features were added which, it is believed, made it more helpful to young people. Last November a copy was sent to each pastor, and those who made themselves familiar with its contents would be in a position to furnish their young people with such information as might be required.

PLEDGE CARDS.

As there was a demand for Presbyterian Guild Pledge Cards, your Committee had a quantity printed. Though it is only a few months since they were placed upon the market, a goodly number have been sold, and it is expected that the demand will become greater as the Guilds increase in number.

OPINIONS OF PASTORS.

The opinions of pastors are singularly unanimous in regard to the benefits of these societies, not only to the young people themselves, but to the congregations in which they are located. As showing the estimation in which societies are held, the following quotations are given :—

"The society furnishes a Sunday evening service of much value to the community." "The society is one of the most important factors in our congregational life; first, because of the way it is looking after the young people, and, second, because of the training it is giving them for larger service." "It is the making of our prayer-meeting." "I think that Young People's Societies have given life and piety to congregations, and, were they more faithfully worked, and more generally organized, they would give a great advance to missions and good citizenship." "One of my best assistants in carrying on social and Christian work among the young people of the Church and new-comers." "One of the best societies in the congregation." "I regard the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor as one of the most practical and useful organizations in connection with the Church. If there is any work to do, all they require is a hint and they do it."

These quotations—and many similar ones could be given—indicate how high is the place which societies hold in the estimation of those ministers who are in touch with them, and they deserve to be carefully pondered by those ministers in whose congregations such societies have not been formed. There may be localities where the conditions are not favorable to the growth, or even to the existence, of a Guild or Christian Endeavor. But many societies have made progress in the face of very adverse conditions, and many pastors testify that when they have shown a sympathetic interest in the work of these organizations, their own hands have been materially strengthened.

WORK.

The various activities in which the young people engage have been so often catalogued that it seems almost a useless repetition to enumerate them again. However, an extract from the report of the Committee in the Presbytery of Montreal may appropriately find a place here :—

"It is specially interesting to learn of the various forms of activity in which the societies engage. One cannot help feeling that it would be worth while for pastors and sessions to make some effort, even in the face of discouraging conditions, to band their young people together for the sake of leading them out in some organized, practical service. Here are a few extracts taken at random from the reports :—'Papers, such as Northern Messenger, were sent to India and Manitoba. Have undertaken to support three famine orphans in India. On Thanksgiving Day we asked the congregation to bring produce for a city mission, resulting in a generous contribution of apples, potatoes and vegetables.' 'The members of the society collect for Schemes of the Church and the Bible Society, and conduct the Sabbath service of praise.' Almost all the societies have a Sick Visiting Committee, whose duty it is to visit the sick with flowers and to report such cases to the pastor. It is safe to say that not a day passes without some such visit, and many a sick one is led to think more kindly of the Church and Christianity because of such ministry."

HOW BETTER WORK MIGHT BE DONE.

Ministers were asked to indicate ways in which the value of the work done might be enhanced, but it is disappointing to your Committee to observe that not much more attention was paid to this question this year than last. However, though the suggestions volunteered are not numerous, the few which have been given are worthy of consideration. They are as follows :—"A monthly lecture on some good subject would increase interest." "Better work could be done if we had better organization." "Improvement cannot be effected except by more prayer and more study." "More attention should be given to the Plan of Study." "More frequent conference between the minister and the Executive Committee of the society." A Toronto pastor writes: "If an expert in training for definite work could give a course of instruction in our city churches it would fill a real need."

It is much to be regretted that more ministers did not give your Committee the benefit of their experiences. They have had to deal with societies under all circumstances and conditions, and if those under their care flourished they must know what contributed to their success, and if they languished they must be aware of the causes which led to a relaxing of effort. Should the question be given a place in the schedules for next year it is to be hoped that pastors will make this a symposium helpful in the highest degree.

ORGANIZATION.

When your Committee met last September careful attention was given to the subject of organization. As there are 1815 congregations in our Church, and as only 785 societies reported to the last Assembly, and as some congregations have two or more societies, it is clear that in many congregations the young people are not organized. But as your Committee is not in a position to engage an official to devote his time to organization, this work must be left largely to the pastors themselves. And yet it was felt that something could be done. Accordingly, Messrs. Drummond and Reede of St. Thomas were asked to take the superintendence of this department. Well and faithfully did they discharge their duty. Last autumn they issued a circular to Presbytery Conveners setting forth the importance of the work of organization, and giving practical hints and suggestions as to how it could be best promoted. In their letter they dealt with three subjects, viz., the organization of congregational societies, the formation of Presbyterial Unions and Presbyterial oversight.

In order to ascertain what progress had been made in the department under their charge, they issued recently a series of questions to Conveners. These questions are as follows :—

(1) Have you a Young People's Presbyterial Union ?
(2) Does it include the Sunday School ?
(3) Does it undertake any special work, e.g., support of missionary at home or abroad ?
(4) If so, please define.
(5) If you have no Union has the question of forming one been discussed during the current Church year ?
(6) With what results ?
(7) How many Young People's Societies reported to you this year ?
(8) How many more do you know unreported ?
(9) Does your Presbytery visit officially the societies within its bounds ?
(10) Remarks.

Unfortunately the replies to these questions were not so numerous as they should have been, only 35 Conveners reporting. But the summary, as prepared by the sub-committee, is worthy of careful consideration. It is as follows :—

To question 1, 13 reply, Yes, and 22, No.
(Five new Young People's Presbyterial Unions were organized in 1903).
Question 2, Presbyteries answering Yes, 4.
Question 3, Presbyteries answering Yes, 6.

Question 4, 5 Young People's Presbyterial Unions support home missionaries and one both home and foreign missions.

Question 5, 6 Presbyteries reply, Yes.

Question 6, 3 expect to organize this year.

Question 7, 484.

Question 8, 58.

Question 9, 2. But the number of visits is very limited.

It is apparent from the above report that much remains to be done in the way of organization, and it is equally evident that, while your Committee may render some assistance, the work must be largely done by the Presbyteries. The sooner it is seriously undertaken the better. Societies often cease to exist because they do not engage in work which calls forth their best energies. If a Presbyterial Union were formed and societies were asked to assist in some important work which it is undertaking, the probability is that some societies which are now languishing for lack of exercise would become a vital and vitalizing power.

CLASSIFICATION.

So diversified are the names of societies reporting to your Committee that it is almost impossible to make an accurate classification of them. Last year attention was called to the fact that there were no less than twenty-one of these names, and a recommendation was passed by the Assembly requesting societies, other than Christian Endeavor, to adopt the name Presbyterian Guild, or some such modification of it as would indicate the character of the society, if this could be done without disturbing present relationships. Evidently little attention was paid to the suggestion, because the types are as diversified as ever. In the Presbytery of Whitby there are only three societies, but the names are as varied as the organizations. In the Presbytery of London, where there are 36 societies, no less than 16 different types are found. Where there is such a bewildering diversity it is exceedingly difficult to make an accurate classification, but the following figures may be taken as approximately correct:

Christian Endeavor, 400.
Presbyterian and Westminster Guilds, 105.
Young People's Societies, 31.
Young People's Associations, 12.
Missionary Societies and Mission Bands, 21.
Junior Christian Endeavor, 5.
Junior Guilds, 3.
Boys' Guilds, 5.
Boys' Brigades, 5.
Literary Societies, 5.
Unclassified, 171.

It will be observed that the number of unclassified is exceptionally large, but this arises from the fact that several of the Presbytery Conveners neglected to make a classification.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

That the General Assembly authorize its Committee on Young People's Socities to prepare one or more hand-books on Missions suitable for Mission Study Classes, Mission Bands, and Young People's Societies generally.

2. That in the organization of new societies the preference be given to the Christian Endeavor and to the Presbyterian Guild.

3. That Ministers be requested to call attention to the Literary Course given in the Manual, and recommend their young people to read the books therein prescribed.

4. That in Presbyteries where no Presbyterial Union exists, steps be taken to organize one, but if the formation of such a Union be considered impracticable, that the Presbytery hold annually a convention in the interests of the young people, and invite the societies within the bounds to send representatives thereto.

5. That in Presbyteries where it is deemed inexpedient to hold an annual convention a place be found on the docket at least once a year, preferably in the autumn, for the consideration and discussion of the work of Young People's Societies.

6. That in Presbyteries where Presbyterial visitation obtains, due attention be paid to the work of Young People's Societies.

7. That Presbyterial Unions be requested to undertake the partial or full financial support of a missionary in the Home or Foreign Field.

8. That with a view of developing the missionary spirit among young people, Presbyteries be recommended to co-operate with the Presbyterian Student Volunteer Union in the organizing of Mission Study Classes, Missionary Libraries, and Missionary Prayer Circles.

Respectfully submitted.

W. S. MACTAVISH,
Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESBYTERIAN RECORD FOR 1903.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :—

There were six hundred and thirteen thousand copies of the RECORD printed during the year, an average of over fifty-one thousand copies per month, the largest circulation, except one Daily and Weekly, of any English publication in Canada. While the circulation of the RECORD is slowly increasing, it does not keep pace with the growth of our Church, for the reason that the older congregations are its chief constituency, and some of these are losing members by emigration, while in the newer fields are many strangers, whose interest in the traditions and the public work of our Church is not yet what may be expected in years to come.

A feature of the past year, for which the credit is due to Rev. Dr. Herdman and to many of the ministers and members of our Church in the West, is the issuing of Presbytery numbers of the RECORD, some twenty pages or more being devoted to a series of articles on different phases of life and work in each Presbytery. In this way the Presbyteries of Calgary, Edmonton and Kootenay were passed in review in 1903, and Winnipeg, Kamloops, Westminster and Minnedosa since the beginning of the present year. It is hoped the result will be a deeper interest in the great Home Mission work of the Church.

As in other years, the RECORD has received from many quarters more than its meed of generous appreciation, for which sincere thanks are given, and while such kindly reception is always beyond desert, it is an incentive to follow after.

As in the previous year, owing to its increased size, the cost of the RECORD has exceeded its subscription price, part of the balance, accumulated when it was much smaller, being thus devoted to its own improvement.

The accounts for the year show :—

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF SABBATH SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly :

The year just closed has been highly satisfactory. The circulation of the various publications has advanced, that of EAST AND WEST by fifty per cent. The experimental stage of EAST AND WEST may be fairly considered as ended, and the Committee rejoices in the secure establishment of the complete series of Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers originally contemplated. Sabbath schools need not now go elsewhere for any necessary supplies.

The literature of the Y. P. Societies has, as previously, been issued from the Publications' Offices by an arrangement with the Committee on Y. P. Societies.

As last year, LE RAYON DE SOLEIL, an illustrated paper for French Protestant children in the Province of Quebec and elsewhere, has been published. A Sub-Committee in Montreal of the Board of French Evangelization undertakes the details in regard to circulation, Rev. R. P. Duclos and Dr. Amaron supplying the "copy." A grant made by the General Assembly's Sabbath School Committee meets the deficit. The Publications' Offices supply the cuts, material for translation, and the editorial supervision, and take charge of mailing to subscribers. The little paper is highly spoken of.

A careful estimate of assets and liabilities at date, April 30th, shows an excess of assets over liabilities of $10,845.18. This is $623.69 less than last year, which is more than accounted for by the exceptional outlay connected with the preliminary expenses (now concluded) of EAST AND WEST, and some loss of business, suffered in common with all business houses, owing to the extraordinarily severe winter, which prevented the assembling of Sabbath schools in many localities for weeks together.

The surplus above mentioned has been accumulated since 1899 by careful and economical management, notwithstanding the large increase in price of material and cost of production, and that during this period three new publications have been added, and the former ones enlarged and improved. This working balance is all required, and a much larger balance would be of advantage. The Committee propose to conserve the balance, and to continue the policy repeatedly approved by the General Assembly, of applying all profits to still further improvement and development of the various publications.

The resolution of last General Assembly directing the Committee to consider the advisability of omitting the printing of the text in all Helps provided for the schools, was fully considered by the Committee, and it was agreed, that in the judgment of the Committee it is not desirable to do this in the meantime.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT H. WARDEN,
Convener.

During the past year two meetings of the Joint Committee of Presbyterian Churches in the United States and Canada, engaged in preparing a new metrical version of the Psalms, have been held. The following is a report of these meetings by the Rev. W. J. Dey, M.A., of Simcoe.

"Dear Dr. Gregg,—Permit me to report that the Joint Committee to prepare a uniform version of the Psalms in meter, have held two meetings since our last report, one in September, at Lake George, N.Y., and one in Philadelphia, Pa., in April, each meeting lasting eight days. The work done was a second and final revision of Psalms 1 to 72. The Committee sought earnestly to have the work completed before making this report; but the first draft of Psalms, 1 to 89, needed so much attention in review that progress was not rapid. The Committee feel greatly encouraged, however, by their success in overcoming difficulties and in attaining satisfactory results; and they rejoice in believing that a degree of perfection is being attained that will make the Psalms much more widely acceptable to the Church of Christ than they could be in the imperfect forms which long usage has made so dear to many of us. It may be mentioned that a congregation in Britain, after examining samples of the Committee's work, have sent a request that as soon as the Psalter is completed, they be furnished with 200 copies for immediate use in public worship.

The Committee expect to have the entire work completed and printed in time for the Assemblies and Synods of 1905. They will then ask for criticisms before issuing the Psalter in final form. The usual funds provided the Committee will enable them to send to each of the co-operating denominations about fifty copies, bound in paper; but if additional copies for examination be ordered before printing, they can be supplied, at about ten or twelve dollars a hundred. The usual annual grant of fifteen dollars is asked from each of the co-operating churches, the same to be sent to Rev. Dr. Steele, 74 West 103rd St., New York City.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. J. DEY,

Convener of Sub-Committee for Presbyterian Church in Canada."

"P.S.—It might be well for the Hymnal Committee and the Assembly to decide whether they desire to distribute copies of the completed Psalter next year to the ministers and elders of the Church for examination. The work to be reported to the churches will likely be printed at the Witness printing shop, Montreal, and the estimates they give are from twenty-eight cents a piece for 500 copies, to seven cents a piece for 10,000 copies. Of course when the books are to be published for use, with or without music, each denomination will arrange as it thinks best. I think we can safely count on ten or twelve dollars a hundred, perhaps less, for the reported forms printed the same size and on the same kind of paper the draft forms have been printed on; but on both sides of the paper.

Dr. Murray did not attend the meeting in Philadelphia. The expenses of Dr. Scrimger and myself were $33 and $43, respectively. Mine includes pulpit supply for April 17th, the meeting being from April 13th to April 21st, inclusive.

The following are the amounts paid by our Treasurer towards the preparation of the metrical version of the Psalms :—

1897–1898	$80 50
1899–1900	115 00

Convener of the Hymnal Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE WITH OTHER CHURCHES.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

Your Committee beg to report that they appointed the Rev. D. J. Fraser, LL.D., as deputy to convey the cordial greetings of our Church to the General Assemblies of the Church of Scotland and the United Free Church of Scotland. They also appointed the Rev. Drs. Fletcher and Warden and Mr. W. B. McMurrich to convey similar greetings to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The Assembly last year remitted to your Committee the resolution adopted by the General Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada on the question of union. After careful consideration it was unanimously agreed to recommend the General Assembly to adopt the following resolution :—

"The General Assembly thanks the General Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada for their courtesy in transmitting to them a copy of the resolution on Church Union, adopted by the Conference at its meeting in September, 1902.

"The General Assembly is at one with the General Conference in its desire to promote organic union among the evangelistic churches, so far as this can be accomplished, with due regard to all the interests involved, and especially the promotion of the efficiency of the Church of Christ in carrying forward its great work at home and abroad.

"The Assembly is gratified by the fact that the question of union between the Methodist Church of Canada, the Congregational Church in Canada and the Presbyterian Church in Canada is receiving consideration by many in the membership of these churches, and especially that the General Conference of the Methodist Church should have adopted a deliverance breathing the truly Christian spirit of the resolution which has been transmitted to the Assembly.

"The General Assembly, in response, appoints a Committee on Union, with instructions to confer with the similar Committees of the Methodist, Congregational and any other Churches to report to the next General Assembly.

"The Assembly prays that the spirit of truth, wisdom and love may rest upon the Committees of these Churches in all conferences which they may hold upon the very important subject which they are appointed to consider."

On the twenty-first of March last your Committee met in the City of Toronto, in conference with the Committees appointed by the General Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada and the Congregational Union of Canada, when, after frank and brotherly intercourse, the following resolution was unanimously adopted :—

"That this joint Committee, composed of representatives of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Churches, assembled to confer together respecting an organic union of the churches named, would reverently and gratefully recognize the token of the Master's presence as evidenced by the cordial, brotherly spirit and earnest desire for Divine guidance maintained throughout the entire session.

"While recognizing the limitations of our authority as to any action that would commit our respective churches in regard to a proposal that is yet in the initial stage, we feel free, nevertheless, to say that we are of onemind, that organic union is both desirable and practicable, and we commend the whole subject to the sympathetic and favorable consideration of the chief assemblies of the churches concerned for such further action as they may deem wise and expedient."

At several important centres, such as Halifax, Winnipeg, Hamilton, London and Toronto, informal conferences on the subject of union have been held within the past few months, and resolutions adopted, which clearly indicate a growing desire for co-operation on the part of ministers and laymen in these centres.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Toronto, May 13th, 1904.

Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AIDS FOR SOCIAL WORSHIP.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

The Committee on Aids for Social Worship has reported to every Assembly, since its appointment, on the progress made in the effort to provide a means of assisting groups of people who are without regular church services. The Committee, year by year, has likewise placed on record the result of its attempts, under the direction of the Assembly, to prepare a proper Manual for use in such circumstances.

The Manual, published by arrangement with the Westminster Company in 1900, has proved useful in many quarters, and the Committee is of opinion that its usefulness might be still further extended, particularly in the new fields of settlement in the North-West.

There are many groups of families, and their number is increasing, who are entirely destitute of regular church services; and others who regard themselves as extremely fortunate if they receive an occasional visit from a student or other missionary. It has seemed to the Committee that, in such cases, it would be well to endeavor to introduce the use of the Manual, so that Divine worship, in some simple form, may be regularly maintained.

Through the generosity of one of its members, the Committee has been able, during the past two years, to furnish student missionaries sent out by the colleges with copies of the Manual free of charge. Reports have been received that the book has proved of considerable value, and the Committee is encouraged to think that, with the approval of the Assembly, its efforts to accomplish the desired object will be attended by ever-growing good results.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. T. HERRIDGE, Convener.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ENLARGEMENT OF THE POWERS OF SYNODS.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly :

Your Committee beg leave to report that in accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, they met early in the month of January last, and reconsidered the report submitted by them to last Assembly, and revised the overture which it contained and sent it down to Synods and Presbyteries, and requested their views in regard to the overture. The overture sent down is as follows :—

Whereas a majority of the Presbyteries have reported to the Assembly in favor of extending the powers of Synods,

And whereas the General Assembly, for various weighty reasons, deems it expedient to give effect to the judgment of said Presbyteries,

Therefore, The General Assembly agrees that, in addition to the powers heretofore exercised by Synods, Synods shall hereafter have vested in them, subject to the regulations which the General Assembly may from time to time adopt, the right to deal with and dispose of the following subjects, viz :—

1. The reception of ministers from other Churches. Application for the reception of ministers from other Churches shall not be entertained by the Synod, unless the Presbytery applying for the reception of said minister has sent to all the Presbyteries of the Church in Canada a circular letter at least two months before the meeting of Synod, intimating its intention so to apply ; and further, when any Presbytery, for reasons, objects to the reception of an applicant, the application shall be referred to the General Assembly.

2. The granting of leave to ministers to retire from the active duties of the ministry.

3. The erection of new Presbyteries within their bounds, as well as the adjusting of the bounds of Presbyteries already existing within said Synods; but when a new Presbytery requires to be erected, covering territory under the jurisdiction of two or more Synods, the sanction of the General Assembly must be obtained.

4. The reception and issuing finally of all appeals, complaints and references which come regularly before it, and which do not affect the doctrine or constitution of the Church or interfere with the administration of schemes or other matters under the direction and control of the General Assembly.

In conceding to Synods the enlarged powers above enumerated, the Assembly does not extend said powers to Presbyteries in the Foreign fields which have been vested with Synodical powers. It is further declared, that in thus enlarging the powers of Synods, the Assembly does not lay aside its right to supervise and control all the proceedings of Synods as these come before it from year to year in the review of their records, or to deny to the members of the Church or to subordinate courts the right to approach the Supreme Court by memorial.

Your Committee met again on the 13th May to consider the returns from Presbyteries and Synods. They found that thirty-five Presbyteries had reported on the overture, and twenty-four approve of the overture simpliciter. Of the remaining eleven Presbyteries, three approve of articles 2, 3 and 4, and disapprove of 1. Seven approve of 1, 2 and 3, and either disapprove of 4, or desire to see it modified. One gives no detailed report, but desires to see the powers of Synods enlarged.

The Synod of Hamilton and London approve of articles 1, 2 and 3 in the overture, and dissapprove of 4, or say, at least, it should receive further consideration. The Synod of Toronto and Kingston approve of the overture simpliciter.

Your Committee at its January meeting decided to ask the views of Presbyteries in reference to the propriety of having the work of the Church in its great departments brought regularly before Synods so as to deepen the interest felt in them and evoke the liberality of the Church in their support. The returns received in reply to this inquiry were not very numerous, but they were all favorable.

Your Committee also asked the views of Presbyteries, Synods and the Home and Foreign Mission Committees, East and West, on two points urged upon their attention as important, viz: (1) The appointment by all Synods of Home Mission Committees to which shall be committed the administration of all the moneys allotted to them by the Assembly's Home Mission Committee, and (2) the unification of the entire Home Mission work of the Church, East and West, under one committee appointed by the Assembly.

While fully one half of the Presbyteries sending returns on the overture did not report their views on these proposals, many of those who did report express decided disapproval of the unification of the Home Mission work under one committee. This view seems to prevail in the Maritime Provinces, and is concurred in by the Home Mission Committee, Eastern Division. The Committee of the Western Division sent no report. There was, however, a pretty strong expression of opinion, especially in Ontario, in favor of placing the administration of Home Missions in the hands of Synodical Committees, as is done in the Synods of Manitoba and the North-West and in British Columbia.

In conclusion, your Committee beg to submit for your adoption the following resolutions, viz:—

1. That the foregoing overture be amended by the addition to Article 1 of the following words, viz: "and in all cases where applications are rejected other Synods shall be notified without delay."

2. That the overture so amended be adopted by the General Assembly and sent down to Presbyteries under the Barrier Act, and that they be instructed to report to next Assembly.

3. The Committee would recommend the General Assembly to consider the advisability of charging the Synods of Montreal and Ottawa, Toronto and Kingston and Hamilton and London with the administration of the Home Mission work within their bounds as is at present done in the Synods of Manitoba and the North-West and of British Columbia.

4. The Committee further suggest that the General Assembly should recommend Synods to appoint Committees whose duty it shall be to bring before them annually the work of the Church in its other principal schemes with the view of promoting liberality in their support, and having matters relating to them carefully considered.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

WM. MacLAREN, Convener.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly.

WHEREAS it appears that the cost of living in the bounds of the Maritime Synod has materially increased in recent years.

Dr. Gregg presented and read the following overture to the General Assembly which the Presbytery agreed to transmit, and appointed Dr. Parsons and Mr. J. A. Turnbull to support the same:—

WHEREAS it is for many reasons desirable that a general standing College Committee should be appointed, that shall have, under the General Assembly, a supervision of matters of interest to the Colleges of our Church in which students are being trained for the ministry;

It is hereby overtured, by the Presbytery of Toronto, to the General Assembly to appoint and give instructions to such a Committee.

V.—Re AGED AND INFIRM MINISTERS' FUND.

At Brandon, and within St. Paul's Church there, on the Eleventh day of November, nineteen hundred and three, the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories met, and was constituted.

Inter Alia.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Portage la Prairie anent the administration of the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund was read, together with extract minute from the records of said Presbytery, showing that the Overture had been adopted by the Presbytery, and that Messrs. McRae and Johnston had been appointed to support the same. The Commissioners from the Presbytery were heard. It was moved by Mr. McRae, seconded by Mr. Johnston, that the Overture be transmitted to the General Assembly with the approval of the Synod. It was moved in amendment by Dr. Bryce, seconded by Mr. McKechnie, that the overture be transmitted simpliciter. The Amendment was put and lost, the vote standing eighteen for and twenty-one against. The motion was then put and carried. It was agreed on motion of Dr. Bryce, duly seconded, that the Moderator be authorized to appoint Commissioners to support the Overture on the floor of the Assembly after Presbyteries select their Commissioners. The Overture is as follows:—

WHEREAS there is much dissatisfaction with the present mode of administering the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, and as a consequence the annuities paid to the beneficiaries are inadequate for their support, and unworthy of a Church of such resources as ours; and

WHEREAS there is no reason to believe that there will be an improvement till the causes of dissatisfaction are removed.

It is hereby overtured to the General Assembly that the revenues derived from endowments, congregational contributions, donations and such like, be apportioned among the beneficiaries according to years of service, irrespective of their being rate-paying ministers or not, due consideration being given to cases of individual need.

VI.—Re STUDENTS' SALARIES.

At Brandon and within St. Paul's Church there, on the Eleventh day of November, nineteen hundred and three, the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories met and was constituted.

Inter Alia.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Qu'Appelle anent salaries of Students was read, together with extract minute from records of said Presbytery, stating that Messrs. Leishman and McKechnie had been appointed to support the same before Synod. Messrs. Leishman and McKechnie were heard, whereupon it was moved by Dr. Patrick, seconded by Dr. Duval, that the Overture be transmitted to the General Assembly with the recommendation that it be favourably considered. After discussion, Dr. Patrick asked leave to add to his motion the following:—That a copy of the Overture be transmitted to the Assembly's Home Mission Committee, and that the Synod instruct the representatives of this Synod on the Assembly's Committee, to press the said committee to approve of the Overture and to memorialize the General Assembly to grant the prayer thereof. The motion as thus enlarged became the finding of the Court. It was moved by Dr. Patrick, seconded by Dr. Bryce, and agreed that the Moderator be authorized to appoint three members of Synod to support the Overture before the Assembly after Presbyteries have elected their commissioners to the General Assembly. The Overture is as follows:—

WHEREAS it is evident to all that there is not a sufficient number of suitable men available to supply the increasing demands of our Mission Fields; and

WHEREAS, many of the students in our universities and colleges find more remunerative employment during the summer in other positions; and

WHEREAS, owing to the increase in the cost of living, and the heavy demands, financially, made on our students, the present rates of salary (viz., six dollars per week and board during summer, and seven dollars per week and board during winter) is not sufficient to meet the necessary expenses of college life.

It is therefore humbly overtured by the Presbytery of Qu'Appelle that the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories take this whole question into its most serious consideration and overture the General Assembly at its meeting in St. John in June next, to increase the salary of student missionaries to seven dollars per week and board during summer, and eight dollars per week and board during winter.

Extracted from the records of the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories by

In accordance with the instruction of the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories as set forth in the foregoing motion, I hereby appoint Rev. Wm. Patrick, D.D., Rev. C. W. Gordon, B.A., and Rev. W. M. Rochester, B.A., Commissioners to the General Assembly to support the Overture anent increase in students' salaries before the Assembly.

S. C. MURRAY,

Moderator of Synod of Manitoba and N.W. Territories.

Inter Alia.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The Presbytery of Orangeville humbly overtures the Venerable, the General Assembly, to provide a Selection or Directory of Hymns and Anthems for use by choirs, duly approved and commended, for the guidance of ministers, sessions and leaders in the service of praise.

Mr. Buchanan moved, and Mr. Rose seconded that this be adopted, and the Overture be transmitted to the General Assembly, and that Mr. P. W. VIII.—Re SYSTEMATIC GIVING FOR SCHEMES.

At Toronto, within Knox Church there, on Thursday, the twelfth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and four, the Synod of Toronto and Kingston met and was duly constituted. Sederunt, Mr. J. A. McKeen, Moderator; Dr. Gregg, Dr. Gray, etc.

Inter Alia.

There was presented and read an Overture, prepared by a Committee of the Synod, relative to the more systematic contribution in congregations to the Schemes of the Church. Dr. McLeod spoke briefly to the Overture, and moved its reception, and adoption by the Synod and transmission to the General Assembly. The following is the text of the Overture:—

WHEREAS the contributions of congregations to the Schemes of the Church are not so large as they might be;

WHEREAS many persons connected with our congregations are not reached by methods now in use;

WHEREAS these contributions might be increased if a wise and systematic method of contribution were introduced into our congregations;

It is hereby humbly overtured by the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, to the Venerable the General Assembly, to consider the subject, and to suggest such methods of contribution as would meet the circumstances of our congregations and introduce a more systematic method of contributing to the Schemes of the Church.

After deliberation the Synod unanimously agreed to adopt and transmit the Overture, and appointed Dr. Warden to support it on the floor of the Assembly.

Extracted this thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four years.

IX.—Re TRAVELLING EXPENSES TO ASSEMBLY.

At Georgetown, within the Presbyterian Church there, on Tuesday the third day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and four, the Presbytery of Toronto met, and was duly constituted. Sederunt, Mr. A. McMillan, Moderator; Dr. Wallace, etc.

Inter Alia.

There was presented and read the following Overture to the General Assembly, which the Presbytery agreed to adopt, and to transmit :—

WHEREAS the representation of Presbyteries in the General Assembly has recently been considerably reduced, so that ministers and elders have less likelihood of becoming commissioners than hitherto has been the case, and,

WHEREAS, owing to the cost of transportation to and attendance upon the General Assembly many commissioners are prevented from attending, thereby losing their turn and so leaving their Presbytery to be inadequately represented in the Assembly, and,

WHEREAS such a state of matters is injurious to the interests of the Church, and liable to create much dissatisfaction;

It is therefore hereby humbly overtured by the Presbytery of Toronto, that the General Assembly shall take immediate steps to make full enquiry into the matter, with a view to devising some method whereby the expenses, for transportation at least, of all commissioners to the Assembly, shall be paid by the Church at large, and having devised such a scheme, to submit the same without delay to the Presbyteries in terms of the Barrier Act.

The Presbytery appointed Dr. Wallace and Major L. Grant to support the Overture before the Assembly.

XI.—Re MEMORIAL CHURCH AT PRETORIA, SOUTH AFRICA.

At Quebec and within Chalmers' Church there, on the twelfth day of May, nineteen hundred and four, which day the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa being met and constituted.

Inter Alia.

There was submitted and read a Memorial from the Presbytery of Quebec, setting forth a movement in the British Churches, having in view the erection of a Memorial Church, at Pretoria, South Africa, and memorializing the Synod to overture the Venerable General Assembly to take action in the matter. Mr. E. Macqueen was heard in support. The Memorial was received and considered; and on motion made and duly seconded, the following was adopted :—

WHEREAS it is proposed to erect a Church in Pretoria, to be a Memorial to the Presbyterian soldiers who fell during the late war in South Africa.

AND WHEREAS the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and the Moderators and Clerks of the Churches in England and Ireland have cordially commended the subject to the sympathy and liberality of the members of their respective Churches :—

RESOLVED, That the Synod overture the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada to take similar action to that of the Presbyterian Churches of England, Scotland and Ireland.

Extracted from the record of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, by me,

J. R. MACLEOD, Synod Clerk.

THREE RIVERS, May 14th, 1904.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR 1903.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada:

Your Committee have to report that, whether they were justifiable or not in doing so, without the previous sanction of the Assembly, they made a few changes on the form of questions recommended by the Special Committee on Statistics to the Assembly in 1899, and adopted by it; but, with one exception in the statistics, and one in the Financial Statement, these were merely verbal, and need not be specified.

To the Statistical Form they have added one question, and numbered it 15, "When was the Communion Roll last purged?" It was not without reason that the addition was made. It might seem, indeed, that it was unnecessary, in view of the one immediately following, "Number of communicants on the roll as revised up to 31st December, 1903." But if reference is made to the reports of Presbyteries in answering the newly inserted question, it will be seen that sessions do not attend strictly to the terms in which it is couched, for the dates of revising are various, and, in some instances, delayed for years.

Here a point is suggested to which your Committee will merely allude, namely, the care that should be exercised by Presbyteries in seeing that the sessions in their bounds keep their rolls of communicants correct and reliable up to date. How that is to be done it is for the superior courts of the Church to decide and prescribe. Presbyteries require sessions to produce their records for examination and attestation once a year. Ought they not to require them to produce their Communion Roll, revised and made up to, at least, the close of the immediately preceding calendar year? It will be one of the recommendations of your Committee that Presbyteries be instructed to examine the answer to question 15, as they apear in the printed report, and give dilgence in directing sessions to be prompt and faithful in the discharge of this duty and report to next Assembly through the Committee.

At this stage it seems proper to call attention to the want of accuracy on the part of sessions in making up their Communion Rolls. For a considerable time this want of accuracy has been known to the Committee, and in issuing the circular of questions to congregations and mission stations for 1903 a foot note was inserted as a reference from the question, "Number of communicants on the roll as revised up to the 31st December, 1903" in these words, "Sessions will see to it that, after reckoning additions and removals, the figures agree with those from the preceding year." Only one or two illustrations out of many that might be adduced will be given showing the need for such an instruction, and the want of attention to it by those to whom it was addressed. And congregations shall not be taken, nor Presbyteries, only as these come up by implication. In the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa the number of communicants on the roll in 1902 was 36,330. During the year 1903 there were added 2,195 on profession, and 1,187 on certificate; total additions 3,382, which, with the other total, makes 39,712. The removals were 1,111 by certificate and 1,104 by death or otherwise; total 2,215. Taking this from 39,712 leaves 37,497, as the number that would be expected to be on the roll at the end of 1903. But the number reported is 38,544, being 1,047 in excess.

Take an illustration from a Presbytery, that of Montreal and Ottawa—a large and influential one in all respects. The number of communicant members for 1902 was 11,919. During the year 738 were added on profession and 494 on certificate; total 1,232, which, added to the previous numbers, equals 13,151. Removals by certificate, 365; by death and otherwise, 466; equal 831, which, taken from the other would leave 12,320 as the number of communicants that would be expected in the bounds of the Presbytery at the close of 1903. But the number returned is 12,743, a discrepancy of 423.

Take the Church at large. For 1902 communicant members were reported as being 222,031. Added during 1903 on profession 11,423, and on certificate 8,862; total 20,285, which, with the other, makes an aggregate of 242,311. Removed by certificate 7,990, by death or otherwise 6,175; total removals 14,165. Subtracting this there are left 228,151, being 1,432 excess.

STATISTICS.

Taking these up by Synods, for it would be too tedious to deal with them by Presbyteries, and condescending upon only some of the items, although your Committee are prepared to enter into minute details, there were in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces 25,987 families and 3,762 single persons, an increase in the former of 294, and in the latter of 569.

Of the additions made to communicants' rolls 1,594 were on profession and 772 on certificate; total, 2,366. There were 1,861 removals, 722 of these being by certificate and 1,139 by death or otherwise.

The entire number of communicant members were 53,689, showing an increase of 521; 2,106 persons were baptized, of whom 1,761 were infants, and 345 adults, being increases of 173 and 36 respectfully.

In the number of Elders, 1,721, there was a decrease of 50.

In the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories there were 13,633 families and 5,559 single persons reported, an increase in the former of 1,737, and a decrease in the latter of 1,539.

The aggregate of names of communicants on rolls of sessions was 19,948, an increase of 1,653 on the year 1902. During 1903 there were added 1,156 on profession, being 40 of a decrease, and 1,716 on certificate, an increase of 437; but the removals were 897, increase 6, by certificate, and 417, a decrease of 288, by death or otherwise.

1,509 infants were baptized, an increase of 47, and 74 adults, a decrease of 9.

In the number of Elders, 659, there was an increase of 23.

In the Synod of British Columbia there were 5,374 families and 2,266 single persons, showing increase of 337 and 213 respectively.

The additions were 397 on profession, an increase of 68, and 718 on certificate, an increase of 80; while 513 removals took place, 339 being by certificate and 174 by death or otherwise, decreases 37 and 32.

The total membership throughout the Synod was 6,504, an increase of 429 on the previous year.

Baptism was administered to 556 persons, of whom 532 were infants, 106 of a decrease, and 24 adults, 10 of a decrease.

There were 16 Elders fewer in 1903, the full number being 209.

On account of economy in space and costs of printing the figures showing the "Number of sittings in Church," was omitted in the tables giving the summaries and summation of the various items taken knowledge of in the report. An important item of information was thus held back, and it is now recommended that it be restored. By some modification in two or three of the following columns, or by the omission of some other item that may not be so important, this might be accomplished. Your Committee to be appointed for next year may have their attention directed to the matter.

FINANCES.

In this section of the report your Committee will deal with only the four subjects, Stipend, Total Ordinary Expenditure, Contributions to the Schemes of the Church and For All Purposes.

In the Synod of the Maritime Provinces the total payments as stipend was $207,788, of which $192,212 were by congregations alone, a decrease of $9,748, and $15,576 from other sources, $2,021 of a decrease.

In the congregations of the same Synod the total ordinary expenditure was $323,878, an increase of $5,217; payments to the Schemes of the Church $76,294, an increase of $3,326; total payments for all purposes aggregated $448,970, an increase of $8,222; debt on Church property, $176,491, being $7,591 less than for the previous year.

In the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa $177,462 were paid in stipend by congregations alone, an increase of $3,025, and $22,213, a decrease of $229, from other sources, giving an aggregate of stipend amounting to $199,675.

For all purposes the total contributions were $485,777, being $9,317 below the sum for the previous year. Of this $319,436 went towards ordinary expenditure, an increase of $12,626, and $86,562 towards the Schemes of the Church, a falling off of $15,163. Debt on Church property amounted to $164,530, being a decrease of $21,239.

In the Synod of Toronto and Kingston payments to stipend amounted to $291,730, of which $275,607 were from congregations solely, an increase of $9,190, and $16,123 from other sources, an increase of $3,478.

Total ordinary expenditure aggregated $533,526, an increase of $31,778; payments to the Schemes of the Church were $110,233, a decrease of $1,053; for all purposes $742,324, givng $62,192 of an increase; debt on Church property $545,674, an increase of $12,254.

Congregations alone paid for stipend in the Synod of Hamilton and London $210,816, and stipend from other sources amounted to $5,600, an increase on the former of $284, and on the latter of 1,628.

For all purposes the expenditure was $560,049, showing $39,676 of an increase. Of the aggregate just stated $399,681, increase $17,180, were for ordinary expenditure, and $88,718, increase $6,543, for Schemes of the Church; debt on Church property $262,366, increase $9,846.

In the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories payments on stipend amounted to $163,162; of this $145,371 were direct from the congregations, showing an increase of $6,205, and $17,791 from other sources, an increase of $3,470.

The payments towards ordinary expenditure amounted to $231,288, an increase of $31,113, to the Schemes of the Church $30,535, increase $2,274; to all purposes $346,577, increase $44,160. The debt on Church property amounted to $205,297, showing an increase of $38,437.

In the Synod of British Columbia $67,523 were paid for stipend by the congregations, which was an increase of $2,225, and $9,877 were received from other sources, a decrease of $4,486. Total ordinary expenditure summed up to $115,829, being $6,608 of an increase; the Schemes of the Church received $8,663, being $932 increase; for all purposes there were paid $159,507, a falling off of $27; debt on Church property was $115,718, an increase of $10,482.

Passing from this more limited survey by Synods to the Church at large, your Committee have to report that the amount paid towards stipend by the congregations and stations themselves enjoying the ordinances of worship was $1,068,991, and $87,180 were received from other sources, making an aggregate of $1,156,171, an increase in the former of $11,181 and in the latter of $1,860.

As might be expected, great difference prevails in the rate of stipend that is paid. The average to each minister might be computed, but this would be misleading, and serve to divert attention from those living on the smaller salaries. Calculation, too, might show that those congregations that are paying what appear only small amounts are contributing to the support of those who minister to them in word and ordinance as liberally, and, in some instances even more so, than those in which salaries are larger. It may be said generally that none of the ministers are receiving more largely than their office and and work entitle them to, but there are many who receive too little.

Neither the Summation Table as printed nor the Comparative Table shows the arrears of stipend at the end of the year. Your Committee, however, can state from an examination of the reports of Presbyteries that there are 13 of them, or about 25 per cent. of the whole number, that have congregations with no arrears. The total amount of arrears is $7,690, the heaviest being in the Synod of Manitoba and the North-West Territories.

The total ordinary expenditure was $1,923,638, but the details according to Synods has already been given.

Your Committee this year added a column for contributions to the Woman's Home Missionary Society. There was on the part of some of the members an impression that such a society had been organized corresponding to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and hence, in part, the addition. At the same time it was known, and has been for years, that there are congregations in which there are Woman's Home Missionary Societies, and, long ago, application was made to have such recognized, and their financial aid reported to the Assembly, although steps were not taken to comply with the request. From the answers given to this question it would appear that the Committee were justified in the course they took. In the Synod of the Maritime Provinces 3 report no income, but 5 do, amounting to $441. In the Synod of Moutreal and Ottawa one Presbytery reports blank, while the other 5 report $1,523. In Toronto and Kingston two report nothing, but 10 report $1,169. Hamilton and London, 3 report nothing, but 6 report $1,867. In Manitoba and the North-West Territories, 6 report nothing, and 6 report $641. British Columbia, 3 report nothing, and 3 report $599. The total amount is $6,240. It may serve a good purpose to let Presbyteries and congregations know that account is taken of such a source of income, and is it not worthy of encouragement?

From the Woman's Missionary Society $54,973 have been received, showing that those who have given their time and interest to this department of religious activity are putting forth unabated energy; and they are blessed in their deed, no doubt, in their own souls, and to others in lands of darkness. Results would show that Christ is saying of their efforts "well done," for has He not sanctioned them? And there is another day and place and form in which the recognition and recommendation will be repeated.

The next item in the Financial Statement is a mixed or composite one, namely, "Payments to Synod and Presbytery Funds, and other religious and benevolent objects." In the 10 Presbyteries in the Synod of the Maritime Provinces $9,667 are reported under this heading, an increase of $4,306; in Montreal and Ottawa $39,415, being $1,613 increase; in Toronto and Kingston, $59,984, or $28,187 increase; in Hamilton and London, $19,667, an increase of $4,306; in Manitoba and North-West Territories, $46,086, one Presbytery, Dauphin being blank, increase $34,374; British Columbia, $5,066, decrease $13,993. Aggregate amount $190,560, increase on previous year $57,512.

Should we not here pause, not only as a Committee reporting, but as an Assembly receiving, and say with devout and fervent gratitude, "God has done great things for us whereof we are glad?" Often has this Church been called upon to make such an acknowledgment in the years that have been swallowed up in the gulf of time. Fathers and brethren who are no longer with us have joined in the adoration and thanksgiving. Let Fathers and Brethren here, and in all parts of the Dominion, join in the invitation, "Extol the Lord with me, let us exalt His name together." Is not 1903, as well as preceding years, full of encouragment, instruction and incitement? Are not the figures produced testimony borne by the Redeeming Head of the Church that he unions of 1861 and 1875 had and still have His sanction? Is there no material here for thought and suggestion and direction in refernce to that other union—a union not of several members of the same denomination, but several members of other denominations—which is contemplated and proposed, and in which even a wider interst is awakened than in those of the past?

For 1902 the debt on Church buildings and property was reported as $1,427,890. For 1903 is amounted to $1,210,076, a decrease of $217,814. Looking over the tables, there is not a single Presbytery that has not debt, while there are several congregations with none. In some of them the figures are largely those, for example, in whose bounds are large cities. Toronto is far away highest, $356,700; Montreal has $78,185; Hamilton, $48,534; Paris, $55,600; Westminster, $64,872. Judging from the conduct of congregations, debt does not seem to be regarded as a burden. And, yet, was not it implied that it was such in the effort, which was made so recently to lessen it or wipe it off? It would appear as as if the counsel or exhortation of the Apostle—rather of God speaking by the Apostle—"Owe no man anything, but to love one another," was not regarded as applying to congregations, Trustees and Boards of Management.

On the other contents of the report your Committee will not dwell. They close with the following recommendations:

1. That Presbyteries be instructed to take such measures as will secure the yearly revision of the rolls of communicant members under the care of sessions in their bounds, and require the production of certified copies of these once a year, and that the middle clause of sec. 62, p. 18 of the last edition of Rules and Forms of Procedure be amended so as to read "The roll of communicants be revised and transmitted for examination to the Presbytery once a year, and more especially before application is made for moderation in a call to a minister."

2. That Presbyteries be enjoined to require that sessions and congregations send in not later than the month of February in each year their Statistical and Financial Returns for examination and conference and comparison, and that their Clerks forward these by the 1st of April to the General Assembly's Committee on Statistics.

3. That Presbyteries be directed to deal at once with congregations in their bounds that are in arrears of stipend.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

As intimated to last Assembly, the necessary legislation from the several Provincial Legislatures for the incorporation of the Board of Trustees has been obtained, and during the year the mortgage securities held by the Church in the Province of Ontario have all been transferred to the Board of Trustees, and arrangements are being made with a view to the transfer of the securities and properties in other Provinces. All of the mortgages held by the Board are ear-marked; that is, the fund to which they belong is specially named in the Deed of Mortgage, and Discharges of these Mortgages, according to the Act of Incorporation, require to be executed by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, by the Treasurer of the Church and by the Convener or Chairman of the Committee of the fund interested.

The Board of Trustees appointed a sub-committee of their number, consisting of His Honor W. Mortimer Clark, K.C., Mr. Robert Kilgour and Dr. Warden, under whose supervision all investments are made.

From the annual financial statement of the Agent of the Church, herewith appended, it will be seen that the contributions for the past year have been, on the whole, satisfactory. The receipts for the regular schemes are somewhat in excess of those of the preceding year, and it is encouraging to report that nearly all the funds closed the year without debt. It is to be regretted that the Foreign Mission Fund has a deficit of $25,600. This, however, is accounted for mainly by the large diminution in the receipts from legacies, by the re-opening in Honan, China, and by the general expansion of the work. A special appeal has just been made by the Committee, which will, it is hoped, result in the removal of the deficit. The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund is the only other fund in debt. It will be observed, however, that the debt is about the same as reported a year ago, and that the Committee have been able, from the revenue of the year, largely to increase the scale of annuities to the retired ministers of the Church.

The Board of Trustees call the special attention of the General Assembly to the late period of the year at which contributions are received for the missionary and benevolent schemes. While the expenditure goes on from month to month, nearly two-thirds of the entire contributions for the schemes are received within the closing weeks of the year. This entails a considerable loss in the way of interest, for, although the Century Fund working balances made it unnecessary to borrow from the banks during the past year, yet some of the funds have had to borrow from others, which would be unnecessary were congregations to forward their missionary money, say, quarterly during the year. While many congregations take up their contributions monthly or quarterly for the schemes of the Church, a very considerable number delay until the month of January or February, when a special effort is made, and either by collectors or Sabbath collections the entire contributions of the congregation for the work of the Church are got. The injurious effects of this plan were seen last winter. The exceptional weather and blocked roads in country districts reduced the attendance very greatly in many churches, and for several Sabbaths no services were held. This resulted in greatly lessened contributions for the schemes of the Church. It was suposed that the amount would largely be made up during the month of March. This, however, did not prove to be the case, as the supplementary statement of receipts for that month abundantly shows.

Another argument against delay in forwarding contributions for the work of the Church is found in the fact that the Committees in charge of the work cannot tell, till within a few days of the close of the year, when the entire expenditure of the year has been incurred, whether the income is sufficient, so that it is impossible for them to equalize the expenditure with the revenue. The Board of Trustees respectfully recommend the Assembly to instruct those congregations in which there are missionary associations to forward their money quarterly to the Agent of the Church, and where no missionary associations exist, that contributions be taken on the days set apart by the General Assembly for this purpose. Money sent in quarterly is put, meantime, in an unapportioned account and is divided at the end of the year, according to the wishes of the congregation, among the several schemes of the Church. The Board of Trustees further recommend that Presbyteries take action with a view to securing from mission stations, as well as from congregations within their bounds, contributions for the general work of the Church.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES MACLENNAN,
Chairman.

Toronto, May 14, 1904.

I have audited the books of the Rev. Robert H. Warden, D.D., as Agent for the Church, for the year ending February 29th, 1904, and certify that the cash receipts have been correctly accounted for. The vouchers have been examined and compared with the expenditure and agree therewith. The foregoing balance sheet and the accompanying statement showing the details of the investments are in accordance with the ledger accounts and the bank balance and cash are certified correct.

ANDREW JEFFREY.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE 1903-1904, (EASTERN SECTION).

To the Venerable the General Assembly :

Your Finance Committee, Eastern Section, once more find that the receipts at the Presbyterian offices, Halifax, during the past year considerably exceed those of the preceding year. That it may be seen at a glance how matters stand in this respect the following comparative statement is respectfully submitted :

	1901-2.	1902-3.	1903-4.
Foreign Mission Fund	$38,761 97	$36,475 58	$48,033 57
Home Mission Fund	15,281 76	18,549 11	19,201 50
College Fund	13,200 67	12,740 54	13,300 76
Augmentation Fund	9,157 06	9,406 50	10,300 33
College Library Fund	86 32	153 34	214 57
Bursary Fund	978 56	1,351 39	956 23
Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund	5,267 08	4,823 98	4,703 49
Manitoba College Fund	237 07	220 94	163 32
French Evangelization	4,225 92	3,830 32	3,413 97
Widows' and Orphans' Fund	417 98	254 20	709 80
Assembly Fund	515 62	579 80	534 62
	$88,130 01	$88,385 70	$101,532 16

Childrens' Day Collections Fund	1,461 92
Century Church and Manse Building Fund	838 78
Foreign Mission Building Fund	420 86
Wyllie Fund	283 24
Pollok Jubilee Lectureship Fund	100 17
Total	$104,637 13

The Consolidated Fund has now been in existence for eighteen months and is proving satisfactory to the Finance Committee, to the Board and to the agent.

The following is a summary statement of the several funds which have been consolidated and the amount to the credit of each of them at the close of the year 1903-4 :

College Fund	$122,009 46
Foreign Mission Fund (Word Fund)	500 69
Bursary Fund	11,919 95
Geddie Memorial Fund	4,005 42
Home Mission Fund	21,833 98
Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund	50,353 21
Lawson Memorial Fund	9,868 30
Dalhousie College	29,323 83
Foreign Mission Building Fund	8,761 14
Wyllie Fund	5,952 98
Library Fund	419 34
Pollok Jubilee Lectureship Fund	2,000 96
New Mission Vessel Fund	1,767 92
Total amount bearing interest		$268,717 18
College buildings not yielding interest	$50,000 00
Professors' houses, N.-W. arm	17,200 00
		$335,917 18

There is no direct income from the College Buildings, and the $50,000.00 at which they are valued does not bring interest to the Consolidated Fund revenue. Moreover, as the income from and the expenditure on the professors' houses fluctuates considerably, the $17,200.00 invested in these houses does not bring interest to the Consolidated Fund revenue, but the income from them is credited direct to the College Fund, and the outlay is debited in the same way.

Between March 1st, 1903, and March 1st, 1904, the Consolidated Fund was increased by $19,514.07, making a total at the latter date of $335,917.18.

This amount is invested as follows :

Mortgages	$104,854 51
Bank and other stocks and debentures at purchase price	162,302 51
College Buildings	50,000 00
Professors Houses	17,200 00

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY:

May it please your Majesty:

The Thirtieth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened in the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick, in the month of June nineteeen hundred and four, desires most respectfully to lay before your illustrious throne the tribute of its loyal devotion to your Majesty's person, and to express its gratitude not only for the continuance of all civil and religious liberties under the constitution, but also for the blessings of continued peace and international goodwill, conserved so largely, as we believe, through your Majesty's personal influence. The General Assembly prays that Almighty God may be pleased to continue your Majesty's life and health, and those of Her Majesty the Queen, and that your Majesty may long be spared to rule over a loyal and united Empire.

May it please your Excellency:

The members of the thirtieth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, convened in the city of St. John, New Brunswick, in the month of June, nineteen hundred and four, beg to assure your Excellency of their continued loyalty to the person and throne of the King's most Excellent Majesty, under whose beneficent reign they enjoy the blessings of peace and prosperity, as well as of civil and religious liberty.
